Mrs. Sadie M. Patten, state director of Christian citizenship of the W. C. T. U. was the principal speaker at the district convention held at the Methodist church Friday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Patten, in an effort to make the public vote-conscious said "know your government, respect your government, know your leaders and most of all study the facts. Always cast your vote to show your interest and Christian citizenship rights."

Mrs. Bessie Leisner, of Petoskey, district president, was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Grace Williams of Petoskey, led the devotions.

Joyce Brecheisen of North Bay, Bronze medal contest winner of the W. C. T. U. oration contest, presented her oration. A cooperative banquet was given at the church dining room at 6:30 p. m. The highlight of the event was the attendance of twenty members of the local L. T. L. with their temperance songs.

More than 50 members were present with representatives from Cheboygan, Petoskey, Boyne City and Harbor Springs.

Permit Required for Burning Grass Now

Burning grass or brush outside the city requires a permit, Officer Ed Starback warns.

Failure to get one can bring a $25 to $100 fine. Last year six houses were lost in the county from grass fires. Obtaining permits and using care will prevent a repetition, he says.

Permits can be had by calling him at Boyne City, collect.

Ray Seymour to Open New Recreation Room

Ray Seymour is getting ready to open his new business establishment, Ray's Place, in the basement of the Shetler Building under the Post Office.

A recreation hall, he will have pool, billiards, card tables and cigars. He expects to have things ready by May 1. John Zeiler and James Woodward purchased the Arcade of him.

Surf Hotel Name of New Establishment

The Surf Hotel will be the name of the former R. E. Olds residence at 205 North Michigan avenue when it opens as a select hotel.

Purchased three weeks ago by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Briggs of Dearborn, they are cleaning and repairing now with hopes of being ready to open as a transient hotel by Monday.

This summer they expect to serve meals and operate as a hotel.

They formerly operated a restaurant at Dearborn.

Navy Unit Here April 24

Michigan's Naval Reserve Training Unit will revisit Charlevoix on Thursday, April 24, between 10:00 a. m. and 6:00 p. m. in the lobby of the Post Office to enroll veterans of the Army, Navy, Coast Guard and Marines, as well as former WAVES, into the streamlined inactive Naval Reserve.

Men's Clothing Store Is Sold, Sale Planned

Abbey's will be the name of Charlevoix's new men's and women's apparel shop.

Formerly Wilbers Mens Store, the business was purchased Monday afternoon by Leon M. Abbey of Flint and Mackinaw Island, where he has a summer home and a similar store. For 25 years he has operated a sporting goods store in Flint.

Associated with Abbey in the store will be one of his two sons, Lee Abbey, recently returned after a year and a half in the Air Corps.

First move planned by the new owners is a clearance sale, next week. Following that they plan to bring in new stocks of such standard lines as White Stag, Shanhouse and Merrill, continuing the McGregor goods carried by Wilbers. Women's sport wear will be added.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wilber, who have owned the store for a year and a half, are moving to Cara in the near future. Wayne, their son, is back with the Standard Accident Insurance Co. at Detroit.

Outlook Brighter At Ellsworth

Outlook for both farmers and workers around Ellsworth is much brighter as an end to the labor-management dispute there appears nearly at an end.

Last Thursday the members of Local 74, FTA-CIO, met. Afterwards the leaders reported to the Reid-Murdoch officials that the Local voted to go along with the company proposal in general but wished that small differences on several minor points could be ironed out.

Both parties will meet Thursday at 1 p. m. at the factory office to do this. There is a possibility that a contract with the Local may be signed at that time.

As soon as this is done, the company is ready to sign contracts with farmers for the summer crops needed to operate the cannery.

Band Leave Friday for Ann Arbor Festival

The Charlevoix High School band will leave by bus Friday morning for Ann Arbor to take part in the Band and Orchestra Festival.

Sixty-three bands and orchestras with 5,000 young musicians from all Michigan will participate in the Festival which runs from 8 a. m. until 9 p. m. Saturday.

Each band will play three numbers. Charlevoix's will be "Hosts of Freedom," "Argentina Overture" and "Triumph of Ishtar." Each organization also will sight read a march and an overture. Judges will place the band in one of five classes, excellent, above average, average, below average, poor.

Twelve bands are entered in Class C (schools with 250 or less). The Charlevoix group will stay at the Huron Hotel in Ypsilanti, and will play at the Slausson school in Ann Arbor at 11:15 a. m. Chaparones will be the director Clarence Omark, Mrs. Walter Bergeon and Mrs. Elmer Barber. The band will start back Saturday afternoon.

Franklin Ochs Back From Rexall Meeting

Franklin Ochs returned Friday night from Detroit and the three-day Rexall convention with the news that in 1947 the drug store customer will be receiving more for his money than in 1946. Top Rexall officials told the delegates this will be true because of increased production, more raw materials and more world trade will enable manufacturers to lower prices. Rexall druggists from Michigan, Ohio and Indiana attended.

Fire Chief Asks Folks To Ask for Inspection

Charles Marshall, fire chief, asks all citizens of Charlevoix to call him for a fire inspection if their chimney burns out or they are moving into a vacant house. The inspection costs nothing and can be the means of preventing a fire.

Trade Promotion Plan Will Be Offered April 25

First concrete program of trade promotion will be presented to the members of the Charlevoix Business Improvement Association when they meet March 25 at the K of P Hall.

Unlike the two previous sessions, this will not be a dinner meeting. Instead it will start at 7:30, business will be transacted and at the conclusion a light buffet lunch will be served.

The trade promotion program to be presented will be aimed at bringing more retail business to Charlevoix.

R. B. DeYoung Rites Thursday

Ellsworth—Funeral services for Richard B. DeYoung, 67, who died about midnight Monday at his farm home, five miles west of here in Mapleview community, after an illness of a year, will be held at 1:45 Thursday at the home and at 2 at Atwood Reformed church, with Rev. E. C. Dykstra, pastor of Barnard Reformed church, officiating.

Mr. DeYoung was born March 15, 1880 in the province of Friesland, The Netherlands, and came to the United States in 1888, settling in Fisher Station, near Grand Rapids, with his parents, Louke and Johanna Bethlehem DeYoung.

After a year the family moved to Forest Grove and in 1895 moved to this vicinity. Mr. DeYoung married Alice Vandenberg in 1901 and she died Feb. 19, 1938. At the time of death Mr. DeYoung was a member of Michigan State Welfare Commission, an elder of Atwood Reformed church, had been a member of the choir of the church for 25 years and a member of the male quartette for 20 years. He was a former Commissioner of the poor for Antrim county and a case worker for many years, and served several years as Supervisor of Banks township.

Surviving are three sons, John, Edward and Hans; three daughters, Mrs. Henry Wasmann, Mrs. Harvey Essenberg and Mrs. William J. Goeman and fourteen grandchildren, all of Banks township; a brother, Nicholas of Mapleview; and three sisters, Mrs. Gertie Docter of Ellsworth, Mrs. Jennie DeGroot of Muskegon, and Mrs. Nick Zylstra of Zeeland. Burial will be in Atwood cemetery.

The Charlevoix City Bowling League has announced that the Rod & Gun Club, winner of the first half, will meet the Charlevoix Courier team, winner of the second half, in a 9 game total pin roll-off to decide the League championship.

Bowling started Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. on the Charlevoix Recreation lanes.

This match was originally scheduled for April 9 but a postponement was necessitated due to illness among the participants.

250 County 4-H Members to Be Guests of City Friday

Charlevoix next Friday will be host to 250 members of the 4-H from all parts of Charlevoix county at the annual Achievement Day of the organization.

It will be held at the high school gym. Clubs and individuals will bring their exhibits here Thursday and will set them up for display, ready for the official opening the next morning.

At 10:30 a. m., all the 4-H members and their leaders will be invited to be guests of the Kiwanis Club at a complimentary movie at The Palace Theatre. The film will be "The Bowery," starring Wallace Berry.

The public is invited to inspect the articles made by the members and see the style review and program scheduled for 1:30 p. m.

In addition to articles made of wood, handicrafters will display a variety of articles made of plexiglass and Lucite. Some clubs will also display hand casting and painted plaster plaques. There will also be gump weavings.

Clothing club members will display dresses, suits, aprons, skirts, waists, towels, darts, accessories and neckties. Food preparation clubs will exhibit their muffins, cookies, and cakes.

A hot lunch will be served to members and parents in the hot lunch room.

Mrs. Victoria Neubert Rites Are Wednesday

Mrs. Victoria Neubert, 88, widow of the late Charles Neubert, died at the Charlevoix Hospital late Sunday evening following a long illness.

Mrs. Neubert, who was born in Boston, Mass., on Jan. 12, 1861 came to this community 41 years ago. Her husband, who operated a cigar manufacturing company here for many years, died about 20 years ago.

She is survived by two step-sons, Richard and Otto Neubert, both of Chicago. Funeral services were held at St. Mary's church at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery.

Easter Baby Gets Businessmen's Gifts

Clayton LeRoy Denny is the Easter baby who arrived at noon April 9.

Born at the Charlevoix Hospital he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Denny of Ellsworth, where his father is mechanic at the Reid, Murdoch plant. They have two other children.

Although Clayton LeRoy delegated the job to his father, being too busy sleeping to do it himself, he received the Easter gifts for the first Easter baby given by the Charlevoix merchants.

Loeb's Announce Daughter's Betrothal

The engagement of Miss Elizabeth Loeb, of Chicago to Joseph E. Nathan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nathan, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Loeb, of Highland Park and Charlevoix. The wedding will take place June 28.

Council Turns Down Request for License

Request for a resort license limited to eight months was turned down Monday night by the City Council.

The request came from Clifford Briggs for his Surf Hotel. The Council felt that more liquor outlets are not needed here.

Who Is To Blame?

I would like to know who is to blame for the mounting spiral of inflationary costs.

Last month President Truman asked business to lower prices. The best answer to his plea that I have seen comes from the president of the National Bakers Supply House Association, John Garrow. In an open letter he says that as far as the food industry is concerned, spiraling prices will come down when government meddling ends. He maintains that too much talk and too little action at the capital is the rule.

Government has taken controls off business but continues to subsidize the farmer, he says. Like Lincoln, he maintains that an economy half free and half slave won't work.

Two weeks ago I was talking with one of the largest buyers of steel products in Northern Michigan. The trouble as he sees it is the greed of the big manufacturing combines. Steel has advanced 50 percent since controls went off, small companies are being crushed out. The new top management is more interested in making money by monopolistic manipulation than by giving sound service and fair prices.

Last summer a Coast labor leader gave me labor's view. Mounting prices made more pay necessary. In many industries management was trying to grind out extra profits at the expense of human welfare. He cited the coal industry where by the law of averages, a man in ten years would be killed or seriously injured while working.

A former vice-president of one of the big motor companies this winter told how labor holds down production. The union signs a contract, the company pays the wages, then the men produce 20 or 30 or 50 percent less than they did before the war. No nation can be prosperous when men will not work.

There are four different explanations of the cause of our very real economic danger today. All are true, yet each gives only one part of the picture. One thing marks them all—Right through, greed is rampant. Men are more concerned with grabbing than with giving value.

The Nail On the Head

Fellow editor Guy Baker over at Boyne City had a lot of good sense in his column a couple weeks ago. Under the heading "What will the country do without Saturday night", he carried the following editorial:

A Big-City idler, the early closing of stores on Saturdays, is reaching out into the country towns and provoking warm discussion. The lullard small town is usually a trade and service center for the farm people who live around it. In planting and harvesting seasons farmers are often pressed for time, and Saturday night offers the only convenient time to do their shopping. By custom it has become a sort of social occasion also. Folks who live miles apart have a chance to meet and exchange news and gossip.

One protest at the manifestation of progress was recently voiced by the editor of the Appleton, Minnesota, Press in the following editorial:

"It is none of my business, perhaps but it seems to me that the merchants of the smaller communities and towns are taking a big chunk of pleasure out of life in their communities by heading into a program of closing their places of business on Saturday night. For local and rural residents, going into town on Saturday night is an institution of no long standing as the Saturday-night beth, and as beneficial to improved social relations. There isn't anything I can think of at the moment that does as much for keeping town and country contacts, which so many talk of as important, on a sound basis." Saturday Evening Post.

Pigs Need Dirt

Little-pig anemia is common when the pigs are confined on cement or wooden floors more than two weeks and are receiving only their mother's milk.

The external symptoms are paleness of the skin, lack of vigor, roughness of the hair coat, and later a loss of flesh. Many of the pigs with the ailment die, and recovery for survivors is slow, requiring 2 or 3 months.

It is not sufficient to feed the sow minerals to prevent the anemia in young pigs. Nature furnishes iron and copper in the soil eaten by the pigs—so it is a good idea to supply them with the needed soil. Put soil in the farrowing pens every few days as long as the pigs are kept inside, as an effective preventative.

You can get the minerals directly to the pigs by swabbing or spraying the sow's udder daily with a solution of 1/2 pound of copperas (ferrous sulphate) in one quart of water.

Find Way to Clean 2-4-D Sprayer

Sprayers that have been used for the new weed-killer 2-4-D can be cleaned so that spray equipment will be ready for other uses.

Mix one part of ammonia to 100 parts of hot water (1/2 cup ammonia to 2 gallons of water). Fill the metal equipment completely full of the solution and soak for 18 to 24 hours. For a larger tank using cold water, let the equipment soak for 48 to 72 hours. All parts should be rinsed thoroughly after soaking. The sprayer is then ready for other uses.

Michigan Guards Against the Late Tomato Blight

Late tomato blight, which caused damage to the tomato crop in many parts of the country last year, is being guarded against in Michigan this year.

L. Carl Knorr, plant pathologist at Michigan State college, says that central Michigan escaped serious damage last year due to the drought conditions. However, in southern Michigan, many fields were badly affected.

In northern states, the fungus which causes the blight lives over winter in potato tubers and in tomato plants in greenhouses. Wind and rain then carry the spores of the fungus to the plants in gardens and tomato fields. Cool, wet weather, causes the blight to spread rapidly.

The Plant Disease Survey of the U. S. Department of Agriculture has set up a warning service this year to protect tomato growers. Cooperators in 32 states will gather information on the earliest occurrences and progress of the blight. These reports will then be assembled and spraying recommendations and control measures issued.

Guard Young Chickens Against Disease

The danger of disease in chicks is always prevalent. Coccidiosis usually affects chicks from 4 to 12 weeks of age, but may come before that time. One of the new sulfa drugs, sulfaguanidine is being used in its control.

You can help to prevent coccidiosis by putting all waterers on wire stands and by not allowing any pools of stagnant water on the pullet range.

Arend DeYoungs Will Have 53d Anniversary

Ellsworth—Next Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Arend DeYoung, who live on Charlevoix, Rt. 1 in the Bentley Hill community, will observe their fifty-third wedding anniversary.

Their romance started in The Netherlands, where both were born, but they were married April 24, 1894 at Jamestown, Mich.

Both are members of Barnard Reformed church and have lived in this vicinity since 1895. Mr. DeYoung, 81, was born Oct. 9, 1865 and his wife, the former Hendrikje Telgenhof, 87, was born Nov. 17, 1859. They have a daughter, Mrs. Henry Potter on Charlevoix, Rt. 2; 11 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. A daughter, Mrs. Thomas Klooster, died Feb. 10, 1946.

Attend Tourist Meeting. S. E. Coleman, secretary of the local Board of Commerce, was in Grand Rapids Thursday and Friday for the Spring meeting of the West Michigan Resort and Tourist Association. The organization is celebrating its 30th anniversary. The meetings were held at the Rowe Hotel.

Goes to Dental Session. Dr. F. W. Young left Saturday for Detroit to attend a meeting of the Michigan Dental Society, being held there this week. He was accompanied by his daughter, Martha, who will visit relatives for several days. They plan to return Thursday.

Diplomatic Hotbeds

WHAT'S COOKING

TO THE TOWN'S TASTE

Kneeling
God meant that we should kneel to do
The things that make life good—
To bathe the baby in his tub,
To polish fragrant wood,
To light a fire on the hearth
To tend a flower bed—
God didn't make us reach for these,
He made us kneel instead.

Household Hints
To prevent molasses from sticking to the cup when measuring it for baking, dip the cup in cornstarch before putting in the molasses.

To keep left-over weiners (hot dogs) from becoming tough, shrunken and dried, put them in a glass jar as soon as they are taken from the hot water. Screw the lid down tightly and they will retain their original tenderness.

A good topping for pumpkin pie is made by adding one-fourth cup of cottage cheese to a cup of whipped cream. If one prefers a dash of cinnamon and a little brown sugar can be added to the whipped cream instead of the cottage cheese.

A delicious form of Russian dressing is made by stewing together and putting through a sieve an onion, a green pepper and tomato and adding to mayonnaise.

I was at the home of Mrs. Louis Orlovski the other day and got a recipe that is one of her favorites, which might be termed a "knockout" as food goes:

Lattice Coffee Cake
Cream 1/2 cup shortening with 1/4 cup sugar until light. Add one egg well beaten. Mix well. Add 2 cups flour, 1 tablespoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, alternately with 1/2 cup milk, mixing well after each addition. Spread 2/3 dough on a 7"x11" pan and cover with your favorite marmalade, or jam. Roll remaining dough on a floured cloth, about 1/4" thick. Cut in strips and arrange crisscross fashion over the marmalade. Bake in moderate oven for 30 minutes. Makes about 8 servings.

Then, I have two more rules that Mrs. Orlovski makes in her kitchen. If you are a pie lover you will enjoy these too.

Angel Pie
1 cup water
1 cup crushed pineapple
1 cup sugar
2 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
Cook until thick and when cooled, fold in three egg-whites beaten very stiff. Turn into a baked pie shell. Top with whipped cream and sprinkle with ground nut meats.

Mrs. Orlovski makes the cook-mixture and lets stand overnight, adding the stiffly beaten egg whites the next day. It will be a never fail pie if one does this.

With dates back on the market again, this is a dessert that you will repeat:

Date Pie
Cook and let cool the following ingredients:
1 cup dates, cut fine
3/4 cup brown sugar
2 1/2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons butter
1 1/2 cups water
Add 1/2 cup nutmeats chopped fine, 1 teaspoon vanilla or lemon extract and a pinch of salt.
Pour in a baked pie shell and top with meringue frosting, or whipped cream.

Sorry, But Letters Must Be Signed

This week an anonymous letter came to the editor, with the request that it be printed.

Unfortunately this cannot be done. The letter expressed the honest views of the writer and as such The Courier would be most glad to print them. If the writer had signed his or her name.

But no editor dares establish a policy of printing anonymous letters. He need never reveal the identity of the writer in print, but for his own protection he must know who is expressing an opinion through his columns.

If the writer in this case will come to the office and sign the letter, The Courier will be glad to print it. L. E. TOWE.

Orchid From Hawaii Gift of Grandson

An orchid for Easter is a thrill for anyone but when that orchid comes all the way from Hawaii it really means something.

That is what happened to Mrs. Harry Elzinga who received an unexpected package containing a beautiful orchid corsage from her grandson, Pfc. Harrison Elzinga, who is stationed at Hilo, Hawaii, with a Marine Fighter Squadron.

The flower was mailed from the Island and arrived here in time. Pfc. Elzinga who served in China for a year has been in Hawaii since Feb. 8.

THE HOME REPAIR PROBLEM

MANY home owners face this dilemma. Their homes need repairs, but the costs of labor and material have gone beyond their reach. We offer these suggestions: 1. Select the really important repairs; 2. Get competitive prices; 3. Finance the repairs with a low-cost bank loan and repay monthly from income. Get the facts.

Sixth Graders Have Habit Even the sixth graders have the Charlevoix habit. Challenged by the East Jordan sixth grade to a basketball game, the Charlevoix boys Friday won 26 to 9 according to Coach Kay Kipke.

Staley Hardware Is 20 Years Old

An anniversary which slipped by unobserved was last March 20.

The Staley Hardware Co., could have celebrated its 20th birthday then. For 15 years Bert Staley worked for the Charlevoix Hardware Co. Then on March 20, 1927, he opened his own store where Wilbers now is. A year and a half later he moved to the present location in the new Novak building.

That structure has an enviable record. Three firms all moved in there. All three, Bergeon, the A & P, and Staley, still occupy the same stores.

Census Bureau Will Make Survey Here

During April some 50 to 100 households in the Charlevoix area will be interviewed by the Bureau of the Census in making a survey on population, labor force and housing.

In place of visiting every home, a small but representative group is interviewed. Experience has shown that sufficiently accurate figures can be achieved this way at a fraction of the cost of a complete census.

The 1947 survey is to get information on population trends, labor available and how housing is coming along.

Sportsmen's Club Plans Dam Repair

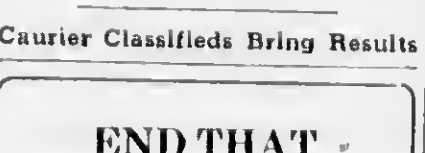

Repair of the Burns dam on McGeagh Creek is planned as its first project by the again active Sportsmen's Club.

Meeting April 4, the club elected Roy Ranger president; John Nordrum, vice-president; C. F. Wood, secretary; and Harley Ochs, treasurer. C. Y. Marshall and Earl Miller are directors.

During the war, the Burns dam was washed out. Before that the pond formed by it had been stocked with German Browns and had become an excellent trout spot. The club plans to have the dam repaired and if necessary to try to restock the stream.

'twas Whiteman Team That Fell In Channel

That team which fell into the channel by the Argo mill some 45 or 50 years ago belonged to Bert Whiteman of Hayes Township.

Mrs. Henry Hair called The Courier Saturday and said she thought it was the Whiteman team. A call to Mrs. Otto Kane, niece of the Whitemans, confirmed the fact. Mrs. Whiteman is still living in Hayes township.

Charlevoix Girl Busy With Varied Program of Teaching

A few more hours in the day would be welcomed by Mrs. Harold Pomeroy, the former Mary Willis of this city, for her physical education work in the Fort Collins, Colo., high school.

According to several articles she has sent to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willis, her schedule is packed.

Along with the regular girls' gym classes which will include golf, tennis and archery when the weather permits she is in charge of a noon recreation in which from 300 to 600 students participate daily. Featured in this special program are square dancing, pingpong, basketball, checkers and other games.

She now has plans underway for a girls swimming club. Earlier in the year she initiated a riding club and is now taking registrations for a summer riding club which will be a part of the city recreational program.

In addition to her regular work, she also assists in the teaching of safety in driving to her girls' gym classes. This is an added feature in the schools there this year.

She has found time to assist in the writing and presentation of the 'GAA Co-op', the 1947 Follies production by the Girls Athletic Association, which she sponsors.

Mary likes everything in the line of sports, as her friends here will recall, but in her teaching she stresses individual sports such as swimming, tennis, fishing and sailing—things students will enjoy after leaving school.

Mary who joined the Fort Collins high school staff last fall is a graduate of the local high school, attended Michigan State, Colorado A & M and the University of Minnesota. She is active in faculty organizations besides sponsoring a Girl Scout troop. She is married to Harold Pomeroy, a Marine veteran of World War II who at the present time is a junior in veterinary medicine at Colorado A & M. Their daughter, Nancy, is with her grandparents here, but will join her parents late this spring.

Chuck Powell is driving a new taxi these days. Monday he took delivery on a new four door Packard sedan. It is red instead of gray like the other one.

Supervisors Explain About Ironton Ferry

Many citizens do not understand the winter situation at the Ironton Ferry, according to the Board of Supervisors.

The ferry is operated by the county, not the Highway Commission, and is run solely as an accommodation. Its employees are paid for ten months work on a 12 months basis, the ten months usually meaning an extra 20 to 30 days required to overhaul the boat each winter.

Neither the county nor the Highway Commission can maintain a road across the ice. If either did, it thereby would be liable if a car broke through, and could be sued. If the public wishes to drive across the ice, say the Supervisors, it is the public's privilege; but no county employee should be asked or can be allowed to help maintain a road across.

Tuesday the ferry was tied up undergoing the required Federal inspection.

Hayes Farm Bureau Hears McGhan Talk

Ham, homemade rolls and plenty of pie featured the banquet of the Hayes Farm Bureau at the meeting April 10 in the Hayes township hall.

Although the dinner was a potluck, the ham was supplied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paquette. An Easter lily presented by Mrs. Tripp, tapers, pussy willows decorated the tables.

Clare McGhan, district field worker, spoke on Farm Bureau work and finances.

The next meeting is May 8 at the Amundson Evers home.

Island Logs Million Feet

Close to a million feet of logs have been cut on Beaver Island this winter and will be made into lumber by July 1 it is expected.

Major part of the cut was the Hanley-Allen operation owned by Mrs. Joe Hanley and Henry Allen. They have about 700,000 feet of logs piled west of Sand Bay. Truman Ramsey was in charge of the logging. Sawing will be done by James Carpenter with his portable mill and by Gus Mielke at his mill in St. James.

The Wojans—Tony, Walter and Ted—plan to move machinery in to St. James and will put up a mill directly ahead of the main docks.

Lloyd and Lawrence McDonough have been logging this winter in the south part of the island with the Art Tait Lodge as their camp headquarters. They, with the Wojans have about 350,000 feet of logs ready to saw.

A fourth lumber operation is that of Captain Brown, owner of the Rambler. On leased land south of St. James he has cut and piled some 11,000 cedar posts and poles this winter. Sons will go for fence posts. A lot are 8 foot sticks for sawing into log house siding. There also are some 20 and 30 foot rafters. Much of the peeling and hauling still remains to be done.

Brown has spent part of the winter overhauling the Rambler and as soon as navigation opens, he expects to start hauling poles and lumber to Boyne City for loading on cars.

Actual Battle Films To Be Shown by VFW

The Veterans of Foreign Wars will show movies of actual battle scenes at their hall Thursday evening.

Following the movies will be music and dancing. All veterans, their wives and friends are invited.

Anyone having an overseas veteran buried in the local cemetery may obtain a grave marker by contacting the V. F. W. chaplain, Paul Kullander.

Foxes, Coyotes To Be Very Busy Next Winter

Foxes and coyotes over on Beaver Island are in for a bad time next winter if present plans hold good.

Fox hunters over there expect to do three things: have an excellent pack of hounds, get rid of a lot of pests, and have themselves a lot of fun.

First off, the island is fairly overrun with foxes and coyotes. It was a rare day this past winter according to Fr. Fabian Keenan, when a fresh track couldn't be found within a few minutes after starting out.

Next, there are several quality hounds to serve as a nucleus of a pack. They belong to Edwin McCann, Bruce McDonough, Fr. Keenan, Karl Kuebler. The latter is the conservation officer on the island and is caring for the dogs, helping train them, and is pushing plans to get rid of a lot of the pests.

This last year nine foxes and one coyote were caught by the small pack of young, inexperienced dogs. In addition, Kuebler trapped seven foxes and six coyotes.

The foxes, along with those cows, have made chicken raising a risky business according to St. James folks. Coyotes have done the same for sheep farming. Scarcity of rabbits is laid to both animals.

New 4-H Club Formed At Sunnyside School

Starting with ten members, Beaver Island has a new 4-H club at Sunnyside School.

First meeting was last Wednesday. Officers are Kenneth Rickers, president; Richard O'Donnell, vice-president; Henry Dubiel, secretary; Robert Bonner, assistant secretary; Mary Bonner, treasurer.

Other members are Ronald O'Donnell, Donald McCafferty, Peter Greene, Thelma Schmidt and Ladonis Mooney. Advisor is Mrs. Elizabeth Wood, teacher at Sunnyside. Meetings are every Friday afternoon.

Projects planned for the summer include calves, gardens, rabbits and sheep.

Four Go to S. P. E. B. Sing The fourth annual Great Lakes Invitational of the SPEBSQSA was held in Grand Rapids over the week-end, with outstanding quartettes from the Middle West taking part. Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Saltonstall, Dr. D. C. Nettleton and Henry Ingalls attended the event.

Beaver Island Gets Ready for Summer

With spring here, Beaver Island is getting ready for the coming season.

First event will be the start of the perch season. Boat owners are overhauling equipment and Fred Spaulding is cleaning and preparing the King Strang hotel which has been closed all winter. The Spaulding family spent the winter at their home overlooking the lake.

Students and teachers at the school are making plans for the two major Juns events: the Junior-Senior banquet and the graduation.

Lester Connaghan is building a barge to carry a pile driver which he plans to operate this summer.

Fred Korhase has five horses which he will use this summer as a riding stable.

Big event of the entire summer will be the annual homecoming. It will be Aug. 10.

Last Thursday Mike Cull in his fishing tug plowed a channel from the Coast Guard station across the harbor in the main dock, officially opening St. James to navigation.

Monday the North Shore made the first trip of the season with the winter's collection of miscellaneous freight.

Island Party Observes Three Birthdays

A three-person birthday party was given last Sunday at the home of Dr. Russell Palmer at St. James.

Honored were Mrs. Joe Hanley, Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Walter Wojan, whose birthdays all occurred that week. Due to the flu which has been prevalent on Beaver Island, Mrs. Wojan had to miss the party.

Birthday cake and punch were the refreshments; cards and gifts were exchanged. The Ladies Choir members sang three songs.

Those present were Mrs. Hanley, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cull, James Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller, Dick LaFreniere, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McDonough, Mrs. Edward McCann, and Dr. and Mrs. Palmer.

Mail Award to Be Announced May 1

Winner of the mail carrying contract between Beaver Island and Charlevoix will be announced May 1, according to Postmaster Joseph Foster.

Three bids were entered here, he says. Folks on Beaver Island say that at least two bids have been filed by ship owners from other places; both men having craft more than 100 feet long.

Foster says that all bids are considered, regardless of the amount. Bidding closed April 1, the 30-day period before May 1 being used by the Postoffice Department for investigating the bidders and their equipment. The award goes to the one whom the department believes will give the best service, and has the most suitable equipment, not necessarily to the low bidder.

Harry F. Wiggins Rites Are In Chicago

Funeral services for Harry F. Wiggins who died in Chicago late last week, were held in that city at 3 p. m. Monday under the auspices of the A. F. & A. M.

Mr. Wiggins, who is well-known here and on Beaver Island, is survived by his wife and three children, Cynthia, Kathleen and Harry.

Juniors, Seniors Will Attend Career Day

All Charlevoix juniors and seniors will go to Petoskey April 25 to the first post-war Career Day held in this section.

Planned for vocational guidance, the students will hear speakers from Lansing outline the day's program, then will sit in on intensive discussions of three lines of work. Some 25 vocations will be presented, the student choosing three from these.

This is the first time the juniors have been invited. Schools attending will be Pellston, East Jordan, Harbor Springs, Boyne City, Boyne Falls and Charlevoix.

17 War Veterans Seek Work Here

Seventeen physically handicapped war veterans in the Charlevoix area are looking for jobs to earn a living.

According to the Veterans Employment Service all have registered with the State Employment Service, which has a complete appraisal of their skills, knowledge and abilities.

Ever since the physically handicapped veteran was tried in war plants, he has been making a superior record as a worker. The Employment Service is asking Charlevoix employers to try these 17 in whatever suitable jobs there are.

Ironton Farm Bureau

The Ironton Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jones Wednesday evening with 21 members and 3 visitors.

Albert Carlson acted as chairman. Discussion, led by Oakley Saunders, was "How Can Farm Accidents Be Reduced." A few suggestions were: Educating a man where the danger lies; properly used machinery; don't trust a gentle bull; don't get in too big a hurry doing a job; be careful with gasoline and kerosene; don't leave a loaded gun laying around.

The turkey association and the Dairy association also were discussed.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Brock May 14.

Jean Card, Walter Henley Wed Here

Miss Jean Lorraine Card, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis C. Card, Jr., of Petoskey, became the bride of Walter Henley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henley, Sr., of this city, at a double ring ceremony performed before the Blessed Virgin altar in St. Mary's church here at 11:30 Monday morning.

Rev. Leo Zeilinski read the service in the presence of their immediate families and friends before the altar which was decorated with bouquets of white snapdragons and pink carnations and white tapers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of white wool challis fashioned with a high neckline, short sleeves and a long full skirt. She wore long white gloves and a handkerchief of white flowers. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and a white prayer book.

Miss Marilyn Card, sister of the bride and her only attendant, wore a gown of yellow challis made with a Peter Pan collar, bracelet length sleeves and a full skirt. Her flowers were a Colonial bouquet of yellow roses.

Bruce Henley assisted his brother as best man. Mrs. Card chose a black ensemble with matching accessories, a pink hat and a corsage of deep pink roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Henley, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a gray and yellow print dress with navy accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the American Legion hall. The refreshment table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature dove. Bouquets of snapdragons and carnations in pastel shades and white tapers decorated the table.

After a wedding trip through the Upper Peninsula, the couple will make their home here. For traveling the bride wore a green suit with black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of the Petoskey high school. The bridegroom, a navy veteran of World War II, attended the local high school.

A Great Bunch
—Those Ex-G.I.'s

Willie Wells and a bunch of the boys from our town went to Fland Ridge Saturday to a reunion of their old regiment.

There were about two hundred and fifty boys who came from miles around to a good old feast in Farmer Collins' barn. I expect they seemed a lot different to each other out of uniform. But they had a great time, spinning yarns, drinking beer, and talking over the old times in South Africa and Italy and the Aleutians.

I went over to cover the meeting for the Clarion, and one thing that sure impressed me was the good behavior of those boys—their preference for a moderate beverage like beer—their friendly spirit.

From where I sit, our ex-G.I.'s are making as good a showing in peacetime as they made during the war. And they're setting a mighty good example to the rest of us—in tolerance, and moderation, and good fellowship.

Cancer Drive Goal Is $750 For Charlevoix

One out of every two families in Charlevoix county will be stricken by cancer.

That was the warning sounded this week by Mrs. Gordon Freedman, campaign chairman for the city, in the organization's all-out drive to raise $750 to fight the deadly enemy.

Charlevoix's quota is a small part of the $12 million the American Cancer Society is attempting to raise this year to spread knowledge everywhere of the danger signals of cancer; to provide more and better service to cancer victims and to expand widely the scientific research attack which will lead to more effective treatment and possibly eventual conquest of cancer.

50% of the funds raised will remain in the county to carry on an extensive education program and to aid persons who are already suffering from the disease; 10% will be used by the state for education and clinics; 25% for national research; 9% for national educational program and 6% for administration and fund raising.

When a field worker approaches you to ask for a contribution, remember that 1 out of 8 will die of cancer.

Mrs. Fredman has named the following workers who will solicit in the valley and the south side: Mrs. Glenn Krohn, Mrs. Ted Foster, Mrs. Earl A. Young, Mrs. Harley Ochs, Mrs. Glenn See, Mrs. J. C. Marshall, Mrs. Arthur Wexstaff, Mrs. E. J. Hiller, Mrs. S. E. Coleman, Mrs. Leslie Everts, Mrs. Kit Carson, Mrs. Charles Hamlin, Mrs. Don Lash, Mrs. Walter Bergeon, Mrs. Albert Cook, Mrs. Thomas Gloster, Mrs. Leo Allard, Mrs. E. J. Edwards, Mrs. F. E. Cartier, Mrs. W. H. Wallace, Mrs. Elmer Poole, Mrs. Arthur Edwards, Mrs. Don Swinton, Mrs. Lota Coulter, Mrs. George Priest and Miss Anne Higman.

Workers for the north side will be named later.

Mrs. Freedman also reported Tuesday that Mrs. A. Keiffer, of Cincinnati, Ohio who is spending several days here on business, gave a generous contribution to the local drive. Any summer resident desiring to make a contribution may send the check to Mrs. Gordon Freedman, City Campaign chairman, Charlevoix, Michigan.

Doing An Excellent Job

Under unusual and difficult conditions, a group of faithful women over on Beaver Island are giving a public service which merits more recognition than they are likely to receive.

They are school teachers on the island. Five of them are Dominican Sisters. The sixth is Mrs. Elizabeth Wood, teacher at Sunnyside school and organizer of the new 4-H club there.

Two factors combine to make the educational job on the island unusual and difficult. First, it is isolated except by plane for three to four months a year; and for the rest of the year separated by 30 miles of water. Thus, it has to have an unusually self-sufficient and self-reliant school staff and system.

Secondly, the island is not a rich district. With fishing and the tourist business supplying most of its steady income, its 350 residents cannot afford fine buildings, or a large staff.

Luckily two sources of aid combine to give it a good school. They are the state school funds and the Dominican order. Without both, the island likely could not have a graded school or offer much beyond the eighth grade.

This combining of a religious order with a state supported school, I suppose, may not be according to the strictest and narrowest interpretation of state school law. But after all, the purpose of the school law is to provide the best possible education for the children. On an island which is predominately Catholic, and where the Protestants from all evidence are satisfied with the way the teaching is done, it would seem the part of wisdom to carry on with a system which is doing a fine job under considerable handicaps.

An unusual situation calls for an unusual solution. Beaver Island has both in its schools. After all, the test of any institution is how it works. That the island children are being well trained there is no question.

A Salute to the Small Town

Not often does the big city figuratively tip its hat to the small town. But on April 11, the editor of the Fort Worth Press did so in a front page editorial.

Parts of it are given below. Omitted is more than half the editorial, a half which praises the editor rather than his home town:

"We are hosts in Fort Worth today and until Sunday to members of the National Editorial Assn., the small town newspaper editors of America.

Some of them are from towns you've never heard of, yet, just the same, they are distinguished men and women... distinguished because they represent more nearly than any people I know, the democracy that has made our nation great and keeps it great.

No man in America knows the pulse of the nation like the small town newspaper editor. No man knows better what ails America.

And no man knows better how to fight the isms that would destroy America... and no man in America has done a better job of doing just that.

In these towns, you'll find the thinking clearer than it is in any city in the United States.

You'll find the people are saner, their democracy stronger, and their vision less clouded by trivial things.

No group served the nation any more energetically and intelligently during the war than these small town editors.

That is true because they do the same job in peacetime, because that's the kind of pattern which is the heritage of their profession, and because it just comes naturally!

Individually, they are the driving force of their communities. Collectively, they are the driving force of the nation.

For their voice is in truth the voice of democracy, of the American way of life... and it is a Christian, God-fearing voice.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"As Homelike As a Barn"

Cy Hartman finally got his new barn painted, but plenty of folks had a hand in it. Whenever someone got a free day, or a little extra time, they'd come over and help out with paint and brush.

And Cy, to show his appreciation, held a big "barn warming" Saturday—for all the folks who'd helped him (but not barring those who couldn't). Ma Hartman supplied sandwiches, and Cy rolled out a mellow keg of beer.

You'd never think of a barn as "homelike." But with those lanterns hanging from the rafters; makeshift tables spread heavy with food; and Ed Carey's fiddle playing while the folks enjoyed their beer—Cy's barn was sure a mighty hospitable-looking place!

From where I sit, it's just about as appropriate to have a barn warming as a housewarming... If only because it's another chance to get neighbors together in a spirit of good fellowship.

Jess Smith Reports On Hoopskirt Alley

Jess Smith has been doing some research on Hoopskirt Alley, after reading the paragraph in the About Town column, and dropped in to report that he doesn't know for sure where it was.

He is sure that in the late 70's Stockman & Norris, hardware merchants, put up a building on the corner of the alley and Bridge street. A year later they erected the first brick building in Charlevoix. It was across from the Central Drug Store and occupied by the Min-Eva when it burned. But he does not know where the earlier and wooden structure was.

Old Forecast Proves Wrong

The following is a clipping found recently in a box of newspaper clippings by Mrs. Fred Bergmann. The article had been saved by her mother, Mrs. George W. Cook.

"G. W. Cook has a lad in his employ who is cut out for a liverlyman and bus driver. He has the art of stowing people away in small compass down fine. The other day he drove to Agate bay and took as passengers in a single spiral spring buggy five adults and three children returning safely without a mishap. His name is George Emery, the 12 year old son of Reed Emery."

What a disappointment Mr. Cook suffered for the 'lad' turned out to be a sailor and retired only a few years ago after serving as an engineer on Great Lakes freighters for many years.

Five Attend State Gideon Convention

The Michigan State Gideon convention was held in Traverse City on April 17-19.

Friday evening Dr. David O. Fuller, pastor of the Wealthy St. Baptist church, Grand Rapids, spoke on the topic "Personal Soul Winning." Rev. Muller, International President and R. DePree, State president of the Gideons, were also on the program. A banquet was held on Saturday evening with more than 300 members and guests present.

On Friday evening, Rev. W. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Timmer and Mr. and Mrs. Milo Wakefield attended the mass meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield attended the banquet on Saturday evening.

The Hot Stove League

WHAT'S COOKING TO THE TOWN'S TASTE.

Before Mrs. Editor left, she arranged for some help on the Recipe column. This week's recipe:

Vagabond Puree Soup

3 cups water
1 small can tomatoes
1 stalk celery—cut up
1/2 cup carrots—cut up
1/2 cup peas—fresh or canned
4 small onions
Minced parsley
1 bay leaf, pepper and salt

Let all simmer very slowly in covered kettle for two hours. Add a little more water if necessary. Rub through a sieve and add 1 cup cream, spoonful butter and stir together.

A half teaspoon of whipped cream may be put on top of each bowl when ready to serve.

Shepherd's Pie

Cut the remains of any cold roast into small pieces and place in a baking dish.

Slice 1/4 of a Spanish onion finely on top and add 2 tomatoes, cut very small. Salt and pepper, 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce. Pour over this about a half cup of meat juice or dissolve a bouillon cube. Place in oven uncovered for about 15 minutes, take out and fill dish with mashed potatoes, place few thin slices of onion on top, butter and return to oven for 1/2 hour to brown nicely.

Chicken Rolls

2 cups cold finely diced chicken
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup hot milk and cream or chicken broth
2 egg yolks
1 tablespoon minced parsley
1 tablespoon grated onion
Few grains ginger
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
Salt and pepper.

Brown butter, add flour and brown again and add liquid. Cook until thick, add to chicken with seasoning. Cook over hot water for two minutes. Cool.

Roll rich pie dough one-eighth inch thick, cut in squares, spread with chicken mixture and roll, pinch ends together and place in a greased pan. Brush with egg yolk diluted with 2 tablespoons cream and bake for 30 minutes in hot oven. Serve with mushroom sauce.

Sauce
Peel and slice one lb. fresh mushrooms. Sauté in butter, add 1 cup cream and 1/2 cup milk.

mixed with 2 tablespoons flour. Cook until smooth and creamy. Season, salt, paprika and sherry wine.

Oatmeal Cookies

2 cups brown sugar and 1/2 cup shortening, creamed.
3 eggs, beaten and added to first mixture.
Add oatmeal
1 cup raisins, 2 cups water—bring to a boil and cool.
2 cups quick oatmeal
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon allspice
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon salt

Sift flour and spices and add alternately with the raisins and liquid with 1 teaspoon soda added. Drop on cookie sheet, sprinkle with sugar and bake.

Macaroni Sauce

1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 teaspoons dry mustard
1/2 cup milk
1 cup grated cheese
3 cups hot cooked macaroni
6 frankfurters
1 tablespoon minced parsley
Place mayonnaise, mustard, salt, and pepper in top double boiler, gradually add milk stirring after each addition until smooth. Add minced parsley, garnish with macaroni, and about 4 frankfurters sliced thin. Cook over hot water until thoroughly heated. Add minced parsley, garnish with frankfurters which have been sliced and sautéed in butter.

Mrs. Bellinger, Mrs. Ladd
Honored by O. E. S. Groups

Charlevoix Chapter, No. 72, O. E. S. was hostess to members of Evangeline Chapter of Boyne City and Mark Chapter of East Jordan at the regular meeting in the Masonic Temple last Wednesday.

After the meeting was opened in regular form by Worthy Matron Marjorie Coleman and her officers, Mrs. Alice Bellinger, Grand Adahi, was escorted to the East and presented with a four leaf clover corsage made up of currency.

Twenty-three members wearing green crepe paper capes formed a four leaf clover around the altar while the presentation was made with an appropriate verse by Conductress Lyla Arvilla.

Mrs. May Ladd, who is leaving to become superintendent of the Eastern Star Villa at Adrian, was escorted to the East and presented with gift from the Chapter. In addition, both Mrs. Bellinger and Mrs. Ladd received gifts from the visiting chapters and the Meguzee Association.

At the close of the meeting a short program was presented by a committee composed of Dorothy See, Laura Courter and Mildred Webster. Refreshments were served to 110 members and guests in the dining room at tables decorated with green and white paper and candles. The committee in charge was Helen Cook, Wilma Smith, Ella Fochtman, Lillis Flanders, Mildred Hiller and Joan Bice.

Auxiliary Poppy
Sale to Be In May

The American Legion Auxiliary met with Mrs. Harry Glossenger Monday evening with 18 members present.

At the business meeting $5 was voted to the Red Cross and the Cancer Fund drive and $5.85 in clothing sent to the Children's Billet at Otter Lake. Plans were completed for the annual Poppy sale to be held on May 22, 23 or 24.

The occasion was also the birthday party at which the name of Auxiliary friends were revealed and names drawn for another year. A large lighted birthday cake was a feature of the refreshments.

The next meeting will be a 6:30 dinner for the bowling team at the Legion Hall May 19.

New Leaders Named For Girl Scouts

Girl Scout Troop No. 1 met at the club room in the city hall on Thursday.

Plans were started for the annual camping trip which the Scouts plan to take early in June. Mrs. Leroy Allers, Mrs. Jack Reed and Mrs. George Roff will be in charge of the troop replacing Mrs. Harry Ladd, who has gone to Adrian to live. Mrs. Allers plans to go to Beaver Island to examine camp sites there.

SO SAYS SUSAN...

The boss came out to the barn the other evening after some company had left and stood looking at me for a long time. Finally he said:

"Susan, you're a wonder. You not only give food that's the best there is for kids and their parents, but now they're using your cream to prevent ulcers."

I don't know what ulcers are but this doctor friend who'd been there had been telling the boss that it had been discovered that folks who drink lots of coffee stand a 40 percent better chance of not having ulcers if they use plenty of cream with the coffee, especially if it's the rich, pure cream like Maxbauer's Dairy supplies to Charlevoix folks.

Ellsworth Seniors Will Give Play Friday, Saturday

"The Daffy Dills," is the title of the three act comedy now being rehearsed by the seniors of the Ellsworth High School and to be presented by them this Friday and Saturday nights.

The play will be given at the Ellsworth Community Hall starting at 8 p. m.

The plot concerns the doing of a fantastic family named the Dills. The cast is:

Richard Dill, Ted Essenberg, Carol Dill, Jeannette Hennip, Rodney Dill, Gilbert Klooster, Doris Dill, Esther Johnson, Dudley Dill, Mike Edson, Grandmother Dill, Rosa Ross, Maude Maddox, Audrey Swain, Elaine Escott, Flora Venstra, Barbara Williams.

Almea Lovewell, Shirlee Cutter, Pete Norton, Bill Patterson, Widow Woggles, Alma Powell, Arnie Jukes, Phyllis Huntley.

A royalty play, it is being coached by Supt. H. M. Fickie. The proceeds of the two night performance are to be used toward the senior class trip, which the graduates hope will be to Niagara or Washington.

Mrs. Harry Foster Heads Shakespeareans

Mrs. Don Swinton, retiring president of the Shakespeare club entertained the members at a business tea at her home last week. She was assisted by the other officers, Mrs. Harry Foster and Mrs. Edward K. Shanahan.

At the business session, Mrs. Foster was elected president for the ensuing year to succeed Mrs. Swinton. Mrs. George Haggard was named vice-president and Mrs. Charles Hamlin, secretary-treasurer.

The tea table was tastefully decorated in the club colors, purple and gold with a centerpiece of forsythia and Japanese iris and lighted yellow tapers. Mrs. Hamlin and Mrs. Haggard presided.

Club activities will be resumed in September.

Oat Blight
The new oat disease, Haiminthe sporum, called "New Blight of Oats" or the "96 disease" has not been observed in Michigan. However, seed stocks of oats brought into the state may possibly carry the fungus causing the disease.

If a grower discovers the disease in his field, there is nothing he can do. The time to prevent loss from the disease is before planting. There are two courses open to the grower. First, he can grow resistant varieties, and second, he can treat his seed.

Resistant varieties are the best method. Varieties with Victoria or Richland crosses are susceptible to the disease. These include Vicland, Boon, Tama, Cedar, Letoria and Fultex.

Only varieties that do not have Victoria or Richland blood are resistant. Therefore, the varieties that will protect the grower by being resistant are the Bond Crosses, Clinton, Marion, Eaton, Ithacan and Cornelian.

Seed treatment, the other method of controlling "96", has proved satisfactory. The recommended method is 1/2 ounce of new improved Ceresan per bushel of oats. This is the same treatment that will also control several other oat diseases appearing in Michigan, including loose smut, covered smut, scab, and the seedling blight stage of the old Helminthosporium leaf spot.

Tomato Blight
Now is the time to start thinking about this year's control of late blight on tomatoes. Losses from this disease last year were extremely serious in the eastern and midwestern states and in southern Michigan.

This year, the disease has been reported in excessive amounts in the South—and this means that the fungus will be imported into Michigan along with southern-grown seedlings. Weather conditions will be the deciding factor in whether or not the fungus becomes established in Michigan fields. Wet weather aids the spread—dry season retard it—as was the case last summer in Michigan.

Farmers should insure their crops against late blight by spraying and dusting. Thirty days after the first cluster bloom, the crop should be treated with a copper fungicide (either Bordeaux or one of the fixed copper compounds). This treatment should be repeated at approximately 10-day intervals until harvest time.

Materials for spraying or dusting should be ordered well in advance of the time that they will be used. Field lay-out for tomato culture should also be planned now. Plants should be spaced far enough apart so that they can dry out quickly after dews or rains. Where it is practical, spacings of 5 1/2 to 6 feet between rows should be considered.

DDT for Flies
One barn spraying per year to control flies—that's what MSC specialists say is possible with DDT.

Tests have shown that DDT will practically get rid of houseflies, stableflies, and horn flies. They sprayed the barns and milk houses only once, at the start of the season, and then sprayed the cattle once every week or two. For spraying cattle—use 3 pounds of 50 percent wettable

DDT powder to 100 gallons of water.

For spraying barns and dairy houses—40 pounds of 50 percent wettable DDT powder to 100 gallons of water.

If weaker strengths of DDT sprays are used, for barns and dairy houses, it may be necessary to treat more than once during the summer for satisfactory control.

As a caution in the use of these sprays, be careful not to contaminate milking utensils, milk and feeds with the DDT.

Yes, you heard it right—one barn spraying a season with DDT is adequate if you use the proper strength. That's 40 pounds of 50 percent wettable DDT powder to 100 gallons of water for the barn. But spray the animals every week or two—or when flies start bothering—with a weaker solution. That's 3 pounds of 50 percent wettable DDT to 100 gallons of water.

Just arrived car batteries in all sizes. Buy new. Brown Motors, Inc.

Unusual Home to Be Built At Pine Point

Something different in houses is being built by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Belding out at Pine Point.

The part being put up now will serve as the basic unit of an eventual ranch type house. It will have three permanent rooms which a temporary partition will divide into four.

A feature will be 4-foot overhanging eaves. Construction will be of wood. Two big picture windows with window seats will help light the interior which will have a living room, two bedrooms, bath and kitchen-dinette.

State O. E. S. Officers To Be Here May 14

Mrs. Charles Bellinger, president of the Meguzee Association and her officers were honored at a luncheon given by the local chapter of the O. E. S. at the Masonic hall Friday.

Tables for thirty were laid out decorated in blue and with lighted blue tapers.

Plans for the Association meeting to be held here May 14 and 15 were completed by the executive committee. The Grand Officers of the Grand Lodge of Michigan will be here to exemplify the degrees on Wednesday evening. This will be preceded by a banquet at the Wayside.

General business meeting and election of officers will be held on Thursday. Three hundred representatives for 13 chapters in the district are expected in Charlevoix for the event.

— HINTS ON WINNING —

Before writing your entry, consider all of the reasons why you like Spic and Span. Then decide which of them mean most to you, and write as many endings to the contest sentence as you wish. For example, you might write, "I use Spic and Span, the No Rinse, No Wipe Cleaner, because it cleans by painted walls, woodwork, linoleum, stove, refrigerator, tile, painted furniture — all washable surfaces — so sparkling bright with so little time and effort." That's only a sample. You can make up a dozen better ones in your own words. Mail them all in! Don't forget to send the top of a Spic and Span package with each entry. MAIL TO SPIC AND SPAN, DEPT. D, BOX 687, CINCINNATI, OHIO

Contest Rules

Simply complete this sentence in 25 additional words or less: "I use Spic and Span, the No Rinse, No Wipe Cleaner, because"

Barnard Bureau Asks Experimental Farm

Seventeen members of the Barnard Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stool last Thursday evening. The meeting was called to order by vice-chairman Frank Matchett in the absence of Chairman Sanford Matchett.

Roll call was taken with the members responding to the question: "What is the common cause of farm accidents?"

Discussion followed on the topic: "How Can Farm Accidents Be Reduced?" Precautions and safety measures were stressed.

A resolution was adopted asking that this district be changed from No. 4 to No. 1, in its Michigan State College agricultural rating; also that an experimental farm be established in the northern Michigan area.

Better telephone service covering a greater portion of the rural area, rather than telephone lines being concentrated in the more populated farm sections, was also discussed.

Refreshments were served by the hostess following adjournment of the meeting.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Smith May 15th.

BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Mr. and Mrs. Archie LaFreniere are the proud parents of a bouncing baby boy, born April 15th. I say "bouncing" as I hear the little fellow actually kicked the covers off the first night in this world.

Orchids to "Bid" Sondenburg. She's always on hand to assist Doctor Palmer when a little bundle from heaven is due.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spalding have returned to the island after visiting relatives and friends in Pontiac and Indianapolis.

Barney Mooney is back after being away from the island for two months. It didn't take Barney long to get out his tools and report for work. He is repairing the hotel and it looks as the hotel will have a new porch.

The new owners of the Shillagh Inn, Buster and Reta Elms, are busy redecorating and making improvements in preparation for the summer months. By-the-way, Buster can make the most delicious lemon pie.

The coming of the first boat each spring is a major event on the island. It's a most welcomed sight to see the boat near the harbor after an absence of three months. This year, Captain Allers sent the North Shore instead of the Mary Margaret on the initial trip. The boat was loaded with supplies.

Now that the two shopping centers have their spring orders, we can put away our catalogues and do a little personal shopping.

Mr. Les Emery's furniture arrived on the first boat. We hope soon to welcome the Emerys to Beaver Island as permanent residents.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carpenter's furniture also arrived on the first trip of the North Shore. The Carpenters built their home last summer and now will make the island their home.

It looks good to have the shutters down at the Allen's home. It didn't seem right to have that house boarded up.

There are some mighty beautiful wood piles appearing in the yards around town. One of the most beautiful is "Bub" Burke's. Having the amount of wood in Bub's yard represents many hours of hard work. But it's a comfortable feeling to know you are all set for next winter, eh, Bub?

One can see Mary Malloy for some distance since she's sporting a Kelly green shortie coat with gold stud trim.

The City Council voted to help rid the town of cans and other debris. Three men and a truck were hired for the pick-up job. In cooperation, the school children were dismissed an hour earlier last Friday to help clean up around their homes. They did a swell job. We hope there will be regular pick-ups of cans, etc. for then we can keep Beaver Island much more inviting.

Miss Patricia Gleeson has arrived from Kansas City and is staying with her father Jack Gleeson, and the four Hanley children at the Hanley home while Mrs. J. C. Hanley is at Atlanta, Ga., visiting her family. Mrs. Hanley left Friday on the boat and went by way of Ann Arbor where she stopped to see the Henry Allens.

Mrs. H. Bos, Reporter

The Harry Bos family have moved into their new residence just north of the old homestead. Mrs. Fannie Klooster and daughter, Rose, are expected home the coming week. Rose has been in California and Mrs. Klooster has spent the past couple of months with her daughter, Mrs. Oiert in Detroit.

Student Meyskens from the Western Seminary had charge of the services at the Atwood Reformed church on Sunday.

Our sympathy is extended to the Richard DeYoung family in their recent bereavement. Mr. DeYoung was very well known and respected citizen of this community for many years. He passed away on Monday and funeral services were held at the Atwood Reformed church on Thursday afternoon. Interment was held at the Atwood cemetery.

Theola Veenstra has been assisting with the work at the Mrs. Fannie Klooster home this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Russell and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Russell.

For the benefit of the American Cancer Society, the Rock Elm Grange is sponsoring a game evening Friday evening.

Mrs. Alfred Johnston, son, Klon and grandchildren of Ellsworth were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kemp.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashford Orvis, Jr., and son are spending the week with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Orvis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knudsen and daughter, and Mrs. Joe Shores and Dicky were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Carl Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Zatk called on Mr. and Mrs. Mark Saunders Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clark and children and Mrs. Amanda Clark were Sunday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Nachazel.

Barnard News

Mrs. Richard Potter, Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Warner motored to Walloon Lake Sunday to call on Mr. and Mrs. Willard Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. William Potter and John Potter went to Detroit for the week-end.

Mrs. Libbie Brock has moved to the Atwood community.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cunningham are moving into their new home shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cunningham and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Heeres were Sunday night supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Potter. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Klooster were also callers in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Potter were Sunday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Potter.

Ironton News

By Mrs. Pete Bennett

Rev. E. C. Dykstra of Barnard will speak here Sunday at 11:30. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Schoals and family of Bath, Mich., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hammond.

We are happy to know the Frank Milwards have moved back to their home after spending the winter in Charlevoix.

Mrs. Walter Mower will return home this week to spend the summer. Her son, Curtis will accompany her.

Rev. N. T. Hargett, Reporter

The 30th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Clare White and the 12th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Garver were celebrated Friday evening with a dinner at the White home. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jefferson and two children were present also.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Green of Boyne City were Sunday callers at the William Price home.

The Youth Conference, which was sponsored by the Little Traverse Bay Ministerial Association in Petoskey Friday evening, was attended by: Glen and Greta Lewis, Ethel and Edna Southwood, Angeline Dyer, Rae Lou Johnson, Jacqueline Cole and Anne Mae Maxwell. The group enjoyed a social hour following the Conference at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hargett.

Cement Carrier Pays Brief Visit In Harbor

The Petoskey Cement company carrier, the J. B. John, laid off Charlevoix Saturday night, and after entering the harbor Sunday morning, left for Little Traverse Bay in an effort to reach her home dock at the cement plant.

The boat arrived off Charlevoix at 10 p. m., Saturday. She was in the harbor about a half hour before leaving for Little Traverse Bay.

The local Coast Guard station reported that two other boats, the W. E. Fitzgerald and the Consumers Power freighter, were discharging cargoes at the cement company docks on Sunday and Monday morning and that the John would dock when the last boat was emptied.

The John came here from Manitowish, Wis., where she spent the winter months in the ship yards.

Cancer is curable when treated early. It becomes serious only when neglected. It is better to have a dozen examinations for cancer and find none, than to miss one examination when early cancer may be present.

Marion Farmers Favor Test Farm

The Marion Center Farm Bureau group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LeVern McGhan Wednesday evening.

Two items of interest were discussed. The group favored a movement that has been under way in Northern Michigan to have a group of Agricultural Specialists located in this area, feeling that farming would be much benefited by such a move. They also took definite action on new methods of raising taxes for roads.

Gamas, Supper, Show Mark Birthday Party

Camilla Muthy celebrated her ninth birthday anniversary at a party given by her mother, Mrs. D. C. Muthy Saturday evening.

The little guests gathered in the afternoon for games followed by supper served at a table centered with a lighted birthday cake. Later they attended the movie.

Those present were Kathleen Foster, Lynn Richards, Quinton Walker, Kit Carson, Sharon Behling, Jill Stewart, Myrtle Baker, Judy, Jamie and Jarra Merica.

DID YOU KNOW THAT MICHIGAN LEADS THE WORLD with its Voluntary Group Medical Care Program!

Michigan doctors have pioneered in many fields of health care and disease prevention, but of all these FIRSTS the one that everybody puts at the head of the list is the nationally famous Michigan Medical Service. Under this health insurance program, conducted wholly without profit, the doctors of Michigan have united to offer you insured medical service upon the payment of a modest annual premium. This prepaid medical service is not complicated by any bureaucratic red tape—you simply go to the doctor of your choice and get the medical care you need. The bills are paid by the premium fund. No solicitors are employed; no profit is involved. It is entirely a voluntary matter—which hundreds of thousands of Michigan people have availed themselves of. Ask your doctor for details.

Sugar Beet Films Shown Tonight At Ellsworth Hall

Sugar beets as a cash crop, their production and processing, all will be shown Thursday at 8 p. m. in four films at the Ellsworth Community Hall.

Open to all farmers of Charlevoix and Antrim counties, the event is being put on by the Isabelle Sugar Co., which has been contracting sugar beet acreage here. In charge of the meeting will be L. H. McGhan, representing the company and who has been signing the growers.

More than 600 acres already are signed up, he says, and the total may reach 1000. The first time in some 20 or 25 years that beets have been grown here, they offer an unusually safe crop this year.

The contract calls for a base price of $18.14 a ton. Last year beets paid $17.92 but this included a subsidy which averaged $2.81. This year in addition to the $18.14, there will be a subsidy and a bonus equal to half the advance in price in any manufactured beet products.

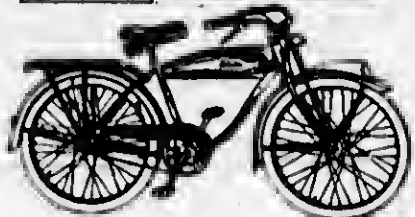

McGhan says that the company will put six or eight beet drills in this area when the time comes, in addition to supplying the help to care for the beets. He already has rented several houses for this.

The Mexican contract workers will remain here all through the beet, pickle, cherry and final beet seasons.

Troop 2 of The Girl Scouts will hold a bake sale at Wood Bros. Hardware Saturday, April 28, beginning at 10 a. m.

The Tow Line

Still, deep, deep in the heart of the citrus belt of Texas

Wednesday, April 10—The National Editorial train was sidetracked at Harlingen, Texas. Early that morning a train of buses met us for a 200 mile trip through the citrus belt of the Rio Grande valley. To the left and right of us were palm trees, oranges and grapefruit groves. Clouds of Mexican workers going to the citrus plants.

"Low bridge, here comes an airplane." It's spraying an orange grove with a sulphur compound, the newer and quicker method. "Did you say it was warm? No, it's plain hot. Oh, for a Charlevoix snowbank." Pass a sulphur plant and the colored folks working there looked as though they had just seen ghosts.

A short way from Mission, Texas, the buses stopped at one of the big groves where we were given a demonstration of spraying and irrigating orange and grapefruit orchards. It was most impossible to believe that less than 20 years before the land on which we stood had been overgrown, untilled soil. Now it was a picture. A big thrill! Every one was given a big sack and told to fill them with fruit picked by their own hands. For many this was their first time picking oranges. (We couldn't ship them home—state laws.)

Funny how one's stomach can get empty in spite of all the food we have had. At the Rio Farms, the Texsun Citrus folks, we lined up for a big barbecue steak dinner. Yes, sir, we are surely eating our way out of Texas.

Corn is tasseling out. arrive at the Texsun Dehydrating plant. I was so warm that I sat in the shade of the bus; just too hot to move, hear a news broadcast announcing there was three inches of snow in Milwaukee. Brother, lead me to it. It was a cooling thought at least. Still on and on through the Rio Grande Valley until late afternoon. Where's my coat, it's suddenly cool. "Getting a bit of a northerner," said a Texas friend. Why in the dickens do they have to call all their bad weather a Northerner?

It was back to our sleeper for the night of Brownsville. But when we arrived found that Brownsville had turned out to entertain us as well. Citizens were dressed in beautiful Mexican clothes and a fiesta was given in the patio of the big hotel. Mexican dancing, a history of Mexican dress was colorful and most fascinating to watch. Following a series of Mexican dances the dancers went into the audience and picked out members of the party and tried them out on one of the dances. A nice looking chap grabbed my arm and away I went into the circle and danced. Was it ever fun! Never heard the train when it pulled out for Kingsville, our next stop.

April 17—Imagine owning a ranch that covers seven counties (and in Texas a county really is something). Anyway, we were on our way to King Ranch, the largest one in the world, some three and a half million acres, owned by the famous Kieberg family. Robert Kieberg, our host, who is also State Senator, showed us what real Texas hospitality could be like. The home looked up like a castle on that wide expanse of plains. It was beautifully furnished inside and we considered it a real privilege to wander through the mansion.

Such cattle. King Ranch is the home of the famous Santa Gertrudis breed of cattle, developed by the King ranch. Airplanes drop the feed to the cattle for it's really not walking distance around those parts. The horses on the range were beautiful, the King Ranch Quarter Horses. "Gentlemen, take off your hats, you are now looking at sacred cows." Yes, sir, there was a herd of Brahma bulls. The thrill of all was when we were taken to see the famous race horse, Assault, that won his master a $100,000 purse at Churchill Downs last year. King Ranch is also the home of such thoroughbreds as Bold Venture, and Split Second. Then we were shown a little colt which Mr. Kieberg thinks will be his best bet yet! Mercey did you say it was time for another big barbecue. Mexican musicians made merry with their music and song while we ate again and such food!

Back on the train and a short ride and Corpus Christi was the next stop. The shoreline line reminded me a bit of Miami Beach, and there waiting for us were boats, yachts and what have you. Another trip was out into the Gulf and then to a big inn where we met several Corpus folks, ate shrimp that would choke an ox for size, danced a bit and made for our sleepers for San Antonio.

April 18—Another day full of experiences. San Antonio is a beautiful city and the Junior Chamber of Commerce were our hosts and really showed us the town. Getting off the train we found musicians there to greet us with song, dressed in Mexican costumes. More bus rides (Continued on page two)

Tryon Awaits Appeal Hearing In Jail Here

Found guilty Monday of first degree murder in the killing of his wife, Opal, on Dec. 2, William Tryon is in jail here awaiting action on his attorney's plea for a new trial.

When the jury came in Monday at 5 p. m. after three hours deliberation, Foreman Harry Gebert announced the first degree verdict. Judge Karl K. Liebrand immediately pronounced the mandatory sentence of life imprisonment in Jackson.

Defense attorney Roman Glochowski announced he would file a motion asking a new trial on the basis of possible errors in this one. Judge Liebrand gave him 20 days to file the motion.

According to County Clerk F. R. Bulow, the defense can file this motion on or before May 10. If the motion only is filed, Tryon will be taken to prison then.

Then at some later date, after the attorneys have had time to study the trial transcript, a hearing on the motion will be held. If Judge Liebrand approves the motion, there will be a new trial. If he doesn't, the defense can carry the case to the Supreme Court, which can either order a new trial or end Tryon's hopes in that regard.

Cost of the case to the county is beginning to be reckoned. The jury cost $790; state witnesses about $175. In addition there were the months Tryon was in the hospital at Petoskey at his doctor's orders and the county paid the cost of a 24 hour guard.

North Shore Starts On Daily Schedule

Starting May 1 the North Shore will be making a daily weekday trip to Beaver Island, according to Capt. Leroy Allers.

The boat does not run Sundays. She will leave the dock at 7 a. m. until further notice. In June, Captain Allers expects to change the time.

The Mary Margaret's trip to Wisconsin and an overhauling likely will be delayed because of an accident Friday. While unloading roofing at the island, a hand truck tipped up. The steel nose caught the foot of Bill Schwab, breaking one bone in four places. His foot is in a cast and his doctor expects he will be laid up a month.

Ministers Plan Summer Bible School

Daily Vacation Bible School is being planned by the Ministerial Association for June 9 to 20. As outlined at the meeting Monday at the Methodist parsonage, each church will direct its own school within those dates. Thirty dollars was received at the Good Friday offering and this was set aside to apply on the furnishing of a memorial room in the new hospital.

The Association went on record as "pledging itself to do all in its power to rid Charlevoix of the liquor evil."

The next meeting will be with Rev. Ellsworth Dykstra May 28.

Parkside to Be Opened Sunday

Pete McFarland is reopening the Parkside dining room Sunday.

Closed for the winter while Mr. and Mrs. McFarland were in Miami Beach, they have been cleaning up the restaurant and getting it ready for the spring opening.

Boyhood Friend of Rex Beach Revisits Old Norwood Home

"Going through the Chicago river I fell off the boat," Will Thompson recalls when telling about the trip his family and Rex Beach's family took back in 1088 when 11 Michigan folks sailed to Florida.

Born on the Thompson place at Indian Gardens in 1881, he was a neighbor of Rex Beach, knew him on the trip and after the families reached Florida and settled there at Tampa.

Since going away in 1886, this is the first time Mr. Thompson has been back. Once in Florida, he grew up there, married and until 14 years ago lived at Tampa. Then he and Mrs. Thompson bought an orange grove 20 miles north of that city and live there now. Here they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Meggison.

Only five at the time of the trip, he recalls just a few high spots of the trip, such as falling in the canal. In his autobiography, "A Rolling Stone," the author relates the incident but adds that there was no danger of drowning—the Chicago river was too thick to drown in.

Mr. Thompson got a big kick out of the comment but says he recalls only falling in and being fished out. He does not remember the reason for the trip but Mrs. Meggison supplied the information.

"There was a Cop Stiger lived out where the Tyrell Boys Camp is now. In fact, his house is part of the camp. He wanted to go to Florida and so did these other folks, his neighbors.

"So he got a boat and they fixed her up. Then the Beaches and Rex and the Thompsons and their three children, and Cap and Mrs. Stiger and a man named Powell started in October. They sailed down to Chicago, to the Mississippi and along the Gulf to Tampa. They got there about Christmas time."

Mrs. Thompson is a native of Tampa and this was her first time North. She likes the country and in a couple of years wants to come back in the summer to see it then. With southern courtesy she praised the food and the hospitality of folks here.

Sunday they left with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Mudge for Detroit where they were to catch a bus for Tampa.

Plans Pushed On Court House

In order to save the county up to $2625 of the cost of plans for the proposed new Court House, work is being pushed on the revision of plans for the building.

The Michigan Planning Commission notified the last session of the Board of Supervisors that it would stand 50% of the total plans cost, with a minimum of $625. If the plans are done and approved by July 1, the Board voted $6000 to push the work (the state money will come as a refund on this $6000) which is being done by the contract architects, J. and G. Davenport Co. of Grand Rapids.

The tentative plans were presented last year and both the Board and various county officers have suggested minor changes in the interest of economy. Both plans and changes have been approved by the State Administrative Board.

Mrs. Mary Robinson Services Tuesday

Mrs. Mary L. Robinson, 80, life long resident of this community and wife of John Robinson, died at her home Saturday. She had been in failing health for several months and ill for two weeks.

Mary L. Owner was born near Burgess Feb. 11, 1867. She was married to Mr. Robinson on Aug. 1, 1885, and since then they have resided in Charlevoix township.

She was a member of the Methodist church. Besides her husband she is survived by a son, Edward, of Traverse City; a granddaughter, Mrs. Beverly Blakelee, of Williamsburg; two great-grandchildren and a sister Mrs. Susan Ahlgren, of this city.

Funeral services were held at the See Funeral home at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning with the Rev. Gaylord Howell and the Rev. Amos Kahage, of Petoskey, officiating. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

Among those from away who attended the services were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herbster, of Muskegon; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dewitt and son, Milo, Mrs. Anna Payne and Mrs. Freida MacDougall, of Traverse City; Mrs. Bertha Blakelee, Mrs. Beverly Blakelee, Mrs. Maldon Blakelee, of Williamsburg and Miss Carolyn Newkirk, of Boyne City.

Scouts Will Collect Paper Saturday

In order to complete their carload of scrap paper, Charlevoix Boy Scouts this Saturday will be around again picking up old papers and magazines.

Householders are asked to have all the paper they can donate on the front porch or beside the curb Saturday morning as the Scouts plan to cover both sides of town in one day.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Planned

The Church of God will sponsor a Mother-Daughter banquet on May 9.

It will be held at the 100F Hall. The speakers will be Rev. Mary Barber of Barryton.

City Warned of Neglected Children Here

The tragic waste of human volues resulting from broken homes and parental neglect was most forcibly brought home to 30 members of the Kiwanis Club Monday night at Juvenile Court.

Invited by Judge Rollie Lewis to sit in and act as advisers, the Charlevoix men heard the cases of ten boys ranging from 16 to 13 who had committed various acts ranging from cur theft to burglary, from destruction of property to breaking parole.

In every case but one, they came from a broken home. In that one, the parents made no objection when the youngsters stayed out until 11 and 12 p. m.

Three patterns appeared over and over as Judge Lewis and the men learned the boys' stories. The remaining parent or guardian either was too busy or too indifferent or unable to exert a needed control. The boys had no one to whom to turn.

They lacked money to associate on an equality with other boys, like buying a Boy Scout uniform in order to stay in the troop. All claimed they wanted work but couldn't earn enough.

They found no other source of fun and excitement except in lawbreaking. The community ignored their needs. Comments at the hearing were caustic.

"There doesn't seem to be any way to prevent or catch this trouble until it starts."

"Schools accept part of their income from taverns and liquor places. So it is perfectly legal for a mother getting state aid for her children to spend time and money there instead of with her family."

"The reform school keeps boys like these out of circulation for a while. That's the best that can be said for it."

The same problem of youngsters headed wrong is found here in Charlevoix. Judge Lewis warned his adult guests. It is time some folks here started doing something about it.

Grand Matron to Be O.E.S. Guest Here

The forty-third annual meeting of the Meguire District Association will be held in Charlevoix on May 14-15. Mrs. Charles Bellinger, Meguire president, has announced.

Among the O. E. S. dignitaries who are expected for the event are Mrs. Leah Brown DeLong, worthy grand matron, and George A. Kritzner, worthy grand patron and other grand officers who will exemplify the Degrees of the Order and attend a reception for Mrs. Bellinger, Grand Adah.

The remaining parent or guardian held at the high school gym with the afternoon session opening at 2 p. m. and the evening meeting at 8 p. m. A banquet will be held at the Wayside at 6:30 p. m.

More than 300 delegates are expected from the 13 northern Michigan chapters. Boyne City, Harbor Springs, Pellston, East Jordan, Bellaire, Central Lake, Manicou, Kalkaska, Traverse City, Northport, Petoskey, Elk Rapids and Charlevoix.

At the business meeting to be held at the Masonic hall at 9 a. m., Thursday, officers will be elected. A luncheon will be served at noon Thursday by the Rebekah lodge.

After lying in the snow and rain all winter, the small steel box stolen from the Kit Carson school last Oct. 31 was found Friday by William Duiker at the rear of his lot on West Carpenter street.

Returned to Carson, the contents were found to be all that the box was locked and sealed. The box was evidently thought to contain money. After leaving the building he or they picked the cover open. Finding nothing but war bonds, insurance policies and receipts, they stuffed all the papers back in and tossed the box into some high grass.

Meanwhile Carson and his brother, who owned the bond, have gone to the trouble of getting duplicates of all the documents.

Disabled Vets Asked To Call Office Here

Disabled veterans newly arrived in Charlevoix County are asked to call or get in touch with O. W. Osborn, who will be at Charlevoix every other Tuesday starting with May 8.

He is at the mayor's office in the city hall.

Supplies for such veterans now are obtained from the sub-regional office at Grand Rapids instead of Detroit, this getting quicker service.

Found—One Set of Good Store Teeth

Has anyone lost a set of store teeth?

This week Pete Bennett's boys at Ironton found a set of men's choppers in a box, all frozen in a chunk of floating ice.

They are resting safely, and dried out, at Pete Bennett's, who says he wishes the owner would get them as Ironton folks are too healthy to need replacements.

New Station Will Put Services On Air

Sunday at 10:30 p. m. in the Churches of God in Northern Michigan will present the first of a series of Sunday evening broadcasts over the new WABN station in Petoskey.

Called the "Christian Brotherhood Hour", it will consist of 30 minutes of sacred music and talks.

Michigan Needs It
Michigan lately has been disestablishing an experiment in Northern Michigan. It is anything but an experiment, this proposal. While streams and visitors loom as important, especially these spring months, not forget that agriculture is at least half of our economy. Something which will advance farming is all.

We have special conditions affording which cannot be duplicated in Michigan where MSC has rental farms. These make it for the college, willing though to serve the former timber community as it does the black dirt and as a matter of economic to the whole state, it does seem experimental farm would be a. Now neither the state nor local is have the money to launch a program. But there is the time site could be selected and made for the day when finally has returned to our public ly, we'd like to see such a farm in Charlevoix County. But that is unimpaired one can be established in Michigan, we all will profit from

are a lot of new tax bills being at Lansing in an effort to out the unholly mess that the Michigan put their state into last by approving the veterans' bonus 76% sales tax diversion at one in Sigler is doing an almost superb job trying to find an answer, sleek mayor of Grand Rapids tells him he has no financial provision solution would be implied. It would be no new taxes, as we are tough now to operate our government and state—and to pay public decent salaries.

of more taxes to carry on our needed public services, these should be sharply curtailed. The University and Michigan State should be forced to turn away a third of their students.

Our parole board should release a third of our prison and institutional inmates—no matter if they are unfitted to rejoin society.

Our roads, desperately in need of rebuilding, should be left unrepaired and have tourists stay away from the state, while those who do travel can pound their tires and springs to pieces on deteriorating pavements.

Then after a year or two, perhaps Michigan voters would begin to sense the fact that they voted a fine large melon to Mayors Welch and Jeffries of Grand Rapids and Detroit, and cut their own throats while doing it.

Maybe then they would be willing to demand a thorough housecleaning of our muddled mess of taxation, and would be willing to adopt a system of direct and more local taxation, so we would pay our own bills instead of trying to gouge the other fellow all the time—and usually getting gouged ourselves.

We Cannot Afford to Lose It

At the school open house in the report on the Charlevoix Library, Supt. Roy Bennett explained that it is supported and operated entirely on school funds. He also stated that the school cannot afford to continue to operate it as in the past.

I have not seen the figures and do not know the details of the economics. But I am certain of one thing.

Charlevoix cannot afford to have the library closed or moved. We have a good building, a fair collection of books and a growing crop of young folks (to say nothing of older folks) who are entitled to a good, 12-month public library. We have summer visitors here who use and are justified in expecting a library.

Both the city and the school plead scarcity of funds. Both are right. But there is a limit beyond which economy should not go. Once it does, it becomes false economy, costing more in other values and in dollars in the long run than the few cents saved.

Not maintaining the library on the present basis would be folly, of that kind.

WHAT'S COOKING
TO THE TOWN'S TASTE

Last week's What's Cooking Column was written by Mrs. Arthur Hanger. Through one of those accidental typographical slips the line of type giving due credit to her was left out.

This week's column is by Mrs. Clair Webster, another of the Charlevoix women who agreed to submit for Mrs. Towe during her absence.

Pork Fold-Overs

1 cup ground, cooked pork
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup catsup
1 tablespoon horseradish
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 recipe Plain Pastry

Combine all ingredients except pastry; mix thoroughly, roll pastry thin. Cut in 4 by 5 inch rectangles. At one side, place 2 tablespoons meat mixture. Fold over and seal edges. Prick top. Bake in hot oven (450) 10 to 12 minutes. Makes 10 fold-overs. Garnish with cranberry sauce slices. (These pack well for lunch boxes.)

Chicken-Tie Casserole

1 plump hen (about 4 pounds)
1 fresh green pepper
1 cup raw rice
1 quart milk
Salt and pepper
Butter, if chicken isn't fat
Cut chicken into pieces, disjointing legs and washing breasts and backs. Clean, and cut into small pieces. Cover the bottom of an open baking pan with the chicken, pepper

Bride Gets Break,
Can Get Frozen Rolls

It's getting to be a complicated life. Even home made rolls and pies come from the grocery. And the new bride, who by tradition should make rolls that will do for gulf balls, can turn out wonderful little biscuits merely by putting them in the oven.

The latest thing are frozen rolls—and pies—all ready mixed and put together. All the bride has to do is buy them, thaw them and bake them—then collect the praise.

At least, that is the story they're telling up at Curtis Market since the new frozen food box was installed and they started stocking frozen baked goods, such as rolls and pies, cherry and apricot. Besides the usual run of frozen foods they have frozen orange juice, which has to be warmed up before it can be drunk.

The new box is a handsome white contraption just in front of the door. The Plexiglas lid on it looks like a couple sections escaped from the nose of a wartime bomber.

Charles Sessions Gives Softener to Hospital

The Charlevoix Hospital has been presented with a water softener. Miss K. Nolan, Supt., has announced. The gift was given by Charles Sessions of Ann Arbor and Torch Lake.

The softener, Miss Nolan explained, can be attached to the hot water system and will furnish soft water for use throughout the hospital, cutting down on the amount of soap and cleaning aids used and dispensing with the use of commercial softeners. The plant has already been put in operation.

It will also be possible to transfer the plant to the new hospital when it is constructed.

DDT Not A Cure All

There are some wonderful stories told about DDT but it's not the answer to all home gardening problems. R. L. Jones, extension specialist in entomology at Michigan State college, points out that its use in the home garden is limited.

Some insects such as the Mexican bean beetle, some types of aphids, and the red spider mites aren't much affected by DDT. On others, though, DDT works as a satisfactory control measure.

A dust mixture with 3 per cent DDT in it has proved rather effective against the Colorado potato beetle, potato flea beetles, potato and bean leafhoppers, and some of the insects that attack cabbages.

DDT solutions intended for household pests should not be used in the garden. DDT in forms that mix readily with water are best for garden use. Don't use oil solutions of DDT without expert advice. Leafy vegetables should not be treated with DDT after the edible leaf parts appear.

Pruning Shrubs

In the spring, it's hard to resist the urge to get out and do some pruning on your trees and ornamental shrubs.

But wait... you can get into real trouble unless you plan your pruning carefully. C. E. Wilton, specialist in horticulture at Michigan State college, suggests that you first ask yourself WHY you are pruning. Whether the purpose is to promote vigorous growth, or to improve the looks of the plant, or to modify flowering, you should have a clear idea of what you are trying to do before you start cutting away branches.

In pruning to make the shrub or tree more vigorous, the dead wood and broken limbs should be cut out. Take out interfering branches and stubs from either broken limbs or poor pruning in the past. Be sure you are through it may be necessary to thin out top branches.

Wilton says that old shrubs that have been neglected require special attention over a period of several years. To rejuvenate old shrubs, about one-fourth of the oldest leaders or branches should be removed. Spring flowering shrubs should be pruned very little or not at all until after flowering.

To improve the shape of plants, the natural outline of the plant should be followed. Misshapen or crossing branches should be removed.

If you are pruning to produce large attractive blooms in flowering shrubs, cut out the old growth and weak and crossing branches when the shrub has finished flowering for the season.

And above all remember—prune with care. You can permanently injure trees and shrubs with too severe pruning.

Strange Bird—Looks Like Two Others

They look like a woodpecker, are built like a crow and have been hanging around Camp Charlevoix all winter, says Elmer Englehart in describing a pair of strange birds.

A friend told him they are called log cock. He would like to know if there is another name and just what kind of birds they are.

The Tow Line...

San Antonio... This is the town, or city, of aristocrats, Mexicans, leisure seekers, soldiers, tourists, crooked streets, Spanish Missions and the Alamo... And it was through these crooked streets that we were taken, shown the Alamo, driven through about 50 of its city parks, shown the beautiful Chinese Sunkin Gardens (They were Japanese Sunkin Gardens until the war came along)... Then to make us realize that San Antonio had its bit of old Mexico on this side of the Rio Grande we were taken to La Villita Inn, mostly patio where we were served in all Mexican luncheon... While we were standing in line waiting to be served, there was a commotion behind us and looking back, and near enough to touch him, stood General Wainwright. What a thrill! Following our luncheon the General made a few brief remarks begging all editors to give as truthful a picture of current events as they knew. "We are a confused people," he said. "We are living under false complacency at present for the atomic bomb is not our exclusive secret. We can serve the cause of world peace by right information..."

As we got into our buses to be taken to the airport for our flight to Mexico the driver turned around and said, "Well, I wonder who are all these distinguished guests?" Extinguished was right for we were a tired, sleepy-eyed, wrinkle suited crowd! And another week in Mexico to be entertained! What a life!

Mexico—Our first glimpse of Mexico City was at 1:25 a. m. from our plane, when Florine Steller awakened me and said, "Look, ElDean, we have arrived." Sure enough! We looked down upon a city nestled in those mountains, like a city of stars. It looked as though the heavens were upside down for we were looking at so many lights... And then suddenly we were down among those lights and were being greeted by Mexican officials, standing in front of a battery of lights for pictures and ushered through a door of the airport that was decorated with a band of lilies, roses and carnations about two feet wide, which read in flowers: Welcome, National Editorial Association...

Saturday, Apr. 19—Like a bunch of giddy gals everyone was too thrilled to eat much breakfast... In Mexico City our big group had been divided into three groups, staying at the Reforma, Geneva and Pasado del Sol Hotels. We had been assigned to the Pasado, one of Mexico's newest hotels and we were quite the envy of the rest of the folks when they saw our hotel. It was unusual to the nth degree...

It was like a county fair in front of the hotel. Street vendors were everywhere selling baskets, laces, handkerchiefs, leather goods, jackets. And what bargains! "Lady, lady, you like this. Just 15 pesos. 'No, gracias,' we would say. They would follow us down the street and lean through the window of the automobile to sell their wares. It was all very exciting.

The party in our car was made up of Mrs. Lena Parsons, former president of the Women's Press Club of Colorado, from Golden.

Cole, Gordon Seavy, editor of the Belmont Citizen of Belmont, Mass., Florine Steller, Augustin, our guide and driver for the week's trip, and myself. Augustin was most pleasant, had a winning smile, wavy brown hair, and spoke about 40 words in English. Poor me, with my 40 words of Spanish, and the Massachusetts editor with his 80 words had a great time. You may be sure that at first we used the hand sign talk to a great extent and before the trip was over Augustin had learned many English words and we had learned a Mexican word or two ourselves.

Down the streets we went... it was amazing, perhaps one block you would feel that you had stepped back two or three hundred years, things looked so old and then voila, the next block there would be something so progressively new that you couldn't quite grasp it until you found yourself back into the old or suddenly driving down Paseo de la Reforma, one of the famous boulevards of the city, with its aged old trees... Up and up we started going, until we were told by Augustin that this was Chapultepec Park. Chapultepec means Grasshopper, by the way... Here was the beautiful home, or castle one might say, of Carlotta and Maximilian... Such elegance as we were shown the living quarters of Mexico's famous couple, whose lives ended in tragedy.

"Oh, look there is a map walking with a huge basket on his head and reading a book... And there was another man with a big platter of candy on his head walking along. How do they do it?... The park had many Mexican gentlemen in it, riding on their beautiful horses and dressed in very expensive Mexican clothes..."

Valde Hamlin Wed In Church Ceremony

Miss Valde Hamlin of Detroit daughter of Mrs. Josephine Hamlin of this city and Harold Hamlin of Pontiac, became the bride of O'Neal Wilson of Detroit, at a candlelight service performed at the First Methodist church here at 7:30 Saturday evening.

Rev. Gaylord Howell read the service before an altar decorated with bouquets of white carnations and pink snapdragons in the presence of 75 guests.

Proceeding the ceremony Miss Beth Megison and Mrs. Clara McGhan sang "I Love You Truly" and Mrs. McGhan sang "Because". They were accompanied by Mrs. A. C. Belding at the organ and Mitchell Baird at the piano. They also played the traditional wedding marches.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was attired in a cloud gray suit, and white and black accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of pink roses.

Miss Norma Bessen, of Detroit as her only attendant, wore a Kelly green suit, white and black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Vernard Hamlin of Millersburg twin brother of the bride, assisted as best man.

Ushers were Beverly Trimble and Velma May. Miss Trimble wore a tan suit and Miss May a green suit. Both wore matching accessories.

Mrs. Hamlin chose a light blue crepe dress with rose accessories and a corsage of pink carnations for her daughter's wedding.

Mrs. George Trimble, grandmother of the bride, wore a green print dress, matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias and roses.

A reception for 50 guests followed in the church parlors. A three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom graced the refreshment table which was decorated with pink and white flowers and pink tapers in candleholders.

After a wedding trip through Northern Michigan the couple will make their home in Detroit.

The bride is a graduate of the Petoskey high school and has been employed in Detroit for several years.

Among those from out of town who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Hamlin of Marquette; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hamlin of Pontiac; Mr. and Mrs. Vernard Hamlin and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Allen, of Millersburg; and Mrs. William Winegarden of Grosse Ile.

Ministers of This District Meet Here

The Little Traverse Bay Ministerial Association (including ministers of all churches in this district, regardless of denomination) will meet in the Charlevoix Baptist church on Monday noon for the May meeting.

The speaker for the meeting will be Dr. Iverson, Director of Protestant Church Relationship Boy Scouts of America.

The lunch will be served by the Baptist Ladies.

Mrs. George Johnston has returned to Maumela after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hilma Hardy for the past week.

Miss Janice Zeitler celebrated her 13th birthday Saturday by entertaining a group of friends. Games were played in the afternoon after which refreshments were served.

Nick Proves to Be Real Fish Hound

There is a general fish hound and to be exact—in Charlevoix, the black Labrador retriever, Elmer Englehart, is the fish hound.

Elmer Englehart, 60, of Charlevoix, is a fish hound and to be exact—in Charlevoix, the black Labrador retriever, Elmer Englehart, is the fish hound.

First of State's Tour Ads Appear

Advance proofs of the first big opening gun in Michigan's advertising campaign for summer tourist business were received here this week by Harley Ochs of the Central Drug Store.

They were full color copies of the page at which will appear in the April "Holiday" magazine and Colliers.

The copies came from Hazel-tino & Perkins, a Grand Rapids Drug firm. In an accompanying letter, the company's president pointed out that last year such ads drew 38,000 replies and that if the folks in the tourist areas will talk and promote Michigan's tourist business, it can be made to snowball into a steadily larger thing.

Don't Worry, It's Just a Brush Fire

If you see a big fire by night or a pillar of smoke by day out across Lake Charlevoix, don't worry.

It isn't Camp Charlevoix burning. This winter Elmer Englehart has cut considerable brush along the road and around camp. He has it stacked down by the lake. The first day there is an easterly wind, he plans to have a mammoth bonfire.

Henry Miller Rites Were Saturday

Henry Miller, 60, resident of this community for ten years, died at the Beattie home in Hayes township on April 15. The body was taken to Fillingrove for funeral services and burial on Saturday.

Camp Charlevoix Will Enroll 120

Lewis C. Reimann, director-owner of Camp Charlevoix, and Kenneth W. Smith, associate director, were up from Ann Arbor last week to look over the camp and to plan for additional construction for the largest enrollment of boys in the history of the camp which was founded in 1927.

About 120 boys from the ages of 7 to 17 will attend the camp this summer when the season opens June 30. This is an all-time high for attendance. This season boys are coming as far as California, Minnesota, New York and Florida, with six boys coming from the latter state.

A staff of 45 adults will assist in the operation of the camp, including a doctor and a nurse, a western cowboy, three head counselors, 18 cabin counselors and other specialists to teach skills.

The staff will report at the camp June 25 for conference, program planning and camp preparation. The camp closes August 24 with a big, colorful rodeo.

The camp now has 33 log buildings and 175 acres and three-fourths of a mile of lake front on Lake Charlevoix. It is known as one of the finest equipped camps in America.

Harry Blinham, principal of the high school, will be the business manager at the camp, this being his tenth year there.

Charlevoix Leads County In Giving To Cancer Fund

With the drive for funds for the American Cancer Society drawing to a close this week, the progress of the drive in Charlevoix county has been announced by Mrs. Gordon Freedman, city chairman.

Charlevoix leads the field with $630.12. East Jordan was next with $549 on April and Boyne City was third with $422.

Beaver Island reports good progress but no report was made on the amount collected.

Harley Ochs, Clarence Wood and M. A. Levinson have been appointed by Mrs. Freedman to solicit the business district.

Others who have been asked to help in the drive are Mrs. Robert Weststaff, Mrs. Vessal Seymour, Mrs. Albert Edwards, Mrs. E. B. Bowman, Mrs. Richard Bergmann, Ann Cunningham and Frances Milner.

Two contributions have come from outsiders.

One Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Freedman, of Peaceful Valley and Cincinnati who sent a check and a letter saying, "We have been coming to northern Michigan for more than 25 years and feel as much a part of your community as we do of Cincinnati. Because of this we want to add our contribution to those of the people of your town."

Another letter and check came from Barbara Kysella, of Wayne, former resident now employed at the Eloise State Hospital. Miss Kysella said, "My contribution isn't large but I want to add what I can to the drive for such a worthy cause."

Goes to School Meeting

The annual School Masters meeting was held at Ann Arbor on April 24 and 25. Miss Frances Milner, principal of the elementary school, represented the Charlevoix schools at the meeting.

About Town

News of folks, your neighbors and mine... but did you know that—

A newcomer to town is George Cowdrey of Cincinnati, production manager for the Freedman Aircraft Company. Rooming at present, Mr. Cowdrey plans to bring his wife and children here after school closes, so he is another new house hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Miller of Flint are back in Charlevoix at the Northern Guest House at 100 Petoskey Road getting the place ready for their summer guests. The Millers did a bit of travelling during the past months. They spent some time with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller and granddaughter, Pamela Ann in St. Louis, Mo. Then they continued on through the western states eventually arriving out in California.

The Archie Livingstons left Saturday for a month's vacation jaunt to Los Angeles, California. The train they left on had the first new Diesel engine that has been in these parts, so their ride to Chicago must have been speeded up a bit.

Mrs. Margaret Widdifield had a dream of the past year come to a realization this week. She got a car and it's a Packard. Sunday afternoon, in spite of the rain, she took her gang of friends for a ride, and all approved of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Houck arrived Saturday night from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where Mrs. Houck and young son have been for several weeks with Mrs. Houck's mother, Mrs. Guy Greene. Nunn flew down and helped drive the car back home.

Round Lake and Lake Charlevoix down front have been well populated by fishermen during the past week with the start of the perch run. At first almost all licks got was a hard cold from sitting in the rain but the past few days biting has been good and Sunday some good strings of perch were caught.

Mrs. Harry Ochs arrived Friday afternoon after visiting her sisters in Detroit and Ann Arbor and going on to Lansing to visit the Deans.

Georgia Gloster is another Charlevoix woman who has been visiting in Detroit. She went down to see her new granddaughter who is now about seven weeks old. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gloster. The young miss was named Georgia Marie and was grandmother glad to have a namesake.

Phil Martin, High jump, Shannahan, L. Carey and Dombrowski of Petoskey tied for first; W. Carey and Avery for fourth; Broad jump, I. Holstad; Relay, I.

Saturday—Our first day in Mexico City was full of excitement. At 10 a. m. the National Editorial Group assembled at the Monument of Independence, at which time officers of the N. E. A. placed a wreath in honor of the memory of the heroes of the Mexican Independence . . . speeches, more photographers . . . we were beginning to feel like Luna Turner, herself. Certainly there is no scarcity of films in Mexico.

The City Hall was the next stop. Here we were to be received by Hon. Fernando Casas Aleman, Governor of the Federal District . . . As I entered the hall of the National Palace my first thought was "Mercy, whose funeral are we to attend?" The reason was the profusion of flowers, for the hall was not only filled with folks, but odors of lilies, carnations and roses. Then there was the brass band as well. We were like peas in a pod for all the Mexican officials had turned out as well. More speeches in Spanish and then translated into English . . . more welcomes . . . more handshakes, more pictures and then the entire delegation started for Xochimilco.

Everyone has heard of the floating gardens of Xochimilco. Maybe these pieces of the richest earth in Mexico, divided by canals, once floated, but not now. We were ushered into flower decorated boats, flat bottomed affairs with a rounded canvas top and equipped with table and chairs. How our pole-pushing gondoliers ever snaked us out of the welter of other craft and into the open spaces of the canal is something we shall never know. No sooner were we out in the canal than there was a boat with a camera man in it and an aide, another boat with musicians and a marimba on the other side . . . Before you can say Jack Robinson they have the picture developed and "Lookout, or you will find yourself huying one!"

Meanwhile flower girls are in abundance in tiny, dainty skirts, just big enough for them and their corsages of orchids, gardenias, jessamine, roses and violets . . . Who could resist them? Back in Mexico City, one place we especially wanted to see was the Cathedral, the largest in the Western hemisphere. It faces the big city square . . . It was with much curiosity that we passed by several beggars and through the big door of the cathedral . . . It was designed to be comparable in size and magnificence with the first in Europe. It has an over-all width of almost 400 feet, and exhibits almost every type of architecture. Our guide told us the cornerstone was laid in 1575. It is on the site occupied by the church completed by Cortez in 1525 and on the very ground where the great temple of the Aztecs stood. It took two centuries to build . . . Surely the cathedral was in much use now . . . A funeral service was going on in one part . . . Farther on another service was being held, an anniversary service of the death of a loved one . . . Fourteen chapels were around the sides of the church. Before these chapels were many peasants sitting with their children, waiting in some cases for confession and in others for funeral services, we were told . . . So many, many babies and none of them crying. "Why," I asked the guide. They are spanked if they do," he replied.

Sunday—our drivers were at the hotel by 10:00 a. m. waiting for us . . . Great guns, look, Florine, here comes a man with bed springs on top of his head! . . . If you never have been in Mexico City and had a Mexican driver at the wheel of the car, you really have a thrill in store. These fellows simply could not drive if they were minus the horn on these cars . . . At first we were on the edge of our seats with all the horns honking and in the worst traffic tangle you could imagine. The guy who honks first gets the right of way. There are not many bent fenders, and somehow the traffic tangle gets straightened out.

After our driver, Augustin, got through a few of these jams our confidence heightened, and we just sat back and let him drive. Again we found ourselves on the Paseo de la Reforma, Mexico's most beautiful boulevard, which was constructed by order of Emperor Maximilian to provide a regal highway between the Palacio Nacional and his home at Chapultepec Castle . . . We were headed for a special Mexican Chorrros Fiesta to be given in our honor by the National Association of Chorrros. And what a show! It was a rodeo given by these Mexican gentlemen. We were as interested in watching the crowd as the show for the the women and men were dressed in their fiesta clothes and it was a sight . . .

Before we realized one show was over we were taken to another place called the Hipodromo de las Americas for luncheon. Here we got a first hand chance of seeing how the wealthy Mexicans enjoy their horse racing, for this was the Jockey Club. All of us were looking a bit down at the heel and here we were ushered into Mexico's best dressed society. Women there really wear hats that go to one's head. Never had we seen such creations, or as many silver fox furs in one spot. The men in our crowd were suddenly sitting up and taking notice, too. Who could blame them . . . After we had seen two races our guides announced it was time to leave. A special bull fight was to be the attraction.

The bull fight is one thing in Mexico that really starts on the appointed day. Everything else could happen mañana, for Mexico might be truly called the mañana land—meaning tomorrow. But not a bull fight! While it was complimentary to the N. E. A. members, I learned that the price of seats depends on whether one sits on the sunny or shady side of the arena. I had some misgivings about attending, wondering whether I was going to get green about the gills when it came time for the kill. But it was nothing like that at all. Bull fighting in the first place is not what might be termed a sport. It is a tragedy, for somebody is killed. The bulls, almost always; horses, sometimes, and every now and then a bullfighter finds death on the horns of a bull . . . But not so this afternoon . . . Usually six bulls are killed at a regular fight. They gave us half a show, three bulls.

We learned that ring bulls average from four to five years old. The bull fighter devotes his life to the profession. He is called the matador and is in charge of the kill. His helpers are called banderilleros and it is their job to thrust the darts into the shoulders of the bull. Other assistants are the picadores, or fighters on horseback, whose duty is lancing the bull on his shoulders in order to lower its strength.

This should all be done within 12 minutes and by 15 minutes the matador should have his job finished, that of thrusting himself between the horns of the bull and driving the sword into the heart. The matadors vie with one another for the applause of the crowd.

The first matador did his job beautifully. He was gorgeously dressed, as well as his helpers. The crowd rose en masse every time he made a pass, yelling what sounded like "Oh-loy, Oh-loy." Never did find out what it meant. When the matador had finished, women threw flowers into the ring, men threw their hats and jackets . . . Then came the second kill and the matador did not thrust his sword into the bull at exactly the right spot. However, the bull died. The man was

State Director Explains Change In County Class

Explaining the suggested change in the state classification of Charlevoix county's farming, the following letter was received by Joseph Stutzman, master of the Barnard Grange.

It is from C. V. Ballard, assistant director of Extension work at Michigan State College.

April 28, 1947

Dear Mr. Stutzman:

This is in reply to your letter of April 21 regarding the districting of Michigan for carrying on Agricultural Extension Work.

Michigan is divided into five districts. Each district is made up of counties having similar types of agriculture. District number 1 comprises the fruit counties along the Lake Michigan shore. Number 2 the general farming area in the Central and Southern part of the State. Number 3 is the Saginaw Valley and the flat lands of Eastern Michigan. Number 4 the counties of Northern and North-Eastern Lower Michigan and District Number 5 is the Upper Peninsula.

This districting is done simply to assist in the supervision of our work and has no bearing upon the quality of county agents working in each district. Shifting from District Number 1 would supply mean that the extension personnel in that county would be under different supervision and would meet with a different group of agents for their in-service training.

(Mrs. Towse's account of her Matador trip will be concluded next week.)

Coast Guard Offers Courtesy Inspections

Motorboat owners who want an inspection of their craft may have it done after May 15 by a team from the Coast Guard Auxiliary.

This Courtesy Inspection is not mandatory but is offered by the Coast Guard to promote and to help boat owners meet government regulations. A numbered sticker will be issued each boat inspected by the Auxiliary and found to meet all legal requirements. The owner also will receive a form listing his name, that of the boat and other information.

Craft having the courtesy Auxiliary sticker will not have to have the regular inspection by authorized boarding officers of the Coast Guard which has responsibility for enforcing the motor vessel laws.

According to Joseph Etienne, commander here, this Auxiliary inspection is offered purely as a courtesy and to cooperate with those boat owners who wish to operate their craft safely. It will be made only when the owner requests it by applying at the Coast Guard headquarters, by call, phone or letter.

The Auxiliary team or teams which will make the inspections have not been organized yet but will be ready by May 15 or shortly afterwards.

Road Money Comes Back

Weight tax money for the first quarter has been returned to Charlevoix county's road commission by the state. The check was for $70,386.58.

ing. There would be no advantage to the county and I can't see that it would have the slightest bearing upon the establishment of an Experiment Station in your area.

As to the type, cost and value of an Experiment Station in your area I suggest you write Director V. R. Gardner giving him some idea as to what problems should be solved by such a station and how extensive an establishment would be necessary to do the job. So much for the districting of Michigan for carrying on the Extension program.

Disregarding districts, all counties of Michigan are classified into four groups depending upon their size, population and the diversification of agriculture. A formula has been developed which when applied to census figures automatically groups the various counties regardless of what district they fall in. In group one counties, the extension staffs are larger and the problems more numerous than in group 4 counties. As a result, the county agent's job is somewhat more difficult in a group one county than is the case in a group 4 county. For example, group 1 counties have in the neighborhood of 5,000 farmers per county while group 4 counties range from 600 to 1,400 farms per county. While the county agent's salary range is slightly higher in counties falling in group 1, 2, and 3 than is the case in group 4 the cost of living is also generally higher.

Counties in group 1 have much higher tax bases than is the case with group 4 counties therefore can more easily provide the necessary local financial support. In order to equalize the county tax load the following policy is maintained: Group 1 counties pay the local expense of all county extension employees, the county agent, home demonstration agent and 4-H club agent while in group 4 counties the county is only required to provide the local expense of the county agent. The other services, home economics and 4-H club are provided on a district basis without cost to the counties they serve."

Kiwanis Asks White Elephant Gifts

Donations for the next Kiwanis White Elephant sale may be made this Saturday afternoon when the American Legion Hall will be open.

If enough material can be collected this spring, a sale will be held now; if not, it will be next fall as has been the custom.

Eastport Youth Burned In Car Fire

Monday evening of last week, James Renhust, brother of Mrs. Leon Ripley, met with a serious accident.

The Chevrolet wouldn't start and Jim tried pumping it. Only he did not use the priming can but a funnel.

Mrs. Ripley stepped on the starter, the engine backfired, igniting the gas in the funnel. Jim threw the funnel back of him spilling gas on himself. Unbeknown to him, 17 months old Billy had come up behind him to watch.

The blazing funnel hit Billy, setting his snow suit afire. Jim tried to put the fire out on Billy and caught fire himself.

His right hand and arm were burned badly. Mrs. Ripley gave him first aid, and took him to Bellaire where they found his right hand had a third degree burn.

Little Billy got out of it with only a small burn on his wrist. All Jim could say was, "There goes third base." He plays third base on the Central Lake high school team.

Charlevoix Club Meets In Detroit

The Charlevoix Detroit Club held its 16th annual get-together in Detroit April 3 with 125 Charlevoixes present.

Roll call showed persons from Detroit, Dearborn, Wayne, Birmingham, Royal Oak, Charlotte, Flint, Rose City, Wyandotte, Toledo, Grand Rapids. Mrs. George la Gloster was the only one living in Charlevoix at present who was there.

Earl Shofon presided. Among those who gave brief talks were Bill Durance, Lue Seroggie and Mrs. Quintan Walse.

It was then announced that the club would like to remember in some way anyone from Charlevoix in a veteran's hospital, or any hospital in the city. Mrs. Grace Papineau of 5524 Orchard Ave., Dearborn will take charge of any requests. Then followed a real gab-fest, talking over old times highlighted with "Remember back when". So that the party would not last until the small hours, a time limit was set for 12 o'clock, but not before the group had eaten ice cream, cake and coffee.

Officers for 1944-45 are: president, James Leunhouts; vice-president, Earl Shofon; sec.-treas., Grace M. Paulneau.

Students Seek More On Island History

Does anyone have any original historical material about Beaver Island since the days of the Mormons?

Two students from MSC were at The Courier office Friday and Saturday going over the files, but they need still more material for the historical thesis they are writing.

They are Mary Nelson of 528 LaSalle Blvd., Lansing, and Beatrice Straw of Charlevoix. Both are teachers but also are working for their Masters degree at State. They are writing about the Beaver Island history since the expulsion of the Mormons, a period they say on which there is no printed history.

Anyone having or knowing of material can write to Miss Nelson.

VOICE of the People

Items contributed in this column are the writer's own and do not necessarily represent the views of this newspaper.

Last week Probate Judge Lewis invited the Kiwanis Club over to the court room to counsel and advise with him as to the disposition of ten boys, ranging from 14 to 16 years of age, inspired without doubt, by the inward feeling of a judge who wants to do the very best for such problems characters and is conscious of the need of the help of his fellow citizens.

But just what to do with such problems? These boys all came from broken homes. In several cases, parents lost by death and in other cases, parents lost by something worse than death.

In answering the question of what to do with such youth, let us note the preventive agencies far all will admit that "An ounce of prevention is worth many pounds of cure."

First, and foremost, these boys were deprived of the influence of good, christian parents and home.

Second, they were deprived of the invaluable benefits of the Christian church and Bible School.

Third, they became victims of the influence of evil minded companions.

Fourth, as a result of the above deprivations, added up, they were denied the privilege of getting the attractive and constructive things they wanted and with which they were surrounded on every side, by honorable and legitimate means.

It seems to me that this all adds up to the fact that what these boys, and all other boys and girls like them, need is a chance in life.

They will not get this chance by lodging them in houses of correction and other such institutions.

Only institutions, staffed by christian and philanthropic servants who love boys and girls enough to see good in them and, consequently have the God given talent to coax it to the front, by love and sincere interest, will solve the problem.

Such institutions should be established, as thickly as necessary, in every State and county of each State. They should be shorn of even a hint or odor of politics. They should be staffed by those who have the ability to conduct them and such persons allowed to function without interference.

They should be financed by public funds, not donations. But it would cost too much? The answer to that one will be given when we compare such cost with the amount we spend on temporary restraint of our problem folk. We will find that the cost of crime prevention will be vastly smaller in dollars and cents than the cost of crime.

detention and apparent correct-something constructive before it hurls us into at destruction.

All babies, born to delinquent and non-responsible progenitors, should be taken away from their parents in infancy and committed to such homes as, partially described above, thus preventing the necessity of "undoing" wrongs in the youth and concentrating our money and energy by training from "scratch".

My heart bleeds for those ten boys and all others in their classification. If I were a young man I would give my whole life to this God inspired service.

Every Line is a look at Tomorrow

You spot it on the highway every time a Buick comes along:

Here you meet the future face-to-face.

Here you see the clean, rich, uncluttered design that marks the swing away from what was to what is going to be.

Here's the sweep and flow of fender line that's called for by a streamlined age — here's the solid, steady look that spells roadability — the broad beam that means room — the massive bonnet that tells of Fireball power aplenty.

Here's grace, here's ability, here's sturdy dependability — all wrapped up in one handsome package that's not merely up-to-the-times but ahead of it.

Here are the good looks that bespeak good works; you hardly have to be told of precision carried to ten-thousandths of an inch, of materials searched out from the finest to be found.

Any wonder that such a creation is America's most wanted automobile? Any wonder people pass up cars that may be easier to get to wait for a car that's going to stay fresh and new and modern-looking?

The simple fact is that you're buying in the future when you buy any good car today.

Why not settle on the one that most obviously foretells what the future will be — that has the most in it of what is to come?

Buick dealers' showrooms are kept pretty bare of display models by the eagerness of Buick buyers to "take over" the first minute they can.

But you'll be greeted in every one of them with courtesy and sincere interest in getting your Buick at the first minute possible.

Drop in — talk it over — and insure yourself a happy future by placing your order now. We'll take it, with or without a car to trade.

Two Showers Given For Mrs. Gibson

Mrs. Elmer Gibson was honored at two stork showers recently. Monday evening Mrs. Ralph Hamilton and Mrs. Charles Hamlin entertained with a party at the Hamilton home. Card games were played with Mrs. F. C. McFarland, Mrs. George LaBlanc, Sr., and Mrs. Ben Yettaw winning the prizes. Refreshments were served after the games by the hostesses. Many lovely gifts were presented to the honoree in a basset tied with a large pink bow.

Earlier the Bi-weekly Club had honored Mrs. Gibson at a potluck supper and social evening at the home of Mrs. Homer Brady. Eight members were present. She was presented with several lovely gifts.

University Expects 20,500 Students

Michigan's University at Ann Arbor will enroll more than 20,500 students this fall according to present estimates, against 18,650 who entered in the spring of 1945.

These figures are given in a statement to the Legislature on the plans, needs and demands being made at the University.

Unlike prewar years, the statement shows, the students themselves are paying 42 percent of the University budget. They used to pay 25 percent and the taxpayer the rest.

Bradley-Chambers Nuptials Celebrated

Miss Barbara Jean Bradley, daughter of Mrs. H. Keith Wagner of this city, and Fay A. Bradley, of Lansing, became the bride of Gerald F. Chambers, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Barney Chambers at a Nuptial High Mass at St. Mary's church at 10 a. m. Saturday.

Rev. Fr. Lea Zellinski read the double ring service. The Children's Choir sang the "Ave Maria" and the Mass.

The bride, escorted by her father, was attired in a gown of white satin and marquisette fashioned with a satin bodice, high neckline and long sleeves. Her fingertip length veil was held by orange blossoms and she carried calla lilies.

Miss Mary Gallagher of St. Ignace, as maid of honor, wore a gown of pink chiffon made with a sweetheart neckline, short sleeves and a full skirt.

Mrs. William Lusk of Lansing, sister of the bride, and Miss Leona Brogan of Ionia, were bridesmaids. Both wore gowns of white satin and tulle. They wore white satin mitts, tulle headresses and carried colorful bouquets of carnations and roses and white sweet-peas.

Barnaby Chambers of Lansing assisted his brother as best man and Lester Gallagher and John Bissell acted as groomsmen.

Mrs. Wagner was attired in a navy and aqua gown with yellow and navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Emerald LaBlanc, sister of the bridegroom, wore a navy ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. L. E. Doderick of Boyne City, grandmother of the bride, wore a medium blue crepe dress with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses.

A wedding breakfast was held at the WaySide. Places for 30 guests were laid at tables decorated with spring flowers.

A reception was held at the Tower Hotel annex from 2 until 4 p. m. The refreshment table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake. White tapers and the bride's and attendant's bouquets decorated the table.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home at the Baker apartments on Bridge St. For traveling the bride wore a striped silk suit in pink, gray and black with a black straw smoke bonnet and pink and black accessories.

Both are graduates of the Charlevoix high school. The bride is a graduate of the Mercy Central school of nursing, Grand Rapids, and is now a member of the nursing staff of the Charlevoix Hospital. The bridegroom served for more than a year in the Navy in the Pacific during World War II.

Out of town guests who attended the wedding were James Ryan and Mr. and Mrs. William Lusk of Lansing; Mrs. J. E. Deloria and William Chambers of Detroit; Barbara Walsh, Joanne Barassky, Mary Ann Long, Betty Ksackiewicz, Jean Avery and Betty Chadwick of Grand Rapids; Cmdr. and Mrs. Lester Gallagher of St. Ignace; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Radenick and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Manglos of Boyne City.

About Town

News of folks, your neighbors and what's going on in town.

The Hernan Mencarelli are back at their home on Dixon Ave. following a short stay in Detroit. They brought Frank Miller, father of Mrs. Mencarelli, back with them. Since he has been there he has had two strokes and is in a critical condition. The children from Detroit and Flint were called here. Monday was promenade day on Main Street for young Charlevoix mothers. The warm weather was inductive to strolling. . . . Peter Winnick has been a pretty sick man and is still confined to his bed. Neighbors have been playing the part of good Samaritans and have put in his oats for him. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Wakefield of Muskegon spent the week end with the M. E. Wakefields. On Sunday the Ira McWatters of Petoskey were also here to help celebrate Mother's Day. . . . What is the big hole being dug for? asked a gal Monday as workmen were digging down below the foundation in front of Turner's. "Going to bury a horse," interested bystanders remarked. The truth of the matter is that Turner's Bar is going to have a new store front, a modernization for Bridge Street. . . . At the last meeting of the Gideon Chapter, Petoskey Camp, M. E. Wakefield was elected vice-president. On Wednesday evening a Gideon service was held at the Barnard Church for their regular Wednesday service.

Tryon Believes Public Opinion Swayed Jury

Public sentiment, the fact that he is a union labor leader, and that he could not present testimony about his wife are believed by William Tryon to be among the reasons the circuit court jury here found him guilty on April 28 of first degree murder.

These and several other points possibly will be the basis of his case when he asks for a new trial.

After sentence was pronounced by Judge Karl Liebrand April 28, Tryon's attorneys made a motion for a new trial. Formal filing of the motion with Clerk F. R. Bulow was made May 10. Meanwhile his attorneys have petitioned the Court for an extension of the 20 day stay allowed. A ten-day stay has been granted which means Tryon likely will go to the State Prison at Jackson on May 28.

Before the motion for a new trial can be heard, a transcript of the former trial must be made and the attorneys and court have time to study it. This is a process which can run into a month or more.

Tryon Monday said he didn't know what line or lines his attorneys would take in their final brief for a new trial.

"I've had a lot of time to think in here," he said, "and there are a lot of reasons why I'd be justified in asking for a new trial, or if that is denied in appealing to the state Supreme Court."

"There's the way the state handled the temporary insanity issue, for instance. The doctors and my attorneys proved I was out of my mind at the time of the tragedy and it never was disproved."

"Another thing, I had six witnesses who weren't allowed to testify. The Court wouldn't let them, on the grounds they would defame the character of my wife. So when I got on the stand and said that things she had done were driving me crazy and I'd been under a terrific strain, I wasn't allowed to bring in witnesses to back up what I said. All the jury had was my unsupported word and I wasn't allowed to tell much at that."

Two other facts were not brought out in the trial, Tryon points out. First is the fact that the shotgun charge came out under his arm slightly lower than it entered. He said the gun was an automatic with a long barrel and holds that it is just about impossible for a man to lean over a gun, push the trigger and have the charge range downward instead of up toward the shoulder.

The other is the fact that the gun was found near the door of the room and on the opposite side of the bed from where his and Mrs. Tryon's bodies were found.

Although the fact that he is a state CIO officer was not stressed in the trial, he feels that the daily papers by constantly harping on it, worked up sentiment hostile to him.

In fact, he says that impartial as Judge Liebrand was, he believes public sentiment in the county definitely was against him. The chief reason for this is his record of union activities in a predominantly farming community.

Asked about the children, his son and daughter, Tryon replied they are living with in-laws and continued talking about possible basis for his new trial appeal.

First Work on New Bridge to Start Soon

Work will be starting before long on the new bridge here.

Men are expected to be arriving in town this week and to start making ready for the coming of machines and materials.

Most of the equipment to be used here is now tied up, completing a construction job near Jackson. Expected to be finished in a few days or weeks, the machinery will be hauled here.

First major job will be the selection of a site for storing, screening and loading gravel and crushed rock to be used in the foundations. A site which can be reached by rail and truck is wanted as this would save an extra handling of gravel. The tentative plan calls for the material to be unloaded, screened and stored. Then as needed it will be loaded in the right proportions into trucks and hauled to the bridge site where the concrete mixers will be placed.

At first it was planned to have the material piled by the channel or lake so shipment could be made by ship. No suitable place was found however, and now an alternate rail site is being sought.

Some work already has been done. The garage has been taken down at the Atlas property to make way for the detour road which will cross the city park beyond Dutcher & Johnson's store be carried across the channel on a swinging barge bridge and then climb the north hill to connect with Nichols street.

Light Calendar Faces May Court

When the May term of Circuit Court opens here next Monday, a light calendar will face Judge W. I. Waller.

Up for sentence will be Jack Moore, LaVerne Goodman, Joseph Kirby, Keith West, Floyd Moore, Richard Clark, Robert Whale, and Ira Wright of Boyne City, all Boyne City high school boys who Friday pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny.

Five divorce cases also are listed. They are George vs. Lucy L. Hardy; Vendelin E. vs. Leona Faculak; Grace E. vs. Grover C. Genelt; Florence vs. Carl Kyser; and Ruth vs. Harry Kowalske.

A new trial was denied Lawrence Nevils who is serving a 12-month sentence for rape.

The jurors drawn for June 2 and their residences are: H. A. Brannan, Bay; John Martin, Boyne Valley; Irma Townsend, Chandler; Tom Mikos, Charlevoix; James McNeal, Evangeline; Thomas Neilson, Eveline; Jerry Haggerty, Hayes; Charles Scope, Hudson; William Ver Meulen, Marion; Don Kondzella, Melrose; Howard Gornell, Norwood; Charles P. Gallagher, Peaine; Thomas Gatliff, St. James; Hiram Brock, South Arm; Shirley Behling, Wilson.

Edward Loreh, Lyle Kowalski, Alstine Dunlop and Philmore Green, Boyne City; Lou Comfort, Charles Hamlin, Charlevoix; Lyle Keller, Claude Sweet and Mrs. J. F. Bugai, East Jordan.

A Boy, His Pony and a Brand New Colt Take Time to Pose

A boy, a Shetland pony, and a colt—that's the combination these days out at the Guy Bost farm at Barnard.

On May 1 Bunny, the pony, had her second colt. White, with a black face and markings, he at once was named Paint—and called Painter for short.

Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bost, is owner and caretaker of the pair.

Though small, Shetlands are husky. When he was 12 hours old, the mare took her offspring on a half mile tour of the farm including a gallop across plowed ground. According to Stewart, he wobbled some but made it.

O.E.S. Chapter Of Meguzee Meeting Here

Hostess to the 12 other Eastern Star chapters of the Meguzee Association, Charlevoix Wednesday and Thursday is entertaining visiting stars from Northwestern Michigan.

Guest of honor at the meeting, which is the 43rd annual one, is the Worthy Grand Matron, Leah Brown DeLong of Grand Rapids. Also honored is Charlevoix's Alice Bellinger, Grand Adah of the state chapter and president of the Meguzee Association.

The program began at 2 p. m. Wednesday with Laura Courier, past president, opening the meeting. Presentations of officers, the gavel and the flag were followed by a welcome to the Stars from Mayor Karl Erber and from Charlevoix Chapter by Mildred Webster. Reports, greetings, songs and an entertainment by the Girl Scouts and Brownies were on the program.

A banquet was served at the Wayside at 6:30 p. m. The evening meeting was featured by the Grand Officers emphasizing the degrees, an address by Mrs. DeLong and a reception for Mrs. Bellinger.

The Thursday morning program started with a wake-up sing led by Mrs. Webster. It was included reports, election and installation of officers.

Odmark Discusses Band At Kiwanis

The program at the Kiwanis meeting Monday evening was in charge of Dr. D. C. Nettleton, chairman of the music committee.

In honor of National Music week, Clarence A. Odmark, director of the Charlevoix high school band, addressed the group and spoke on the problems and organization of a band. He brought out many practical ideas and the general problems of a high school band.

Mr. and Mrs. Brant Again Operate Grocery

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Brant once more are operating their Garfield street grocery.

The lease held for two years by Charles Novotny expired and the Brants decided to go back into the retail business instead of renewing it.

Maxbauer Dairy Building New Plant in City

A new, larger and more modern Maxbauer's Dairy is being built at 199 West Lincoln street.

The site is directly west of the Brant building now occupied by the Freedman Engineering plant and back of the new laundry and dry cleaning buildings of Jack Foster and John Knight.

The new building will be of cream brick, glass block and cinder block, with large windows in front. The glass blocks will be built along both sides in place of windows, admitting plenty of light and permitting the interior of the work room to be washed down with a hose.

In size it will be 32 by 98 with a 6 foot loading dock and garage extension at the west side.

At the front will be two offices. Then will come the four processing rooms, with partitions of 4-inch cinder block. At the rear will be a boiler room and the 3-car garage. To the west of the plant will be the drive and parking area.

Ceilings and sidewalls will be plaster, floors of concrete. The flat roof will be carried on wooden rafters. The interior will be arranged so that trucks can load or unload either from the platform or in the garage during bad weather.

Digging of trenches started last week and foundation forms were put in Tuesday. John Boss, dairy manager, expects the new building will be ready for use about July 1. Lou Brant is supervising construction.

Present equipment that is virtually new will be moved to the new plant and several new items will be installed. Among these are a pasteurizer and a hooding machine which wraps bottle caps completely over the top of the bottle. A new boiler has been ordered and probably will be delivered inside a year.

Road Heads Warn Of Threat to County

If more state money isn't forthcoming, rural roads in Charlevoix and all other Northern Michigan counties are going to suffer, the County Highway Commission said Monday when it met here.

Effective May 15, revenue from liquor taxes received through the state will cease. This amounted to 3 1/2 million yearly for Michigan and $32,826.87 for the county last year.

All of this went to maintain and improve McNeill roads. There are 642.3 miles of these in the county, all being the lesser used rural roads.

W.C.T.U. Has Annual May Breakfast

The W. C. T. U. held the annual May breakfast at the Baptist church Friday morning with 25 members attending.

The breakfast was given by the losing team headed by Mrs. Ernest Howe for the winners headed by Mrs. Hazel Crain in the recent membership drive.

Mrs. Gaylord Howell led the devotions at the business meeting which followed. Mrs. John Funk welcomed the new members and told of several interesting incidents about her recent visit at Jamaica, B.W.I. with her son-in-law, and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Struthers, missionaries there.

Ohio Firm Given Mail Contract

After July 1 mail to Beaver Island will be carried by a boat operated by the Lyons Navigation Co., of Lorain, Ohio, according to word received here from the bonding company.

No official word has come to the post office.

R. B. Lyons, head of the company, was up here last year operating the White Swan, an 85 foot freighter.

It is not known what craft he plans to use on the mail run, but Emil Fischner, who was with him last summer says he doubts if it will be the White Swan as she is not equipped for passengers.

Capt. Joe Howard says that Capt. Leroy Allers is planning to continue to operate his passenger boats on the St. James run.

Library Closing May Be Decided Monday

Final decision on whether or not the library stays open this summer may be made Monday night when the School Board meets, according to Supt. Roy Bennett.

The question, Supt. Bennett says, is one of money. More money is needed to pay the higher salaries which must be paid if the school is to operate, and closing the library, he points out, would save dollars.

Examination of school records shows it is only a few, however. The 1945-46 report shows the library cost $3756 to operate for the full 12 months. By breaking down the items, the money which could be saved by closing during the summer would be less than $500, or about $490 to be more exact.

Behind the dollars at stake there is another question. The library is a part of the school system. But the schools do not operate in the summer, when the library is most used.

Because of this, the school Board has asked the Council to help defray the cost of the summer operation but never has set the definite amount it feels the city should contribute.

Untended Grass Fire Destroys Farm Home

The Charlevoix fire department was called out twice over the week-end, Fire Chief Charles Marshall reports.

On Saturday the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davis, located in Marion township, was badly damaged by fire shortly after noon. An untended grass fire started the blaze which caused $1,000 damage. The owners live in Detroit but furniture and other possessions including many cans of fruit and vegetables were stored in the house. Little was saved.

A hay barn on the small farm of George Arnold in Charlevoix township burned Sunday afternoon. Included in the loss was a ton of hay stored in the barn. Cause of the fire is not known.

Mrs. Krohn Opening Cosmetic Studio

Operated in connection with the Style Beauty Shop, Mrs. Esther Krohn is opening the Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio.

Last March she attended a school in Flint given by the Merle Norman house and qualified to handle the company's line and to give the complexion treatment.

Conservation Class Plants 1500 Seedlings on Totten Farm

Applied forestry was practiced by the 25 boys in C. M. Novak's conservation class May 6 when they planted 1500 pine seedlings on Harold Totten's farm eight miles south of Charlevoix.

K. C. Festerling, county club agent, was on hand to help. Totten previously had contour plowed the six acres selected for the woodlot, a piece of ground unsuited for anything but growing trees. The boys, working in pairs, set the trees in less than an hour.

Track Team Wins Eleventh District Title

Coach S. E. Coleman's thin-clads won their eleventh consecutive Northern Michigan Class C Conference track and field meet here on Saturday.

Charlevoix took a total of 115 1/2 points with Harbor Springs scoring 37 1/2, Grayling, 15 and Pellston, 11.

Two new conference records were set. W. Jolliffe won the half mile in 2:11.2. R. Carey tossed the shot 42 feet, 1 inch.

Monday—We were to leave beautiful Mexico City and see what life was like in the country. The country is what always has suffered: one really felt he had stepped back a couple of centuries when he saw the primitive way in which so many live and work. In spite of poverty there were flowers. Such artistic people. A short way out of the city we were stopped and made to walk through a trough of sawdust generously wet down with a strong caustic soda solution, and cars drove through a liquid solution in the road. This was to help eradicate the hoof and mouth disease so prevalent in Mexico.

"Look, there is Sleeping Lady, the famous mountain of Mexico, whose contour is that of a sleeping lady. Burros, burros everywhere laden with all kinds of wares. The Mexican peasant spends a great deal of his time going from one market to another within a trottable area to dispose of his wares, and they are always loaded on the poor burro. Where do all the new American cars come from? At Puebla, we went "cathedralling" spending a morning going through three cathedrals. Words fail me when it comes to describing them. Never knew there were so many 22 carat gold objects in the world. Outside coming down the road was a poor Mexican family whose baby had died. For a coffin they had used an orange crate which they had draped with cheap cloth. The father and son were carrying it on their shoulders while the rest of family trudged along barefooted.

We were climbing (what a view) and then suddenly came a series of hairpin turns and down, down we went into a lush valley, coffee plantations, sugar cane that seemed as high as the homes the country folk lived in. Bananas. Surely a lush valley after the desolate country we had passed through. Then we saw it—our destination—Fortín.

Before the famous Ruiz Galinda Hotel, we found ourselves surrounded by beautiful, dark eyed, smiling children holding out leis of gardenias as gifts. "For you, Senora, for you." Just imagine a whole lot of gardenias. The little town of Fortín is called the city of Flowers. Only 35 miles from Vera Cruz the town is in the center of a lush valley of coffee, bananas, sugar cane and flowers. This is paradise we all agreed. So thrilled was everyone with the place that Mr. Eck agreed to cancel a tour next day and let us remain that much longer in this haven of flowers. Never will the party forget that night. Sitting in the patio surrounding the pool, which is filled with a truck load of fresh gardenias each morning, the members of the party in swimming made a real picture floating among the flowers. Then, one had only to raise his eyes to Mount Orizaba in the distance, for another eye-filling view. It looked like a big pink strawberry ice cream cone among the mountains with the slanting rays of sunlight on it. This was paradise on earth, until it came time for bed and the mosquitoes in our room. The last I remember that night was Florine Stelter, scaling the wall in pursuit of one illusive pest as I dropped off to sleep.

The next night back in Mexico City we had a chance to visit the famous Sanborn restaurant in the House of Tiles in downtown of Mexico City. Here one is able to get a chocolate ice cream soda if his appetite has become jaded by an overdose of Mexican foods. Another thrill was in store for us, a fronton game. The only thing that could beat that game for speed was our boys at Charlevoix tournament time in basketball. What a game!

Wednesday, April 23—This was another day of days. That morning we met at the Nacional Palace and were taken to the room where ambassadors, kings and other dignitaries were received. We went through a series of rooms, decorated in different shades of silk brocade wall coverings. Finally we came to the room and stood there waiting for Mexico's president, Miguel Alemán. He walked the length of the room with a quiet dignity with his bodyguard at his side. He said he considered our coming, (for we were the largest delegation of newspaper folks ever to visit Mexico) next in importance to President Truman's visit. Another thrill I got while standing in that room listening to Alemán, was when I turned and saw a full length oil painting of George Washington.

Thursday, April 24—Another trip away from Mexico City. This time to Cuernavaca, a beautiful city of homes. Many people prefer this town to Mexico City for it is 300 feet lower and not quite so hard on the heart. Going through some of the tiny villages built close to the road, the air suddenly seemed thick enough to cut with a knife. Many women were washing. Strange to say we saw several children in white clothes. Even the clothes of the farmer are white. Sometimes he is barefooted, sometimes he wears sandals. Passing by one of the low, thatched cottages with smoke coming out the front door, our front seat companion said, "Do you suppose that Paine ever would have written 'Home, Sweet Home' if he had lived down here?" Then the scene changed when we neared Cuernavaca. The royal poinsettia trees were in bloom, then new homes and finally the city itself. For hotels one would have to go a long way to find better than this city affords. This was the former home of Ambassador Morrow. Here also were the famous gardens of Borda, the famous silver king of Taxco. The gardens were built like formal gardens of France. Now in decay and ruin, it was not hard to visualize their loveliness in the days when Carlotta and Maximilian lived here. At this town we were given a couple of hours in the shops and such a orgy of buying that went on.

Then Taxco, our destination. This little town clinging to the mountainside has a real European flavor about it. The little houses are white with red tiled roofs. So that the beauty of the town will not be spoiled an ordinance has been passed whereby all future buildings must be of the same style of architecture. On the high hill of the town stood the beautiful cathedral built by Borda, himself, his gratitude for being led to the mountain of silver which he mined, making himself so wealthy. However, he pue yes a. I had a pap watched the natives of the town. I gave a nicker to one child and he bought something that resembled an ice cream cone. When I looked up again here he was surrounded and each child was getting his generous lick of that cone. Pagine a sanitarian! Taxco is the spot where one buys silver. All of us did the shops.

When we returned to Mexico City the next afternoon, it was just a matter of hours before we were to fly back to the States. After another meal at Sanborn's we tried a movie. Imagine our surprise when the news reel showed the doings of the National Editorial Association for the week in Mexico. It was fun seeing ourselves as others would see us. Especially funny was the bull fight.

Imagine our surprise when we arrived in Charlevoix to find a picture of ourselves in the window. It had been taken on the airplane about 12:30 A. M. I had been awakened and asked if I wanted my picture taken. I had said emphatically, "No." But there it was. My blue feather hat covered my face as I had started to go back to slumberland. My husband said I looked like an English shepherd and our young hopeful's first remark was, "Mother, why did you ever have such a picture taken? You look like a mangy old ostrich."

Yes, sir, folks, I had got back home.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Industry Looks at Our Town

Maybe you read how a group of industrial experts have decided that the small town is the place for industry—not big cities. Reasons they give are better housing, pleasanter living, and more opportunity for wholesome recreation.

Well, looking around our town I'd say that was about right. Most of us own our homes, and keep them looking nice; we enjoy each other's company; and our recreations are mostly simple outdoor sports, and in the evening a mellow glass of beer with pleasant company.

As Doc Walters says, that sort of life just naturally sets you up for work the next day... whether it's in office, mill, or field. And Doc should know. He works fourteen hours, but never misses his morning "constitutional" or his evening glass of beer with friends.

From where I sit, any industry could profit from being in a town where wholesome living, temperance, and friendship are the rule.

The Doctor Doesn't Wait

Michigan doctors are imbued with the spirit of wanting to make their State the healthiest of the nation. They are constantly, through unified group action, setting up the clinics and centers and measures that are aimed at detecting disease and controlling it. More than any other person, your doctor believes that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure—and much of his time is given to putting that belief into practice. The doctor doesn't wait for disease to strike you; he finds it far more gratifying to take the initiative, voluntarily, in placing Michigan to the forefront as the healthiest State to live in.

HOW DO YOU HANDLE MONEY?

THERE are people who handle money the way a dog jumps over a fence: he doesn't know whether he will land in a trap, on a bee's nest or next to a juicy bone. Know where you are going financially. Let a checking account help you keep track of income and outgo.

Dutch Librarian Grateful for Books

Miss Florence Milner, librarian, has received a letter from the Children's Librarian in Rotterdam, Holland, thanking the children of the Junior Library here for scrap-books the children made during the summer of 1945.

The project was sponsored by the Children's Council with headquarters in New York. Included in the books were pictures and stories depicting the everyday things in this country such as a day in school.

The letter, written by E. J. Kluit, children's librarian, reads in part: "In the name of the children of Rotterdam I thank you most heartily for the books and the nice scrapbooks you sent."

"The children have enjoyed looking at the pictures in the American books and they have listened to the stories which have been read to them and translated into Dutch because they could not understand your language. But the elder boys and girls have read the books for themselves and this has helped them to learn English. They learn it at school but they like a nice story better than to make an exercise."

"And all of them like the scrapbooks which you made for them. There has been made a Dutch scrapbook in return for you and they hope you will like that too. It has been made by children who live together in a Children's Home."

New Wood Products Plant Starts Here

Mort Wood Products, Charlevoix's newest industry, is getting under way at the Loeb School.

Owned by A. C. Mort, the plant will specialize along two lines. Locally, he will build furniture and cabinets to order. These will include cupboards, kitchen units, shelves, sets of drawers. For other concerns, he will make wooden parts for such things as sleds, toys, furniture.

Mort comes from Detroit where for years he owned the Mort Folding Table Co. He bought the farm just south of the Loeb School last fall of Walter Moore. The former school he has turned into a shop and is now installing machinery and tooling up.

First orders will be delivered first on juvenile bicycles. Let us have your order. Brown Motors, Inc.

HOW TO CUT REPAIR BILLS ON FARM EQUIPMENT

- It's always easier and less expensive to keep farm machinery in good condition, than to rebuild it after it has been neglected.
- Here are a few hints, worth dollars to any farmer.
1. Make a thorough check of each machine at least twice a year.
 2. When you find a worn or broken part, phone us immediately. Parts are still scarce.
 3. Don't take a machine into the field until you know it is in tip top condition.
 4. Let us check your tractor now for compression, adjustment and general efficiency.
 5. House machinery when it is not in use.
- We are equipped to do any repair job from simple welding to major overhaul and rebuilding. Our modern equipment and expert mechanics assure first class service. The spring work season is almost here. Better phone us right away.

Charlotte Martin Is Valedictorian At St. James

Charlotte Irene Martin has achieved the honor of having the highest scholastic record of the Class of '47 of Saint James high school.

Miss Martin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Martin of Beaver Island. She has received her entire education on the Island and taken part in all school activities. Miss Martin had a leading role in the Christmas play and has been Prefect of the Sodality.

She will be presented with an honor award at the Commencement Exercises. — by Margaret Ricksgers.

Inwood Farm Bureau Sees Color Pictures

Color pictures taken about Norwood and Charlevoix were shown Monday night by Mrs. Allen Campbell at the meeting of the Inwood Farm Bureau Group. The meeting was held in the Norwood town hall. A potluck supper was served at 8:30, followed by a brief period of games directed by Howard Brumm and the showing of the pictures.

The group will meet next on June 9 at the Norwood Hall. Ice cream and cake will be the refreshments.

Engine Spark Sets Blaze, Burns Pines

Ellsworth—A spark from a passing Pere Marquette locomotive last Friday set fire to dry grass and burned about 100 pine seedlings on the Ebenezer Christian school grounds. Mrs. A. M. Klooster discovered the blaze and called the fire department. The fire was put out about 10 rods from the school building.

Concerners Club Will Have Song Festival

The Concerners Club of Iron-ton next Tuesday evening will have its annual Song Festival at the Iron-ton Church at 8 p. m. This event is given each spring by the Concerners as an entertainment for all in the community and especially for any newcomers. The singers will be present from Charlevoix, Boyne City and East Jordan.

After the singing, ice cream and cake will be served in the dining room.

Norwood Organizes Cemetery Association

This spring the people of the community organized the Norwood Cemetery Association.

The members will meet whenever necessary to keep the cemetery in good order and make whatever improvements are necessary.

The first meeting was held Saturday when the men did an excellent job of spring cleaning the cemetery. The women served dinner at the town hall.

Another meeting of this kind will be held Saturday, May 24. The officers of the association are: president, William Parsons; Secretary-treasurer, Floyd Wagner and purchasing agent, George Light.

day evening service . . . Mrs. Lizzie Black is at home again these days after spending the winter on Long Island with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. McCafferty are visiting their mother, Mrs. Helen McCafferty at the home of Mrs. Bert Carey.

They expect to be here for two weeks. Pete is a one-man Chamber of Commerce down at Ashtabula, Ohio. "Am getting my Ohio friends sold on this part of Michigan," he said. "This is my home town and I sure love it. I could smell the fresh air miles away," he added. And we agree.

Is there anywhere on earth where the air smells so fresh and wonderful? . . . And have you been looking at the sunsets lately?

Cornelius Geiken of Marquette a former Charlevoix man, is now living back in his old home town. For the past 25 years he has lived in Marquette. Just a year ago his wife passed on. He has an apartment in the building occupied by the Pearl Barber and Beauty Shop . . . Jess and Edgar Smith spent Sunday in Gladwin.

The Gregory place purchased by John Struthers is going to be the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Struthers in another week or ten days. And the Tom Louiselles are buying the farm the Struthers are leaving. . . Mrs. Myron Culver of Detroit is at her home on Nettleton Street getting it ready for summer occupancy.

Yes, it's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Perron who arrived last week. Weighing 8 pounds, he will answer to the name Edward George. . . At the Baptist church Sunday, Mother's Day, flowers were given to the oldest mother present, Mrs. A. B. Lawton; to the youngest mother, Mrs. Charles Novotny; mother with the largest number of children present at church with her, Mrs. Martin Elzinga. . .

Mrs. Marie Krohn of Elkton, mother of Mrs. Gordon Moeller of Dixon Ave., arrived Thursday for an indefinite stay with her daughter. She was also a guest at the Mother and Daughter banquet held Friday night at the IOOF Hall, sponsored by the Church of God women. . .

Zella Baker is to be the new chef at the Central Lake Hotel which is about to open for the summer months. Mrs. Baker has made quite a reputation as a cook in these parts. . . If you are an early riser you may get down-town in the morning to see the new donut machine at work in the Sugar Bowl Cafe window. . .

Understand that Harbor Springs invited Clark Gable to come to their town after he stated that he had only a thousand dollars left after paying all his income taxes, etc. . . Well, Charlevoix should page Ron Brenneman of Hollywood for when it comes to making unusual hats Charlevoix women take the cake. Understand that many more creations were made at the recent May party given by Mrs. Mildred Webster and Mrs. Ruth Miller. The invitation specified that the women come in hats of their own making. Mabel Goddard got the first as the gal with a May-pole hat. . .

Birthday congratulations to Mrs. Jennie Ager who celebrates a birthday this week. . . Mrs. Will Taylor has returned from Ann Arbor where she underwent surgery at the University Hospital. She is recuperating at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Moore. . . Mr. and Mrs. Fred Melin of Charlevoix are announcing the marriage of their son, Eugene to Miss Doreen R. Shaffer of Spokane, Wash. The marriage will be June 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hampton of Ann Arbor are at their summer home at 412 Michigan for a couple of weeks. They always look forward to coming to Charlevoix. Mr. Hampton, who was a former editor of The Courier, always has to inspect the newspaper office for he feels a paternal pride in the paper. . . Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Scudder who have been wintering in LaFeria, Texas, arrived home Tuesday afternoon in the rainstorm. . . Mrs. P. R. Ross left Friday post-haste for Milwaukee, Wis. Just a few days before Mr. and Mrs. Ross had received word that they were grandparents to twin girls born to Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ross. About a week later Franklin became ill with the flu. Mrs. Ross, who had remained in the hospital a week, had gone home, had become ill, the babies were sick as was Mrs. Ross's mother who had been caring for the family. So, Grandma Ross flew to the rescue. . . Mr. and Mrs. Perin Johnston from Sanford are here, and seeing that P. R. is well cared for. . .

C. H. S. Senior class will hold a baked goods sale at the A&P store on Saturday, May 17.

Non-operating railroad unions are demanding still another raise of $568,000,000.00

MR. & MRS. CONSUMER

MR. SHIPPER & MR. FARMER

MR. & MRS. PASSENGER

You would foot the bill!

Look out! There's another big railroad wage demand headed your way!

The non-operating unions alone—whose members do not actually operate trains—are demanding a flat increase of 20 cents an hour. These demands would cost the railroads of the country five hundred sixty-eight million dollars a year!

Last year these employees had an increase of 18½ cents an hour. This was their third major wage increase since 1939. Their average weekly pay has gone up 75%, as against a cost-of-living rise of 54%.

Since 1939, railroad wage and material costs have gone up more than three times as much as freight rates, and five times as much as passenger fares. That is why in 1946, with the largest peacetime traffic in history, the net income of railroads went down to the equivalent of only 22% of the net property investment.

What About 1947?

Even with the recent freight rate increase, preliminary figures indicate that the railroads will make only about the same low return in 1947 as in 1946. This will be because:—the wage increase made in 1946 will be in effect for all of 1947;

—special payroll taxes on railroads have recently been increased;—and passenger traffic has declined.

Where Would the Money Come From?

We can't pay out what we don't take in. And we are not taking in enough now to meet present costs and to complete the improvements in service that you need and that we want to give you.

You Would Foot the Bill!

H. F. Hooker, Jr., Is Wed At Mt. Pleasant

Harrison Frederick Hooker, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hooker of Charlevoix was married May 3 to Shirley Weenun of Mt. Pleasant and formerly of Saginaw. The marriage was performed at the St. Johns Episcopal church in Mt. Pleasant.

A reception was given in the Parish House after the ceremony. Guests were present from Detroit, Wayne, Charlevoix, Flint and Saginaw. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hooker, Mrs. Mark Hooker, and Mrs. William Kibbe were among those from Charlevoix.

The newlyweds are making their home in Mt. Pleasant. Both are students at Central Michigan College of Education. Hooker is continuing his education after four years in service.

Mrs. Lola Lewis presented a paper on "Going to school in India" at the regular monthly meeting of the Women's Guild of the Congregational church held at the church on Wednesday.

At the business meeting which followed plans were completed for the women's Conference of the Charlevoix Association to be held at the church May 9.

Jana Alexander, Richard Friend Wed

Baskets of pink gladioli and tapers decorated the altar of the First Presbyterian church, Petoskey, for the marriage of Jana Alexander and Richard E. Friend at 4 o'clock p. m. Wednesday.

Rev. E. P. Linnell and Rev. G. R. Parker of Northport officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Norman Risk at the organ played a program of traditional wedding music and accompanied Miss Dorothy Brockway who sang "Because".

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Alexander, former Ironton residents now living in Petoskey, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Gardner Friend of Petoskey.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Jill Chapman of Shelby, Mo., was her only attendant. Robert Friend, twin brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Donald Priebe and Kenneth Friend were ushers.

A reception followed in the church dining room.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home in Petoskey.

Mothers and Daughters Hold Annual Banquet

Mothers and Daughters of the Church of God held their annual banquet at the IOOF hall Friday evening with the fathers and sons of the church serving the dinner.

Places for 160 were laid at long tables decorated in a spring motif.

Rev. Mary Barber, of Barryton, was the guest speaker. She chose as her subject "Mothers" and what it means to be a good mother.

Joy VanZant gave the toast to the mothers and Mrs. Harold Clark responded with a toast to the daughters.

Mrs. Ross New Rebeck Vice-President

The annual Spring meeting of the 18th district of the Rebekah lodge was held at Mancelona on Friday. Mrs. P. H. Ross, who held the office of treasurer, was elected vice-president for the ensuing year.

Mrs. George Cook and Mrs. Lawrence Swanson attended as delegates from the local lodge. Others who made the trip were Mrs. Fred Gill, Mrs. E. E. Stroud, Mrs. Howard Griffin, Mrs. Floyd Ikens, Mrs. Lukies, Mrs. George Willis, Mrs. John Bugbee, Mrs.

A son, Edward George was born to Mr. and Mrs. Sineon Perron May 7.

Let's Talk Sense About Food Prices

In all the talk about lower prices, don't forget this:

Day in and day out, no retailer does a better job of keeping prices down than your food merchant. No food merchant does a better job than A&P.

We would like you to understand two important things about A&P's price situations:

Our net profit during the past five years has averaged only about 1 cent on each dollar of sales. If we were to operate our business without any profit at all, this 1 cent would amount to a saving of less than 4 cents a day on the entire food bill of the average American family.

We sincerely believe that A&P has the lowest cost of distribution of any retail business in the world. When you spend $1.00 in an A&P store, you get 86 cents worth of food and only about 14 cents goes to meet all expenses—wages, taxes, rent, light, heat and the hundreds of other expenses incidental to the stocking and operating of a modern food store—including our very small profit.

Obviously there is little "fat" in such a price structure. Our operating costs and profits are already cut close to the bone.

Merchants generally have reduced prices on many items on which they were overstocked. In recent weeks we have reduced prices on hundreds of such items. That is common merchandising practice and has no relation to a general or permanent price reduction.

While many food prices have already been lowered we must recognize that no substantial general reduction in retail food prices is possible until the cost of food to the retailer is reduced.

As any housewife knows, A&P's business has been built on the policy of selling quality food at the lowest practical price every day.

We pledge to our customers strict adherence to that policy. We will continue to lower our prices as fast as reductions in costs to us and economies in our operations permit.

The Tow Line

News of folks, your neighbors and mine... but did you know that—

Mrs. Grace Gettleson who has been in Plymouth during the winter months is back in Charlevoix, dividing her time between her country home and her work at the real estate office in town. We've had a few days of weather. Cruisers and sailboats were out on Lake Charlevoix Sunday and it was a thrilling sight. Fish have been biting too. Even the editors, who are not lucky fishermen, hauled in 17 perch in about an hour the other night. Were they ever good eating? Lots of fishermen were in town for the week-end and reported good catches.

A note from Rae Graver Kahrs on Long Island says that she looks forward to reading all the news each week in the "home town paper" as she spent 15 happy summers in dear old Charlevoix and knows many folks here. Mrs. Kahrs was associated with the Belvedere Hotel during those years. The lawns and grounds of the Chicago Club and the Belvedere are a beautiful green these days, all spic and span ready for its summer residents.

Bessie Gaskin of Detroit arrived Friday to spend the summer months in Charlevoix. Another Detroit visitor is Peggy Hallett who spent the week-end at the Glenn See home. The Meyer Levinson home is undergoing a paint job, as well as the Methodist church. Surely I have seen this year was at the Howard Stevens home out in Hayes township. There was a hush at the corner of the house that is in a riot of bloom. The Clarence Odmark family moved last week into the Harry Ladd house on State street.

A thousand pardons! For some unaccountable reason the name of Mrs. Ray Faulner was omitted as a hostess of a lovely tea party given recently at the Clarence Wood home, with Mrs. Mabel Goddard as another co-hostess. Certainly would not slight the woman who has been like a mother to me ever since we arrived in Charlevoix from California last October. All that I can say is that I am sorry, Mrs. Faulner.

If you want to see a sight just take to the woods these days. They are white in places with trilliums and Dutchman's Breeches. Orchids to Mrs. Alice Bellinger who presided so beautifully at the meeting of Mequize Chapter last Friday. How proud her mother and sister must have been of her as they sat on the stage with her at the High School gymnasium. They are really an Eastern Star family.

Henry Hilton who suffered two strokes recently is still in a serious condition, although he is resting much easier than he did last week. Among those who are candidates for degrees this June at MSC are Mervyn C. McRae and Phyllis L. Roberts of Charlevoix. "Down with the storm windows, up with the screens," is the slogan of the week in Charlevoix. And speaking of slogans, Ironton surely has a million dollar one, "For Fish and Fun, that's Ironton." Mrs. Josephine Dundas has a parakeet that keeps her company in her kitchen. She is a great lover of parakeets and owned one that had a vocabulary of 90 words.

Congratulations to the Girl Scouts. They really went to town on their Rummage sale Saturday.

The B. D. LeBret family of Detroit, who purchased the Ella Harrington house on Clinton St. is expected in Charlevoix the last of the month. During the past few weeks carpenters and painters have been busy modernizing the house and putting it in tip-top condition. Mr. LeBret is a jeweler in Detroit and has been coming to Charlevoix with his family for several summers. A lot of summer residents are arriving. There are lots of new faces on Bridge street. Mont's Cafe, the Charlevoix Fruit Company and the Turkey Wing are getting ready to reopen soon.

The Harold Millers spent the week-end in Royal Oak, the occasion being the celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. Miller's parents, the Hugh Millers. The children and grandchildren, numbering 14, were all present for the occasion. Florence Stelter is planning to spend the summer months at the Allen Campbell home at Norwood.

Orson Cook, who claims they have can't-be-beaten maple syrup at their home, proved his point last week when he invited the staff of the Dutcher & Johnson store to his house for a pancake supper. According to official count Harold Dutcher made away with 18 pancakes baked by Mrs. Cook and Minnie Scott. Mr. Cook went him two better and ate 20 pancakes. Jim Krulik, Emerald Chew and Earl Johnson are not saying how many they ate. At and rate Harold Dutcher was not hungry all the next day.

Child Clinic Will Be Held Here June 17

An Orthopedic Clinic, sponsored by the Michigan Crippled Children's program, will be held at the school building here on June 17, Mrs. Marion Rice of the health Unit has announced.

Two outstanding orthopedic surgeons, who will be named in the near future, an orthopedic health nurse to instruct mothers in massage and other treatments advised by the doctors, a medical-social worker and a medical stenographer will be assisted by local nurses and laymen in the one day event. All patients must be referred to the clinic by their physician or medical advisor in Antrim, Emmet, Otsego and Charlevoix counties.

Mrs. Dean Davenport has been named general chairman and will be assisted by the following volunteer workers: Mrs. Robert McClintock, Mrs. Gordon Freedman, Mrs. Ted Foster, Mrs. Roy G. Bennett, Mrs. Ralph McKee, Mrs. D. C. Nettleton, Mrs. Charles Hamlin, Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, Mrs. Clair Stevens, Mrs. Thomas Carey, Mrs. Robert Westcott, Mrs. John Mol and Miss Frances Milner.

At least ten more workers are needed and anyone interested is asked to call or see Mrs. Davenport.

Indian Meeting To Explain Rights Under New Bill

Planned to inform all Indians in the Little Traverse area of what the new Indian Act means to them, a meeting will be held at the Petoskey CIO Hall Friday at 8 p. m.

Levi McClellan, chairman of the Charlevoix county committee, explains the situation: On Aug. 13 Congress passed and the President signed a new Indian Act. Under it the President names a three-man Indian Commission to hear cases. An Indian also now can go into court and be represented by his own attorney like other citizens. All Indian treaties signed before 1933 are open for inspection and possible appeal under the fifth amendment which protects against unjust seizure of property.

Equalling this last in importance, McClellan says, is the provision that after 1951 all Indians will be on their own and no longer treated as wards. The meeting Friday will be to explain the detailed importance of this law and to plan a course for Indians here. The Charlevoix committee, named originally by Sen. Prentiss Brown, is McClellan, Edward Walker, John McCauley and John Antoine.

Railway Bridge Job To Be Started First

First equipment for the new highway bridge and the railway bridge jobs arrived Tuesday when the tug Karl E. Luedtke arrived with the Luedtke Engineering company's pile driver.

The firm has the contract for both jobs. First to be started will be the railway bridge. Last summer the Sundew smashed into the south pier. Now sheet piling is to be driven about it, new underwater piling driven and new masonry built. The railway plans to realign the rails where they connect with the swing bridge and to "put in a pier that the ship won't push out of line again."

When that job is underway, operations on the bridge will be started.

IT'S WONDERFUL

"It's wonderful," was the reaction of Fran Martin—and most other folks here—Wednesday when the telephone service was back to normal.

The 20 operators, who went out on April 7 at the call of the union reported, back Wednesday as they were needed, as did the maintenance men and business office.

Under the new pay schedule, says Bell Manager C. L. Johnson, operators and plant workers will receive $3 to $4 more a week depending on the length of service. The starting wage will remain at $25.

According to the wire stories, the strike cost Michigan employees about 5½ million and will bring them back that much in a year.

Abbey's Builds New Rustic Corner to Display Sports Equipment

In addition to their previous line of fine sportswear for men and women, Abbey's is now handling sporting equipment. Last week the new canopy and display space at the rear of the store was completed. Built of peeled cedar logs, with a green shingle roof, the rustic corner has the fishing equipment display. Shelves at the side carry similar merchandise. Even the coat display racks are rustic, being built of peeled saplings.

Stores Stocked with Sport Goods

Fishermen, week-end guests and summer citizens who plan to come to Charlevoix don't need to worry about finding supplies and equipment here waiting for them.

Unlike last summer when there was a definite shortage, the stores here this summer are amply stocked with equipment for virtually all forms of outdoor recreation. Outboard motors range from light and small 1½ horse jobs designed solely for trolling to big 7½ one which will troll equal, by all well and on occasion go places fast.

All the accustomed stores and one new one are well stocked with fishing tackle. The new one is Abbey's, which has added sports goods to its sports wear line.

Among the new equipment on hand are such things as round-cornered stamped tackle boxes, saving knicked ankle bones in a boat) steel and bamboo fly and bait rods, all manner of baits and flies, nylon and silk lines, reels, galore, nets, boots and new light waders.

For later in the season there are racquets, tennis balls and nets. And the stores even are ready for fall with shells.

Beach Hotel to Open June 28, Lounge 21st

The Beach Hotel will be opening June 28, according to E. L. Kramer. The cocktail lounge will open a week earlier.

Right now the place is being made ready for the season. Thirty of the 100 rooms in the hotel have been completely redecorated, as have the dining room and solarium.

A change in policy will be made this coming summer, Kramer says. During the war due to the food shortage and point system, it was not possible to open the dining room. This summer it will be open to the public providing reservations are made ahead. The private dining room also will be available for outside groups.

Biggest worry now is the telephone situation. Last fall plans were made to install an entirely new phone system, with a phone in each room and a large switchboard. Workmen started early and were half done when the strike came. Now switchboard and cable are standing in the lobby.

"If we don't get it in, we can continue with the old bell call system," Kramer says, "but I hope we can have the phones in and working by the opening date."

Elizabeth Moon, Mrs. Anna Regan and Mrs. Ed Sandile who have spent the past two months in Los Angeles and San Francisco, Calif., arrived home this week.

Poppies to Go on Sale Saturday

Poppies to help disabled veterans and their families and the survivors of those who gave their lives in the World Wars will be sold here Saturday.

Selling them will be the members of the Auxiliaries of two veteran organizations: the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Originally the Legion Auxiliary scheduled their sale for Saturday, but when it was learned that the VFW had to have their sale the same day or not at all, the Legion Auxiliary officers agreed to share the day. Consequently, both groups will sell poppies, making it permissible to wear two of the little red token flowers at once.

Neither organization sets any price on the flowers. Each person can give freely what he wishes. All money goes to help the veterans and veteran families.

Farm Union County Meeting to Be May 27

Carl Witte of Ludington will be the speaker next Tuesday at the all-county meeting of the Farmers Union at the South Arm Grange Hall.

Open to all farmers and anyone interested in farming, the meeting will start at 7 p. m., with a pancake supper served by members of the Union.

Christian Science Lecturer Speaks On Enduring Peace

"Christian Science: The Basis of Enduring Peace," was the topic discussed by Mrs. Elizabeth Carroll Scott, C.S.B., at the school auditorium Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Scott, of Memphis, Tenn., is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church in Boston. She spoke substantially as follows:

Long ago, Jesus looked out upon the city of Jerusalem, and Luke tells us (19:42) that, as he looked up it, he said, "If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this day, the things which belong unto thy peace!" All the world longs for peace and strives for it. Yet is has continually eluded mankind. It is hid from them because they do not know, even today, much more than they did nearly two thousand years ago in Jerusalem the things that belong to peace. The world courts, the League of Nations, and alliances of powerful nations have all worked for peace but they have never yet succeeded in bringing permanent peace to the world. They have not even stopped actual physical warfare. They can never succeed in replacing the mental turmoil of the individual with the quietude born of the assurance of inner peace. Mr. and Mrs. Miles Russell have received word from their son, Pfc. Kenneth Russell from the Separation Center at Fort Lawton, Wash., saying that he is on his way home. He had been stationed at Camp Wood, Kyushu, Japan, near Kumato.

School Board Will Ask Council to Help Library

Final action on the closing or keeping open of the Library this summer was postponed by the School Board Monday night.

The question of finances will be once more brought before the city Council and the action of the School Board at its June 2 meeting will depend largely on what the Council does at its Monday meeting.

As outlined by Bonnie Nickerson, president of the Board, the school group feels that the city should bear a considerable portion of the cost of operating the library. Basis for this is the fact that more than half the users of the library are adults, that the library being open in the summer is strictly a community (and not a school) asset; that more than half the new books and magazines bought for adults.

On the other side, the city right now is facing the heavy cost of the new power unit and is less able to take on new costs than usual; that the school carried through the worst depression times without help and that now with the new state funds it is in better financial condition for the present than it is the city.

Other cities with a joint city-school library find they work well and in at least three nearby cases are financed entirely by school funds. These are Boyne City, Cheboygan and Alpena. In all three, the library also serves the general public, stays open all summer. In Cheboygan there is a library in the high school, the central library being operated also by the school as a public service to the community.

Detroit Bus Will Serve Torch Lakers

Residents of Bellaire, Central Lake and Ellsworth will have Greyhound bus service on a re-routing of the bus company's lines, starting June 10.

This change comes as a result of the campaign waged by the residents along the growing and popular east side of Torch Lake for regular transportation and connections both to Charlevoix and south.

The new schedule will provide one round trip daily between Charlevoix and Detroit. The route will start here, and go by Ironton to East Jordan. Then it swings west to Ellsworth, south through Central Lake and Bellaire to Marcella and then southward along the present route.

The change will mean that the buses will serve three communities instead of traveling through the unpopulated Hardwood State Forest.

Mr. Mrs. Dundas Buy Grey Gables

Grey Gables is now owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Dundas, who bought the Belvedere avenue property from Capt. and Mrs. Don Clothier.

No newcomers to Charlevoix, Mr. and Mrs. Dundas were at the Belvedere in 1945 and leased Grey Gables last summer. Since their return from Florida they have redecorated the dining room and some of the nine upstairs bedrooms. Meals are served to the regular guests and to others on reservation in the two dining rooms there. Mrs. Dundas is doing the cooking.

The Clothiers will be here this summer, with the Captain planning to operate one large cruiser.

Noted Author Now At Church of God

Author of many books on the church and religious life, Dr. Charles Ewing Brown is guest speaker at the Church of God this week.

Starting Tuesday evening, he is speaking each night at the church. Sunday he will preach both the morning and the evening sermons. The evening meetings are at 8 p. m.

Dr. Brown, besides being an author, is lecturer in theology at Anderson Seminary and editor-in-chief of the Gospel Trumpet, official organ of the Church of God. Among his recent books are "The Way of Faith", "The Way of Prayer", and "Adventures in Spiritual Life."

Spring's Here! Hamilton Yard Launching Boats

Things are rushing these days at the Hamilton Boat yard with craft sliding into Round Lake almost daily after being made ready for the boating season.

Largest job so far this season was the overhaul of the Arnold Transit Line's Ottawa which came down from St. Ignace Thursday noon. Inspectors had ordered the 100 ton craft to have a periodic hull overhaul. Hamilton's was the nearest and best equipped yard capable of handling the 65 foot craft.

The bottom was checked and repainted and the ship given a complete overhaul below the water line, including a new propeller. Captained by L. W. Couchois, she headed back Tuesday for the St. Ignace-Mackinac Island run. After June 15 she goes on the Snow Island run.

Several well known local boats have been launched. These include Judge R. C. May's Panther II, the Marlin II of East Jordan, the Citty Sark, the Regone and the Aloha.

Still in the winter cradles but probably ready to launch this week are P. H. Danley's Trident, J. P. Wilson's Comet and H. G. Marchant's Malabar X.

Altogether 38 boats were stored at the Hamilton yards this winter. Four men were continuously employed and six are there now getting the craft ready for the water.

Edward Heise Rites Held Here Monday

In the death Friday morning of Edward Heise, Charlevoix lost one of its long-time business men.

Forty years ago Mr. Heise started work as a plumber, retiring only last fall because of failing health. At first he was employed by Alonzo Powers and later by the Bonthron Plumbing Shop. Then 20 years ago in partnership with Samuel Schantz he opened his own place of business. The firm continued for 12 years when Mr. Heise bought full control.

A life-long resident of Charlevoix, he was born Jan. 16, 1884, the son of William and Bertha Heise. He and Laura Ager were married on New Year's Day, 1909 and here they reared their three children, Mrs. Charles Robertson of Adrian, Edward C. Heise of Charlevoix and Stanley who died in April, 1931.

Surviving besides Mrs. Heise and the two children are three grandchildren; four brothers, Paul, William, Charles, and Clarence, of Charlevoix; and a sister, Mrs. John Duncan of Grand Rapids.

Mr. Heise was a member of the IOOF. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Gaylord Howell at the See Funeral Home Monday at 2 p. m. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Veterans Will Have Memorial Service Sunday

Veterans of Charlevoix and their wives Sunday morning will attend the annual service men's memorial church service at the Congregational church.

Each year the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Amvets and the two women's Auxiliaries sponsor this service, which is held in rotation at all the churches of the city. Next year it will be at St. Mary's church.

Following the customary procedure, veterans and their wives will meet across the street from the church and will march to the church in a body, not by organizations. At the church a section will be reserved for the service group.

On Decoration Day, the Memorial Day committees of the Legion, VFW and Amvets are planning the traditional services, both at the lake for the Navy and at the cemetery for soldiers.

Team to Enter State Track Meet

Taking first with 73-7/10 points Saturday, Charlevoix's track team walked away from the other eight entrants in the meet at Cadillac. Nearest competitor was Reed City with 43 and Leelanau with 27.

Friday at 1 p. m. the team leaves for East Lansing to compete in the state finals. Coach S. E. Coleman is taking 18 boys.

At Cadillac, Holstad and Hardy tied in the pole vault. Carey and Hardy took second and fifth in the shot put. In the high jump Carey took second and Hardy and Shanahan tied for second. Holstad was third in the broad jump. Bill Carey and Dave Smith took first and third in the high hurdles, with the same pair running third and fourth in the low hurdles.

Dick Jolliffe, Holstad and Dick Hardy ran first, third and fourth in the 100 yard; Lagerman and Zettler were third and fifth in the mile. Martin took first in the 440 with Roberts fourth. Jolliffe was second in the 220 and first in the half mile, with Ypma second. Charlevoix won both the medley and the relay.

SPEB Chapter Will Meet Here

The SPEBSQSA Chapters of Charlevoix and Boyne City will have one of their occasional joint meetings Thursday evening.

Starting at 8:30 p. m., it will be at the home of Dr. D. C. Nettleton, 103 Clinton street.

We're Becoming a Queue Society

Prof. W. A. Paton of the Business School at the University of Michigan has just written the best analysis of what's wrong with our economic society that I have seen.

Prof. Paton defines a "queue society" as one where "we follow the pattern of totalitarian countries and line up to receive such dole of goods and services as the powers that be see fit to allot."

He further maintains that we need more liberals in this country and here he agrees with Thomas Jefferson that the liberal is he who wants the maximum freedom for the individual to make or mar his own life with the smallest interference from the government that is consistent with an ordered society.

Paton says the term liberal has been grabbed off by those with leaning toward a collectivist state.

He says we need more free enterprise and defines it as a system which has (1) competitive market prices, (2) government action against monopolies, and (3) rewards according to effort.

Boiled down, his analysis means we of the United States need to develop a little back bone and start looking out for ourselves instead of expecting the government to spoon feed us.

Let's Plow Deeper

The biggest opportunity for Michigan poultry growers is Michigan according to some figures just released by MSC.

For example, in February Michigan produced only 40 percent of the eggs used in Detroit, only 10 percent of the live and 5 percent of the dressed poultry.

If Detroit has to buy its eggs and chickens—and turkeys—from Illinois and Iowa and Utah, and pay the freight on them, it seems that there is an opportunity for poultry growers to cash in on a ready made market.

This is the sort of an opportunity the proposed poultry growers co-op could seize, to the benefit of all concerned.

Are We Missing a Good Bet?

The fishing season is on and so far nothing official has been done about it.

There is nothing new about the idea, but couldn't Charlevoix afford to put on a fishing contest?

A lot of suggestions have been made for such an event. Here are some of them:

Limit it to non-residents of Charlevoix city. (After all, what's the point in giving prizes to ourselves?)

Have weekly prizes for the largest perch, bass, mackinaw trout, steelhead caught and weighed; or

Also have a final prize for the largest in each class.

The prizes need not be elaborate or costly. The important thing is the recognition.

All fish must be weighed and recorded here at Charlevoix. (The Courier will supply the needed record forms.)

At a wedding solemnized at 6:45 Saturday evening at Potoskey, Miss Evelyn Seymour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Seymour of this city, was united in marriage to Robert F. Darrach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Darrach of Potoskey.

Bill Fessenden made the local anglers envious Sunday with two rainbow trout, the largest a five and a half pounder taken from Jordan river.

Mrs. Helen Hoover, who will operate Hoover's Inn again this season, has arrived to supervise preparations of the hotel for opening.

Arthur K. Jacobs, son of Henry B. Jacobs of this city, has been promoted to the position of manager of the new Sears Roebuck store recently opened at Monroe, Mich.

Twenty Years Ago

Citizens of Norwood and this vicinity are saddened by the death of Mrs. Jerry Santosco, which took place Thursday evening.

Measurements taken in Round Lake on Tuesday of this week show that this body of water is eighteen inches higher than a year ago. Spring rains and general high water throughout the country are partly responsible for this condition. It is encouraging to note the water coming back slightly toward former levels which last summer were nearly five feet lower.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burns, accompanied by the latter's sister, Mrs. Harriet, returned last Tuesday from Manatee, Fla., where they had been spending the winter.

Miss Helen Newman left the latter part of last week for Creighton Mine, Canada, where she will spend a two weeks vacation at the home of her parents.

Mrs. J. M. Clarke arrived in Charlevoix the latter part of last week for the summer, after spending the winter months in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kibbe left Friday for Dubuque, Iowa, where Mr. Kibbe will join the

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Gene Allman
Sec'y. Michigan Press Assn.
Lansing—This is "Anti-Inflation week" in Michigan.

Sellers of merchandise are asked by the state legislature to reduce prices.

Source of the idea: The so-called Newburyport (Mass.) plan whereby merchants agreed to cut prices 10 per cent. An unpublished "catch": Fair trade law requires retailers to sell a majority of merchandise at prices set by the manufacturer. These prices were exempt from a 10 per cent cut. The Newburyport crusade was a glorious clearance sale, limited to 10 days. Much merchandise sold were surplus goods which had accumulated on shelves and which had to be sold before better-grade merchandise (most of it nationally advertised) could be displayed.

In the opinion of Lew Hahn, president of the National Retail Dry Goods association, a general spread of the Newburyport plan would lead only to "economic disaster."

It would deprive retailers—and especially small retailers, he says—of profit needed if they are to remain in business and pay today's high operating overhead. Like borrowing from Peter to pay Paul, the retail price depends upon the wholesale price. The wholesale price (when merchandise is bought by the gross or larger quantities) is dependent upon the manufacturer's price. The manufacturer's price, in turn, is set by production costs plus a mark-up to take care of such things as sales promotion, taxes, and a dividend return to people who have invested money in the business.

Since the retail price cannot be cut unless other prices are lowered—wholesale and manufacturer—the fallacy of the Newburyport plan is quite obvious. (Editor's Note: The above position is the same as that of the A & P Tea Co. in its "Let's Talk Sense" ad last week.)

President Truman has asked business and industry to take the leadership in cutting prices. Simultaneously while the White House is prodding business men to lower the cost of living, the federal government through its labor conciliation service is prodding business men to grant new wage increases. So labor cost are going up once more. General Motors, for example, settled for 15 cents an hour.

Can such a 1947 wage increase be absorbed out of profits without another rise in the retail price? Economists doubt that it can be done. For example, let us assume that 1,155 large corporations (whose profits were listed in the April letter of the government fisheries car service for the summer.

A. I. Creamer and William Flynn arrived in Charlevoix Tuesday afternoon from Southern Pines, N. C., to supervise the work of getting the Inn Hotel ready for the summer season.

Headline: (a dream that failed to materialize): New Hotel For Charlevoix. Building Will Be Started This Fall. To Comprise Theatre and Eight Stores—On Site of Gravel Pit Next to Fountain City House.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Redman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith and L. E. Crandall, wife and daughter, left here Sunday morning in three Ford cars, driving from here to Bellaire and from thence through to Manelona, Kalkaska, Rapid City, Kewadin and then back home, arriving at Charlevoix at 6:30 p. m. (Don't laugh folks—in those days such a trip was comparable to a run to Detroit in these times and the wonderment that it could be accomplished hadn't yet worn off.)

Arthur Wooden died at his home on Potoskey Avenue, last

National City Bank, (New York City) would grant a 15-cent hourly wage increase. Assuming that 1947 production was at 1946 level, the corporation profits (after taxes) would drop from 6 per cent of sales to 2.9 per cent.

The round-the-circle illusion of inflation can be illustrated in the case of the CIO vs. Motor Companies. The CIO made much capital of the fact that the 1940 dollar had shrunk to 63 cents as of last December. Today's dollar is 59 or 60 cents. The CIO appeal was for 23 1/2-cent wage increase per hour—and, of course to be paid out of profits.

But how about the same dollar in the hands of an investor—the widow who puts a life savings into ownership of corporation stock?

The Chrysler Corporation's "high" profits during the first quarter of 1947 became "low" profits when the CIO yardstick is applied. The 1947 first quarter profits of $21,502,407 shrink to $12,901,481 in terms of 1940 dollars. What was the Chrysler profit for the first quarter of 1940? Answer: $15,742,387.

About 90 per cent of the troubles of the state legislature at Lansing are due to inflation. It costs more to operate government home and elsewhere, than it did before the war. The 1947 dollar is only worth 60 cents, remember.

State payroll cost is higher today than at any time in history—and that goes for the governor's executive office down the line. At Washington the cost of running the White House—the President's combination residence and office—will be $501,000 for the coming year. What was it before the war? Only $160,000.

It cost $22,000,000 to operate the U. S. Congress before the war; next year, $52,000,000—more than double!

Yes, it's the same dollar at Lansing or at Washington or right at home.

As we see the picture from all evidence in sight, inflation will continue to be the major problem until economic laws bring a better balance between supply and demand. The 1947 recession, now under way, will continue until the transition is completed between the current boom in consumer goods and tomorrow's boom in producer goods.

There is every reason to believe that the 1947 "recession" may prove to be only a "transition" to continue good times.

This transition will not take place peacefully if one group or class seeks to make another group the "scapegoat". The retailer cannot blame the manufacturer, the manufacturer cannot blame labor, labor cannot blame "big business" and its "high" profits.

Until everyone realizes that inflation affects all in the same way, our American way of life will be in constant danger. We can find a solution to our problems only in mutual cooperation and teamwork.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh.

When Ed's Crops Failed

Three years ago Ed Smith's luck went bad. His crops failed, and it wasn't long before Ed's home and furnishings were up for auction.

Half the town turned out, and Ed must have thought his neighbors were a bunch of hungry vultures—buying up all his precious possessions for a song.

When it was over, and the auctioneer had left, Sam Abernathy turned to the crowd and says: "All right, folks, let's take time out for a glass of beer, and then put this stuff back where it belongs!"

Two hours later, Ed was in possession of his home and furnishings; and the folks who'd paid for them were sitting around Ed's fire enjoying a neighborly glass of beer—to show their friendship and their confidence in Ed.

Today, Ed's back on his feet—another constructive member of the community. And from where I sit, we've all been well repaid—a good investment in a good man.

There can be no surer basis for the establishment of peace than the fact that there is one Mind, and that one is infinite good. The man of God's creating is not mortal, brought here for a little time, only to go into the darkness and obscurity of death. The man of God's creating is immortal. Christian Science shows that the real man is immune to evil. He is at peace because he is at one with God.

One of the great deterrents to peace is fear. In the light of Christian Science, it can be proved that this fear is unnecessary and can be dissipated as erroneous thinking is replaced with trust and confidence in God. A false sense of law is another deterrent to peace. Mortals believe that they are under the so-called laws of sickness, sin, and death. Since all government is based upon the consent of the governed, humanity cannot continue to be governed by false law, unless it consents to be so governed. God does not know or demand penalties. His law is wholly good.

We learn in Christian Science that, when we pray intelligently and understandingly, we gain freedom from troublesome conditions in the peace of answered prayer. We do not pray to change anything that is true or actual. We pray that the scales may be dropped from our eyes and that we may perceive reality in order to become acquainted with the man God made and the universe He created. Healing in Christian Science is a very simple thing. In it, we are taught to lift our eyes, as Jesus did, above natural need, or the sense testimony of sickness or sin, above the realm where trouble seems to be, and to affirm the truth as God knows it. Thus the kingdom of God is established on earth, and His will is made manifest in answered prayer.

Mary Baker Eddy teaches in her book 'Miscellaneous Writings' (45:16) that it is a "deific law that supply invariably meets demand." Mortals have looked for supply everywhere except in the right direction. They have done everything except to look to God for it.

Christ Jesus expressed His God-given dominion, and taught us to do the same. He was at peace because he was engaged in demonstrating the divine facts of being—the allness of God and man's oneness with God. To us who would follow him, he said he would give peace—that peace which is a fruit of the Spirit.

We have the promise from Christ Jesus of another Comforter. Inasmuch as Christian Science has brought a return of primitive Christian healing, we recognize in this the promised Comforter. Through her search for God, Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, leaped to know Him aright. Her work is of tremendous import to each one of us, for if we will study the Christian Science textbook and assimilate and begin to demonstrate the ideas that are found there, it will lead us out of bondage into freedom and peace.

300 Attend Meguzee Sessions at Charlevoix

Mrs. Ruby McRae of Pellston, was named president of the Meguzee Association for the ensuing year during the 43rd annual meeting of the association. She succeeds Mrs. Alice Bellinger of Charlevoix.

Other officers elected were: 1st vice-president, Mrs. Margaret Matthews of Bellaire, 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Margaret Wessel of Harbor Springs; 3rd vice-president, George McRae of Pellston; secretary, Mrs. Viola Priest of Mancelona and treasurer, Mrs. Frances Benson of East Jordan.

Appointive officers named were chaplain, Mrs. Naomi Sellers of Pellston; marshal, Mrs. Phyllis Barneflier of Harbor Springs, and organist, Mrs. Mildred Webster of Charlevoix.

Grand officers who attended the two day event were: George Krutzer of Newaygo, worthy grand patron; Elva Sherwood of Atlanta, associate grand patron; William Mundy of Saginaw, associate grand patron; Greta Masten of Clare, associate grand conductress; Clara Stringwell of Detroit, grand marshal; Florence Towsley of Battle Creek, grand organist; Ambra Ward of Leslie, grand Ruth; Daisy Dowling of Bloomfield Hills, grand Esther; Gertrude Wilson of Bellevue, grand Martha; Marjorie Haek of Muskegon, grand Electa; Leland Barnes of Lawrence, grand sentinel; Isabel Courtney of Detroit, and Clara Krutzer, grand committeewomen.

Two hundred forty members attended the banquet at the Wayside and more than 300 were present for the evening meeting at the gym and the reception for Mrs. Bellinger, grand Adah. Mrs. Bellinger was presented with a "traveling gavel" by the Evangelical chapter of Bayne City. The gavel had been used by the 13 chapters in the district during the winter months. She was also presented with a set of luggage from the Charlevoix chapter and many other gifts from her Meguzee officers and others.

Seventy members, including many past presidents, attended the luncheon at the IOOF hall on Thursday.

Mrs. A. H. Loeb of Chicago has arrived in Charlevoix and is now at the Loeb Farms for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Comfort returned Saturday from Milwaukee where they had gone to attend the funeral of Capt. J. K. Olsen May 10.

James Marsh, CMOHM, who is stationed at Buffalo, N. Y., with the Coast Guard, spent the week end with his wife and family. He returned to duty on Monday.

Earl Waffle of Flint, accompanied by his sons, Russell and Richard, who is home on 21 day leave from the Navy, spent the week end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Waffle.

Mr. and Mrs. James Flynn and family arrived recently from Southern Pines, N. C., where they spent the winter. They are making preparations for opening the Lakeview Hotel for the summer.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral services for Edward Heise, Sr., Monday were Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan of Grand Rapids, Charles Robertson of Adrian, Mrs. Floyd Bettes and son, Carl, of Wyandotte, Mrs. Perry Reeder of Saginaw, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Heise of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ager of Greyling.

Mrs. Sylvia Foster returned here recently after spending the winter months in Chicago.

Little Lance Kennedy, who has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lance Neff, for two weeks returned to his home in Traverse City Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Neff took him home and visited over the week end with their daughter and family.

Miss Billie Brown, who has been visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin P. Zeitler, left Monday for her home in Chelin, Wash.

Dean Davenport and son, Dean, Norman Ketchum, and Dick Southwood attended the track meet at Cadillac on Saturday.

M. Claire Nowland has returned to Detroit after spending the week-end with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Nowland, and other relatives.

William E. Flynn and Jack Ament, who spent the winter in Southern Pines, N. C., arrived Saturday for an indefinite stay. Enroute they visited the latter's home in Grand Rapids for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Goode will return to their home in Brooklyn, N. Y., later this week after a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Pearl. Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Brown have returned to their home near East Jordan after spending the winter in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nelson of Carp Lake visited Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Lance Neff.

Mrs. T. L. Pearl has returned to her home here after spending the winter in Detroit.

Mrs. Rose McCann is now at home after spending the winter with her three daughters. In New York she visited Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Black.

In Detroit Mrs. Edward Bridge and Dr. and Mrs. Dan Mabley.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Houck have purchased the former Carson house at 203 May St., and have moved to their new home.

Frozen Custard Store Will Be Opened Here

A frozen custard dispensary instead of a gas station is another new business change here.

Wolf Industries, Inc., headed by George Wolf, has bought the Ward Brothers gas station on Belvedere and is converting it into a food place.

The east half of the station is being enlarged to 16 by 18 for the office, custard room and sales counter. The west half of the station will be used at present as a storeroom but by next year it probably will be made into a hot dog and coffee lunch room.

The custard will be made with an ice cream base and lots of eggs, Wolf says. Made in counter freezers, it will be served direct from these freezers to the customer.

One thing which will mark the whole set-up, Wolf says, is cleanliness. Large plateless windows at the front will let the customer see the whole operation and how the place is kept. In addition, he is installing hooded germicidal lamps over the sales windows so that all air and the seller's hands are almost constantly in ultraviolet light.

He expects the place to be ready the latter part of June. Two drive-in places will be provided for customers but he does not plan to use cut hop girls.

He plans to install a large lighted sign designed and made by Wayne Belding.

There are some REAL buys at the Girl Scout Rummage Sale at the Chamber of Commerce Building. Come after school this week and don't fail to be there next Saturday.

Mrs. Olive Webster Rites Are Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Olive Webster, 70, pioneer resident of Charlevoix county, were held at the See Funeral Home at two p. m. Tuesday with Rev. W. D. Wood officiating.

Burial was in the Brookside cemetery. Mrs. Webster died Friday night at the Charlevoix Hospital, after a long illness.

Olive Chew was born in Indiana April 7, 1877. She came to Charlevoix county in 1879 with her parents, at the age of two years. Abel and Salome Chew, who came north in a covered wagon to take up a homestead in Hayes township. In 1895 she was married to Platt Webster and they resided on a farm in Hayes township until 1936 when they came to Charlevoix to live. His death occurred in 1938.

She was a member of the Maple Grove Grange for 39 years.

She is survived by two sons, Floyd of Beaver Island, and Harold of Mt. Morris; two daughters, Mrs. Lottie Pierce of Long Lake, and Mrs. Neva Smith of this city; seven grandchildren; one great-grandchild; four brothers, Archie Chew of Phillipsburg, Mo., Morris K. Chew of Hayes township, Willis Chew of Coonacut Lake, Pa., and Willard Chew of Kalamazoo; three sisters, Mrs. Will Wheeler, Mrs. Roy Van Siceburg and Mrs. Hubert Pinne, all of Flint.

Mrs. Rose Bedwin Passes In Lansing

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Rose Bedwin, 77, widow of the late Eugene Bedwin, in Lansing on May 5. Funeral services were conducted in Grand Rapids Thursday with burial in the Rosedale cemetery.

Born in Shiawassee county, she resided in Charlevoix for 30 years prior to going to Grand Rapids. She had gone to Lansing to live with her son, Ray, two months ago.

Besides her son, Ray, she leaves two grandchildren. Her husband died in 1920.

Thad Pearl Weds Detroit Girl

Thad Pearl, a graduate of Charlevoix High School with the class of '36, was married to Verna Putikka of Detroit at the Nordic Park Methodist church on May 10. Mr. and Mrs. Don Pearl, brother-in-law of the groom, were the only attendants at the ceremony. A dinner party at the Pallister Tea Room was given later for friends and other relatives.

The couple left on a wedding trip through the Smoky Mountains. They will live in Detroit where Pearl is employed at the Wolverine School of Trade.

County Raises 278% Of Cancer Quota

According to state headquarters the drive to raise funds for the American Cancer Society Charlevoix county had 277.88% of their quota. The original request was for $710.

Since the last report was made, Charlevoix has added $10 to a total of $887.42; East Jordan reports another $30.05 from donations and $45.75 from the theatre making a total of $685.30.

The county total to date is now $2,037.81.

Girl Scout Troop Goes On Hike

Girl Scout Troop 11 had a busy week. On May 9 the troop went on a hike to Mt. McSaubia. Guests were Nancy Weiss, a scout from Saginaw and Mrs. H. O. Krahnke, mother of a member of the troop. Leaders Elaine Edwards and Mrs. Versal Seymour accompanied them.

The group also visited the Wayside during the week. On Thursday they met at the City Hall for their regular meeting.

Theatre Replaces Scheduled Picture

Rather than show a horror film which it had had to book because no other seemed available, the Palace Theatre management Monday night rushed a substitute picture here for Tuesday and Wednesday night's program.

The film shown was Warner's "Stallion Road", starring Ronald Reagan, Alexis Smith and Zachary Scott. The management said it was trying to get the best films it could and keep objectionable ones off the screen.

BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

The monthly meeting of the Third Order of St. Francis was held Sunday afternoon at Holy Cross church.

Perch season is in full swing on the island. The King Strand Hotel opened up this week when a number of fishermen were guests. According to the fishermen the perch are really biting—and that's no fish story.

Quite a bit of excitement centered around a new car which arrived during the week. It was James and Theresa Gallagher's Mercury, a sporty cream colored number.

Henry Allen was back on the island this week-end. He returned to the mainland Sunday with Pres. Charles Anspach and his party from Mt. Pleasant. Roland McCann took them across in his boat.

Isn't it grand. The Beaver Island party in Chicago netted $800, all of which will be used for recreational equipment for the children on the island. Are we ever thrilled!

Gene Conaghan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Conaghan, is stationed in Rensselaer, Germany.

The new county truck was delivered this week by Captain Russell Brown on his return trip to the island.

"Bozzie" LaFreniere was in many a tight spot on the Anzio Beachhead, but charging around on the banks of the Jordan River after suckers, Bozzie got himself into an awful predicament. The fine details, I do not know, but he lost his brand new set of "choppers" in the river and they never could be found.

Mrs. Wilfred O'Brien has a beautifully illustrated bird book. During this migratory season, we see so many beautiful and strange feathered creatures, it's nice to know we can do a little "finding out" in Mrs. O'Brien's book.

George Rickgers is beginning to wonder if he ever will be able to discard the old galvanized tub. Two deluxe model bath tubs have come across for George and both arrived broken.

"Yes", said Cousin Bridget O'Hoolley Malone, as she sat on the back steps watching the cows open the yale lock on Lloyd McDonough's grain barn. "Yes, siree, the island cows is educated."

The new cemetery fence is completed and we are very proud of the improvement. Carl Fogelson and John Baker of Grand Rapids came to the island especially to oversee the job. The services of these two men were donated by the company from whom Father Fabian purchased the fence. The company not only sent the men, but all the equipment necessary to put the fence up right.

We are glad to see George Stevenson and his sister back on the island again.

Fred Karthase is away for a few days on business.

A big business deal was transacted Saturday. Bud Burke bought Vernon LaFreniere's 1946 Nash and will operate a taxi on the island. We, who are without transportation, welcome this service.

Another new car will arrive on the island during the coming week. Vernon LaFreniere and Lloyd McDonough left Sunday for Detroit where Vernon's 1947 Nash awaits him.

Carl Keubler and Archie LaFreniere attended the funeral of Don D'Arcy, the Pellston pilot who was killed recently in a plane crash. Don had many friends on the island.

Doctor Palmer insists that his wood pile be mentioned. He says it's very beautiful only cannot be seen since it's all in his basement.

The lovely little May flowers are blooming in profusion. Spring at last — wonderful, beautiful Spring!

Reduce Grass Mavor From Milk

Cattle will soon be going out to fresh green grass—and milk flavors may result because of the sudden change from dry winter foods to summer grass feeds.

Generally people like the grass flavor that fresh milk carries, but dairy processors often receive numerous complaints because of the sudden change in flavor.

The serious flavor change can be reduced by keeping cows from eating grass for two hours before milking time. Scientists have indicated that the fresh feed flavor is absorbed by the fat in the milk. The flavor is reduced somewhat by restraining the cattle from grass for the two hours.

Coccidiosis Can Be Controlled In Baby Chick Flock

Spring is the season for coccidiosis in chickens, warns Dr. C. E. Hardin, extension poultry pathologist at Michigan State college.

Chickens, two weeks and older are affected but most outbreaks occur at the age of six to eight weeks.

Bloody droppings are one of the first signs of coccidiosis. Affected birds become droopy, drop wings, lag behind the rest of the flock. Usually many birds contract the disease at once.

Healthy birds should be protected from the droppings of infected birds. Drinking fountains and feed troughs where birds gather are danger areas. Roosts should be screened and wire platforms provided for fountains and troughs. Dry litter is necessary in controlling infection. Good management is better than any drug cure.

Sulfaguanidine, however, has given encouraging results in curing coccidiosis. Dr. Hardin says it should be administered at the first sign of disease. Best results are obtained with the drug if the birds are treated three times with four-day intervals between treatments. Feed at the rate of 1 percent in the mash the first day the symptoms appear, feed regular mash for the next four days, following on the fifth day with the sulfa-mash mixture. Repeat the sulfa-mash mixture again on the tenth day.

If a large percentage of birds show symptoms, feed the sulfa-mash mixture for three days, discontinue the treatment for the fourth and fifth days, and follow with a two-day treatment with sulfa-mash.

Cleanliness Is Best Control for Moths

Many new preparations are on the market today to rid your home of moths, but your first method should be good house-keeping.

Regular and thorough cleaning of closets, carpeted floors and places where lint collects is very important. Wall to wall carpeting is very likely to become infected with moths.

On sunny days hang clothing, carpets and rugs out-of-doors. Beating rugs is another way to control moths because it kills them in different stages of development. Frequent brushing is helpful for clothing.

After you have taken all the clothing from your closets to air and sun it, apply a five percent DDT refined kerosene solution to the walls and ceilings. Use a coarse spray and don't run the liquid from the walls.

Clothes which are stored between seasons should be given chemical protection. Alternate layers of clothing with layers of PDB (paradiethylbenzene). Separate the chemical from the clothing with layers of paper.

Repair cracks in floors, baseboards and near the quarter-rounds with crack filler. Vacuum and sweep rugs, especially at the edges. Use sodium fluosilicate 10 percent DDT powder, or PDB under the carpets.

Remember that for clothing your best protection is brushing, sunning and dry cleaning. Clothing that you wear regularly out in the air and sunshine is not apt to attract moths. Well-lighted and ventilated closets discourage moths.

Miss Ouderkirk
Miss Maurice Foster

At a quiet ceremony performed at the St. Charles Rectory at 2 p. m. Thursday, Miss Doris Jane Ouderkirk became the bride of Maurice J. Foster.

Mr. Philip Coughlan, formerly Chaplain and friend of the groom, read the double ring in the presence of their immediate families.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Foster.

The bride wore a white wool suit, white accessories and a corsage of deep red carnations for her wedding. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls belonging to her mother.

Mrs. Robert Withers, as her only attendant, wore a light blue suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. Withers assisted the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. Ouderkirk chose an aqua crepe dress, with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding.

Mrs. Foster, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy suit and matching accessories.

Both wore corsages of pink and white carnations and white roses.

One of the first to congratulate the couple was the bride's 81-year-old grandfather, Christ Drost, who witnessed the service.

The couple left on a short wedding trip to the Upper Peninsula.

For traveling the bride wore a gray suit with red accessories and her wedding corsage. The couple will make their home in Charlevoix for the present.

Saturday evening a wedding dinner was given at the Wayside for the bridal party and their immediate families by the bride's mother. Places for 14 were laid.

Decorations of spring flowers and a three tiered wedding cake decorated the table. A wedding reception for more than 75 guests was held at the home of the bride's mother at 403 Mason st. from 8 until 10 Saturday evening.

Both are graduates of the Charlevoix high school. The bridegroom attended business school in Kalamazoo and during World War II served with the Navy. He is now sailing the Great Lakes aboard the Fitzgerald.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

By Lt. Col. John McCrae

In Flanders Fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders Fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you, from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow,
In Flanders Fields.

Parents Escape From Europe, See Son After 21 Years

Reunited after 21 years, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Prohaska are now living with their son, Carl, after surviving the horror and misery of the German defeat and Russian occupation.

Until the war ended, they had lived all their lives on their farm near Linden in Silesia in eastern Germany. There Carl was born and after his marriage came from there to this country in 1926. During the war they continued to live on the farm. But when the Russians swept across Silesia, they became two more in the great mass of displaced persons, their farm having been taken over.

Somehow they managed to get to Hamburg in the British Zone. "Frightfulness" was the word Mr. Prohaska used to describe the bombed city's condition. And from there in April they sailed on the U. S. "Marine Perch" to be met nine days later in New York by their son whom they had trouble in recognizing.

Now 75 and 71 years old, they are living at Hillside Farm between Horton Bay and Boyne City, happy once more to have a roof over their heads and enough food.

The United States is even finer than they had dreamed it would be. The climate here is not too different from that of their Silesia and to be back on a farm and to get acquainted with their grandchildren—all the pleasure and wonder of it is mirrored in the two smiling and lined faces.

Barnard Farm Bureau To Meet On June 19

Sixteen members of the Barnard Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Smith Thursday evening.

The topic, "Shall The Farm Bureau Services Manufacture Farm Supplies" was the main feature for discussion.

The desire for better rural telephone service was again brought up.

Refreshments were served following the meeting. The next one will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rosequist June 19.

Dr. Charles Winder, Former Dentist, Dies

Dr. Charles J. Winder, 68, former dentist and hotel owner, died unexpectedly at his home in Eaton Rapids May 12.

Funeral services were held Thursday with burial in the Roselawn cemetery. Dr. Winder resided here for 12 years, leaving late in 1930 for Eaton Rapids where he continued his dental practice. While here he owned and operated the Charlevoix Hotel on Bridge St.

He is survived by his wife, Jessie; a son, John, of Ann Arbor; a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Davidson, of Eaton Rapids; and a brother, Dr. Hiram Winder of Sheridan, Ill.

Ironton Bureau Talks Over Local Problems

The Ironton Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Brock Wednesday evening with 25 members and 2 visitors present.

Vernon Mathews presided and Ole Neilsen was appointed as vice chairman for the rest of the season. As discussion leader Oakley Saunders was absent the group talked over the local problems of the community.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Babie, June 11.

Harriet Essenberg, Alma Powell Win Top Honors At Ellsworth

Harriet Essenberg

Alma Powell

For the third consecutive year, two girls walked off with scholastic honors at the Banks Township school at Ellsworth.

Harriet Essenberg, valedictorian, has an average of 3.928 out of a possible 4 points. She is the daughter of Mrs. Jennie Essenberg, and has attended the Ellsworth school since she started the first grade. For four years she has been in the Glee Club, been a varsity debater for one year, was in the Junior play and is school treasurer.

She plans to enter college this fall.

Alma Powell, salutatorian, has an average of 3.655. The daughter of Mrs. John Powell of Antrim City, she was born in Charlevoix and attended the Antrim City rural school until she started at Ellsworth in the sixth grade.

In high school she has been in both Junior and Senior plays and the Junior one-act play. She took one year of varsity debate, has been school reporter for two years and is secretary of the senior class. She may take up newspapering after graduation.

Island Church to Have May Queen Rites

The picturesque May Procession culminating in the crowning of the Statue of the Blessed Virgin will be held Sunday at the Holy Cross Church on Beaver Island. Singing of the traditional May hymns which proclaim Mary Queen of the May will take place. Charlotte Martin, prefect of the Sodality, has been chosen May Queen and will do the crowning. A court to assist her will be composed of Margaret Ricksgers, Lilian Greene, Florence Bonrke, Madonna McDonough, Marilyn VanEikel and Mary Lou O'Connor. The queen will be attired as a bride, with the court girls wearing gowns of pastel tints and flower crowns.

Robert McCann, cross bearer, and Larry Cull and Bob Malloy, torchbearers, will lead the procession. All the children of the island take part in the procession which forms at the convent and goes to the church.

Pomona Grange Will Meet Friday Night

The regular May meeting of the Charlevoix County Pomona Grange will be at the Marion Center Grange hall this Friday.

The business meeting starts promptly at 9 p. m., followed by a short program and a potluck lunch.

Clark Community Mrs. Wm. A. Parsons

Mr. and Mrs. Giles Warner accompanied by friends from Grand Rapids spent the week end at their cottage near Harwood lake. They brought news that their daughter, Geraldine who is now Mrs. William Heppeler of Melrose, N. M., has a baby son, born May 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Brintnoll and daughter of Williamsburg spent the week-end visiting the Person family.

Mr. and Mrs. Way and family, of Detroit have purchased what is known as the Harris farm, and are now living there.

Miss Helen Mae Brown who spent the winter months in Detroit has returned home.

Mrs. Ida Jolliffe is back to live with her son and family the William Jolliffes. She spent the winter months with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stafford in Norwood. Clyde Warner's lumber mill is quite a picture at present with the numerous piles of good looking lumber and the mountain of sawdust around.

Entertain Teachers

Mrs. Clyde Warner entertained the elementary school teachers with a waffle and sausage supper at her home in Marion township on Thursday evening. A social hour followed.

Juniors, Seniors Go On Trip for Banquet

Juniors and Seniors of the Ellsworth high school May 9 held their annual banquet and skip day by borrowing a school bus and going to Cheboygan.

They left Ellsworth at 10 a. m. At Cheboygan they ate, toured the clothing and paper mills and the wood turning plant. At 6:30 p. m. at LaLond's the banquet was held.

Harold Huntley and Evelyn Bayliss gave the welcome and response. Talks were given by Mrs. Henry Rice, Harold Edson and Supt. H. M. Fickle. Musical numbers were by Virginia Patterson, Golda Sherer and Ruth Supernaw. Carol Rubingh entertained with a skit and two songs were sung by Joan Boss, Harriet Essenberg and Betty Klooster, and by Harold Huntley.

The program closed with the singing of the school song and Auld Lang Syne.

In his talk, Supt. Fickle announced that Harriett Essenberg was this year's valedictorian and Alma Powell the salutatorian.

Legion Auxiliary Fete Bowling Team

Eighty members of the American Legion and Auxiliary fete their respective bowling teams with a turkey dinner at the Legion hall Monday evening.

The dinner was followed by group singing and a social hour.

Smiths Buy New Boat, Site for Dock

A new Chris-Craft cruiser has been purchased of Harold Smith by Mr. and Mrs. George T. Smith of Detroit who will take delivery of the boat June 2.

They were here this week-end to look over the site for a dock and boat house they purchased on the north shore of Lake Michigan just east of the new detour. They plan to build a season if material can be had.

With them for the week-end were their son, Tom, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wood of Detroit and Mrs. Wood of East Lansing. Where they stayed at the W. Butters home.

Mrs. Elwood Zavitz and daughter, Linda of Huntington W. visited last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bl.

Beet Workers Begin To Arrive In North

Between 175 and 200 beet field workers from Texas and Mexico either have arrived or are expected within the next few days.

They are coming here on contract to take care of the new beet acreage being planted in Charlevoix and Antrim counties this year. During recent weeks L. A. McGhan, representative of the Isabella Sugar Co., has been leasing houses and running down 25 stoves.

The toughest moment came last Wednesday when in the middle of the cold storm, two big truck loads of half-frozen men, women and children from Texas rolled into Ellsworth. With no telephone service, there had been no advance notice and no place was ready.

Temporary arrangements were made, fires built and the newcomers thawed out. In all eight houses have been leased to house the workers. This spring and next fall they will work the beets. During the summer they will be available for beets, beans, cherries, carrots and other crops requiring hand labor.

Despite crowding and the fact all the family usually work, one thing marks the workers, their houses and clothes, McGhan says. After food, the first thing they buy are tubs, soap and washboards.

New Buildings Put Up At Camp Charlevoix

During the past two weeks Lewis S. Reumann of Ann Arbor and Major Kenneth Smith of Grosse Pointe have been at Camp Charlevoix helping to get things in readiness for the coming camp season.

Three new buildings have been added since last fall. The last to be constructed is a new log cabin which will be occupied by the Smith family during the summer months, as Major Smith will be assistant Camp Director.

The men plan to return to their homes Thursday.

Capt. John K. Olsen Dies In Milwaukee

Word has been received by his friends here of the death in Milwaukee on May 8 of Capt. John K. Olsen.

A veteran of 42 years in the lighthouse service, Captain Olsen was 77. He had been master of the tender Crocus, Ilyacinth and Sumac from 1918 until his retirement in 1934.

He was a native of Norway, a member of the International Shipmasters Association of the Great Lakes and of Standard Lodge, F. & A. M., Chicago. The Masonic Service Bureau directed the services. Burial was in Milwaukee.

Board Plans City Program for Summer

Plans for the summer have been made by the directors of the Board of Commerce.

At the May Board meeting Robert Fochtman, newly elected president, presided. Secretary S. E. Coleman reported on the new window displays being prepared for use in large cities. Each set consists of three pieces, the central one being a 4 by 6 air view of the city in color.

Charlevoix signs at Fife Lake and Standish are being repainted and the one at Mackinaw reset.

Sometime in August the Rod & Gun Club and the Board will sponsor a Sportsmen's Day. The date will be set so as not to conflict with the Homecoming at Beaver Island.

Plans for a softball season were discussed. By making a few changes in the lighting at the softball field, ranking teams from Grand Rapids and other cities can be brought here this summer, Henry Supernaw reported. He was named to head the softball activities and to plan a busy season, since the game provides recreation both to residents and summer guests of the city.

The opening of an employment office by Henry Heckler was endorsed by the Board as filling a need here. The Board office will act as an employment agency only in unusual cases inasmuch as Heckler is offering a similar service.

Judge Addresses Sunday School

Most boys who get into trouble did not attend Sunday School, Judge Rollie L. Lewis told the members of the Congregational Sunday School this week.

A member of that institution when he was a boy here, Judge Lewis was invited to speak Sunday morning. As judge of the juvenile court here, he related some of the things he had seen in that position and lessons he had learned.

Sunday School gives the boy and girl the right start in life, was his conclusion.

Final Band Concert To Be Wednesday

Final appearance this year of the high school band will be next Wednesday at 8:15 p. m. at the gymnasium.

Director C. A. Odmurk says that the student musicians are working hard these last few days to get ready for this closing concert for parents, friends and towns people.

Featured on the program will be the music performed at the State Band Festival at Ann Arbor for which the band was highly praised by the judges. Aside from these numbers, the program will be light and diversified.

Tickets for the concert are being sold by band members or can be obtained at the door.

News of folks, your neighbors and mine... but did you know that—

Will it ever stop raining this week? Anyway things are bursting into bloom in spite of the cool weather. Mrs. Ruth Wackelin expects to leave after school is out for Sturgeon Bay, Wis. She will be accompanied by her two children, Nancy and David, and will visit for several weeks at the home of Mrs. Wackelin's sister, Mrs. George Hoffland. School days are nearly over, not only for high school students, but college as well. From MSC comes word that the 25 students enrolled there will soon be back home. Three Charlevoix girls have been pledged to sororities. They are Judy Campbell, Delta Gamma; Marian Craig, Alpha Xi Delta; and Joan Nelson, Zeta Tau Alpha.

The Albert Holmes who have wintered at Port Orange expected to leave this week for home, but due to illness of Mrs. Holmes, they are detained. Complimenting Mrs. Carlton Dean who has been visiting Mrs. Harley Ochs, a dessert bridge party was held at the home of Mrs. Winnifred Mower at Ironton, with Mrs. Ochs as hostess. High score for the afternoon was awarded to Mrs. Arthur Fitch. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wackelin left Wednesday for Syracuse, N. Y., via Niagara Falls, to attend a reunion of the 38th Infantry, the Rock of the Marine of World War I. Mrs. Fern Cole and son, Vera expect to spend Decoration Day in Rogers, City. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bonthorn and daughter of Chicago, Ill., spent several days this week at the Hotel Charlevoix. Sunday was sailing time on Lake Charlevoix. Meekins I saw an old sailboat himself fresh from Detroit, Dick Saltonstall. The County State Bank has been undergoing housecleaning with a new paint job.

Harold Totten says that if it doesn't stop raining so that the water can get out of his fields, he is going to run on in the paper something like this: "For Sale—undeveloped resort property, four private lakes, no fish restrictions. Located on US-31." Darlene LaCroix went to Boyne City Wednesday, called there by the illness of her brother, Norman. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Sternberg. They celebrated an anniversary Saturday. Mrs. Thomas Milner has been house cleaning and getting things done for summer for the hopes to leave after school is out for Vancouver to visit her sister. From there the two women expect to go on a jaunt together, doing California, Arizona and other points of interest in the West. Understand that the Sub-Deb Club had a slumber party recently and one of the highlights at the evening was making the Sundays, as pictured on the front page of Life recently. Well, the kids all lived through it. It is quite common now for telephone calls to come through from most anywhere in the U. S., these days to our hostess here with an anxious request, "Is my boat ready?" We want to come to Charlevoix. When Charlevoix gets in your blood once it is just too, too bad.

Dairymen Plan New Breeding Association

Dairymen living east and north of South Arm and Lake Charlevoix on June 10 can become members of the newest organization aimed at making more money for the farmer.

That evening the projected Artificial Breeders Association will meet at Boyne City. The Association must have three hundred cows of either Holstein, Guernsey, or Jersey as the main breed and 100 cows of either the other two breeds to start. The membership fee is $5.00 per member and is payable when the contract is signed. Also paid at this time is a fee of $1.00 per head for the number of cows signed up. These two fees are never paid again. The fee is $5.00 for three services.

Girl Scout Troop Will Visit Island

Girl Scout Troop 1 is busy making plans for the annual camping trip, this year to Beaver Island. Nineteen girls were given physical examinations last week by Dr. Robert McClintock, assisted by Mrs. Dean Davenport, in preparation for the event.

Money to finance the trip was earned by the rummage sale—Virginia Smith, scribe.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Palm and his brother were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Sorenson.

20 Senior Scouts Are Seeking Leader

Twenty Senior Scouts are looking for a leader.

Tuesday night they met with the new city Senior Scout committee and signed up for Sea, Air and Explorer Scouting. The committee plans to meet again Thursday to see if it can find men interested in being leaders.

The committee is Capt. Hubert Paddock, Charles Bleha, Dr. Fred Young, Gordon Freedman, Clarence Heise, Glenn Snider, Supt. Roy G. Bennett.

Grillo Open Fruit Store for 18th Year

For the 18th consecutive year, Andy Grillo is opening his Charlevoix Fruit Store & Delicatessen here Thursday.

In the same Bridge street location, during recent weeks he has repainted both front and inside, has put up shelves and has been laying in stock.

This year, in addition to his other lines, he is stocking domestic and imported champagnes.

Rites for Mrs. Krulik Held Here Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Josephine Krulik, 74, who died late Thursday at Traverse City, were held at the See Funeral Home at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Jackson E. Turner conducted the service. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

Born in Bohemia on Dec. 31, 1872, Josephine Kysella came to Charlevoix about 1894. Soon after her arrival here she was married to Rudolph Krulik, who died several years ago. She always resided in Charlevoix except for four years spent in Detroit.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Harold Hallett, of Detroit, and two sons, Robert, of Santa Monica, Calif., and Edward, of Detroit. Another daughter, Mrs. Doris Conn, died in 1936.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyer and sons, Charlie Bill and David, returned to Flint Friday after spending a week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Meyer. Friday the Meyers' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Griswold, will arrive from Grand Rapids for the holiday week-end.

New Teachers On Faculty For Next Year

Two new teachers will be on next year's school faculty according to Supt. Roy G. Bennett. With one exception, all the present teachers have signed contracts for next year. These contracts carry an average salary increase of 11 1/2%.

The new teachers are Leonard Burns, now coach and science teacher at Hemlock; and Mrs. A. L. Gustafson, now teaching home economics at Kaleva. Mrs. Gustafson will take the place of Margaret Strehle, who resigned this week to be married.

The other teachers are: Elementary: Mrs. Jeannette E. Abfalter, Mrs. Bessie Coleman, Mrs. Mary A. Cooper, Mrs. Ethel Courier, Mrs. Dorothy McRae, Miss Frances Milner, Mrs. Helen E. Richards, Mrs. Bertha Shetterly, Mrs. Mildred Smith, Glenn S. Snider and Mrs. Elizabeth Trimble.

High School: Harry E. Bingham, Stewart E. Coleman, Norman M. Gallagher, Roy L. Kipke, D. C. Maltby, Miss Florance Milner, C. M. Novak, Clarence A. Odmark, Mrs. Dorothy E. Richards, Robert S. Richards, Uno A. Suomela, Leonard Burns and Mrs. Gustafson.

Catholic Students In Colorful Ceremony

The traditional crowing of Our Blessed Mother as Queen of May took place at St. Mary's church Sunday afternoon with grade school students, a high school guard of honor and altar boys participating in the annual event.

Starting out from the school the procession marched to the church and entered singing "Immaculate Mary." They were led by grade school boys and girls. The girls carried armfuls of wild lilies.

Composed of Catholic high school students, the honor guard marched next. Forming a colorful contrast to the solemnity of black and white surplices, the girls wore formal gowns and floral headresses.

Next came the altar boys carrying the Cross. They were followed by the small boys also dressed in surplices.

Dressed in all white the tiny crown bearer and her four attendants preceded Rosamie Gillespie who was chosen to crown the queen. This honor is reserved each year for the outstanding girl student.

Singing "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother" the procession marched around the church and formed a V up to the May altar.

As Miss Gillespie placed the crown upon the statue of Mary the group sang "Oh Mary We Crown Thee With Blossoms Today."

The coronation was followed by the Rosary and Benediction. The May Day procession and crowning of Mary as May Queen is an age-old custom of the Catholic church.

This year for the first time the high school students assisted with the coronation by acting as honor guard.

Annual Children's Day to Be Sunday

The annual Children's Day will be observed at the Congregational church Sunday.

The program will be presented at the regular church hour, 11:15 a. m., and will be constructed about Milt's picture, The Angels.

The dramatic service, in which all the children of the Sunday School will take part, will include four scenes: Jesus and the Children; When Primary children worship; The Juniors tell a story; and Intermediate presents The Church.

Rev. Jackson Turner will present Bibles and diplomas to the following children who are graduating from the primary to the intermediate department: Dick Haeher, June Kirkwood, Camilla Maltby, Jana Merica, Judy Merica, Glenn See, Linda Stroud and Kit Carson.

The offering will be used to support the work of young men and women commissioned by the Board of Home Missions for Student Summer Service.

The final faculty party of the year was held Tuesday night at Camp Charlevoix. All members, their families and wives, were to go.

First Sugar Beet Seed in 20 Years Drilled in Charlevoix County

Back in these parts for the first time in 20 years, beet drills last week were planting sugar beet seed on Charlevoix County farms. Shown above are V. L. Mathews operating the tractor and M. L. Mathews on the 4-row drill on the brothers' farm south of town.

They drilled 12 acres of beets, part of the 1000 contracted for this summer by the Isabella Sugar Co., represented by L. E. McGowan.

City Pays Bills Of $13,643; Hits Bottom of Barrel

For the first time in years, the City Council Monday night scraped the bottom of its financial barrel to meet bills.

With three more pay days before July taxes begin to come in, the Councilmen faced almost certain borrowing to tide the municipality over.

Total bills of $13,643.17 were paid. Two major items boosted the total: $4000 for airport bonds and $3000 for insurance. The rest was current payroll, including about $1000 in connection with the new bridge, which will be applied on the city's share of the right of way cost.

A variety of other matters were taken up. With the city dump filling up, more dump ground will be sought. Hansel Burns is the new police officer looking after parking matters.

New markers are to be painted on the streets when and if the weather stays dry long enough. The landing markers at the airport also are to be painted, new ones may be built and a 50 foot circle at the runway crossing may be put in.

New fire hose, 200 feet of large and 100 feet of small, was bought from government surplus. The piano is to be moved upstairs to prevent further damage by youngsters using the city hall.

Another request from the School Board for funds to help operate the library during the summer was received. At first it was decided to ask for a conference with Board members; then the Council voted $250 outright for this year, and adjourned.

Jury to Hear Two Criminal Cases

Two jury cases will be heard starting Monday in Circuit Court before Judge John Simpson of Jackson.

They are John R. Martin, arson; and Miles D. Starr, reckless driving. Judge Simpson was assigned here in place of Judge W. L. Waller who was called away.

Dr. Paul Winder Dies in South

Word has just reached here of the death of Dr. Paul Winder, 42, of Shreveport, La., on May 5, son of the late Dr. C. J. Winder.

At one time the Winders lived here. A letter from Mrs. Winder says the death of their son helped cause the death of his father. Both were buried at Eaton Rapids.

Husbands Are Guests Of Pythian Sisters

The Pythian Sisters entertained their husbands at a social evening at the K. of P. hall on Thursday evening. Progressive pedro was played with Mrs. Harold Dutcher winning first prize, Mr. and Mrs. John Stebb, George Roff, Mrs. Marie McCall and Mrs. Albert Edwards won prizes for bingo.

Refreshments were served late in the evening.

Mrs. W. E. Hitchcock, and her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Amley, returned to Muncie, Ind., Saturday after spending several days at the former's summer home on Meech St. She recently purchased the former Koch property; has had the house remodelled and redecorated through out and had the grounds landscaped. She will return June 23 for the summer.

City to Honor War Dead at Friday Rites

Honoring the war dead, Charlevoix will hold its traditional Memorial Day ceremonies Friday.

In charge of the community observance will be the three service men's organizations: Amvets, Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion. Cooperating will be all fraternal organizations and the schools.

Girl Scouts and Brownies are to meet at the school, form lines and join the rest of the parade on Park Avenue. All other marchers will meet at Park Avenue at 9:30 a. m. After forming the line of march, the parade will start at 10 a. m.

Order will be colors and color guard, school band, Blue and Gold Star mothers, Boy and Girl Scouts, patriotic organizations and school children.

The casting of the wreath on the water will be at the Memorial Park. It will be conducted by the Blue Star Mothers. Prayer will be by Rev. Gaylord Howell, taps will be sounded and the march to Brookside cemetery resumed.

There the program will be: Star Spangled Banner, school band; Invocation, Rev. Jackson Turner; Gettysburg Address; Memorial Address, Rev. W. D. Wood; Floral tribute, salute and taps; America, School band; Benediction, Rev. A. B. Claypool.

Flags will be put on all graves Wednesday. All business places will be closed Friday. In case of rain, the program will be in the school gym.

The color guard will be Carlton Smith, Edward Gillespie and Sheridan Root. The firing squad will be Sam King, sergeant, Marvin Elzinga, Simon Perrin, James Rayman, Albert Russell, John Geer, James Whitley, Morris Dixon and William Hanna.

Veterans and their wives Sunday attended the memorial service at the Congregational church. Frank Poole sang "The Trumpet." Rev. Turner spoke on "Living Memorials."

Monopolies Are Chief Danger, Union Told

That monopolies threaten American freedom was the theme of the talk by Carl Witte of Ludington before the County Farmers Union meeting Tuesday night at the South Arm Grange Hall.

"This country needs anti-trust legislation which will permit the mass of people to own part of their America," he said. Witte also urged that farmers, small businessmen and labor cooperate.

A pancake supper preceded the meeting.

Many Belvedere Folks Are Expected Back

Many Belvedere folks are expected back for the Memorial Day week-end according to E. J. Edwards.

Among them will be Mr. and Mrs. Austin Leland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Fox, Jr., of St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gardner of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn S. Allen of Kalamazoo; Mr. and Mrs. Leland S. Babcock of Jackson; Mrs. Robert C. Hall of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hollen of Dayton, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. David M. Foraker, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Freyhold, Mr. and Mrs. Byron L. Geffus of Cincinnati.

Mrs. Alvin J. Macaulay, Jr., of Grosse Pointe was here looking over a cottage to rent.

Graveside Rites Held for Mrs. Erickson

Graveside services for Mrs. Theodore Erickson, 67, former resident who died in Holland on May 20, were conducted by Rev. Gaylord Howell at the Brookside cemetery at 4 p. m. Friday.

Mrs. Erickson, the former Etta Whitford Siminow, had lived in Holland for about 20 years. She was a member of the Methodist church, the Rebekah lodge and the Royal Neighbors.

Besides her husband she is survived by three brothers and a sister.

Funeral services were held at Holland on Thursday.

Delegates Attend State Church Meeting

The annual meeting of the women of the Episcopal church was held at St. Paul's Episcopal church Dowagiac on May 20-21.

Mrs. Don Swinton and Mrs. Louis Hanlin attended as delegates from the local church.

They then visited in Elkhart, Ind., returning home Friday. They were accompanied by the latter's daughter, Virginia Hamlin.

BEAVER ISLAND
By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Activities are running high on the island this week, what with the big perch run on, graduates being honored and the preparation for the annual May procession in progress.

The banquet and dance honoring the seniors of St. James high was held last Thursday at the King Strang Hotel. The tables arranged in U shape were decorated in spring flowers and tall blue and pink tapers. At each place were birch bark canes filled with nuts and printed programs. All the girls wore formal in pastel shades.

Margie Gathill, toastmistress, introduced a number of students who read the class will and pro- phesies. Members of the school board as well as Chief Van Erke, who spoke for the parents. Miss Margaret Lynch, a stanch island friend and a leader in many activities in Pontiac, was the guest speaker.

Culminating the evening was the dance which was held in the Town Hall. The entire hall had a canopy of blue and white crepe paper and hundreds of rolls of confetti thrown in every direction. The large confetti ball, which was hung in the center of the building, showered over the dancers when it was broken.

This was a big evening for our teen-agers and their parents. The Juniors, under the direction of their committee: Margaret Rick- gers, Lillian Green, Jack O'Donnell, were responsible for this affair.

A 4-H club group from Charlevoix county took a day off for an excursion to Beaver Island. They paid a visit to McKinley school mainly to see the school rooms that are heated with stoves—a real curiosity for them.

Air traffic to and from the Island is increasing daily. It is interesting to note the various models flying over head and it is especially a thrilling sight to see the Navy Seebies land in the harbor. With planes coming and boats docking, we Islanders are beginning to feel very metropolitan.

Mary Wogan is in Detroit on a shopping expedition.

Benice Martin's marriage banns are being called.

The Frank Nackermans have moved to their suburban home near the church. Their daughter, Barbara, returned to the Island Saturday after being away for several weeks.

"Well," said Cousin Bridget O'Incey Malone, "I do declare. To think Art Larsen had to put up an electric fence so he can have a patch of strawberries. Sez I, 'Yep, the cows are in for a shocking experience."

A record crowd of fishermen are on the island. The King Strang Hotel is filled to capacity. The fishermen relaxing in the lobby of the hotel are a very contented bunch.

The Coast Guard boat Sundew came to the Island last week to place the buoy outside the harbor.

The commander, Capt. Warren Wilnot, had the opportunity of visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher.

Judge E. R. Boyles and his wife from Lansing spent a few days on the island last week.

Mrs. Arthur Miller returned to the Island Friday bringing her mother, Mrs. C. E. Webster, back to spend the summer. Mrs. Webster is an accomplished pianist and we are looking forward in several evenings of entertainment during her stay here.

Mary LaFreniere went gaily down to the Post Office after learning that her new slippers (for the dance last Thursday) had arrived. Upon opening the box, Mary found, not a dainty pair of shoes, but a huge pair of men's brogans.

The Bayshore Ladies Aid met May 28 at the church with a pot-luck dinner. The members cleaned the church.

Mrs. C. L. Todd of Towers was a guest Sunday of her sister-in-law and family, Mrs. J. Johnson. Neighbors of Joe Oliver helped him put out a roof fire at his home.

Mrs. Grant Furgason
A supper birthday party in honor of Albert Spiegel's 20th birthday was held Friday evening at the Grant Furgason home. A group of neighbor boys were present. Lunch including a decorated birthday cake was served later in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Furgason spent the week-end at the Grant Furgason home. Other Sunday callers were Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Furgason and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Mindel, Mr. and Mrs. Bob White, and son, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Baker, George Spiegel and Mr. and Mrs. Neiland Baker.

A pig of Mr. and Mrs. Bob White's presented them with 17 baby pigs last week.

Bob Cole is working for Industrial Welding in Petoskey. Arlene and Vern Cole are working at Breene's in Petoskey.

Albert Spiegel is building a house in Bay Shore.

Mrs. Paul Shantz of Norwood and daughter, Audrey of Traverse City and Isabelle and her husband of Windsor, Canada, with Audrey's son and Isabelle's daughter were Saturday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Furgason.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Mindel have returned to their home, the former William Grey Farm.

William Hair has been hauling logs to the saw mill in Bay Shore.

What Michigan Bell's WAGE SETTLEMENT
Means

TO TELEPHONE EMPLOYEES

Agreements signed last week with the Michigan telephone unions provide, among other things, for:

- wage increases of $3 and $4 a week for all present employees, depending on their length of service.
- even higher wage increases for employees in a number of Michigan towns because of reclassification of their communities to higher wage groups.
- including the effect of "fringe" items, an average increase of $1.13 per week for employees represented by the Plant, Traffic and Accounting unions.
- increases in beginners' rates and top rates where local conditions justify.

Telephone employees will continue to receive:

- extra payments for overtime, Sunday, holiday, evening and night duty.
- the usual merit and length-of-service wage increases.
- six holidays with pay; vacations with pay up to three weeks, depending on length of service; as well as sickness and death payments and pensions—all paid for in full by the company.
- steady work, not subject to seasonal layoffs.

Considering these other advantages, the settlement—which in itself amounts to more than 10 cents an hour—compares favorably with settlements recently made in some outside industries. These telephone wage increases have been granted even though the adjustments in outside industry will not be reflected for sometime in the general wage levels of most Michigan communities. But what is even more important is that some 19,000 Michigan Bell employees again are receiving regular pay checks.

TO THE COMPANY

The settlement, together with wage adjustments for other employees, will add more than $5,500,000 a year to Michigan Bell's costs of providing service.

For many months, the company's earnings for investors have been on a downward trend. In view of these new wage increases and other rising costs, rate increases must be requested of the Michigan Public Service Commission to keep the company financially sound so as to attract the new capital needed for expansion and improvement.

TO THE PUBLIC

The settlement means that the public again has normal telephone service and Michigan Bell's million-dollar-a-week payroll again is contributing to the economic life of Michigan communities.

It will be remembered that the original union demands would have amounted to $26,000,000 a year. The wage adjustments agreed on, which are geared to local conditions in Michigan, will cost about one-fourth that amount. This will mean telephone rates for Michigan customers considerably lower than would be necessary if the original demands had been met.

Last but not least, the settlement means that Michigan Bell can get on with the big job of providing telephones for the thousands of folks who are waiting, and making telephone service better and better for everyone.

A WORD OF THANKS—We would like to say "thanks" for your patience and cooperation during the telephone strike. We deeply regret any inconvenience which the strike may have caused you. And we sincerely hope that it will not happen again.

News of folks, your neighbors and mine... but did you know that—

Will it ever stop raining this week? Anyway things are brightening in bloom in spite of the cool weather. Mrs. Ruth Wackelin expects to leave after school is out for Sturgeon Bay, Wis. She will be accompanied by her two children, Nancy and David, and will visit for several weeks at the home of Mrs. Wackelin's sister, Mrs. George Hoffland. School days are nearly over, and only for high school students, but college is well. From MSC comes word that the 25 students enrolled there will soon be back home. Three Charlevoix girls have been pledged to seniors. They are Judy Campbell, Dolta Gammie, Marlin Craig, Alpha Xi, Della and Joan Nelson, Zeta Tau Alpha.

The Albert Holmes who have wintered at Port Orange expected to leave this week for home, but due to illness of Mrs. Holmes, they are detained. Completing Mrs. Carlton Dean who has been visiting Mrs. Harley Ochs, a dessert bridge party was held at the home of Mrs. Winifred Mower at Ironton, with Mrs. Ochs as hostess. High score for the afternoon was awarded to Mrs. Arthur Fitch. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walstad left Wednesday for Syracuse, N. Y., via Niagara Falls, to attend a reunion of the 38th Infantry, the Rock of the Marine of World War I. Mrs. Fern Cole and son, Vera expect to spend Decoration Day in Rogers City. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bonthorn and daughter of Chicago, Ill., spent several days this week at the Hotel Charlevoix. Sunday was sultry with time on Lake Charlevoix. Mr. and Mrs. I saw an old snailboat himself fresh from Detroit, Dick Solonstad. The County State Bank has been undergoing housecleaning with a new point job. Harold Totten says that if it doesn't stop raining so that the water can get out of his fields, he is going to run an ad in the paper something like this: "For Sale—undeveloped real property, for private lakes, no fish restrictions. Located on US-31." Darlene LaCruix went to Bayne City Wednesday, called there by the illness of her brother, Norman. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Sternberg. They celebrated an anniversary Saturday. Mrs. Thomas Miller has been house cleaning and getting things done for summer, for she hopes to leave after school is out for Vancouver to visit her sister. From there the two women expect to go on a jaunt together, doing California, Arizona and other points of interest in the West.

Understand that the Sub-Deb club had a slumber party recently and one of the highlights of the evening was making the Sundays, as pictured on the front page of Life recently. Well, the girls all lived through it. It is quite common now for telephone calls to come through from most anywhere in the U. S., these days to our location here with a anxious request: "Is my boat ready?" We want to come to Charlevoix. When Charlevoix gets in your blood once it is just too, too bad.

Dairymen Plan New Breeding Association

Dairymen living east and north of South Arm and Lake Charlevoix on June 10 can become members of the newest organization aimed at making more money for the farmer.

That evening the projected Artificial Breeders Association will meet at Ironton City.

The Association must have three hundred cows of either Holstein, Guernsey, or Jersey as the main breed and 100 cows of either the other two breeds to start. The membership fee is $3.00 per member and is payable when the contract is signed. Also paid at this time is a fee of $1.00 per head for the number of cows signed up. These two fees are never paid again. The fee is $5.00 for three services.

Girl Scout Troop Will Visit Island

Girl Scout Troop 1 is busy making plans for the annual camping trip this year to Beaver Island. Nineteen girls were given physical examinations last week by Dr. Robert McClintock, assisted by Mrs. Dean Davenport, in preparation for the event.

Money to finance the trip was earned by the rummage sale—Virginia Smith, scribe.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Palm and his brother were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Sorenson.

20 Senior Scouts Are Seeking Leader

Twenty Senior Scouts are looking for a leader.

Thursday night they met with the new city Senior Scout committee and signed up for Sea, Air and Explorer Scouting. The committee plans to meet again Thursday to see if it can find men interested in being leaders.

The committee is Capt. Hubert Paddock, Charles Bleha, Dr. Fred Young, Gordon Freedman, Clarence Heise, Glenn Snider, Supt. Roy G. Bennett.

Grillo Open Fruit Store for 18th Year

For the 18th consecutive year, Andy Grillo is opening his Charlevoix Fruit Store & Delicatessen here Thursday.

In the same Bridge street location, during recent weeks he has repainted both front and inside, has put up shelves and has been laying in stock.

This year, in addition to his other lines, he is stocking domestic and imported champagnes.

Rites for Mrs. Krulik Held Here Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Josephine Krulik, 74, who died late Thursday at Traverse City, were held at the See Funeral Home at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Jackson E. Turner conducted the service. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

Born in Bohemia on Dec. 31, 1872, Josephine Kysella came to Charlevoix about 1894. Soon after her arrival here she was married to Rudolph Krulik, who died several years ago. She always resided in Charlevoix except for four years spent in Detroit.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Harold Hallett, of Detroit, and two sons, Robert, of Santa Monica, Calif., and Edward, of Detroit. Another daughter, Mrs. Doris Conn, died in 1936.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyer and sons, Charlie Bill and David, returned to Flint Friday after spending a week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Meyer. Friday the Meyers' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Griswold, will arrive from Grand Rapids for the holiday week-end.

New Teachers On Faculty For Next Year

Two new teachers will be on next year's school faculty according to Supt. Ray G. Bennett.

With one exception, all the present teachers have signed contracts for next year. These contracts carry an average salary increase of 11 1/2%.

The new teachers are Leonard Butts, now coach and science teacher at Hemlock; and Mrs. A. L. Gustafson, now teaching home economics at Kaleva. Mrs. Gustafson will take the place of Margaret Strehle, who resigned this week to be married.

The other teachers are: Elementary: Mrs. Jennette E. Abtiller, Mrs. Bessie Coleman, Mrs. Mary A. Cooper, Mrs. Ethel Courier, Mrs. Dorothy McLean, Miss Frances Miller, Mrs. Helen E. Richards, Mrs. Bertha Shetterly, Mrs. Mildred Smith, Glenn S. Snider and Mrs. Elizabeth Trimble.

High School: Harry E. Bingham, Stewart E. Coleman, Norman M. Gallagher, Ray L. Kipke, D. C. Maltby, Miss Florine Milner, C. M. Novak, Clarence A. Odmark, Mrs. Dorothy E. Richards, Robert S. Richards, Uno A. Suomela, Leonard Burns and Mrs. Gustafson.

Catholic Students In Colorful Ceremony

The traditional crowning of Our Blessed Mother as Queen of May took place at St. Mary's church Sunday afternoon with grade school students, a high school guard of honor and altar boys participating in the annual event.

Starting out from the school the procession marched to the church and entered singing "Immaculate Mary." They were led by grade school boys and girls. The girls carried armfuls of wild lilacs.

Composed of Catholic high school students, the honor guard marched next. Forming a colorful contrast to the solemnity of black and white surplices, the girls wore formal gowns and floral headresses.

Next came the altar boys carrying the Cross. They were followed by the small boys also dressed in surplices.

Dressed in all white the tiny crown bearers and their four attendants preceded Rosanne Gallispie who was chosen to crown the queen. This honor is reserved each year for the outstanding girl student.

Singing "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother" the church and church members joined in the May altar. As Miss Gillespie placed the crown upon the statue of Mary the group sang "Oh Mary We Crown Thee With Blossoms Today."

The coronation was followed by the Rosary and Benediction. The May Day procession and crowning of Mary as May Queen is an age-old custom of the Catholic church.

This year for the first time the high school students assisted with the coronation by acting as honor guard.

Annual Children's Day to Be Sunday

The annual Children's Day will be observed at the Congregational church Sunday.

The program will be presented at the regular church hour, 11:15 a. m., and will be constructed about Miller's picture, The Angels.

The dramatic service, in which all the children of the Sunday School will take part, will include four scenes: Jesus and the Children, When Primary children worship, The Juniors tell a story, and Intermediate presents The Church.

Rev. Jackson Turner will present Bibles and diplomas to the following children who are graduating from the primary to the intermediate department: Dick Hatcher, June Kirkwood, Camilla Maltby, Jana Merica, Judy Merica, Glenn See, Linda Stroud and Kit Carson.

The offering will be used to support the work of young men and women commissioned by the Board of Home Missions for Student Summer Service.

The final faculty party of the year was held Tuesday night at Camp Charlevoix. All members, their families and wives, were to go.

First Sugar Beet Seed in 20 Years Drilled in Charlevoix County

Back in these parts for the first time in 20 years, beet drills last week were planting sugar beet seed on Charlevoix County farms. Shown above are V. L. Mathews operating the tractor and M. L. Mathews on the 4-row drill on the brothers' farm south of town. They drilled 12 acres of beets, part of the 1000 contracted for this summer by the Isabella Sugar Co. represented by L. E. McGowan.

City Pays Bills Of $13,643; Hints Bottom of Barrel

For the 18th time in years, the City Council Monday night scraped the bottom of its financial barrel to meet bills.

With three more pay days before July taxes begin to come in, the Councilmen faced almost certain borrowing to tide the municipality over.

Total bills of $13,643.17 were paid. Two major items boosted the total: $4000 for airport bonds and $3000 for insurance. The rest was current payroll, including about $1000 in connection with the new bridge, which will be applied on the city's share of the right of way cost.

A variety of other matters were taken up. With the city dump filling up, more dump ground will be sought. Hansel Burns is the new police officer looking after parking meters.

New markers are to be painted on the streets when and if the weather stays dry long enough. The landing markers at the airport also are to be painted, new ones may be built and a 50 foot circle at the runway crossing may be put in.

New fire hose, 200 feet of large and 100 feet of small, was bought from government surplus. The piano is to be moved upstairs to prevent further damage by youngsters using the city hall.

Another request from the School Board for funds to help operate the library during the summer was received. At first it was decided to ask for a conference with Board members; then the Council voted $250 outright for this year, and adjourned.

Jury to Hear Two Criminal Cases

Two jury cases will be heard starting Monday in Circuit Court before Judge John Simpson of Jackson.

They are John R. Martin, arson; and Miles D. Starr, reckless driving. Judge Simpson was assigned here in place of Judge W. L. Waller who was called away.

Dr. Paul Winder Dies in South

Word has just reached here of the death of Dr. Paul Winder, 42, of Shreveport, La., on May 5, son of the late Dr. C. J. and Mrs. Winder.

At one time the Winders lived here. A letter from Mrs. Winder says the death of their son helped cause the death of his father. Both were buried at Eaton Rapids.

Husbands Are Guests Of Pythian Sisters

The Pythian Sisters entertained their husbands at a social evening at the K-of-P hall on Thursday evening. Progressive Pedro was played with Mrs. Harold Dutcher winning first prize. Mr. and Mrs. John Stebe, George Roff, Mrs. Marie McCall and Mrs. Albert Edwards won prizes for bingo.

Refreshments were served late in the evening.

Mrs. W. E. Hitecock, and her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Amley, returned to Muncie, Ind., Saturday after spending several days at the former's summer home on Meech St. She recently purchased the former Koch property, has had the house remodelled and redecorated through out and had the grounds landscaped. She will return June 23 for the summer.

City to Honor War Dead at Friday Rites

Honoring the war dead, Charlevoix will hold its traditional Memorial Day ceremonies Friday.

In charge of the community observance will be the three service men's organizations: Amvets, Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion. Cooperating will be all fraternal organizations and the schools.

Girl Scouts and Brownies are to meet at the school, form lines and join the rest of the parade on Park Avenue. All other marchers will meet at Park Avenue at 9:30 a. m. After forming the line of march, the parade will start at 10 a. m.

Order will be colors and color guard, school band, Blue and Gold Star mothers, Boy and Girl Scouts, patriotic organizations and school children.

The casting of the wreath on the water will be at the Memorial Park. It will be conducted by the Blue Star Mothers, prayer will be by Rev. Gaylord Howell, taps will be sounded and the march to Brookside cemetery resumed.

There the program will be: Star Spangled Banner, school band; Invocation, Rev. Jackson Turner; Gettysburg Address; Memorial Address, Rev. W. D. Wood; Floral tribute, salute and taps; American School band; Benediction, Rev. A. B. Claypool.

Flags will be put on all graves Wednesday. All business places will be closed Friday. In case of rain, the program will be in the school gym.

The color guard will be Carlton Smith, Edward Gillespie and Sheridan Root. The firing squad will be Sam King, sergeant, Marvin Elzinga, Simon Perrin, James Rayman, Albert Russell, John Geer, James Whitely, Morris Dixon and William Hanna.

Veterans and their wives Sunday attended the memorial service at the Congregational church. Frank Poole sang "The Trumpeter." Rev. Turner spoke on "Living Memorials."

Monopolies Are Chief Danger, Union Told

That monopolies threaten American freedom was the theme of the talk by Carl Witte of Ludington before the County Farmers Union meeting Tuesday night at the South Arm Grange Hall.

This country needs anti-trust legislation which will permit the mass of people to own part of their America," he said. Witte also urged that farmers, small businessmen and labor cooperate.

A pancake supper preceded the meeting.

Many Belvedere Folks Are Expected Back

Many Belvedere folks are expected back for the Memorial Day week-end according to E. J. Edwards.

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF '47

Pemberton Sales & Service 110 Mason Street

Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Supernaw arrived Saturday from Madison, Wis., to spend a few days at their summer home on Dixon ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Taylor had as week-end guests their daughter, Miss Gloria Taylor and John Tomasunas of Grand Rapids.

Peggy Drake Is Bride Of Albert W. Thorp

The Church of God paragonage was the scene of the marriage of Miss Peggy Drake, daughter of Lewis Drake, of Flint and Albert W. Thorp, son of Mrs. William Thorp of this city, at 7:30 May 19. Rev. W. D. Wood read the service.

The bride was attired in a dressmaker suit of light blue wool, a blue and white hat, black accessories and a corsage of white roses and carnations.

Miss Agnes Thorp, sister of the bridegroom, was her only attendant. She wore a tulle dress, yellow and black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Arthur Christ, of Lansing, served as best man.

Mrs. Thorp, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy blue dress with matching accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's mother. A three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom graced the refreshment table which was decorated with carnations, snapdragons and white tapers.

The bride attended the Kearsley high school, Flint. The bridegroom attended the Charlevoix high school, and during World War II served in the army for more than three years.

Kid Party Given For Clara Speigl

Clara Speigl, whose birthday anniversary was Monday, was honored guest at a "kid" party given by Edna Novotny and Jeanne Englehart at the latter's apartment Monday evening. Ann Speigl, Lillian Novotny and Mrs. Robert Miller were awarded prizes for the children's parlor games and Eleanor Harrington won first prize for the best costume. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by the hostesses. Miss Speigl received many gifts.

Other guests were Mrs. Elmer Duerr, Mrs. Charles Powell, Mrs. Ira Smith, Mrs. Bruce Henley, Mrs. William Romanchuk of the Heights, Edith Olack and Marjorie Englehart.

Ruth Hollman, Jake White, Jr., Wed

At a quiet ceremony performed in the Methodist parsonage at 1 p. m., Miss Ruth Hollman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hollman, of Dur, became the bride of Jake White, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake White, Sr., of this city. Rev. Gaylord Howell read the service in the presence of their immediate families.

The bride chose a light gray dressmaker suit fashioned with a peplum back, navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations for her wedding.

Her only attendant was Miss Barbara White, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a darker gray suit with brown accessories and pink carnations.

Mark Cross, uncle of the bridegroom, assisted as best man.

Mrs. Hoffman was attired in a gray print dress and black accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. White, mother of the bridegroom, also wore a gray print dress. Her accessories were white. Both had corsages of pink carnations.

At 3 o'clock a wedding reception was held at the American Legion hall. The refreshment table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Bouquets of spring flowers and tapers decorated the table.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home at 217 Antrim St.

Both are graduates of the Charlevoix high school. The bridegroom served 3 years in the Navy during World War II.

Mary Burns Circle Has Final Meeting

The Mary Burns circle of the Congregational church concluded their activities for the year Monday evening. Mrs. James Belling and Mrs. Robert Miles entertained at the Norwood home of the former's mother, Mrs. Allen Campbell.

At the close of the business meeting, a potluck lunch was served. Mrs. Campbell showed colored slides she had taken. Twenty members were present.

Thursday evening members had given a dinner at the church for their respective families. Forty were present for the event.

May 19 the circle had honored Mrs. Mary Burns, the oldest member of the church for whom the circle is named with a card and letter on the birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Burns, 84, of 1110 N. W. Ave., was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Burns, of this city. She is survived by her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Burns, of this city.

Girl Scouts, Brownies Will Be In Parade

All Girl Scouts, including the Brownies, are to meet at the school Friday morning to march in the Memorial Day parade.

The lines will form at the school and join the parade at Park Ave.

Girls with uniforms are requested to wear them and all other girls are asked to dress in suitable garments. Brownie Scouts will march through the business district and then be transported by bus to the program at Brookside cemetery.

Pythian Sisters Go To District Meeting

The Pythian Sisters of District No. 2 held their annual convention at the Ladies Library Building at Traverse City Saturday. Gladys Behrens of Charlotte, Grand Chief, and Maude Barnaby of Grand Rapids, District Deputy presided at the meetings.

At noon a luncheon was served at the Methodist church.

The Muskegon Temple No. 61 and the Charlevoix Temple No. 149 presented the work at the afternoon session. Mrs. Harold Dutcher was initiated in the Charlevoix Temple.

Those from Charlevoix who attended were Mrs. Albert Edwards, Mrs. George Cook, Mrs. R. J. Nowland, Sr., Mrs. Helen Plum, Mrs. Marie McCall, Mrs. Emma Bogart, Mrs. Eugene Lewis, Mrs. George Roff and Mrs. Dutcher.

FOR a long time the C & O has been saying that America's railroads must modernize their passenger equipment—or forfeit a great opportunity.

In print and in private we have lampooned the "rolling tenements" that still pass for sleeping cars. We have stumped for modern streamlined trains to replace tired, creaking old day coaches. And over and over we have stated the conviction that, given attractive equipment, and new comforts and services, the railroads could open the door on a new era of travel.

As an earnest of that conviction the C & O is replacing every old sleeping car, day coach and diner, on all our main lines, with modern streamlined cars. The orders have all been placed. If every railroad were doing as much, there would now be 21,000 new passenger cars on order instead of a mere 8000.

But Is It Practical?

The standpatters in the industry are still shaking their heads. And lately more reasonable people have been asking, "How can the large-scale replacement of old trains be practical?"

They point out that several of our largest systems had serious deficits in 1946. And everyone knows that the railroads are caught between rocketing costs and lagging rates. "How," they ask, "can such an industry afford large outlays for new equipment?"

The answer is that the railroads can't afford not to make these outlays. And here is a dollars-and-cents example:

The Investment That Is Fast Returning Its Cost

Last August one of the C & O lines, the Pere Marquette, installed two ultra-modern trains on its run between Detroit and Grand Rapids. These new daytime streamliners were the last word in passenger attractiveness.

Since they have been in operation the new trains have carried 86% more passengers than old trains carried over the same route during the same period of the previous year—when traffic was still swollen by war emergencies.

And here is the proof of the pudding: In less than 4 years, at the present rate, the increase in passenger receipts will equal the total cost of the trains!

Modern equipment is not a luxury that only a few fortunate systems, like the C & O, can afford. Even a bankrupt railroad can borrow money today to buy such equipment at 2% interest. Since that is the fact, it is almost incredible that less than 100 new passenger cars have been ordered this year!

Which Way Do We Go?

To investors, the labor brotherhoods and the traveling public, the C & O repeats its conviction—that our railroads face one of the most critical choices in their history.

If pessimist thinking, old-line practices and Toonerville equipment continue to be tolerated, then, regardless of rate relief, further deficits and bankruptcies are certain.

But, if, on the other hand, these liabilities are replaced by modern ideas and modern trains, our railroads can again be a credit to our country. They can also be a bulwark of our national defense, which, as every citizen knows, depends on a flourishing transportation system.

Henry Barber Shop Being Modernized

Considerable changes are being made at Henry's Barber Shop. The back partition has been torn out, making the shop considerably longer. In the extra space, a fourth chair and the accompanying equipment will be installed.

A new, tan linoleum has been laid on the floor in place of the previous black covering. The walls will be redecorated in some light color. And new fluorescent lights will be installed.

Ray Ashdon soon will be back as the regular barber in the third chair.

The final touch will be the new sterilizers. They will use ultra violet light.

Ellsworth Will Extend Essex Road

Ellsworth surveyors have been busy plotting an extension to Park street north to Elm street, better known as Essex road. The village council, by making this change, will eliminate two dangerous corners, one at the Pilgrim Holiness church and one at the junction of Essex road and Main street. The work is expected to start next month.

She will move to Holland where her daughter, Harriet, valedictorian of this year's senior class, will enter Hope College next fall. Mrs. Grant Wilson of Central Lake will be the new operator.

Bridal Shower Given for Ruth Hoffman

A bridal shower honoring Miss Ruth Hoffman, whose marriage to Jake White, Jr., was an event of May 23, was given by Mrs. Ira Smith at the home of Mrs. Willis Cross Sr. on Wednesday evening. Games were played, with Mrs. Maurice Foster, Mrs. Robert Goss and Jean Englehart winning the prizes. After the honoree opened the many lovely gifts, the hostess served refreshments.

Others present were Mrs. Jake White Sr., Mrs. Mary Howe, Mrs. William Schwab, Mrs. Ralph Cross, Mrs. Mark Cross, Mrs. Bruce Henley, Mrs. Walter Henley Sr. and Mrs. Jean Gallagher.

News of folks, your neighbors and mine... but did you know that—

Monna and Donna McFarland and Miss Elaine Hebert plan to go this week to Detroit to be gone for two weeks. While there they will attend the high school graduation of a relative, Marcella Stafford. Out come summer things from their winter hideouts.

Clarke Bergson, one of the graduates of the class of '47, plans to remain home until June 18, which will be his 18th birthday. Then he plans to join Uncle Sam's forces for an 18 month period. We truly hope Clarke will have a chance to get into a band in the Army and carry on with his clarinet for he has played in first chair in the band and done a splendid job.

Yes, sir, the Courier has a wide reading public. Besides overseas mail to boys still in service, the paper goes to folks in 31 states in the Union, three foreign countries.

Have you noticed the new green curtains at the windows of the County State Bank? They are beautiful and certainly give the bank a real uplift. It's cherry blossom time in these parts. The country is becoming a picture. Looks like the blossoms are doing their best to burst into a galaxy of bloom, for earth has yielded tardily to the coming season. Delayed spring is now having her coming out party.

Betty Creed and her young six months old son, Michael, arrived from Montclair, N. J., Monday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Ross, and to see her new nephew, who will arrive home from the hospital Thursday.

Our deepest sympathy goes to the Frank Zietler family in the loss of Mrs. Florence Zietler, who lived for her family. Her death is especially hard on Don Zietler who graduates this week. It had been his mother's wish that she might live to see her son graduate. Monday, the day before graduation on the birthday of her oldest son, Buster, Buster had arrived home just three weeks ago from the army.

The parking meters are back with us again. Pennies are being put to work and it is no uncommon thing to hear women in line at the grocery say, "Gee, I have just got to get out there. My time is up." While many folks are coming to Charlevoix these days, others are leaving. Such is the case of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore of Antwerp, Mich. who left Tuesday for Cincinnati where they will be for 12 days. From there they will go to Florida for a month's stay, and will then wind up the summer by being back in Charlevoix.

Last week we had everything in the way of weather, along with all the other folks who live this side of Wyoming—rain, snow, and just plain old weather. But there was one person who remembered a snowstorm, 44 years ago, and that was Orson Cook. And 44 years ago he said that it snowed on the Fourth of July at Boyne City during a baseball game. Last Thursday William L. Tyson left Charlevoix County jail, accompanied by Sheriff Floyd Ikema and deputy Ted Colborn for Jackson. And the Michigan State Prison where he will start his life sentence for first degree murder.

Mr. and Mrs. August Odmark of Muskegon and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Odmark of Detroit were guests last week at the Clarence Odmark home and were here for the concert given by the band under the direction of Mr. Odmark. It was quite a thrill for the bandmembers to have Ronnie Odmark, oboist in the Detroit Symphony sit in and play with them for the last group of numbers. Week-end guests at the Odmark home were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Stewart, all of Detroit.

There is certainly a place for a good artist who enjoys sketching and drawing with children. Such a person could have a good sized class for there are several children in Charlevoix who are art-minded. The new chef and another cook from Cincinnati will arrive June 10 to take up their new duties at the Parkside.

Last Friday Mrs. Ralph Hamilton took the members of the eighth grade of St. Mary's school on a real jaunt. Driving her car, she had seven with her and according to Sammy, the young Hamilton boy, it was quite a trip. "We started about seven in the morning," he said. "Went to Mackinaw City, then took the test to St. Ignace, went to Sault, well, the Sea, took another boat and went over to Canada. We

Library to Close Three Weeks for Repairs

For three weeks the Library will be closed starting Saturday, the School Board decided Monday night.

This is solely for repairs which have to be made at this time. After that the Library will reopen for the rest of the summer. Books which become due can be deposited in the box at the door after Saturday.

A letter from the School Board to the City Council outlines the library policy of the former. After expressing appreciation for the gift of $250 to help defray summer expenses (school board members privately said they felt the city should pay half the library budget, about $2250) the School Board letter said:

"Due to the urgency of school financial problems, the Board will be forced to continue with its program of curtailing expenses where ever feasible, which will entail limiting the further purchase of books to those suitable for student reading.

"The Board will be glad to furnish a complete financial budget for the operation of the Library should the Council wish it at any time."

Arson Case Nears Jury in Court Here

Circumstantial evidence was presented to the jury in proof of the state's contention that John Ralph Martin set fire to the Clara Denney house here the night of Dec. 23.

The case was expected to be over late Wednesday or Thursday morning. The evidence consisted of previous statements which Martin made that he would get even with Mrs. Denney for supposed slights; and the fact that he was seen near the fire shortly before it broke out.

The next case is an appeal from Justice Court. Miles Dale Starr of Walloon Lake was convicted there of reckless driving, was fined $25 and $12.45 costs. Rather than pay he engaged Clara L. Gillett as attorney and is appealing the case.

Judge in both is Judge John Simpson of Jackson.

Knight Property to Be Operated As Chateau

Two Detroit men, whose wives were born near Charlevoix, are the owners of the Chateau, a new addition to the summer accommodations here.

They are M. B. Miller and L. H. Bruce, both fire prevention engineers. They have acquired the former Knight home at 204 Bellevue and will operate it as a lodging and breakfast place.

In charge will be Mr. Miller's sister, Mrs. Sylvia M. Gilson. All five were here this week-end, to start preparations for the summer and for the men to do a little fishing.

The Chateau will open June 29. The Millers and Bruces will continue to live in Detroit, but hope eventually to make Charlevoix their year-round home.

Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Bruce are sisters, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Miller who formerly lived south of town.

Judge Grants Divorce To Boyne Falls Wife

One divorce was granted by Judge John Simpson in circuit court here Monday.

Josephine Leszynski had asked for a divorce from her husband Raymond of Boyne Falls on the grounds of non-support and extreme cruelty. She was given the decree.

Curtis Market Installs New Daylight Lighting

New lighting throughout the store has been installed at the Curtis Market by Wayne Eddings for Campbell & Supernaw. In the grocery section are six long double tube cold cathode units. A four tube unit lights the meat section.

Club Cruise Cancelled

The pre-season cruise of the Grand Rapids Lions Club aboard the S. S. North American, which was scheduled to enter the harbor on June 8, has been cancelled by the Chicago, Duluth and Georgian Bay Transit Co. Joseph Howard, captain of the port has announced.

Largest Tug on Great Lakes to Visit Here This Sunday

The largest and newest tug on the Great Lakes will be a Charlevoix visitor Sunday and Monday.

It is the John Roen IV, newly finished and belonging to the Roen Steamship Co. She is 150 feet long, has a 2260 horse power diesel, and will be used for towing and salvage work.

On board her when she pulls in late Sunday afternoon will be her captain, Knut Svendsen, senior master of the Roen company, Capt. John Roen and Robert Bridge, who expects to go to Sturgeon Bay for the tug's maiden trip across the lake.

The John Roen IV was started during the war as a government sea-going tug. Her hull was built at Tampa and just finished when the war ended. The Roen company bought her, loaded the hull across the Gulf and up the Mississippi to Sturgeon Bay where she was completed and christened May 21.

She will leave Charlevoix Monday.

Vacation Bible School to Start

The Charlevoix Ministerial Association has announced a Vacation Bible School will be held this summer for two weeks duration.

Three churches in the community are sponsoring these days, the Methodist, Baptist and Church of God. School will start the morning of June 9 and will continue through June 20. The hours will be from 9:00 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. and will be Mondays through Fridays.

Further and more complete announcements regarding teaching personnel will be given from the pulpits.

Joan McGuire Wins Scholarship Award

Seven eighth graders were graduated from St. Mary's school Tuesday, receiving their diplomas from Fr. Leo Zielinski.

They are Adolphus Allard, Rosanna Gillespie, Sam Hamilton, Suzanne LaBlanc, Donna and Monna MacFarland, Joan McGuire. Joan McGuire has been awarded the Mary Wood scholarship, given annually to the eighth grade graduate having the highest scholastic average for the eight years. She can attend the Mary Wood Academy in Grand Rapids with tuition paid for a year.

Two other events occurred Tuesday. The largest beginning class in the history of the school was registered to start as first graders next fall. Report cards and diplomas were handed out.

Two Join Army

Dick Gallagher and Dale Warner left Charlevoix by bus Tuesday morning for Detroit where they were to be sworn into the Army.

Cecil W. Bailey Files for Congress

Cecil W. Bailey of Mancelona has announced that he will file for the Democratic nomination for Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Fred Bradley.

He was the Democratic candidate for Congress in opposition to Mr. Bradley in the elections of 1944 and 1946.

Coast Guard Plans New Building Red Light Tower, Kiwanians Are Told on Visit There

The present services and future plans of the Coast Guard for the station here were outlined Monday night to the members of the Kiwanis Club by Warrant Officer Joseph Etienne, commander of the Charlevoix Station.

Newly appointed two months ago, Officer Etienne has bought a home and moved here with his family.

Following a brief introduction by Howard Brunson and a few explanatory remarks, the commander invited the club to come to the Coast Guard station to see the equipment.

There he explained that future plans include the replacing of the present garage with a new building which probably will have four inclined tracks for hauling boats out of the channel. The present boat house, which will be retained, has two:

Another plan is to replace the much-photographed and scenic red wooden light tower with a new steel one. The wooden one, he explained, is giving out. It

Girl Scout Day Camp Will Start Monday

Plans for a Girl Scout Day Camp to be held on June 9-13 have been announced by Mrs. C. M. Bice, general chairman.

Mrs. C. A. Odmark, a trained and paid director, will be in charge of the camp which will be held at the Auto-Trailer camp on Lake Michigan. Mrs. Odmark, who has attended the official Girl Scout director's school in Detroit, has participated in the same work in Roscommon and Detroit. She will be in charge of the four day program which will include nature lore, singing and music, hiking and campcraft.

The local council is justly proud of the camp, the first one to be operated by such a director to northern Michigan.

The activities will open at 9:30 Monday with a day of instruction for the staff of volunteer mothers, council members and program consultants.

On Tuesday the 75 girls who are expected to attend will meet at the City Hall at 9:15 for transportation to the camp site. The first day the campers are asked to bring a "nose-bag" lunch and the following: personal items, paper, pencil, cup, jack-knife, and 50¢ registration fee. The hours of camp will be from 9:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

Cecil W. Bailey Files for Congress

Cecil W. Bailey of Mancelona has announced that he will file for the Democratic nomination for Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Fred Bradley.

He was the Democratic candidate for Congress in opposition to Mr. Bradley in the elections of 1944 and 1946.

Crippled Child Clinic to Have Expert Doctors

Dr. Carl Badgley, of the University of Michigan and Dr. J. T. Jerome of Traverse City, will be in charge of the Orthopedic Clinic to be held on June 17. Mrs. Marion Rice, R. N., of the Health Unit has announced.

They will be accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Ober, orthopedic consultant to this district, who will instruct mothers and guardians in the care of the patients.

Crippled children from the four counties in this district, Emmet, Osego, Antrim and Charlevoix, will attend the one day clinic at the school here.

Mrs. Dean Davenport is general chairman of the volunteer workers who will assist with the clinic.

Calendar of Farm Events to Be Given

A new service to farmers is being offered this week by the Charlevoix Co-Operative Co.

It is a calendar of coming rural events. As now planned, each week the Co-Op ad will carry this listing of what is going to happen. Club meetings, farm sales, rural church services, work days, picnics, Grange, Farmers Union, Farm Bureau meetings—all these will be listed.

There is no charge for this service. All that is required is that notice of the date and event be phoned in to the Co-Op office before Tuesday of each week. Thus the responsibility for listing future meetings rests with those in charge.

Boats, Trains to Go On Summer Schedule

With the coming of summer, boats and trains will go different schedules.

Starting June 16 the Beaver Island boat, which has been leaving at 7 a. m. in the morning will leave at 9:15, beginning their summer schedule.

The pre-season Pere Marquette special from Chicago will leave the Chicago on the night of June 20, arriving here June 21 and will leave the evening of the 22nd.

The regular summer special will start June 23 and will be daily except Sunday coming from Chicago, and daily except Saturday from the north.

The regular daytime train is also being changed. The south-bound train will be at 9:29 a. m. and the northbound at 3 o'clock.

Two New Nurses Join Hospital Staff

Two new nurses have joined the staff of the Charlevoix Hospital, Miss Kathryn Nolan, superintendent, has announced.

They are Miss Gladys Tillman, R.N., of Branchport, N.Y., a former army nurse who had served in Italy with Miss Nolan and Miss Sue Glovack, of Grand Rapids, who is the new night supervisor.

The Beaver Island crash boat commanded by Capt. Van Erkel was in Charlevoix Tuesday getting supplies.

Although the weather was clear Monday evening, he had the fog horn, usually known as Ferdinand, turned on for the benefit of the Kiwanians. It is operated by compressed air at 32 pounds, blows for 18 seconds, and can be heard 10 to 15 miles out in the lake.

Although folks ashore occasionally say they wish it would stay silent, if it isn't blowing in thick weather, the station immediately gets a loud squawk from any or every ship in this part of the lake. They want the fog horn. The rule for turning it on is whenever South Point, two miles away, cannot be seen from the station.

The big need at the station, he says, is men. Formerly there were 40 stationed here. When he came there were just two; now there are four. Asked if the old beach patrol still is maintained, he said:

"No. If we had to, I'd have to be out there walking it along with the rest."

55 Seniors Get Diplomas at Annual Commencement

New Writers Sending News of Neighborhoods

Three new neighborhood correspondents now are sending in news to The Courier regularly.

They are Mrs. Leo Berg in the Burgess and Maple Grove section; Mrs. Anne Nason in Evline Orchards; and Mrs. Grant Furgeson in Murray School.

Mrs. Berg is new. The Courier not having had a regular correspondent northeast of town in recent months. Mrs. Nason takes the place of Margie Nachazel, who is on a vacation trip this summer. Mrs. Furgeson replaces Rev. N. G. Hargett.

Many of the other news writers also recently became members of The Courier staff. The entire list now is:

Atwood, Mrs. Harry Bos; Norwood, Mrs. Allen Campbell; Ellsworth, John Tanner; Clark, Mrs. William Parsons; Barnard, Mrs. Richard Potter; Inwood, Mrs. Charles Wells; Rock Elm, Mrs. F. C. Lawton; Evline Orchards, Mrs. Nason; Ironton, Mrs. Pete Bennett; Burgess, Mrs. Berg; Murray School, Mrs. Furgeson; and Beaver Island, Mrs. J. C. Hanley.

Shoe Shop Moved To New Building

John Slezak's shoe repair shop is now in its new location.

Tuesday and Wednesday he moved his plant and stock from Bridge street to the building next to the Model Laundry which he has purchased from Ray Faulkner.

He owns the building on Bridge street, just vacated and plans to raze it this summer, or more likely this fall. The land belongs to Steve Dolbel who plans as soon as material becomes available to erect a two-story building on the site now occupied by the former shoe shop and his own Biches.

Glenn Rose Has Leg Broken by Autos

Glenn Rose, city police officer, is at the Charlevoix Hospital with a broken leg, crushed early Sunday morning between the bumpers of two cars.

The accident happened near Escanaba as three couples were going to the Rose cottage in the Upper Peninsula for the week-end. They were Mr. and Mrs. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Krahnik and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Connitz of Petoskey.

The group left here late, planning to drive at night. Near Escanaba they stopped, Rose and Connitz stopping between the cars to look at a map. The second car suddenly started ahead, catching Rose's leg.

Taken to the Escanaba hospital a temporary splint was put on and Monday H. O. Krahnik brought him back to the hospital here where the leg was set.

Nurse Pledges Work Toward New Hospital

Mrs. Caroline Sessions, R.N., of Torch Lake and Ann Arbor, has given seven days of nursing care at the Charlevoix Hospital toward the fund for the new hospital.

Mrs. Sessions has pledged seven days a year for three years to the fund. It will total approximately $150 at the end of three years.

New Cleaners Add New Equipment

Michigan Cleaners now have considerable new equipment. This week John Knight returned from Detroit with a 1947 panel body Ford truck. It will be used to transport the new rug and upholstery cleaning equipment. After the new plant is completed, it will carry dry cleaning.

Leaves On Vacation

Rev. Jackson E. Turner of the Congregational church left Monday for his summer vacation. He plans to spend it in Adrian at the Yacht Club with a college pal. He left Monday for his home in Manistee and will go from there to Adrian. He will be absent from the pulpit for two Sundays and his place will be supplied by Rev. Henry Hammond.

Using as his theme "The World Awaits", Frank Sparks, editor of the Grand Rapids Herald, addressed the members of the Senior Class, their parents and friends at the high school gymnasium Tuesday evening at the Commencement of the Class of '47.

The famous bow-tied editor of Michigan spoke many homely truths throughout his talk that struck home. Using as a background "Charlevoix the Beautiful" he asked how well everyone fit into the beauty of God's handwork. Then turning to the parents he stated that their children were their best investment, with the capital secure, and the dividends always arriving on time.

Supt. R. G. Bennett introduced the speaker. Rev. E. C. Dykstra gave the invocation. Joyce Butler and Ruth Butler, sisters, gave the Salutatory and Valedictory.

H. E. Bingham presented the Seniors to the Board of Education. Pres. Bonnie Nickerson presented Mrs. Walter C. Bergson who awarded the diplomas. In doing so a tradition started 21 years ago was continued. In 1926 when Walter Bergson graduated from high school his mother, the late Mrs. Arthur Bergson, then a member of the Board of Education, presented him with his diploma. Last night in giving out the diplomas to the class, Mrs. Bergson awarded a diploma to her son, Clarke Bergson.

Music for the evening was furnished by the high school orchestra, playing the Processional and a Bach Chorale.

Rev. W. D. Wood gave the benediction.

Sunday evening Rev. A. B. Chappone gave the Baccalaureate service at the high school gymnasium. Using as his subject, "Think" he urged the class to learn how to do creative, original thinking. Plan what to do, give it thought. Use that thought in the right direction even unto one's spiritual life.

Services Are Monday For Mrs. Zietler

Mrs. Florence Zietler 54 wife of Frank Zietler, died at her home early Saturday morning following a long illness.

Born in Chicago on Oct. 22, 1893, Florence Waite resided in Belding prior to her marriage to Mr. Zietler on Jan. 2, 1923. Since then she has lived in Charlevoix.

Besides her husband she is survived by three sons, Frank, Jr., Peter and Donald, a grand-son, two sisters, Mrs. Mildred Kiskey of Belding and Mrs. Bess Begole of Ann Arbor, a brother, Theodore Waite, of Belding.

Funeral services were held at the Sec. Funeral Home at 2 p.m. Monday with the Rev. W. D. Wood officiating. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

Capt. James Sanford Dies At Muskegon

Capt. James Sanford, 69, who spent most of his life sailing the Great Lakes, died on May 20 in Muskegon, where he lived with his son, Circuit Court Judge Joseph Sanford.

He will be remembered here, as the captain of the mail boat The Sanford, which ran between Charlevoix and Beaver Island for many years.

He has lived in Muskegon for about 15 years.

Coming Events

THEY BOOST CHARLEVOIX

Among this community's best boosters, folks who usually aren't counted as being valuable promoters, are the musicians here. There are a lot of them.

We have two good bands. The school bunch is a snappy looking group, (as is shown every time they parade) and makes fine music, as those who heard last week's concert can testify.

The city band members give up a couple of nights a week during the summer, and one night weekly for most of the rest of the year. They play the most attractive features of the summer season.

The S. P. B. quartet travel around a lot. They with the Charlevoixers are among the most reliable of our home town talent.

A public affair without music, or a summer without concerts, are both likely to be rather dull affairs. Our musical folks contribute lavishly to the community. They deserve the appreciation of the city in return.

LOST - 1400 MILES OF PAVING

Fourteen hundred miles of newly paved roads flowed down Michigan's creeks and rivers this spring when the snow drifts melted.

That figure comes from state County Road Association. It represents the $7,000,000 that snow removal cost taxpayers in 1946-47.

That is a lot of money—badly needed for maintenance and permanent improvements—to be wasted down our roadside ditches year after year.

It is true that the roads have to be kept open since we citizens became dependent on the auto. Back in the old days, the horses and bab sled could wallow through. But now we must have the roads open, and to do that we have got to pay the bill.

Unlike most dilemmas, there does seem to be a partial way out of this one. The County Road Commission here is making a start on it. That is the planting of evergreen windbreakers along bad stretches.

If highway men say that it isn't the horizontal miles that cost as much as the vertical feet. A light plow will open a mile of undrilled snow cheaper than a heavy outfit can hull a trail through 100 yards of heavy drift.

The answer seems to be to play as many miles, but to keep the snow off them with trees.

JUST A FEW SIMPLE QUESTIONS

Out in Sandance, Wyo., the editor recently became aroused over the number of folks who were patronizing and all-too-often getting stung by the transient salesman or the mail-order house. So he drew up eight questions to be asked of or about these kind of gentlemen. They are:

1. Does he pay taxes in the community and thus help you carry the local load?
2. Can he supply your order as quickly as you can get it here?
3. Will he be on hand to give satisfaction in case it isn't what you were led to expect?
4. Does he pay wages the year around to folks here?
5. Does he contribute to the Community Chest, Red Cross and school here?
6. Does he give of his time and money in helping build a better community for you?
7. Does the quality of his merchandise stand inspection?
8. Does the price include postage and insurance, or are there jokers in the deal?

PROCLAMATION

Michigan, with its million dairy cows producing over two and a half billion quarts of milk a year, ranks sixth in the nation as a dairy state.

In the past few years, Michigan's dairy industry has grown from a seventy-two million dollar business to one of over two hundred million dollars, and represents more than one-third of the average Michigan farmer's cash income.

The dairy industry has made great contributions to the general welfare of our citizens, through the hundreds of thousands of dollars spent annually for the improvement of our dairy herds, for the installation of better machinery and equipment, and for research in the field of human nutrition.

Therefore, I, Elia S. Grier, Governor of the State of Michigan, do hereby proclaim the month of June 1947 as Dairy Month in Michigan, and urge that during this period, our citizens become increasingly aware of the importance of the dairy industry to the health and vitality of the people of this state.

TEN YEARS AGO

Mrs. Josephine Bradley, who is here from Detroit visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allard, motored Monday to Traverse City, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Philip Lemier.

Mrs. Lephia Hammond, who has been spending the winter in Hollywood, California, has returned to her home in this city.

Mrs. Edward Stafford of Flint is visiting her mother, Mrs. Emma R. Bert.

Pat McInnis, a local business man, is in Detroit, and expects to return to Charlevoix this week.

Mrs. Laura Courter of this city was elevated to the office of second vice-president of the Michigan Association at the annual convention held last Wednesday and Thursday at Boyne City.

The latest addition to the state-owned fleet of ferry boats at the Straits of Mackinac will probably bear the name "The City of Cheboygan."

Miss Pearl Bigge, formerly Charlevoix county normal principal and now an instructor in the normal school at Frankfort, was guest over the week-end of Mrs. Gertrude Dick.

Jule Guild, who has been conducting an auto repair business at his home on Newman street, has taken a position in the repair service department of the Charlevoix Oil Company, starting on June 1.

Mrs. John Simmons has gone to Flint for a visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight McGeagh. From Flint she goes to Kalamazoo for the graduation on June 3rd of her daughter, Mary, from Bronson Hospital, where she has been in training for 3 years.

Leadership, Community Activities Needed to Keep Teen Age Busy

Not money, but some time spent with boys and girls will go far towards preventing an occurrence here like those at Boyne City and East Jordan where groups of young folk were in trouble with officials.

So believes Maj. Ken Smith, associate director of Camp Charlevoix, and he is backed in his belief by his director, Lewis C. Remmann.

The most effective and wisest way to build character today in young folks, they say, is to supply them with opportunities for clean fun and worth-while activities.

Two things alone are needed to make these opportunities possible. First is an interested adult who will give of his time. Second is a place to meet. Among possible meeting places are the school, the church, veteran organization, buildings, and for some purposes, private homes.

Of possible activities there is no lack. Charlevoix has a national league in the summer, and the younger fellows should be encouraged to take part. A holiday show such as Boyne City is starting now, a excellent stamp collecting goes on all the time and an always popular event is a stamp swap night. This is something that can be held in the home.

Many youngsters are camera fans and a camera club can be formed if a dark room or so are made available in another town. Major Smith says a bowling league of high school students was formed. It played only at slack times and so the cost was kept at a minimum. A further saving would be made, he pointed out, by the players taking turns as pin setters.

"Charlevoix has just about all the facilities it needs right now for a live youth program," Smith says. "These youngsters are go-

Teachers to Garden, Travel, Do Carpenter Work This Summer Vacation

Exams and last minute reports ended this week for the teachers of the Charlevoix school and summer will mean for them a great diversity of occupations.

Interviewed this week, the teachers told of their plans, which are:

Mrs. Jeanette Alfalter will stay at home this summer and spend her extra time in her garden which is a hobby with her.

Mrs. Bessie Coleman will be a farmer girl this summer going to her farm near Ke-Wah. She is looking forward to cherry time when she plans to help pick this luscious fruit.

Mrs. Mary A. Cooper will spend the summer in two spots, Saginaw and Escanaba. In Saginaw she will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Kirdner, and in Escanaba she will be with her sister Mrs. J. H. Niver.

Mrs. Ethel Courier plans to remain in Charlevoix gardening and farming. Later in the summer she hopes to spend some time at Muskegon.

Mrs. Dorothy McRae will be another stay-at-home and hopes to spend a few days before school starts next fall on a vacation jaunt.

Frances Milner will work at the Polly Kay Shop where she has been for several summers.

Mrs. Helen E. Richards is going to her home at Harrison, Ohio, for ten days, then on to Miami University where her daughter Ruth will graduate. On her return she will spend a great share of her time at the Girl Scouts Day Camp.

Mrs. Bertha M. Shetterly is planning on a camping and fishing trip in Canada for most of the summer.

Mrs. Mildred Smith will work at the T. Gray Ward, during the vacation months.

Mrs. Elizabeth Trumble plans to remain at home part of the summer and will then go to her cabin on Trout Lake in the Upper Peninsula.

Harry E. Bingham will be business manager at Camp Charlevoix, making his 10th summer at this camp.

Stewart E. Coleman will take up his full time duty as Secretary of the Board of Commerce for Charlevoix, helping to make tourists contented and boosting the home town.

Norman M. Gallagher will go to Detroit to enter Wayne University, studying principles of teaching.

Ray K. Kipke will be manager at the Belvedere Golf Club.

D. C. Maitty will operate the North Lakes Resort in Bellaire, where he has been for the past 23 summers.

Miss Floranz Milner is undecided what she will do this summer.

A Friend in Need!

Homer Tyler, Indianapolis Kroger driver, heard cries for help from two people trapped on the second floor of a burning house. He quickly backed his truck beneath the window, then helped a war veteran carry his aged grandfather to safety on the roof of the truck. Courtesy and helpfulness on the road are watchwords for Kroger drivers.

Pancharan III Could Display Two Chevrons

For more than a year now, unknown to most folks here, the Pancharan III could have been displaying a war-earned honor. And hasn't.

The craft belongs to Judge Robert S. Marx of Cincinnati and is captained by Allie Moore. During the war, Judge Marx turned the vessel over to the Coast Guard for use in the Atlantic as a patrol boat against submarines.

Last year on April 16, James Forrestal, Secretary of the Navy, wrote a letter to Judge Marx, thanking him for the ship and saying: "... gave valuable and excellent service in the important duties ... In recognition of the service rendered ... you are authorized to place in the most appropriate display location two chevrons, one for each six months active service."

But the chevrons never have been displayed. As Captain Moore puts it: "Judge Marx and I never could agree where to put them. And besides, he never wants to show 'em anyway."

Start War On Flies Early

There's an all-out war against flies this summer and DDT is the main weapon. Ray Hutson, entomologist at Michigan State college, says that this spring marks a nation-wide drive to control flies.

Latest research shows that flies can be very effectively killed by spraying DDT on the places where they rest. It's recommended that DDT be sprayed on the walls of sheds, barns, garbage pails, and on fences around pig pens and cow yards. Why not start the DDT war on flies on your farm this week?

Be Careful With Spray Materials
Spraying time is here—trees, gardens and lawns are being treated to kill insect and plant pests.

With spraying time comes a caution from Fred Roth, farm safety specialist at Michigan State college. When sprays are properly used, they can be of great aid in agricultural production. But when carelessly handled, they can cause injury or death to humans and animals.

Insecticides should never be stored near food supplies. They should be kept in metal containers and properly labeled.

Use a respirator when spray material blows back in your face. Keep well covered—don't let the spray or dust accumulate on your arms or legs. When you're all done, bathe and change clothes. If there's a lot of spraying to be done, clothing should be washed frequently to avoid accumulation of residue.

Unused or discarded material should be buried about a foot deep in the ground away from the water supply.

Milk Cows May Need Grain

Along With Pasture

The question of supplemental grain feeds for dairy cattle on pasture presents problems when cattle are first turned out, according to D. L. Murray, extension dairyman at Michigan State college.

When cows first go to pasture, they frequently have no appetite for any additional feed. As soon as they are accustomed to the grass, in a week or ten days, they will be looking for supplementary feed and some dry roughage.

For cows giving approximately 20 pounds of milk on grass, very little additional feed is necessary. For cows giving over 20 pounds of milk, yielding 40, 50 or 60 pounds, a cereal grain supplement is needed to maintain body weight and level of milk flow. A mixture of 500 pounds of oats and 500 pounds of wheat or corn is satisfactory. If some other grain is available, such as barley or rye or mill-by-products, they will serve just as well as the corn or oats or wheat.

When cows are milking heavily in the late summer and grass is no longer abundant, the grain mixture should be changed from a cereal mix to one with more protein in it. A mixture of 900 pounds of corn, oats or wheat plus 100 pounds of protein concentrate is desirable.

A rule of thumb can be followed in determining what amount of feed should be fed to each cow. In general, one pound of grain to every six pounds of milk produced will be adequate. Heavy producers may need more feed and can be fed at the rate of one pound of grain for each four pounds of milk over 20 pounds.

Pet Rabbit Chases Cat From Milk Dish

A rabbit that chases a cat away from the milk saucer—that's Thumper, white pet of Dean Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Young.

The cat is Inky Poo. Dean explains that his full name is Inky Aloysius Xavier Poo. The other pet of the family is Frisky, a wire hair terrier, who sometimes will snap at the rabbit but ordinarily tolerates it as a fellow household member.

Thumper has a catholic taste—Inky's milk, dog biscuits, even newspapers in which carrots have been wrapped. Usually the cat can lap its milk in peace. But if the rabbit wants it, he calmly pushes the cat away. If Inky—as he did at first—objects, Thumper gives him a kick that sends him across the room.

Revival Series Being Held

A series of revival meetings began at the Church of the Nazarene in Boyne City last night and will continue through June 15, except for Saturdays. Rev. and Mrs. George Bugbee are the special workers in charge.

It Seems Two Teams Fell Into Channel

It seems there were two teams fell in the channel by the Argo mill (It's funny how these old-time stories bring out facts.)

The following letter from Herh McRoberts at Muskegon came to the editor.

"When I was a small boy, my father, W. R. McRoberts, operated a dray line of three teams in the horse and buggy days."

"I was riding with him one winter day down the north hill. While crossing the bridge, we saw a team standing behind the Argo Mill, facing east. They got frightened and slipped into the channel. He jumped off the sleigh and ran over. The rescuers used a team of horses to pull the first horse out, and put a blanket on it, then trotted it down the street to Hooker's Livery Barn. I don't remember about the second horse."

"If this is the same accident as in your article, the date is wrong because I'm not that old. I believe this one happened in 1912 or 13."

Byard Stevens of Muskegon spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens. He made the trip with Robert McCall, also of Muskegon who visited his wife and daughter.

Famous Lake Ships To Go to Scrap Heap

Two old steamships, the Missouri and the Illinois, familiar sights on the Great Lakes for many years which in recent years have been tied up at Muskegon, have been sold to the Fisher Steel and Supply Co., by the Sands Products Co.

The 223 foot ships are to be cut up and sold for scrap iron to foundries. It is estimated the two ships contain 3,000 tons of scrap.

According to old-time residents here, it was these two ships which jammed into the channel here and shifted the bridge foundations. The story told now is that the captains were heated rivals and neither would give first chance at the channel to the other.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Want to Run a "Collective" Farm?

Was reading the other day about the "collective" farms they have in certain countries. It seems the folks who run them have plenty of help... good hours... and the best equipment.

Sounds pretty nice—till you learn that the "farmer" doesn't own his land, or even farm it, in our sense. He takes orders from the state; produces whatever they want him to produce, at prices they set. Even his off-hours are spent according to state regulations. No, that would never go here.

We're willing to work hard, but we like to farm the land our own way, put our own value on the crops, and relax as we like—if only with a temperate, companionable glass of beer.

From where I sit, collective farming may produce results. But the American way—freedom to work and relax as we see fit—is what makes this country a great place to live. So let's not change it!

News of folks, your neighbors and mine... but did you know that—

The big influx of summer visitors has started. It seems wonderful to see so many of the big homes that have been closed during the winter months now open. It's truly Charlevoix the Beautiful now. There is at least one person in town who likes the parking meters. They give Larry Ecklund a handy place to hitch his horse.

Gladys Anne Coney had a never-to-be-forgotten time last week. She flew to Toledo from Traverse City and attended a Phi Kappa Chi picnic on Thursday morning at Post Island near Waterville, Ohio. Friday she was the guest of honor at a dinner party, after which she attended the University of Toledo spring formal given at the Armory in Toledo. Saturday she flew back to Charlevoix. With pepper hovering around $1.00 a pound these days, well, it's just nothing to be sneezed at.

The Frederic Feehlemer family are now at their summer home on Anld Ave. They came recently from Chicago. More summer visitors, and these are newcomers to our community, the James G. Hellers and daughter who are spending the summer at 407 E. Dixon. Mr. and Mrs. Del Melroe and his sister Merle of Lansing spent last week-end with their parents, Capt. and Mrs. H. Melroe. Didn't the Seniors have a wonderful time on their trip to Niagara? Birthday congratulations to Mae Ward, who celebrated a birthday last Saturday. A party was given on their boat.

Mrs. Robert Ross is expected to arrive this week from Chicago to spend the summer at Chicago Club. A letter from Mrs. Henry Vogel in Chicago tells how much she and her husband enjoyed being in Charlevoix for more than 20 summers.

What is better than a fresh rhubarb pie these days? T. L. and his are blossoming all over themselves. The Alvin D. Goldmans are leaving St. Louis on June 12 to spend the summer at their Michigan Avenue home. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knowles who spent the winter in Clearwater, Fla., have returned to Charlevoix and are again at their home on Park Ave.

Going to work Tuesday morning five cars went whizzing by with Brownies and their chaparrons on their way to their camp at the Auto Court. The front porch of the Thomas Milner home looked inviting Tuesday. Such a hot day and the wicker furniture and awnings looked so cool that one wanted to stop, curl up in one of the chairs and read a good book. Wouldn't that be happiness?

Mrs. Arthur Joseph of St. Louis is at her Michigan Avenue home. This is her 34th summer to be with Charlevoix folks. Mr. and Mrs. Lane Nelf spent the week-end with their daughter and son-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Basil Kennedy in Traverse City. Georgia Glover is now all set for the summer in her little house on Petoskey Ave.

Don Campbell and Chuck Carey traded stores for a few days last week, with Don going to the Cheboygan store so that Chuck could enjoy a few days back in the old home town. Never stop at the corner fountain by the bank and get a cool, fresh drink of water but think how much folks down in Mexico would enjoy such a privilege. There, one drinks only the water that is brought in big bottles. It's warm and one doesn't even drink that until his tongue is fairly hanging out of his mouth. And here it is water all around us as well. It's surely God's Country alright.

Harold Chew is home from MSC, leaving his folks home from Florida. In the meantime he is helping getting the yard in A-1 condition and being chief cook and bottle washer in the house. Jerry and Diane Left accompanied by their mother are spending a few weeks in Chicago. Jackie Cross, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cross went with them and will visit friends and relatives in St. Joseph. Mrs. Raymond Seymour and Mrs. Jack Cross attended the funeral of their uncle, Richard Dissett, at Cheboygan.

An interesting person is Clara Kenyon. To think she spent 21 years with her husband on Beau-

Seniors See Niagara, Snap Pictures, Buy Souvenirs On Their Class Trip

By LeAnne Anderson

Wednesday morning saw a group of tired, newly graduated seniors meeting at the high school at 7:00. Meeting to take their trip to Niagara Falls.

We arrived at the Detroit D. & C. station about 4:30 after a hoist-eris, tiresome bus ride. The boat left the dock about 5:30 and most of us were on deck to watch.

After dinner we waited for the dancing at 9:00, but broke up early, as some of the students found it more enjoyable to play cards and walk on the decks. We were the only school group on ship and the other guests were quite a bit older.

Only a few were ill from their first experience on the water. When we awoke Thursday, we found ourselves close to Buffalo. After breakfast we left the ship to find the two chartered buses that were to take us to Niagara Falls.

We stopped at the hydro-electric plant to take pictures of the beautiful rapids. A barge was in the middle of the rapids, and Frenchy, one of the bus drivers, told us how the barge had broken away from her ship and drifted toward the falls where some of the rocks had stopped it. Two men were on the barge and the hair of one of them turned totally white in the 28 hours before their rescue. When we saw how close they were to the Horseshoe (Continued on page eight)

Rev. Howell to Remain For Another Year Rev. Gaylord Howell, pastor of the Methodist church, has received word that he was reappointed to the church here for the coming year.

The appointments are made annually by the Conference of the Methodist church.

Start Work on New Front Work has started on putting the new and modern design front on the two Bellinger Stores on Main Street.

Work to Start This Week on Detour Bridge

Work on the new temporary bridge across Pine River to carry traffic while the new US-31 span is being built will start the last of this week according to J. C. May, foreman in charge for the Leutke and Lamb construction firms.

May now is busy with the crew at the railway bridge. But the last of the week he expects the big Leutke derrick soon to arrive. She will start work driving piling for the temporary pontoon span and its piers.

Work at the railway bridge will take another six weeks, May expects. The first job was sinking two rows of piles in front of the present south abutment. These will carry the end of the railway tracks on girders. Then sheet piling will be driven around the present abutment to form a cofferdam and the water pumped out.

Then the pier, which was pushed 30 inches out of line by the Sundeck last year, will be removed and a new heavier one of concrete will be poured.

Beach Hotel to Open Lounge On June 21

A week from Saturday the Beach Hotel will open its Cocktail Lounge, the hotel and its dining room following suit on June 21.

A five-piece orchestra from St. Louis will play for dancing four nights a week in the Lounge. This will be on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

Work at the hotel is being rushed. Installation of the new telephone system and board is expected to be nearly done this week. Cleanup is continuing, drapes and shades going up and some new equipment arriving.

Sharon Butler Will Go to Girl's State

Sharon Butler, junior in high school and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Butler of 929 State street, will go to Wolverine Girls State June 17-23 at Ann Arbor.

Sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and held annually at the University, the Girls State is made up of outstanding high school leaders from all parts of Michigan. Choice is made for leadership, scholarship and personality.

Camille Genet was the Charlevoix representative last year.

Lakeview to Get New Kitchen Equipment

The Lakeview Inn, operated by J. T. Flynn, is now open for the season.

The dining room will open about July 1. Holding up the serving of food at the Lakeview, is the new kitchen equipment which has been ordered and is on the way. The kitchen will be re-equipped before the opening.

Boat Yard Is Launching Craft Now, Getting Ready for Summer Season

Typical of the work being done at the Hamilton boat yard of late was the launching last Wednesday of the Malabar X. Yesterday the Sartar was launched. Except for the Kittiwake, on which much work still remains to be done, all five of the big yachts are in the water. They are the Panchara III, Comet, Trident, Malabar X and Sartar. Launching of the small craft will be done next.

Get Permit First, Avoid Trouble, City Advises

Play safe and get a permit in all cases of building or moving or altering, is the advice of Supt. A. H. Leitch after the Council session Monday.

Under the zoning ordinance, a permit is required when any building or external alterations are being done costing more than $25; or when moving another building; or when changing the use to which a present building is put; or when making internal changes that will permit such change of use.

A permit is not required for internal changes, as in a residence which will continue to be a private residence; or a redecorating job, or similar operations no matter how costly.

There is no charge for a permit. One is obtained simply by applying to Supt. A. H. Leitch at the city hall. The safe rule is to ask and if none is needed, no harm is done or expense incurred.

Two penalties are provided by the ordinance for violations. Failure to get a permit is a misdemeanor, and carries a fine or jail sentence. Each separate day of infraction is a new offense and can bring added punishment.

The second penalty is a circuit court order to remove the nuisance, as in the case of a change of use or a building moved illegally to a restricted site.

Gas Appliance Firm Has Formal Opening

Formal opening of the new building of the Charlevoix Gas & Appliance Co. takes place today.

It is at 109 Antrim street. Built of cement blocks, with two large show windows in front flanking the center entrance, the new quarters are 24 by 60.

Since it started in business here, the company has used the north half of the Earl A. Young building on Bridge street.

At the front is the 20 by 24 sales and display room. Next are the offices, finished in knotty Idaho cedar. At the rear is the work shop and appliance storage space. Filled and empty gas bottles are stored outdoors at the rear.

New models of the various gas appliances, carried by the firm will be on display at the new building. These, according to Guyver Glasco, the manager, are largely new appliances newly received and are not factory samples but are for sale.

Stork, parts tools and appliances were moved from the Young building this week.

Call Is Issued for Softball Players

Softball season is nearly here and the first call for players is out.

All those who want to get on a team should be at the field Friday night. Games will be Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Zone Law Cases Give Councilmen Hectic Session

Violations of the city's zoning ordinance took up much of the Council's time Monday evening.

With Mayor Karl Erber absent, Harry Hooker acted as mayor pro tem in handling the mildly stormy session.

Two cases were cited. W. T. Butters had moved a small house to his lot at the end of Dixon avenue, to be used as a servants' quarters this summer. He told the Council that he supposed the required permit has been obtained. It hadn't.

Tuesday the Councilmen visited the Butters property and ruled that the house faced the lake and there was enough space at what then is the side yard for the house legally to be placed there.

The second case brought up was that of John Slezak who last week moved his shoe shop into a former dwelling in the scenic zone of Clinton street.

A third case discussed was that of Joe Williams' new sign which obstructs the view of the red call light when a city policeman is in the patrol car by the Central Drug Store. Alderman Charles Bellinger expressed his view plainly:

"It's a case of a private citizen telling the public where to get out of or of the Council's looking out for the welfare of the public. We've got to decide which."

Action on the Slezak and Williams cases was deferred until the next regular meeting when Mayor Erber would be present and the men could present their cases.

The Council approved the 1947 budget of $45,105.75, ordered the police to watch the alleys for parked trucks, indicated they would approve a license for anyone with a fleet of scooters, provided: an ample license fee is paid, the scooters carry liability insurance, they are not operated after 9 p. m., and all renters have operators' licenses.

21 Scouts Camping Near McGeagh Creek

Twenty-one Boy Scouts from Charlevoix are now camping at McGeagh Creek near its mouth this week.

Originally the troop planned to spend the week at Beaver Island but several developments combined to prevent this. At the camp the Scouts are working to prepare for the Court of Honor to be held at the high school later this summer. The Court will be open to the public, according to Mike Hamlin, Scout commissioner.

The Charlevoix Scouts who attended the Scenic Trails Camporee at Walloon Lake last week took first place in camping.

Too Much Damage, Keep Dogs Tied Up

Please keep your dogs tied up or under control.

This is the request from Police Chief Clarence Heise.

All too many complaints have been coming to his office lately of free-ranging dogs raising hob with neighbors' gardens, newly painted porches and flower beds.

A dog which damages other persons' property is a nuisance and can be treated as such, the Chief points out. But it would be much better all around if dogs were kept under control.

Unpleasant Perhaps, But Necessary

There is a lot of talk these days about Universal Military Training, the plan under which all youths at the end of high school or when 18 would receive a year of military life.

Current report from Washington indicates that although the President favors it, Congress would not pass the bill. Which means that Congress believes public opinion is against the measure.

Congress should have the courage to dare public sentiment and do the right thing. For UMT is needed.

It unquestionably is contrary to our national tradition. But there may come a time in every nation's history when such a reversal is necessary if that people is to continue.

Rome, strictly a land power, was being bottled up by the galleys of Carthage. So Rome trained her legions to fight on ship-board, and became the ruler of the western world. England, with the largest colonial possessions and the greatest navy, started giving freedom to her dominions—and made them thereby the chief bulwark of the empire.

The world is a different place when our American conditions are being formed. The world is a different place when our American conditions are being formed. The world is a different place when our American conditions are being formed.

With world conditions changing as they have, our country must make changes too, if it is to continue as an haven of freedom.

There is one lesson which our American history books do not point out but which is there for any who care to read behind the words.

This country never entered a war against an equal adversary prepared. And every one of our major wars could have been ended sooner and immeasurably cheaper in men and money if a fraction of the war's cost had been expended beforehand.

Two trained and fully equipped divisions in 1861 would have ended the War Between the States within six weeks—at the cost of a few hundred lives and maybe a million dollars all told. Instead of 10 billions for World War I, a couple of billions in training would have put the same men and machines across and ended the war months sooner.

A quarter of our present navy back in 1911, and just one of the 200 billions invested then in Pacific bases could have saved the Philippines and stopped Japan cold after the Pearl Harbor attack. But we never had the men and materials when they would do the most good.

We could well take a lesson from the East warlike and most democratic country in Europe—Switzerland. The Alps help the Swiss defend their little nation. The deciding factor in their 600 years of freedom from war has been their desire for peace plus universal military training so that every man can and will fight if need arises.

If the need comes, we won't have months and years next time to get ready while our allies bear the brunt. Next time we'll be the prime target.

In itself, UMT is not altogether bad. But it will take a year out of their lives. But that is a year which is hiding away at the present time a job and a chance to get the most out of life.

It is a year which is hiding away at the present time a job and a chance to get the most out of life. It is a year which is hiding away at the present time a job and a chance to get the most out of life.

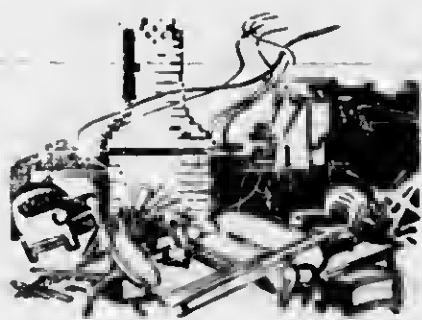

One of the great faults with our social existence today is that the younger generation isn't learning discipline. The fault largely is the home's. The fact remains that the younger generation cannot take orders, either from itself or others, as it should.

In teaching that discipline alone, UMT would be more than compensating for the year's time it required.

Whether from the military or the social angle, this country needs UMT; Congress should give us one.

Control Gas Borer In Sweet Corn

The gas borer is one of the most common and most destructive pests of sweet corn.

It is a small, slender, white, worm-like insect, about one-half inch long, with a brown head and legs.

It is found in the soil, and it is the only pest of sweet corn that can be controlled by spraying.

tiful Mackinaw Island and lived in one of the little houses at the Port. Such an adventure in living! ... Harley Ochs and son, Bill, left Monday morning for Canada where they will spend several days with their car looking for scenic spots. To be sure Bill had his camera along. ... The George Tuttle is expected next month from Battle Creek. ... Our sympathy to the John Knights in the illness of their baby son, Tommy, who has been in a serious condition. It has been an anxious time for the couple. Tommy is now out of the woods and it is hoped will be able to be moved from the hospital to his home. ... There has been a run on screen doors and windows these days. ... Perch are biting!

Capt. Charles B. Levinson and his wife and young daughter, Jeanne, came last week from Battle Creek. A few weeks ago the family arrived home from Japan where he had been stationed for the past year or more. He is now awaiting time for his release, but in the meantime the family are in Charlevoix. This week they went to the Canadian Soo for a few days outing. ...

Have you noticed the pink geraniums and the flowers along the boulevard on State Street, right pretty. ... Last Wednesday was a red letter day for the youngsters, at least, in Charlevoix when the North American filled with a delegation from Eric,

Pa., came into Round Lake and was here all afternoon. The band was out to meet the boat, along with a large delegation of townsfolk and the kids. ...

Two funny, they were down on the wharf, looking for pennies, dimes and what have you that the passengers were throwing. Suddenly a guide from the boat cried out, "Don't throw any more money. It's dangerous." "Humph," remarked one of the townswomen, "he must be new. The kids have been doing that for years. No one ever got drowned yet." Eager eyes spotted the money and after the boat left, fellows began comparing their loot. One youngster got $3.25, another $2.65. Some got but a few cents, but it was a thrill! One of the men, coming to the Corner office remarked that it was the first warm day they had seen on the cruise. Truly Charlevoix gave out its best weather for the passengers that day. ...

Yes, sirs, housewives before many weeks will be staging a jam session at home on the range, for strawberries are going to be ready for canning. Certainly have been wonderful ones on the shelves to eat these days. What is better than a good shortcake? ... Remember it is courteous gesture to tell your friends of the arrival and departure of your guests. Just call The Courier. No matter how hard we work it is impossible to get around and get all the news. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated. ...

Well, Saturday was like a summer business day on Main Street, and then Sunday the North American awakened the town when it came into port. Folks were here for three hours and the restaurants were doing a land office business. Seemed like a regular Labor Day crowd for a while. ...

Got a good laugh from a woman the other day who told me that it was a custom with her when she sent a wedding present to enclose another little gift. This was called her "Delay the First Quarrel Gift." In a small cloth bag she put some picture hooks, a small screwdriver, a few nails, some picture wire, a package of bandages and a bottle of aspirin tablets. Not a bad idea, that!

Old Eye Sore Being Hauled Away

Charlevoix is losing a bad eye sore.

The old, rusting cars accumulating on M-66 west of the Co-Op elevator during the war are being hauled away to Petoskey.

The new gravel stock pile and mixing plant for the bridge job will be set up there.

Livingstons Return From Western Trip

"I had a bad time trying to focus my eyes right to the spaces of the West," said Mrs. Archie Livingston. For the past month Mr. and Mrs. Livingston have been in California.

The couple went to Los Angeles to visit G. L. Ash, and then on to Oakland to see the Ivan Livingstons, brother of Archie. While there the brother had a vacation and the folks really did California by car. They went to Yosemite, then to northern California and its scenic beauty, driving up to Grants Pass, Ore., and back via the Redwood and Pacific Highways. They saw such points of interest as Mt. Shasta, the famous Shasta Dam, Grant's Pass where they saw salmon during spawning season. There, they also visited the A. D. Contants, son of a former Mt. Pleasant editor. ...

The couple enjoyed San Francisco, did the Top of the Mark, thrilled over the corner street stalls of flowers, did the town by cable car, ate at Fisherman's Wharf and also out at the Cliff House where they watched the seals during their luncheon. And of course no one goes to San Francisco without doing Chinatown. While in San Francisco they were entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Robert Dean, who took them through the Presidio. ...

Mr. Livingston thoroughly enjoyed being with his brother. While there the men got in three games of golf, one of them being played on the mountainous course at Oakland, the famous mountain goat course, where Archie said he really had to dig his toes in. Enroute they saw Grand Canyon and other points of interest between Charlevoix and the West Coast. On their return trip they were accompanied by Mrs. Carrie E. Livingston. ...

During the Livingstons' absence, Janet visited at Rockford with David Livingston and in Pontiac with Mrs. Estella Hahn. Mrs. Estella Ash visited relatives in Bellaire for the month. ...

New Owners Bring Rare Table Here

It's a beauty!

And it's a table, a Louis XVI piece, now in the lobby of the Hallett Hotel, which place was recently purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Bolan of Detroit.

The table has been in the Bolan family about 15 years, having been purchased in Pontiac from a large estate there.

The table is 31 inches across and stands about three feet high. It is made of beautiful black wood, resembling teak, although Mr. Bolan believes it is not that. The base, the pedestal, and edge of the table are decorated in gold bronze filigree work.

On the top there is a picture painted in subdued colors of Louis XVI. Around it there are 18 medallions, classic miniatures, done by several painters, each signed by the artist.

As far as is known there is but one other table like it in America and that is in New Orleans. There is a plaque somewhat similar to the top of the table in the Detroit Yacht Club which is inured for $3000. No doubt, Mr. Bolan's table would bring a great deal more.

But, it is not for sale.

Dr. Lyle Ance Is Now With Dr. Young

Dr. Lyle Ance, released a year ago by the Navy, is now associated with Dr. F. W. Young in his dental offices here.

Entering the Navy after graduation from Marquette University, Dr. Ance saw service both in the Mediterranean and Pacific theaters on the U.S.S. Delta. Since his release he has taken the Michigan dental exams and is now in private practice.

The two men have fitted up a second dental operating room at the Young office and installed some new equipment.

David Blake to Study At Chicago Next Year

David N. Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Blake, received a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in social science at the annual Commencement at Michigan State College June 8. A graduate of Charlevoix, David entered Michigan State in 1943. She participated in Alpha Chi Omega, Phi Alpha, Women's Athletic Association, college choir, and the state Congregational College Council.

She was one of the first seven women chosen to serve as a counselor in the women's dormitories. She supervised 20 college women who did volunteer work at the negro Lincoln Community Center in Lansing for a year. In her junior year she was elected president of the college YWCA. Last year she represented Michigan State College at two national college conferences at Grinnell College, Grinnell, Iowa, and the University of Illinois, Champaign, Ill.

The summer of 1946 David attended at the University of Chicago. She has been awarded a Field Work Scholarship to the University of Chicago and will begin graduate work for a Master of Arts degree there in September. She also will do social work in a settlement house.

Two From Here Will Get U. of M. Diplomas

Charlevoix will be represented by two graduates at the 103rd Commencement of the University of Michigan Saturday.

They are Muriel Elaine Stephens who will be a candidate for the Master of Arts degree; and Jone Wickersham, Diploma in Nursing.

County to Get Half Of $2,082 Cancer Fund

E. D. Hawley, treasurer of the Charlevoix Chapter of the American Cancer Society, has submitted the final report on the April drive for funds: Charlevoix, $932.42; Boyne City, $407.56; East Jordan, $635.30; Beaver Island, $57.50.

The total received was $2,082. Charlevoix county will receive approximately 50% of that amount with which to carry on an educational and service campaign next year.

Mrs. Lloyd McDonough was Beaver Island chairman.

In 1882, B. H. Kroger opened a small grocery store on the riverfront in Cincinnati. He provided the quality of merchandise his customers wanted at prices they could afford, coupled with friendly, courteous service. Through the years, the Kroger Company has grown, but the same principle of doing more for the customer is still our guiding star.

BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

With solemn dignity, the graduates of '47 were presented with their diplomas in Holy Cross church Wednesday evening.

Charlotte Martin, Marilyn Van Erkle, Florence Burke, Joseph McDonough and Rodney Nackerman were the graduates with Charlotte as the honor student.

Highlighting the exercises was an address by Rev. Raymond Oosdyke, O.F.M., of Terre Haute, Ind., entitled, "Looking Up."

While on the island, Father Raymond who is Commissary Provincial of the Third Order of St. Francis, made his canonical visitation with the fraternity here. This meeting was held Sunday at Holy Cross church.

Mr. Raymond Oosdyke, father of Rev. Raymond Oosdyke, accompanied his son to the island.

Anna Marie Rieckers entertained Bernice Martin, prior to her marriage with a miscellaneous shower. Thirty guests were present and Bernice received some mighty nice gifts.

Dr. and Mrs. Russell Palmer are in Atlantic City where the doctor is attending the American Medical Association convention.

The island can boast of several learned historians who have gotten their knowledge the hard way.

Bob Malloy and Anna Marie Rieckers recently and their homes are strewn with history books from one end to the other. All the old history books on the island have been dusted off and gone through by the contestants and their families and the results are amazing.

Mary Ellen McDonough, who is a student nurse at St. Mary's hospital, Bay City, is home with her parents until June 28.

Staff Sgt. Lawrence Malloy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Malloy, Sr., is stationed in Tokyo, Japan. Lawrence writes he recently heard Monsignor Flannigan, founder of Boy's Town, speak in Tokyo.

Mrs. George Portt her son and daughter, have taken the month of June to vacation in Bay City and Toledo, Ohio.

Banns of marriage are being called for Delores Wojan and Leo Gallagher.

The girl graduates of '47 wore the cutest dressmaker suits, all in different soft shades of blue.

At long last, the trees are fringed with tiny green leaves, a sure sign that it won't be long now.

It's no wonder the young crowd make a mad dash for the Shiloh after the bi-weekly shows. Buster and Rita are serving after-the-show treats.

A flotilla of craft from Traverse City came to the island Saturday. There were 3 yachts, one sail boat and Pete Rennie's landing barge. All seamen were unrecognizable behind the bearded ambush, which is "all-the-go" among the male element in Traverse City.

Fred Korthase's horses have been put in Allen's barn and are ready for rental. Saw Fred performing on his pet horse, June. That horse is perfectly trained. Just wait, Fred and June will get a Hollywood contract yet.

Capt. Russell Brown has hauled away about 75,000 ft. of island lumber in the past ten days. Both Mielke's mill and Carpenter's mill are producing the lumber.

Wojan's mill, which is being assembled in town, is nearing completion.

James H. Gallagher recently returned from Grand Rapids, where he attended the ordination of Rev. Father Hugh M. Beahan. He also visited his daughter, Mrs. Edith Burhans at Owosso.

Inwood News

Mrs. Charles Wells

Mrs. Blem Denstead and daughter, Ruth from Lansing and Mrs. M. Waldron from Traverse City spent a day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Gregory.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gordon and

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stone from Detroit spent the week-end at the home of the latter's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wiles.

At Haskins from Grand Rapids spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells and his son, Earl.

Mrs. John Fratriek entertained Inwood Ladies Aid. There were ten members and one visitor present. After the business meeting a lunch was served. Mrs. June Fiedler entertains June 18.

Bergsma-Senneker

Ellsworth-Hildegard Bergsma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Bergsma, Ellsworth, R. 1, became the bride of Donald Senneker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ubel Senneker, Ellsworth, R. 1 at 8 p. m., Friday at Ellsworth Christian Reformed church.

Rev. G. A. Lyzenga performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with ferns and apple blossoms and lighted by seven branched candelabra. Jay Kuiper at the pipe organ, played the traditional wedding music and also accompanied Henry Drenth of East Jordan, who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a gown of dull finish satin with a net overskirt.

The fitted bodice was accented by a sweetheart neckline, with which she wore pearls, a gift of the groom. Her veil, edged with a double row of lace, formed a train. She carried a cascade shower bouquet of white carnations, lilies of the valley and finch roses.

Betty Bergsma, who attended her sister as maid-of-honor, wore a blue marquisette gown with fitted bodice and full skirt. She carried a bouquet similar to that of the bride. Gerrit Senneker, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Harold Jansen and Walter, cousins of the bride and groom respectively, were ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Postma, brother-in-law and sister of the groom, were master and mistress of ceremonies.

After the ceremony, a reception was given for 75 guests. The couple left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, by way of Northern Michigan and Canada. They will make their home at the former farm home of the groom's parents, three miles south of Ellsworth.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edward Postma and family of Kalamazoo; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Monroe of Lansing; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Monroe of Branson; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Senneker, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Senneker, Mrs. Ilse Rieckers Bolhuis and son, William, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit W. Drenth and son, Walter, and Miss Esther Meekhof of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bergsma of Zeeland; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bergsma of Milford; Mr. and Mrs. John Bergsma and Mr. and Mrs. M. King of Detroit; and Mr. and Mrs. William Oosterbaan of Holland.

NOW TWO GREAT RAILROADS UNITE TO FORM "THE GREATER C&O"

On June 6th the Pere Marquette Merged with the Chesapeake & Ohio. Shippers and Travelers now have a New, Unified Service between the Great Lakes and the Mid-Atlantic Coast.

For years it has been apparent that a combination of these two railroads is a common-sense proposition. One serves the nation's greatest coal-producing area, the other reaches some of the greatest coal-consuming sections.

A Great Network . . . Vital traffic lines of the Pere Marquette now join those of the C&O. The former is a natural extension of the great C&O system into Michigan, with direct service into Canada. Fast freight and passenger ferries across Lake Michigan serve the state of Wisconsin.

Improved Passenger Service . . . Both railroads have earned the appreciation of the traveling public for their pioneering of basic improvements in passenger service. Revolutionary new equipment, "Pay-As-You-Go" and Credit Card travel, "No Tipping," Hotel Accommodation service—these are some of the latest but not the last of C&O's popular innovations. Now the best features of both roads are combined to bring still further improvements in rail-riding comfort and convenience.

Shippers' Problems Simplified . . . The merger provides direct line communication for the exchange of the great industrial, agricultural and mineral output of the new "Pere Marquette District" of the C&O Railway, with the vast coal, agricultural and manufacturing wealth of its "Chesapeake District." And both of these rich areas will have direct access over the C&O to foreign trade, through the modern port at Newport News.

Broader Opportunities for Employees
This union of two major rail arteries means further security for the men and women who helped to develop these lines and who make them run. Diversified traffic, mutually beneficial to both sections, will result in broader opportunities for employees all down the line.

Stockholders Agree . . . The many stockholders of both railroads saw clearly the opportunity to improve both service and earnings by linking the 3,106-mile C&O with the area served by the 1,950-mile Pere Marquette.

The greater Chesapeake & Ohio is a major move toward closer communication, better service and increased prosperity.

Seniors See Falls On Annual Trip

When we reached the Falls, we all took pictures. An announcer announced—the Scenic Tunnel Tours, so most of us made a mad dash to get unfitted. We looked like penguins in our black slickers. We went through a long tunnel until we came to the Rainbow Falls. There we could take pictures and look up into the Falls; then on to Cataract and Grand Falls.

Next stop was for lunch at a cafeteria. You could sit outside and eat if you so desired and look at the Falls. We walked across the street where large field glasses were set up. You dropped a coin in them and for a short time you could see the falls close up.

Next, we came to the Whirlpool Bridge. We went down in an elevator 1400 feet in 20 seconds. There we stopped at the observation room and walked along a narrow bridge, taking pictures of the rapids and whirlpool.

Our last stop in Canada was at the Cable Car. Here was our last chance to buy souvenirs. Most of the students took the cable car ride over the whirlpool, to the opposite bank. The cable car, by the way, is the only one of its kind in America.

Before we left Canada, we decided to go to the Cave of the Winds. The cave is on the American side, so we said our good-bye's to Canada.

At the Cave, we were outfitted in wool suits, over which we put water proof trousers, and yellow hooded slickers. The Cave elevator went through solid rock. We looked at the Falls and wondered where so much water was coming from.

Coming out we changed our clothes and went back to the buses. Our tour of the Falls was completed. We reached Buffalo an hour before sailing time, tired and with many souvenirs.

After dinner, on board, we played games and again danced. The dance was more of a success. This time, as the other guests joined in with us.

Friday we left the boat at 9:15 a. m. The majority voted to stop in Saginaw instead of stopping in Detroit. We did pause to see a modern streamlined train there.

In Saginaw we ate and shopped for a few hours and then left for home. We took a different route home and made better time.

We had a wonderful time, but "there's no place like home."

Speaker On Cancer Addresses Luncheon

Joe Matel, of Grand Rapids and Muskegon, state representative of the Michigan chapter of the American Cancer Society, was the guest speaker at a post-campaign luncheon held at the WaySide Thursday.

Joseph Shores Will Celebrate 90th Birthday This Thursday

One of Charlevoix's pioneer residents, Joseph Shores, a retired lumberman, will observe his ninetieth birthday anniversary on Thursday, June 12, with a quiet family celebration at his home at 508 Michigan Ave.

Mr. Shores was born in York State, as all the old-timers say, and came to this community at the age of 8 years. His parents, who were taking up a homestead near Norwood, made the trip from the east by boat and landed at a small place near Norwood, known as Antrim City.

Northern Michigan was a lumberman's paradise in those days and as soon as Mr. Shores was old enough he started working in the woods as a lumberjack. He continued to work in the forests near here and at various camps in the Upper Peninsula. Later he was employed by the Nichols Lumber Co., and retired about 15 years ago.

In spite of his advanced age, Mr. Shores has many interests which keep him busy. He has a large garden which takes a great deal of his time. He likes baseball and listens to all the Tiger games. This spring the weather has upset his regular schedule for it has delayed work in the garden and postponed many games. He reads a great deal, listens to the news and old-time music on the radio.

When the Shores family has a celebration there's no need for outsiders for there are seven children, Mrs. Alpha Feulness and Gerry Shores of Gloucester, Mass., Mrs. Archie Nowland of Rhineland, Wis., Tim Shores, Mrs. C. L. Davy, Mrs. Mary Dixon and Grace Shores of Charlevoix. Mrs. Dixon and Miss Shores keep house for their father.

There are 22 grandchildren; 56 great-grandchildren; and 4 great-great-grandchildren. His wife, the former Abbie Webster, whom he married on July 22 1877, died on Oct. 11, 1946.

Seven Attend Sixth Laymen's Retreat

Under the direction of Rev. Edwin Fochman O. F. M., as Retreat Director, 105 laymen attended the sixth annual retreat at Leland Lodge, Leland, Mich., June 6-10.

Fifteen parishes were represented at Leland this year with Rev. Richard J. Kennedy, C.S.C. of Notre Dame, as Retreat Master who conducted the daily conferences.

Those attending from Charlevoix were Frank Oleksy, Dr. Gerald Gibbons, Theodore Browne, Ralph Hamilton, Charles Gibbons, David Hamilton and Nicholas Hamilton.

Dr. Gibbons received the Chairmanship for the Charlevoix district which encompasses the county, from Ralph Hamilton the retiring chairman who took over the office at the death of J. C. Hanley of St. James.

Charlevoix Men Are On Boy Scout Council

Carroll Betts of Gaylord was elected chairman of the Northern District of the Scenic Trails Council at its annual meeting in the Dismal Hotel, Boyne City, last Wednesday night, for the coming year. Betts succeeds Joseph W. Scoggin of Petoskey, who has been the chairman for the last two years.

Harley Ochs of Charlevoix and Richard Malpass of East Jordan were elected to the executive board of the council.

Robert Bridge of Charlevoix is treasurer of the council and a member of the executive board.

500 Folks Throng To View New Tug

At least 500 persons visited the John Roen IV Sunday evening and Monday morning when the newest and largest tug on the Lakes called at Charlevoix.

She left Sturgeon Bay Sunday at 8 a. m., went from here to Beaver Island, then to St. Ignace, the Soo, Mackinac and back to Manistee with a barge.

Women's Guild Will Meet At Norwood

The Congregational Women's Guild met at the church June 4. Devotions were given by Mrs. Mabel Goddard who read selections from the "Upper Room."

Mrs. Jeff Novotny presented a paper on "The Healing Ministry in India," explaining the work of the Christian missionaries and Inc.

doctors in India. The next meeting will be at the Norwood home of Mrs. Allen Campbell with a potluck luncheon at 1:30. All members having cars as well as those desiring transportation are asked to call Mrs. Earl Young.

Are You Getting The Most For Your Food Dollar Today?

A&P IS THE STORE THAT KEEPS PRICES LOW BY KEEPING PROFITS LOW (Last 5 Year Average: only about 1c on a dollar)

Especially nowadays, when your food dollars count, you can count on your A&P to give you a lot for those dollars. Day in and day out A&P's money-saving prices offer you more good eating . . . not merely a few special items — but on every item of food for your table . . . not occasionally — but every day of the week. Your A&P is able to do this because A&P keeps both expenses low and profit low (A&P's profit has averaged only about 1c on a dollar in the last five years). We repeat — when dollars count — when you want to get the most food for your dollars, then A&P is your kind of a store.

REAL ESTATE OF ALL KINDS
"Charlevoix—the Beautiful" Michigan

The Tow Line

News of folks, your neighbors and mine... but did you know that—

It was a real Friday the 13th on Sunday for Mrs. John Zettler. Little Michael Gallagher, a grandson fell in the afternoon and cracked his ring finger on his left hand. About an hour and a half later another grandson, Buddy Zettler, son of John Zettler Jr. fell off the chicken coop at their home and broke his right arm in two or three places. . . . Certainly should have had the fellows from Charlevoix who went to Milwaukee last week to attend the SPBSQSA convention adopted as their theme song "It Ain't Going to Rain No More." However, by Sunday noon the clouds broke and let the sun shine through for the first time in several days. . . . Linda Bowman has as her guest this week Miss Florence Wells of Vassar. The two girls were roommates at Albion College last term. . . .

Louise Young has had a two weeks interim and Saturday will be returning to Wheaton, Ill., for a summer session at Wheaton College. Marguerite Young is at home from the University of Michigan and will be at her father's office this summer. . . . The Surf Hotel on Michigan Avenue has a new electric lawn mower. As far as is known this is the only one in Charlevoix. . . .

Personal nomination for the meaneest person in town is that certain someone who has been helping himself to plants and flowers on the graves during the past few weeks out at the Brookside cemetery. . . . Go on almost any street in Charlevoix these days and you will see evidence of homes just being repainted, or in the process. Certainly does give the town a lift. . . . House guests for the week at the L. E. Towe home are Mrs. Dorothea Badger and daughter, Becky, and David Logan, all of Ann Arbor. Sunday the group spent the day at Mackinac Island enjoying the historical sights of the place. The island was especially beautiful at this time with forget-me-nots in bloom through the woods, leading to the Constance Fenimore Woolson literary shrine on the hill high above the old Mission Church. . . .

So many strange cars are in town. Summer residents with their colored chauffeurs are arriving. . . . Barbara Kysella and niece, Mary Katherine and nephew, Eddie Joe Mills have returned to Wayne after spending two weeks at the Kysella cottage on Nettleton Street. . . . Mrs. Mildred Webster, Mrs. Mabel Goddard, Mrs. Tony Novotny, Capt. Hubert Paddock and Rev. Jackson Turner expect to leave next Sunday for Olivet College at Olivet, to attend the Adult Institute of Religious Education for a week. . . . Isn't it wonderful to think that one can go to the grocery and buy sugar nowadays and not have to worry about those coupons? . . .

David Buttrick of New York City is at his parents' Sequanota cottage for the summer. . . . Jim Foster and his wife arrived home last week from the University of Michigan. . . .

More boats are being launched every day and other boats are coming in for the summer. Round Lake is suddenly taking on a new flavor. Yes, sir, it is going to be summer aweigh around Charlevoix! . . . Mr. and Mrs. John E. Stewart of Detroit will visit a few days with the former's mother, Mrs. Reno Hamilton and will spend the remainder of their vacation with relatives and friends in Gary, Ind. . . . Mrs. Maurice Foster spent a few days last week with her husband at Muskegon. Maurice is purser on a boat and it was at Muskegon for a few days. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bellinger of Ypsilanti came Friday to spend two weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bellinger and Mr. and Mrs. William Camburn of Boyne City. Don Bellinger is home from Ypsilanti to spend the summer with his parents. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Archie Livingston spent Saturday in Mt. Pleasant. It was Old Grads Day at college there. . . . Mrs. Florine Steller moved Saturday to the Art West-staff apartment for the summer. She had planned to be at the Allen Campbells at Norwood. However, her plans were changed for Mrs. Campbell's brother and family expect to be there for six weeks this summer. . . . Mrs. Clara O'Neill has returned to her home here for the summer. She spent the winter with her daughter in Muskegon. . . .

Dr. and Mrs. Russell Palmer of Beaver Island arrived in Charlevoix Sunday night after being in Atlantic City since June 9 at (Continued on page four)

Two Trustees to Be Elected at School Session

Two trustees will be elected July 14 to serve for three years on the Board of Education. Nominating petitions are available now for candidates. Any citizen wishing to place the name of any citizen on the election ballot can obtain a petition at the school office or The Courier, get 24 qualified citizens to sign it, give the petition to Mrs. Sally Begeon or leave it at the school office. . . .

The two incumbent trustees whose terms expire this year are Bonnie Nickerson, president of the Board, and Fred Willis. . . .

At the election July 14 any citizen of the district may vote. The only qualifications are being 21 years old, a resident of the district for 20 days. Polls will be open from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. at the school. . . .

That evening at 8 p. m. the annual school meeting will be held in the high school assembly. Reports will be read from the secretary, treasurer and library. It is at this time that the citizens have an opportunity to question the school heads on the operation of the system and plans for the future. . . .

Chicago Paper Gives Fishing Here Boost

Charlevoix got quite a boost last Thursday in the Chicago Daily News when its "Sportsmen's Information" column proclaimed that "Anglers' Best Bet is Lake Charlevoix." . . .

The story said: Lake trout of from three to 20 pounds are hitting in Elk Lake and Torch Lake, Mich., and along the shores of Lake Michigan off Charlevoix. . . .

In Lake Charlevoix big steelheads are starting to run and good catches are expected for the week end through trolling the west side of the lake and adjacent to the railroad bridge. Fishing for these fighting, glistening denizens of the lake is tricky and calls for all the ability of an angler to land one. . . .

Fishing for big ring perch in Lake Charlevoix is excellent. . . .

Windows Broken At Foster Boat Plant

Misses thrown through 14 windows at the Cherry street plant of the Foster Boat Works have been turned over to Police Chief Clarence Heise for fingerprint identification. . . .

The plant formerly the garage for the Inn, is now used for boat storage by Foster. During the week of June 9 to 13, someone deliberately broke 14 windows. According to Harry Foster, company president, the firm will prosecute to the limit anyone identified as causing the damage, but will show more consideration if the individual admits the acts. . . .

Three Graduates Enlist in Army

James Eccleston, has enlisted in the army for three years and is now stationed at San Antonio, Tex., with the Army Air Forces. Jerry Ypma also has enlisted for three years and will leave this Saturday for Detroit for final examination. He expects to go to San Antonio also. . . .

Clarke Bergeon has enlisted for 18 months and left Wednesday for Detroit. He has not received his orders. . . .

All are recent graduates of the Charlevoix high school. . . .

Boat Wanted to Enter In Venetian Parade

S. E. Coleman, Board of Commerce secretary, is looking for a boat owner this summer who will not have time to decorate his craft for Venetian Night and yet is willing to enter it. . . .

He has one applicant now who has no boat but has the willingness and experience needed to build the decorations. . . .

Hallett Hotel to Open Dining Room July 1

The Hallett Hotel under the ownership of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Bolan will open its dining room July 1. . . .

The owners plan to serve breakfast, lunches and dinners; both to their own guests and to townspeople, as well as taking care of parties. . . .

Mrs. Betty Coney has been engaged as hostess. . . .

Work Started on Base for New Generator Unit

Where Charlevoix gets its electric current and where the new generator will set, were shown to members of the Kiwanis Club Monday night by a conducted tour of the municipal power plant. . . .

Acting as guide and lecturer was Angus Leitch, city superintendent, who found he needed to be in five places at once to keep up with the various groups. . . .

The new unit will be operating by June 4, 1948, he said. At least, the manufacturer guarantees it by that date. Work already has been started. The floor in the basement has been ripped up and the tops of 50 piles exposed. These were driven when the building was being put up to take care of future expansion. . . .

On top of the piles there will be poured a heavily reinforced concrete slab, 12 by 29 feet and 19 inches thick. Then resting on this will be a reinforced block reaching nearly to the floor above. On this will rest the 40 ton generating unit. The foundation blocks will weigh between 60 and 70 tons. . . .

The building was designed to take care of a 750 kilowatt unit. To take care of the new 1000 kw one, the foundation will be somewhat lower than normal to give sufficient headroom above. . . .

Catching the eye of many of the visitors were the dials which showed electric production and load, and especially the recording pen which traced the ups and downs of current use. At 10 p. m. the demand drops off sharply and stays down to 8 a. m. when it climbs sharply in 15 minutes. At noon there is another peak and another at 6 p. m. . . .

Audience Sees Lake Cruise Film

Fifty persons Thursday night watched Great Lakes boats and boating scenes in the Community room of the city hall at the movie sponsored by the Marine Club. Capt. Joe Howard, member of the Great Lakes Cruising Club, obtained the use of the club's 1947 color film, running 1600 feet. Ralph Hamilton ran the projector and the audience saw sail and motor boats in many of the lake harbors and Georgian waters. Captain Howard says that likely next year parts of the projected color movies of Charlevoix will be included in the club's 1948 film. . . .

Camp Charlevoix To Open June 30

Camp Charlevoix will begin its 21st season, when 42 members of the staff will gather Tuesday for conference and camp preparation. . . .

On June 30, 119 boys from many states will gather for the season's activities. Lewis C. Reimann, director-owner writes that he has engaged one of the finest staffs of counselors in the history of the camp. Major Kenneth W. Smith of Grosse Pointe will direct activities. . . .

Among the colorful leaders at the camp will be Kendall Cummings, cowboy from Nogales, Arizona. . . .

Ironton Farm Bureau Will Meet on July 9

Members of the Ironton Farm Bureau will meet July 9 with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Crandall. . . .

The June session was last Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bable when 20 members attended. Vernon Matthews presided as chairman. The Farm Bureau Women's Camp at Hayo-Went-Ha on the east shore of Torch Lake this week was announced. . . .

"What should our national farm policy be to conserve soil," was the topic discussed. . . .

New Steel Yacht Pays Visit to Charlevoix

Charlevoix Harbor saw one of the finest of the new yachts Tuesday when the "Dragon Lady" of Boston came in. . . .

A new 77 foot steel ketch, she was built by Burger at Manitowish from Phil Rhodes designs. She belongs to William A. Parks of Boston. . . .

Talks on Publicity L. E. Towe discussed the matter of publicity and good press relations with members of the District Health staff last Thursday. What is news and how to get it into print were taken up. . . .

New Jewelry Store Will Open Here July 1

The House of Jewels, Charlevoix's newest business place, will open July 1. . . .

Owning and operating it will be Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Cox. At one time personnel director of the Lincoln Division of the Ford Motor Co., Cox turned to jewelry and has settled on Charlevoix as the place to live and do business. . . .

They have purchased the George Smith house at 408 Potoski avenue and will take possession Saturday. Formerly known as the Hitting Post, the place is ideally adapted for the type of jewelry store they plan, according to the new owners. . . .

The knotty cedar interior will furnish a distinctive setting for the separate gift shop and jewelry shop. Seven day repair service is planned. As far as merchandise buying and service are concerned, the House of Jewels will have a working affiliation with the F. A. Earl Jewelers at Traverse City, but is independently owned and managed. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are building a new home on Prospect street back of the one they have sold. . . .

Movies of Charlevoix Scenes, Events to Be Taken This Summer

Movies of Charlevoix boats, folks, scenes and events will be made this season and built into a color film next fall or winter by the Board of Commerce for civic entertainment and outside promotion. . . .

The project is being sponsored jointly by the Board and the Marine Club. The latter will have charge of the complete film. . . .

Three men will take the shots this summer: Ralph Hamilton, Bob Miles and Dr. F. W. Young. There is talk now of the adding sound to the completed film and the cost of this is being investigated. . . .

South Siders Ask Safety Traffic Survey

Folks on the south side of town are appealing direct to Gov. Kim Sigler for a traffic survey aimed at finding some way to slow down speeding along Bridge street. . . .

Fast and drunken driving is prevalent, they say, and forms a real menace on the narrow street with heavier summer traffic approaching. . . .

Last fall, says Lee Allard, citizens asked the City Council for action, but were told that the present police cars too old for an effective speed chaser. But the Council did ask the State Highway Department for a survey, which was promised but hasn't been made. . . .

Three weeks ago a group signed and sent a petition to Commissioner Don Leonard of the State Police but nothing has been heard yet. . . .

Last Thursday the VFW discussed the situation and decided to invite other civic organizations to join in sending an appeal direct to the governor asking for a safety survey. . . .

New Stinson Plane Bought by McPhillips

The red airplane flying over Charlevoix these days is Joe McPhillips' newly purchased Stinson Flying Station Wagon. . . .

He brought it to Charlevoix Monday. . . .

A four place ship, it has a six cylinder Franklin motor, cruises at 125 miles, carries a two-way radio, night landing lights, and has a cabin finished in leather and wood panels. . . .

Making the third ship he has here, McPhillips plans to use it on the Beaver Island run as well as charter flights. . . .

Senior Scout Charter Depends On Turnout

Obtaining a charter for the Senior Scouts here in Charlevoix depends on how many turn out Thursday at 8 p. m., at the City Hall, according to Capt. Hubert Paddock. . . .

Applications have been taken by enough older boys to obtain a charter for the group. At the meeting Thursday, these applications will be handled in. If enough potential Senior Scouts are there with applications, they will be sent on and the charter obtained. . . .

115 Crippled Youngsters Find New Hope at Clinic Here

One of the most successful crippled children's clinics to be held in District No. 3 was conducted at the Charlevoix Public school Tuesday by Dr. Carl Badgley, head of the Bone and Joint department of the University of Michigan Hospital and Dr. J. T. Jerome of Traverse City, noted bone doctor of the North. . . .

One hundred-seventeen children were examined by the doctors, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Ober and others. . . .

Dr. Carlton Dean, director of the Crippled Children's Commission of Lansing, drove to Charlevoix bringing special equipment. . . .

North Side Starts on Youth Program

Something is being done to give the youngsters on the North Side a handy place to play and the essential adult leadership. . . .

It is a community proposition so far and has been snowed out of interest and numbers largely because folks there want to provide the young folks with a chance at healthful recreation. . . .

It all started when Louis Bourissau organized a half dozen boys in a softball team. Pretty soon more boys showed up and more room and a better place to play were needed. . . .

Last year the kids played mostly in streets or on vacant lots with plenty of dangerous holes. So work mostly by the youngsters themselves, was started on a flat place near Mt. McSaubey. Brush was hacked out, a dozen loads of rusting tin cans hauled away. Work is still going forward. . . .

The plan is to have a playground open to all youngsters, with both a ball diamond and a play section. Bourissau is donating hardwood trees from his Pine Point land and George Smith, Jr., has agreed to saw out 4x4's and other pieces needed for swings and teeterotters. . . .

Some of the parents have been interviewed and agreed to take turns at the playground keeping an eye on things. Unsupervised play, it has been found, results in fights, cursing and eventual breakdown of the program. . . .

The committee directing the work now is composed of Don Swinton, Uno Suomela and Max Novak. . . .

Mrs. Ida J. Murray Rites Held Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida J. Murray, 79, who died at her home in Bay Shore on Saturday, were held at the See Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Monday with Rev. H. C. Hammond officiating. . . .

Born in Hillsdale, Mich., on Feb. 22, 1868, Ida Crasher was married to Freeman Bassett about 1883. They lived in Northport and Newaygo before coming to Charlevoix more than 40 years ago. . . .

About 1911 she was married to Horatio Murray who survives her. . . .

She is also survived by a son, Daniel Bassett, and a daughter, Mrs. Carrie Murray, both of Bay Shore; five grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren. . . .

Quartet Arrive with Freedman Cruiser

Four lake-toughened sailors pulled into harbor here Sunday with Samuel Freedman's new 36 foot Chris-Craft cruiser, the Mary F. . . .

Skipper of the crew was Capt. Allie Moore who said they had had a "pleasantly rough and foggy trip." Others were Stewart S. and Gordon Freedman, brothers, and Jack E. Josselson of Cincinnati. They used less moderate words in describing the trip. . . .

The four had picked the boat up at Toledo Tuesday and came back by way of Georgian Bay. . . .

Ed Doten Received Into Kiwanis Monday

Holding that a "dynamic attitude toward community needs and interests" is the mark of a Kiwanian, Supt. Roy Bennett Monday formally inducted Ed E. Doten into the club. . . .

Bennett as membership chairman gave the charge to the new member, pointing out the civic responsibility of the service club member should lead to united action and result in civic betterment. . . .

County Facing Serious Problem on Town Roads

Some solution must be found this summer to the problem of the township road now facing the County Road Commission and consequently all of Charlevoix County's citizens. . . .

Or tough times are ahead for the roads and the folks who live along them. It boils down to a case of taking less or paying more. The situation is best shown by a few figures. . . .

Last year the county spent $32,102.55 for snow removal. That is 42.8% of all money that was available for township roads. This total was $75,355.30 and came from three sources: . . .

'46 McNitt Fund	$37,408.80
Liquor tax	32,836.81
Snow removal	3,120.80
	$73,355.30

The McNitt money is the township roads' share of the gas and weight tax money. The liquor tax money no longer will be handed back for roads since the state has to keep it due to adoption of the sales tax amendment. The snow removal is a special refund from the state for this purpose. . . .

Total twp. money	$75,355.30
Snow removal cost	32,102.55
Balance	$43,252.75

This balance of $43,252.75 was all the township road money left for maintenance and construction. . . .

It figures out to $67.37 per mile for the 642 miles of township road. Yet in 1946 it cost $96.53 per mile solely to maintain the roads. In other words, the Road Commission had to dip into county road funds for $29.16 to maintain each mile of township road. . . .

That has been possible during recent years. But now the liquor tax has been taken away. Less money is available all around for road work. Even if the 1 cent added gas tax bill becomes law, it will barely replace the liquor money since almost half the estimated $12,000,000 to be collected will go to Wayne County. . . .

Faced with lowered income, regulations requiring state and county roads to be given preference, and mounting snow removal costs, the Road Commission must choose one of three possible courses: . . .

1. Spend less for snow removal and leave more miles closed.
2. Do less maintenance with roads consequently going to costly ruin.
3. Get more money from somewhere.

For a year now the Board has been trying to work a miracle—plow township roads, maintain them, and still live within income in the face of mounting costs. It hasn't been able to achieve the miracle. Now it is facing the bitter choice. . . .

What it will be the Board members don't know. But that it will be of the three or a combination of them there is no question. . . .

Son of Charlevoix Woman Drowns In Pit

Melvin Dubey, 7, son of Mrs. Wilfred Dubey of Charlevoix and Wilfred Dubey of Alpena, was drowned June 10 while swimming in a gravel pit near his father's farm home. . . .

While his father and an older brother were working in a nearby field, Melvin, another brother and two sisters went to the gravel pit. Melvin went in swimming fully clothed and would not come back when the others called. It is believed he suffered cramps. After he was rescued, the Alpena fire department was called and two men worked for an hour and a half with a resuscitator without avail. . . .

Funeral services and burial were Thursday at Alpena. . . .

Those from here going to the funeral services were Mrs. Dubey, her sister Dolores McCordle, Stanley Dean and Robert Reed. . . .

Coming Events

June 19—Barnard Farm Bureau meets at John Rouse's.

June 22—Dr. Irwin A. Moon to speak at Baptist church.

June 23—The Youth Temperance Council will meet at 8.30 at the pump house for a weiner roast. Everyone, please bring own lunch.

June 25—Pilgrim circle meets with Mrs. Jeff Novotny, 527 Potoski ave.

The Gander Doesn't Like the Sauce

Heard a good story the other day. Down in southern Michigan there is a city which has a number of pinkish thinkers. At least they consider themselves so. There also is an organization which yearly plans a study program for its members. Somehow word got around that the fellow travelers planned to put over their patron saint, Karl Marx, as the next study subject.

Instead of doing the obvious and yelling "Red" and stirring up a small group of sound business men members took a lesson from standard Commie procedure. They organized.

When the crucial meeting came, this small group put across their program. They elected their own carefully chosen leaders to direct the study course and the club.

And— That club is going to study Karl Marx. But instead of a carefully rose-colored picture of old Das Kapital himself, they are going to appraise his teachings in the light of free enterprise, individual liberty and Americanism.

The pink boys now are howling to high heaven about railroaded meetings and undemocratic tactics. But if they don't quit the club, they sure are going to hear about Karl Marx as he really was.

Let's Keep 'Em Beautiful

The Romans had a name for them. It was "vandals." They were the uncouth barbarians who took a special delight in wrecking objects of beauty and usefulness.

The breed is anything but dead.

Bitter tops on the list or near the top is the householder who packs a week's or month's accumulation of tin cans, busted beer bottles, banana peels and orange rinds in a grocery sack; drives out in the country and when no other car is in sight, heaves the mess to the side of the road.

Cleaning up such unsightly patches costs the county hundreds of dollars yearly, money desperately needed for road work. Leaving them alone ruins the looks of the roadside, and in a section seeking vacationists, must not be done.

There is a city dump here for tin cans. It is no farther to the dump than out in the country. And putting the cans there will mean a better place for all of us to live and play.

Artificial Breeders Group Will Meet Next Wednesday

By Ed Reiman

The second meeting of the Boyne City local Artificial Dairy Breeders Association was held last week.

One half of the original number owning about 150 Holsteins, have already been signed up and about all or 90 Guernseys are enrolled. The members agreed to start the organization by July. The school for inseminators begins July 14 and a young man will be sent to attend. Anyone interested in joining to obtain the use of good bulls can contact any of the directors or call at the County Extension office.

The next meeting of this association will be Wednesday evening at 8:30 p. m. in the Boyne City Library. Everyone is invited and urged to attend to help this association to organize.

More Milk Comes From Better Hay

If you want to get more milk out of your hay next winter, the time to plan it is now. George

Parsons, extension dairy specialist, says, experiments show that hay cut when there is a heavy sprinkling of blossoms has more of that unknown factor which makes a cow give more milk. The dairy specialist says the heavy growth due to rain should cause a heavy first cutting. The successful dairyman will see that the hay is cut at the right time for economical milk production depends greatly on the kind and quality of roughage used, Parsons explained.

Protect Gardens Against Cutworms

Wet, cool weather this spring and early summer has been ideal for cutworms. Ray L. Jones, entomology extension specialist, says that's the kind of weather they like.

These fat, brown worms certainly mow off a lot of plants if they aren't checked—and early, too.

Jones says the home gardener with few tomato or pepper plants may stop their work by making stiff paper collars and placing them around the plants. Just take a piece of stiff paper or cardboard and bend it around the plant, forming a collar about two inches in diameter. Don't make the collar too tight. Let the collar extend into the soil about a half-inch and allow it to be two or three inches above the ground line.

Air or Liquid Filled Tires? Do liquid-filled tractor tires have any special advantage over air-filled tires? That's a question often asked by farmers and E. C. Sauve, agricultural engineer at Michigan State college, gives this answer.

If iron weights are added to the traction member of the air filled tires equal in amount to the weight of the liquid added to the liquid-filled tires, there is little difference. From the standpoint of safety, care should be taken to see that the iron weights added to the wheel or axle do not provide an additional hazard.

56 Brownies, Girl Scouts Have Full Week At Day Camp In City Park

The Girl Scout day camp provided fun and more fun for the 56 Brownies and Scouts who attended the four day event at the Trailer-Auto park last week.

Mrs. C. A. Odmark, director of the camp, had planned a varied program which included nature lore, singing, painting, camping, cooking, story telling.

The camp was divided into three groups, the Birch Valley group with Mrs. Ralph Hamilton as leader; the Shady Grove group in charge of Mrs. H. O. Krahne; and the Eager Beavers headed by Mrs. James Krulik. The first two groups were Brownies and the later intermediate Girl Scouts.

The camp opened at 9:30 a. m. with each group staking a claim for the day in the nearby woods. The girls then carried out the organized program. Special features were hobo hikes at noon, bird hikes in charge of Mrs. F. J. Fessenden; finger painting and gift and Christmas wrappings taught by Mrs. Ralph McRae; singing and singing games and outdoor cooking at which the girls learned to cook bread sticks, mock angle food cake, bean-hole beans and many other things over an open fire.

A stunt night with each girl taking part in a special event planned by the group as a feature of the closing meeting Friday evening at which a group supper was enjoyed by the Scouts and their director and leaders.

Those credited with making the camp a success were Mrs. A. J. Stelter, Mrs. Ronald Abfalter, Mrs. John Nordrum, Mrs. Joe Williams and Mrs. George Smith who served as assistant leaders. Pat Hamlin, Patsy Hamilton, Marge Brow and Margaret Rousin were high school girls who assisted. Teachers for special features besides Mrs. Fessenden, and Mrs. McRae, were Mrs. Ted Foster who assisted with games; Mrs. Harry Stewart who conducted a story hour and Mrs. Walter Bergen who assisted on stunt night.

A camp nurse was present at all times. Nurses who gave their services were Mrs. C. M. Bice, Mrs. Clair Stevens, Mrs. Robert Wexstaff, Mrs. L. E. Grate and Miss Ann Wilson.

Mrs. C. M. Bice, who organized the camp and obtained the volunteer workers, was general chairman of the Day Camp Committee. She was assisted by Mrs. Robert Richards, Mrs. Robert McClintock, Mrs. Gordon Freedman, Mrs. Charles Durr and Mrs. Krahne.

Transportation to and from the camp site was furnished by Mrs. Ted Foster, Mrs. Mabel Goddard, Mrs. Clarence Wood, Mrs. Dean Davenport, Mrs. William Ratigan, Mrs. William Fessenden, Mrs. Edward Shanahan and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powell of the Charlevoix Cab Co.

Campers were: Carol Auders, Mary Baker, Sue Beaudoin, Lucinda Bilow, Brenda Brown, Debby Bergen, Jackie Cooper, Carol Cross, Joyce and Judy Cunningham, Mona and Margaret Dutter, Kathleen Fessenden, Kathleen Foster, Mary Foster, Deann Genett, Suzanne Grate, Clarice and Sandra Gregory.

Barbara Smith, Cynthia Smith, Karen Smith, Ruth Ann Smith, Jill Stewart, Judy Stokan, Roberta Swanson, Nancy Taylor, Sandra Von Dohlen, Joyce Wallace, Phyllis Williams, Martha Young, Sharon Belding, Wanda Sutton.

Mr. and Mrs. William Novak and family have arrived from Traverse City for the summer.

Many students from Michigan State College and other schools have completed their studies for the year and have arrived in Charlevoix for the summer.

Among them are Joan Nelson, Anne Campbell, Virginia Ranger, Don Carey, Harold Chew, Jack Abfalter, Duane Byers, Helen Jean Hammond, Elaine Brown, Joan Hense, Bill Ochs, Bud Webster accompanied by Mrs. Webster.

Mrs. Robert Vratanna of Ypsilanti is spending several days with her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vratanna. She plans to leave for Korea next month to join her husband, Lt. Vratanna, who is stationed there with the army.

tending the AMA meeting. They flew down. On their return trip they were grounded in Akron and returned back home via bus. While in Atlantic City they attended the Cotton Show sponsored by the Auxiliary of the AMA. Four door prizes were given and Mrs. Palmer had the good luck to walk off with the big prize, a beautiful electric blanket.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Campbell and son of Detroit arrived Sunday for a two week's vacation at the home of Mrs. Campbell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Heering. This is the first visit of young Ronnie to his grandparents for the young man is all of seven weeks old. Miss Goldie Mary Nagy who teaches kindergarten in Wyandotte will arrive soon to spend the summer at the Charlevoix.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Walgreen and Mr. and Mrs. John Kling were called to Chicago to attend the funeral of their brother-in-law.

Mrs. Dora Hamilton has returned home after spending the winter in Battle Creek. She has as her guest for the summer her niece, Mrs. Freda Durant of California.

Mrs. Albert Auerwarter of Chicago has come to spend the summer at her Norwood home.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Livingston left Wednesday to spend the remainder of the week in Detroit at the Bankers' convention there.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. P. Haugan of Mundelein, Ill., have returned to spend the summer at their cottage at North Point. Their daughter, Mrs. George Remmers and Joan and Chuck are spending two weeks with them.

One can be sure that Mrs. Arthur Joseph of Cincinnati is at her Michigan Ave. summer home when the strawberry jars appear on the front porch. Two enormous jars of blue glazed pottery and three small ones, that she purchased in Santa Monica, Calif., some years ago, are now filled with pink begonias. The exact coloring of the blue trim on the house, the porch has much eye-appeal. On the walk near the house is a white wheelbarrow now filled with petunias full of blooms.

Mrs. Ellen Ann Carey of Washington, D. C. was a guest of Mrs. Addie Glossinger last week. She flew to the north from Washington, D. C. landing at Pellston. She waxed eloquent over the beauty of this section by plane upon her arrival.

To this we can add our bit for Monday Joe McPhillips took Mr. and Mrs. Ed on a plane ride in his new Flying Station wagon. We thought Charlevoix was rightly named when we arrived but after seeing it from the air it is CHARLEVOIX THE BEAUTIFUL, all in capitals. The coloring of the water, the green earth after so much rain, is beyond one's power of description. One will just have to take the ride himself to realize.

There is one fellow in town who is going to be a pretty happy guy in September, Warren Shadko. At that time he will be 16 and will then be able to get his pilot's license. Rosann Topovic and Arthur Wexstaff are among the latest residents of Charlevoix to get their pilot's license to fly.

According to Mrs. Don Gardner down in Toledo, Ohio, Charlevoix has a doctor who is a one-man Chamber of Commerce. He is Dr. Donald McBan, a baby specialist. She arrived this week in town with young baby Andrew Patrick Blakeley when the doctor informed her that the best place he knew where the air was the finest was Charlevoix. The baby will stay for a month with its aunt, Mrs. James Marsh. Birthday congratulations to handsome little Peter Anee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Anee, Tuesday he celebrated his first birthday.

We have heard a great deal about Casey at the bat, but it took Mrs. Hap Cunningham to change that to Norma at the bat. The other night several of the youngsters down on Antrim street staged a baseball game. Helen Scott and Norma Cunningham were interested back fence spectators. Suddenly Helen Scott said, "Let's show 'em how to play ball". The women went to bat. Mrs. Scott made a home run, but didn't think she would do her bit. She hit the ball the first time, but in doing so the ball hit her glasses and as a consequence Mrs. Hap Cunningham is sporting a beautiful black eye. Generally a woman has a husband or a screen door to blame such an eye on, but this time it was a baseball bat! Make it a homer next time, Norma.

Miss Nelle Smith, who teaches in Traverse City has joined her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Oscar Smith for the summer.

Ruth Edwards, John North
Wed At Church Rites

Baskets of Spring flowers and crocheted ribbons decorated the altar of the First Congregational church for the wedding of Miss Ruth Edwards and John North, Northport, Mich., Saturday.

Rev. G. R. Parker of Northport read the service in the presence of more than 100 guests. Presiding at the ceremony, Miss Gwen-dolen Miller at the organ played traditional wedding music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert V. Edwards. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. North of Newaygo.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white gabardine suit, a headband of white ribbons and white accessories for her wedding. Her bouquet was of lilacs of the valley, white lilacs, and white carnations centered with an orchid.

Miss Elaine Edwards, sister of the bride was maid of honor and wore a light blue gabardine suit with white accessories. Her colonial bouquet of lilacs of the valley, white lilacs and roses matched her headband.

Bridesmaids were Miss Eleanor North of Newaygo, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Joan Nelson, Louis Edwards, cousin of the bride, was best man and Russell Merrihew of Weidman and Douglas Hyers seated the guests.

Mrs. Edwards wore a pearl gray suit with rose accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of red roses and white carnations. Mrs. North wore a chartreuse suit, white accessories and a corsage of cream-colored roses and white carnations.

Seventy-five guests attended the reception at the home of the bride's parents. The four-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Ed Burns, great-grand aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Gregory Engstrom of Bay City, aunt of the bridegroom.

Immediately after the reception the couple left on a wedding trip. They will make their home at 102 1/2 Wood Street for the summer and at Mason this fall, when the bridegroom returns to his studies at Michigan State College.

Both are graduates of the Charlevoix high school. The bride is a graduate of Alma College and attended the University of Michigan.

She was affiliated with the Sigma Phi sorority and the Phi Sigma Pi Honorary scholarship society. She will teach biology in the Mason Junior high school this fall. The bridegroom is completing his studies at Michigan State College after 32 months in the army during which he served in the European Theater of Operations.

Out of town guests were Miss Marge Bow, Miss June Patton, Miss Amy Middleton, Mrs. Floyd Vennier and Mrs. Thomas Kain of Alma; Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Engstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kulberg, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kulberg, Miss Anne Kulberg and Miss Jenny Kulberg of Bay City; Mrs. Arthur Knafle of Cheboygan; Mr. and Mrs. James Foster of Willow Village; Miss Laura North of Cleveland, Ohio; the Misses Lyla and Lylas Hardy of Saginaw; Mr. and Mrs. James Culp and Miss Patricia Kennett of Ann Arbor.

Nancy Price Graduated At Denison University

Beavers Making Comeback Up In North Michigan

Beavers are making a comeback up in these parts.

If there is any doubt, just visit Traverse City and gaze at the glossy facial pelts being sported by the men of the city which is celebrating belated cherry blossoms and 100 years this summer.

No feature of the Centennial set to start July 3, has won more attention, yards of newspaper space and general kidding than has the Whisker Derby.

No style of facial fur is barred in the Derby. Anything goes, from handlebars to dundrearys. By official proclamation, all registered Traverse City males must wear whiskers or carry 4-11 cards exempting them on the grounds.

Prizes will be given for the of inability or feminine objection, longest, neatest, most unusual and most attractive hirsute achievements. Other cities including Jackson and Kalamazoo, are sending bearded delegations to compete. Judging likely will be tough, the Centennial dads expect, and they are trying to get Monty (Public Beards No. 1) Woolley out from Hollywood as premier judge. However, this may be just another dream of the Traverse publicity directors.

Overshadowed by the Beard Derby are the other plans, which include a tie-up with the 19th annual Cherry Festival, starting June 29. The Centennial will have parades, concerts, picnics and costume balls and an historical pageant.

Alaska Offers Hard Work, Opportunity But No Quick Wealth Says Rev. Armstrong

"Here one measures rainfall in inches, but in Alaska it is measured in feet," said Rev. Mr. R. Rolland Armstrong, as he and his wife lounged comfortably on the front porch of the George Hemingway cottage on Lake Charlevoix.

The couple have come here from Alaska. Arriving in Seattle in May they bought themselves a car and came cross country to Charlevoix where they are taking life easy for a few days before going East.

For the past seven years the Armstrongs have lived in Alaska, their two daughters being born there. The couple, who were Sunday School missionaries lived in Charlevoix for 15 months prior to going to Alaska, doing Sunday School missionary work. They were brought here from Kentucky largely through the efforts of Mr. Hemingway and other interested persons. Rev. Armstrong is now pastor of the Anchorage Presbyterian church with 324 members. "And we usually have about 275 for Sunday School," he added.

"Alaska has many of the same problems as here. The housing situation is bad. The population has greatly increased. Folks come up there thinking they are going to make their haul and then get out. They are doomed to disappointment for no one is getting rich fast in Alaska. Some time folks come up on one boat and leave on the next. Oftentimes others come with no jobs in mind. They discover they have to wait a year or maybe 18 months to get a home. They fuss and fume. They become the chronic and do Alaska a great deal of harm by the stories they tell.

"You probably have heard about the high cost of living," Then Mr. Armstrong explained some things. Bread for example, is 35¢ a loaf and celery is $1.10 a bunch. But, persons forget to tell that the wage scale is graduated accordingly. And as for the celery, that is airborne food. If folks wait for the boat, which is slower, a bunch of celery is a great deal cheaper. Canned goods range about 5¢ more per can.

"Another thing one talks about is the weather," he said. It is not any colder at 20 below up there than it is here in Michigan at your temperatures, for it is such a dry cold. The coldest we have ever seen was 38 below. On the other hand the temperature can rise too. We have seen it as hot as 99 in Fairbanks and up to 80 degrees in Anchorage."

Much progress has been made in building. Cement and pumice blocks are being used a great deal in construction. In Anchorage a million and a half theatre has been built, seven years in construction, equalling any in the West. Several new radio stations are springing up. One in Anchorage is with a national hookup. The Armstrongs believe in Alaska. "It used to be gold; now it is living," he said.

Pioneer missionaries have laid an excellent ground work. One in particular was S. Hall Young who went to Alaska in 1904. He was a popular man even with the saloon keepers in those days. He would preach anywhere, even in a bar. There was one saloon keeper, who when he came to town, would whisk all the bottles under the counter, have the boys go and fetch an organ from down the street and a meeting would be held in the saloon.

Another time Rev. Young had visitors who had come a long distance by dog team to be married. Following the ceremony the groom handed the minister a $90 nugget.

The Armstrongs brought several trophies with them: beautiful carved ivory, bracelets, combs, and one piece, a dog team carved on the handle of an ivory paper knife. "I bought it for $1.75 and have had it a long time," said Armstrong. "Now that same piece would cost $25.00." Yes, the eskimau learns fast. Another piece of unusual interest was a small basket, made from the lining of the mouth of a whale. It is soaked and worked wet, the same as reed. These pieces are very costly.

"We have been greatly amused by the folks who come up to Alaska, stay 30 days, return to the States as authorities and write books on Alaska. We call them the 30 day wonders. However, there are two books that I would heartily recommend," said Rev. Armstrong. One is Colby's "Guide to Alaska." (Incidentally that is in the Charlevoix library.) The other is Ruth Gruber's "Alaska Under Fire." Miss Gruber has lived in Alaska a long time. She was the unofficial representative of Ickes while he was Secretary of the Interior. This gave her entrance to many social events and other places that most folks would not get.

The Armstrongs expect to remain in the States for four months. In the East, Mrs. Armstrong is to be the representative at the National Missions conference in Northfield, Mass. Rev. Armstrong is going to Princeton and then to Louisville, Ky. for some refresher courses.

Their Ford bears the license plate 8100 Alaska. They expect to pick up their children in Colorado who are with relatives and return home via the Alcan Highway.

19 Girl Scouts Spend Busy Week On Island

By George Stephenson

Nineteen members of Troop No. 1, Girl Scouts of America, Charlevoix, were one day late in their "get-away" for Beaver Island due to the lack of a manager for Kilroy's Sick Bay.

Tuesday however found them enroute with Camp Leaders and the nurse with the little red pills. The first casualty occurred when the good ship North Shore could not make up its mind as to whether it wanted to go straight ahead, head to the heavens, or roll sideways so they could look over the rail without extending their necks. Miss Clara Cummings, the nurse was the first to request a bucket, and it wasn't long before the ship was rolling in her wake, and the fishermen reported large catches in the wake of the S. S. North Shore the following trip.

The cavalcade arrived at the island shortly before noon and by mid-afternoon all were assigned to their quarters in the McDonough cabins on Sand Bay. Warm weather and blue skies were tempting to the Scouts who shortly became mermaids. The safety element was provided by Skipper VanErkle and his crew, who offered protection at all times, but cold water and "Duck bumps" soon lost their charm.

The feed bag was never scant, nor did it hang unmolested for any length of time. Hikes through the woods accompanied by leaders, will whet one's appetite. The disagreeable weather did not hinder activities. Stones, flowers, mosses, pine cones and other of Nature's beauties were gathered and time whiled away found rock gardens in front of cabins and table decorations in each camp.

After a more snack for supper, chili, potatoes, cherry cobbler, salad and milk, more food seemed essential. The party was held in "Kilroy's Hospital" under the leadership of Clara Cummings, hot chocolate, and candy appeased the everlasting craving for nourishment. Donna Everts, Jon Henry, Virginia Taylor and the leaders furnished the entertainment.

Before retiring the first night the cabins were christened. The cabin in charge of Mrs. J. K. Reed was officially dubbed "Moron Mansion", that of Mrs. George Roff, "White Pine"; Miss Clara Cummings, "Kilroy's Hospital" and "Devil's Delight" headed by Mrs. LeRoy Allers was divided into three groups known as the "Tireless Two", "Bedbug Bedlam" and "Kootie Korner."

Unfavorable weather did not dampen the ardor of Thursday—all seemed in need of exercise. They hiked to town, down the beach, through the woods, while a few ambitious future housewives spent time about the cabins. Patsy Webster, a former Charlevoix Girl Scout and now a resident of the island, paid the troopers a visit.

The White pine cabin was chosen for the party Thursday evening. Mrs. Roff, Barbara Roff, Carolyn Smith, Helen Moore, Joyce Paul and Freda Taylor acted as hostesses, and again served up more food. The entertainments were furnished by the group, each being held responsible for the entertainment—with a choice of a whistle, solo, or stunt. Two flashlights in the eyes of a deceased bovine provided a perfect setting for a ghost story written by Virginia Smith, said stunt being instigated by Sara Coleman and Colleen Reed. But a mere hour after the party had broken up, a shrill cry from "Devil's Delight" cabin brought forth the group for more food, served by candle light of low voltage.

A ride encircling the island was taken and a great deal of beauty and interesting things observed. A white fish dinner, furnished by the Sportsman's Club, under the direction of James McCann proved that when folks talk about Beaver Island fish being good, they are not fooling.

The daily roll call accounted for leaders: Mrs. J. K. Reed, Mrs. LeRoy Allers and Mrs. George Roff; Nurse: Miss Clara Cummings; Mascot and handy man, Paul Allers; Scouts: Dorothy Allers, Barbara Bice, Marilyn Bulow, Nita Brumma Sara Coleman, Donna Everts, Betty Gill, Jon Henry, Helen Moore, Patricia Mort, Joyce Paul, Colleen Reed, Barbara Ross, Leone Scott, Marian Carol Seymour, Carolyn and Virginia Smith, Freda and Virginia Taylor.

By L. E. Towe

Among those who helped with the outing were Capt. LeRoy Allers who supplied the boat transportation; Capt. VanErkle of the Coast Guard; Karl Kuebler, Conservation Officer who helped make camp; Lloyd McDonough, transportation about the island; James McCann, president of the Sportsman Club, who arranged the fish dinner; and George Stephenson who was the Scout's "guardian angel and good neighbor" combined.

Hilltop Inn Will Close This Year

Hilltop Inn south of Charlevoix on the Ellsworth Road will not reopen this season according to present plans. It is owned by Bernard Linden of Detroit and Maurice Rice of California. They had an opportunity to sell the resort property, providing the prospective purchasers could obtain a liquor license. The Marion town board two weeks ago turned down the request for a liquor permit. The sale deal fell through and now word comes that Linden and Rice plan to leave the property closed.

BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Monday afternoon, the city of St. James became as boisterous as I have ever seen it. All housewives ran to the windows, children ran to see and the town was in an uproar. The reason: Coming into the harbor was the John Roen IV, giving salute after salute. Each time, either the Ramblor or Gus's mill would respond and the tootin' and rootin' surely gave us something to talk about.

John Roen, owner of the boat was at one time a partner of Gus Mielke.

Mrs. Elsie O'Donnell and son, Raymond are in Chicago visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bayles.

Mrs. Francis Rickgers is in Chicago to meet her husband, who is sailing this summer.

Helen Martin, who came to the Island to be her sister's maid of honor, returned to Grand Rapids Monday.

Bud Burke has the rural mail delivery contract starting July 1.

One of the pleasant past times on the Island is music. A group of friends who met at the Miller's home last Tuesday were given a real treat hearing Mrs. C. E. Webster at the piano with Fred Spalding accompanying on the violin, play a number of selections. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Malloy, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spalding, Mrs. Rolland McCann, Mrs. C. E. Webster and Mrs. J. C. Hanley.

After vocalizing the verse of "Chloe", all present at Millers agreed your B. I. reporter should enter the county hog calling contest.

Pat LaFreniere couldn't stand the strain of city life any longer, so took himself down to the Hanley-Allen Lumber camp for a quiet night's rest.

The beautiful white ice breaker, the Mackinac came Friday to deliver supplies to the light house at the head of the Island.

Burt McDonough and Johnny Andy Gallagher are stationed at the "Head" this summer.

Congratulations to the newly formed Beaver Island club in Chicago!

Norman Gallagher, teacher in Charlevoix high school, is visiting his parents.

At the tavern the other night one of the visitors, a former barber, gazed around and noticed the fringe over the ears and down the backs of so many men. He decided to do something about it. He called up barbering tools and trimmed up about 17 Islanders. When the job was finished there was enough hair on the floor to stuff a mattress.

Archie LaFreniere, Sr., went by plane to Iron Mountain after receiving word his mother was in a serious condition.

Kay Wilnot and Charles McDonough are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher.

Mary Catherine Hanley entertained a group of school friends last Tuesday afternoon.

James McCauley visited his mother, Mrs. Owen McCauley for a few days. James is employed in Pontiac.

Mrs. Truman Ramsey and daughter have arrived on the Island. The Ramseys plan on being permanent residents and have rented Frank O'Donnell's home.

Henry Allen was here over Sunday.

Florence Burke is visiting in Chicago.

Kay McDonough is visiting her parents in Chicago.

Attention Elmer Englehart: The strange looking birds resembling a wood pecker and a crow seen around Camp Charlevoix this past winter are called Pileated Woodpeckers or Log Cock. Several pairs of these rare birds were seen on the Island during the winter months.

Another rare bird seen recently on the Island was a pair of Evening Grosbeaks a large bird with yellow as the predominant color.

Can you name the principal materials they're made of?

ANSWER: (1) rubber, (2) lead, (3) copper, (4) steel, (5) cotton yarn, (6) lumber. These critical materials are still on the "scarce" list. That's one of the reasons why many folks are still waiting for telephones.

Despite material shortages, we're getting quite a bit of new equipment — wire, cable, central office apparatus and switchboards. And as fast as we can install it, we're able to connect more telephones. But new orders for telephone service keep coming in almost as fast as we can fill the ones we already have on our books.

So there's a lot of work ahead. More buildings to erect. More wire, cable and central office equipment to manufacture and install.

Now that the telephone strike is over, we're moving along with the job. Our aim is plenty of telephone service for everybody . . . when and where they want it.

the ceremony at 3 p. m. in the First Methodist church.

The bride's ensemble included an ivory wool-gabardine suit, a large-brimmed embroidered ivory hat trimmed with black and black and white accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Mrs. Jack Norton, matron of honor and sister of the bride, wore a gray gabardine suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

William Miron of Detroit was best man. William Duff and Forrest Allen Fowler, brothers of the couple, were ushers.

After a wedding trip to Traverse City and Intermediate Lake the couple will reside in Grand Rapids.

Mary Margaret Goes On Summer Schedule

The motorship, Mary Margaret, went on the summer schedule this week.

During the summer months the boat will leave here at 9:15 a. m. arriving at St. James at 12:30 p. m. At 2:00 p. m., she will leave the island for the return trip arriving here at 5:15.

The Sunday excursion trips to the island will begin on June 29.

Girl Scouts Learn That Singing Pays

The Girl Scouts sang, not for their supper, but for their troop treasury on the return trip from Beaver Island last Saturday.

They didn't mean to do it at the time.

It seems a gentleman who had been working in the woods was on his way home and feeling fine, both at the thought of rejoining his family and from the parting libations with his friends.

When the girls came on the boat, they were singing. The said gentleman liked the singing so much that when they quit he gave young Paul Allers a quarter to get them started again. Paul earned his quarter; the girls willing to do a good deed, gave quite a concert.

At length they quit. The ex-woodman felt overcome with gratitude and forced the leaders to take $3 for the troop treasury. The girls say they're going to do more singing from now on. It pays.

News of folks, your neighbors and more... but did you know that—

It's Spine time in Charlevoix. It's late but we are enjoying it all the same. With the flow, we have come the boats. It's so exciting to see Round Lake with so many kinds of craft in it. Looks like a wonderful season ahead for summer. Otto Krieger says the Chicago Club crowd is due to arrive on Friday and Saturday. Everything is ready for them.

Popular question of the week about town is "How is your sun-bath?" And then we pick up the papers and read of snowstorms in Yellowstone and Nebraska. Feel that we are pretty lucky here. Just a few weeks ago we saw them, our High School seniors in their caps and gowns. Now we are seeing them in the stores, back of the soda fountains and doing many of the jobs that can be found in Charlevoix in the summer.

Mrs. Harrison Trimble has proved herself not only a good teacher but a good fisherman as well. Saturday she went out and got her limit of brook trout. They were beauties and made three families a fish supper. Remember Allen Arnold who used to work in the Priest Photograph Gallery "in the days back when?" Allen is now a successful photographer in Birmingham.

This week Mrs. Trimble got a letter telling her that he and his wife were coming. The letter so clearly expressed the feelings of so many folks that we are printing it. "When the last days of the week appear you get a sort of itchin' cause you know when Sunday morn' arrives that you'll be going fishin'." You'll hear the chime of church bells sweet (you really should be in your seat) but, when you think of water, clear, flowers, birds and bees, perhaps a deer—you think of 66 due East, think of trout, a kindly feast. Those church bells sound will be forgotten, when, o'er logs, through brush, you'll soon be walkin'. And we down here in southern Mich., with cars around us swishing, once more get that perennial urge with you to go a fishin'. When June the 25th draws nigh, we're heading straight for Charlevoix with the trunk of luggage and a tank of gas, the other cars we'll really pass. So, get the worms, dog and squirrel, our fishin' urge is really turnin'. Before long now on a Sunday morn' you'll hear the honk of a motor horn and you'll open your door. (We hope you do 'cause gosh! we want you to go fishin' too!)

Wedding congratulations to DeWitt and June Peters. They celebrated an anniversary Sunday. Oh, well, it will be some time yet before DeWitt will be singing "When You and I Were Young June". Surely would have liked to have been a little mouse at the Woan-Gallagher wedding over at the Island. No one went away from that party hungry, according to the amount of food that was purchased. What a good time the little mouse could have had on the 15 hams alone that went to the Island for the occasion not to mention all the chickens. If you see any ragweed growing in your dooryard, pull it up, please. We want to keep Charlevoix clean from the cursed weed. It would be wonderful to keep a zero pollen count for this section. The count will be published throughout the State and if we can keep it low, it will mean more summer folks for Charlevoix... and give the town one more thing to talk about!

Mrs. Charles Anderson of Detroit is visiting in Charlevoix for a week, combining business with pleasure. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Saunders of Lansing were weekend guests at one of the guest houses of the Earl Youngs. They were much impressed with Charlevoix and especially their cabin. Mr. Saunders is executive vice-president of the Michigan Real Estate Association and much interested in seeing several of the beautiful homes in this vicinity. Homeowners are here. Walk down Bridge Street almost any time now and you can spot them. In fact, last Thursday night a pair of honeymooners were guests at the editor's home. They were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Powers, Jr., of Jonesville, where the editors ran their first newspaper.

Guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Fairbanks were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cope-land of Traverse City. The Fairbanks family plans to go this week-end to their cottage on Oyster Bay for the summer. Surely we're proud of Charlevoix's "Cabin Boys" and the way they sang at the Michigan Press Outing at Traverse City last Friday night. We still get "duck humps" (Continued on page four)

Michigan Bell Plans Dial System Here in '49

Charlevoix will have a dial telephone system by sometime in 1949, C. L. Johnson announced to The Courier today.

Exact completion date depends on how fast materials and equipment can be obtained, says Johnson, who is Bell manager for this district.

As part of the dial program, some of the present aerial telephone wires will go underground in conduits. Just how much is not known for sure now as the Bell engineers still are working on detailed plans for Charlevoix.

Charlevoix also figures in another major improvement for this section. It is expected to be on the main trunk line cable from Grand Rapids to the Straits and Upper Peninsula.

As shown on the tentative map submitted to the City Council, the new underground trunk cable will come straight north from Reed City through Alden, Chass Lake, Central Lake, west of Ellsworth to Charlevoix. From here it will go on to Petoskey, the Straits and Trout Lake. Outside the city, it will be placed underground by the big cable pylon. Inside Charlevoix it will be carried in six-inch conduits. At the south city limits the newly purchased right of way comes between the Catholic and Brookside cemeteries, and north to the business section. Here eventually the Michigan Bell company expects to put up a new office to house the repeater equipment required for long distance, the new dial installation and the business offices.

The main trunk cable will go out Petoskey avenue (where conduit tile is now piled), across the golf course and on towards Petoskey.

All this is part of the largest expansion program in any year of Michigan Bell's history, totaling 40 million. It all is part of the 220 million post-war program mapped out by the telephone company for the next five years.

50 Pupils Complete Vacation Bible School

The Methodist Vacation Bible School concluded a successful two weeks term Friday with a picnic at Ferry Ave. Park attended by 50 children, their teachers and 15 mothers.

Mrs. Joseph Arvilla was the chairman of the school the first to be sponsored by the Methodist church. An average of 50 children daily attended the school. Teachers were Mrs. Frank Novotny who had the pre-school age children; Mrs. Jake White was in charge of the Kindergarten age youngsters; Mrs. Carlton Reens and Mrs. Fay Davis taught the first, second and third graders; Mrs. Leshe Everts and Mrs. Arvilla the fourth, fifth and sixth graders; Rev. Gayford Howell and Mrs. Arthur Edwards the Junior high group.

Woolen Shop Opens For Fourth Season

Opening next week for the fourth season in Charlevoix will be the Woolen Shop in the Earl A. Young building.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. VanDusen, the owners, have returned to their Pine Point cottage during the winter they have the Cashmere Shop at Grand Rapids. Mr. VanDusen originally came from Norway.

This summer the store will add a line of cotton garments to its imported woolsens.

Hotels Opening This Week for Summer Season

With June 21 marking the advent of summer, Charlevoix's resort hotels are completing plans and announcing staffs for the season.

The two largest hotels, The Belvedere and the Beach Hotel, will open Saturday. Many other establishments have been open for some time.

Scott Wilson, who is returning for his second year as manager of the Belvedere Hotel, has named the following staff for the season: chief steward, James Curcio of Chicago; housekeeper, Mrs. Ella Wilson of St. Petersburg, Fla.; auditor, Mrs. Cora O'Shea of Clearwater, Fla.; chief clerk, Jack Amos of Southern Pines, N. C.; night auditor, Ernest Kay of St. Petersburg, Fla.; secretary, Mrs. Queenie Wood of Clearwater; dining room hostess, Mrs. Lillian Lipford of Miami; wine steward, Harold Hamner of Detroit; superintendent of service, George Gordon of Lewisburg, W. Va.; tennis pro, Proctor Wright of St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kramer, managers of the Beach Hotel, will have on their staff Carter Springston, of Charleston, W. Va., who is returning as chief steward; Martha Scandon of San Francisco, social hostess; Mrs. Margaret Driggett of Grand Rapids, dining room hostess; Mrs. Nina Hall of Norwood, housekeeper; Charles Evans of Southern Pines, N. C., chief engineer; Mrs. Kramer, of Lafayette, Ind., night auditor; Gordon Clement of Charlevoix, manager of cocktail lounge; Miss Kay Madden of Chicago, cocktail lounge hostess.

The Pine River Hotel, located on River St., will be under the management of Albert Schlesinger this year and will open July 4. Many new improvements have been made in the hotel. The dining room, which will be open to the guests of the hotel for all meals and to the public at the dinner hour, will feature kosher food.

The Lakeview Hotel, operated by Mr. and Mrs. James Flynn, of Southern Pines, N. C., has been open for two weeks. Bert Crandall will be night clerk. The dining room, which will open July 1, will be under the management of William Flynn.

The Hallett Hotel, now operated by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Bolan of Detroit, has been open for some time. The dining room will open July 1 with Mrs. Betty Conroy as dining room hostess. Arthur Horston of Detroit will be the chef.

Band Concert To Start July 3

There will be music in Charlevoix every week starting July 3. Playing will be the City Marine Band, directed by Max Smith.

The weekly concerts will be in the east park and will start at 8:30, continuing through July and August.

The band has 22 pieces this summer.

Mrs. Bolan Injured Seriously In Fall

Mrs. Hugh C. Bolan of the Hallett Hotel seriously injured herself for all summer Sunday when she fell down the steps at St. Mary's church.

Bus Line Will Run Excursion to Traverse

For those who want to go to Traverse City for the Centennial next Tuesday and Wednesday, the North Star Lines are offering daily excursion buses.

Starting at Petoskey, the bus will leave here at 8:35 a. m., arrive at Traverse at 10:05, start back at 7 p. m. and arrive at 8:35.

Lee Sneathen, Sr., is putting a new foundation under his farm home.

Mrs. F. E. Cartier left Monday for a weeks visit with her son, Dr. Claire Cartier, at Grand Rapids.

SPEB Plans Annual Jamboree for Labor Day

Plans for the fifth annual SPEB-SQSQA Labor Day Jamboree here were made Thursday night when the local chapter of the Barber Shop Quartet Society met at the City Hall.

Several of the leading Charlevoix singers have agreed to appear on the program during the three-day event, which brings extra hundreds of visitors here. Entries have been received here already from quartets as far away as Illinois and Kentucky, in addition to Michigan singers.

Editors Invited to Meet Here

Michigan editors have been invited to hold their 1948 summer outing at Charlevoix, with indications that the invitation likely will be accepted.

It was extended Friday night, both in person and orally, at Traverse City where the Michigan Press Association was holding its 1947 meeting.

Before 235 members at the Association's formal dinner at the Park Place Hotel, L. E. Towse, speaking for the Board of Commerce and The Courier, said that Charlevoix would like to have the publishers as guests next summer. He then introduced the cabin boys—Al Young, Dallas Henry, Dr. G. B. Saltstall and Bob Miles—who sang two numbers.

So well were the SPEB singers liked that several of the Association officers asked for a post-dinner concert. Aided by Robert Barkey of Traverse City, the barber shoppers put on an impromptu concert lasting for almost three hours.

The convention, if held here, would bring publishers from all parts of Michigan to Charlevoix. At Traverse City, for example, editors from the Norwiny Current, Detroit Free Press, Sun Evening News and Sturgis Journal all were there.

Final decision on holding of the convention here will be made by the Board of Directors in October.

Western Union Goes On Summer Schedule

The Western Union office here is starting to change over to its summer schedule.

From now on it will be open during the lunch hour and Sunday hours will be increased from 9 to 11 a. m. and 5 to 7 p. m.

Starting July 1 for the convenience of the summer and permanent residents it will be open daily from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. except Sundays and holidays.

Band Concert To Start July 3

There will be music in Charlevoix every week starting July 3. Playing will be the City Marine Band, directed by Max Smith.

The weekly concerts will be in the east park and will start at 8:30, continuing through July and August.

The band has 22 pieces this summer.

County to Build New Acts Stand at Fair Grounds

A new permanent free act stand, built to protect performers even in rain, will be put up at the county fair grounds at East Jordan this summer.

This action was approved Tuesday by the Board of Supervisors after George Haggard of Charlevoix outlined the fair situation. Buildings have been allowed to go down, and unless the county starts building them up, soon there will be no fair. Money is lost every day it rains because acts cannot perform on the temporary stage. Other acts, even in dry weather, cannot use the makeshift stage of past years.

The answer, Haggard pointed out, is to start improving one building a year. First should be a permanent concrete block and wood act stage, with some repairing done on the grand stand. In one or two years, the added returns would pay for the improvements, the Supervisors learned.

The board also bought public liability insurance for the fair. The equalization committee reported that the total for the whole county would be higher. It expected to complete its work Wednesday afternoon.

5 Percent Increase in City Pay Is Voted

A five percent increase was voted to the city's appointed employees Monday night by the Council.

The boost is estimated to mean $2500 more in pay checks a year. Mayor Karl Eber again was absent from the head chair and Harry Hooker presided.

A license to sell beer and wine was approved for Lewis Brant. A suggestion that the fire department have three full time men was referred to the department committee. It is likely to be turned down since it would triple the present cost. The present system works well, the Council pointed out, with Charlevoix having a low insurance rate and four of five fires being out within 12 minutes.

Parking on Michigan avenue will be on the east instead of the west side, some Dowflake will be spread on a few dusty spots, and hoods will be obtained for a few city and utility workers to use on parking meters.

Barnard Farm Bureau Backs Gas Tax Bill

The Barnard Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rosequist Thursday evening with 16 members and two visitors present.

Discussion on the topic "How to Conserve Soil" was led by discussion leader Carlton Smith. Proper fertilizing and the application of soil builders such as lime were pointed out as vital to soil conservation.

The group voted to support the Soil Fertility bill now pending in Congress.

The secretary also was instructed to send a telegram to Gov. Sigvald affirming the group's approval of the gasoline tax bill.

A social hour followed.

North Shore Expected Back on Island Run

Mail and passengers will be going to Beaver Island on the accustomed North Shore after July 1, according to present indications.

As reported from Beaver Island the situation is:

The Lyons Brothers of Lorain, Ohio, were awarded the four year mail contract starting July 1. At that time they did not have a boat capable of carrying passengers, but planned to acquire a large one if they got the contract. After its award, they learned that the boat they had in mind would be required to carry a crew of 22, a financially impossible condition.

So they engaged a boat broker to get them a boat. This he did and it is supposed to be the North Shore.

At any rate, the 65 foot vessel has been sold by Capt. Leroy Allers to Frank J. Nichols, a Detroit ship broker. When he first made the deal, Allers says, Nichols told him that the North Shore would be used as an excursion boat in Detroit running between the Woodward avenue dock and Belle Isle.

On June 20, Captain Allers and his crew delivered it to Nichols at Cheboygan.

Over on Beaver Island Dick Lyons, who is one of the two brothers in the winning firm, has told friends that his firm hopes to build a larger vessel designed especially for the Beaver Island run; and that their newly purchased craft will be used only this summer as a temporary measure.

It is understood at St. James that the Lyons brothers plan to dock at Charlevoix during the summer season and at St. James in the spring and fall.

Palmer House Adds To Kitchen Equipment

With new paint and new equipment, the Palmer House is opening for the season.

The interior has been newly decorated and repainted. An addition provides for a bigger kitchen, where new equipment has been installed. Some new bedroom equipment also has been added.

The new kitchen about doubles the serving capacity, enabling more to be taken care of in the dining room. Additions include another deep freezer, stoves and lighting.

Baseball Players Will Meet Thursday

A baseball team for the summer season is being lined up now and all interested are asked to be at the South Side diamond Thursday at 7 p. m.

Plenty of games can be scheduled, according to Carl Ager, Petoskey, Mackinaw and East Jordan having asked for dates.

Allard Home Is Damaged By Fire

The Adolphus Allard home on the old Woodward Road was badly damaged by fire Saturday morning.

It is believed an oil stove in a summer kitchen at the back of the house exploded. The fire spread rapidly causing considerable damage. All rooms suffered from smoke and water.

Fire chief Charles Marshall would make no estimate of the damage.

Tennis Permits Ready

Permits to use the city tennis courts on the school grounds can now be had at the Board of Commerce office on Bridge street.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore have moved from their Arthur street apartment to the Olive Wells cottage on the Boyne City road. They expect to make it their permanent home.

Beaver Island Homecoming Will Be August 10

Aug. 10 has been set as the date for the annual Homecoming on Beaver Island.

Coming Events

June 26—Special meeting of Charlevoix Marine Club, 8 p. m. at City Hall.

July 1—Installation of officers of American Legion at Legion Hall, 8 p. m.

July 23—Past Matron's Club at home of Mildred Webster.

More Power to Them

Boys' City's Chamber of Commerce announced its program for the coming 12 months at an open forum meeting last Monday.

The program (as it was described by The Boys' Citizen) is a credit to the community and one which should have the approval and encouragement of Charlevoix. For after all, what brings new activity to one part of the county will help everyone.

Chief goals announced are the establishment of a winter sports area and completion of the city airport. The way the Young State Park is operated came in for a lot of criticism.

Boys' City, with colder weather and more snow than Charlevoix, on the average, should be a good site for ski activity. With planes becoming more and more a common mode of travel, the more good airports we have in the north country, the more fliers will come here to vacation.

Our Most Valuable Asset

In answer to the question, What Is Our Most Valuable Asset, you can get a variety of answers. Some might say our lakes, our climate, our natural resources. All would be wrong.

An old story from Greek history has the right answer.

The Spartans and another city state were writing a peace treaty and, to make it stick, were going to exchange hostages. The other side suggested 50 youths. The Spartans balked.

"We'll make it 100 of our leading citizens instead," they offered.

The other side was puzzled. Why offer 100 proved leaders for 50 youngsters.

"We know what the adults are. We don't know about the youths. They're our future."

Today's and tomorrow's crop of youngsters are the most valuable asset of this or any other community. We can talk about the folly of depleting our natural resources, cutting and burning forests, slaughtering game and fish. They are serious calamities it is true. But none are as fatal in the long run as the steady loss of its young people by a community.

One thing only is needed to keep them here—opportunity. If Charlevoix wants to keep on being a live community, it needs to retain the best of its young folks. Some are bound to go away, since youth always wants to wander.

Yet if we see to it that opportunity is here for them, the best will return. For few places offer as many attractions for enjoyable living as does Northern Michigan.

These opportunities must come largely from the older folks. If there's a place to be filled, try hiring some local boy or girl. With the college students back this summer, find out if any of them would like to come back home after graduation. Youth, ambition and trained brains are needed in this and all similar communities. We shall not find any better youngsters than our own. We should keep them at home all we can.

Crazy Hat Wins Refrigerator!

One of those "Breakfast in the morning" radio shows came to Capitol City last week, and Sarah Carey won first prize for wearing the craziest hat in the audience. It was a full-sized refrigerator! (The prize, not the hat.)

"Glad them hats of hers paid off at last," says Ed, treating the whole thing like a joke. But you could see he was proud of Sarah.

From where I sit, there's another thing Ed can be proud of: the way he's put up with those hats of Sarah's, with never a criticism; just as she's put up with Ed's pipe and the other little freedoms he enjoys.

They've got that refrigerator home now, stocked with beer; and we're going over tonight to drink a toast—not just to Sarah's hats taking first prize... but to a happily married couple, who've learned to live with one another's differences in tastes—whether it's a taste for hats or beer!

The Porter Cherry orchard had its first spray last week just in time to have it washed off by the rain; so it was necessary to go over it again this week.

Earl Bradley has been busy of late cleaning some of his land of stumps. He says he has quite a patch cleared.

Calf Raising Is Important

Thoughtful dairymen find it necessary to cull cows year after year. Disease, age, and other factors cause cows to be dropped from the herd. Raising calves as herd replacements is an important part of the dairy program. The calves need dry, sanitary quarters. They should receive the first or colostrum milk produced by the cow. This milk inoculates the calf's tender digestive tract with health-producing bacteria.

It takes about 300 pounds of whole milk to start a calf right. After the animal is three to four weeks old, reconstituted skim milk or fresh skim milk might be used. Good buttermilk—if available—could be used from day to day.

Small amounts of grain especially whole oats and corn will be taken by the calf when it is three weeks old. Some hay will be consumed and fresh water should be supplied in addition to the milk fed, calf pellets, and other types of rations supplied.

At this season of the year, it's a good idea to keep calves in the barn. If the calf quarters are treated with DDT and kept sanitary, better results will be obtained than by turning them outdoors.

Many thousands of calves from artificial breeding are now coming into farmers' herds and such calves should be raised to give the dairy herd owner the advantage of improved breeding.

Mange of Pigs

Pigs infested with mange, sunburn or some type of itch can be easily treated. Until now, recommended chemicals are on the market, the pigs can be dipped or sprayed with liquid lime sulphur, one part to 18 to 20 parts of water, for the mange and similar diseases.

For controlling lice, used crank case oil is helpful. It also keeps the pigs from sunburning and prevents development of other skin troubles when the pasture is wet.

Clean Utensils for Clean Milk
Improperly cleaned utensils are listed as the cause of a large amount of bacteria getting in milk.

A good near-neutral dairy cleaner should be used, and all surfaces of the equipment should be cleaned. The equipment should be stored in a clean place during the day. Before use, a chlorine rinse or other means of sterilization should be used.

DDT Controls Dog Tick
There's another pest that DDT is proving effective in controlling—the dog tick. It is practical and inexpensive for this purpose.

Back yards, schools, and community playgrounds are good places to start. A light dusting with 10 percent DDT powder at the rate of one ounce to 1000 square feet of area covered with grass, weeds, or shrubs is recommended. One dusting will usually protect for the tick season.

The light dusting is not dangerous to children or pets. It will make play areas safer and reduce the danger of ticks attaching themselves to children during the tick season.

Former Golf Leader Here Dies In East

Enmet French, a summer citizen for 15 years and one of the promoters of the Great Lakes Open Golf Tournament here, died June 19 at Bryn Mawr, Pa.

He was at Bryn Mawr to attend commencement exercises for a daughter, Mary Jane, when he was taken ill and died.

A professional golfer until he retired five years ago, he captained the American international team in 1921 and was runner-up to Gene Sarazen for the pro title in 1922.

While here he lived at the Orchard Cottage. The late A. I. Creamer, John Bowker, William Flynn and Mr. French were the active promoters of the Great Lakes Open held here for two years.

Nackerman-Huston Nuptials

Take Place At Pontiac

Postmaster and Mrs. Frank J. Nackerman of St. James announce the marriage of their daughter, Barbara to Arthur E. Huston, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Morville Huston of Plymouth.

The marriage was solemnized at St. Vincent de Paul's church, Pontiac at 9 p. m., Friday by Rev. D. B. Huntz.

The bride chose a blue crepe dress with white lace trim. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, white lilies and pink roses.

Miss Barbara McDonough of Beaver Island was maid of honor and wore a navy blue dress. James McCauley of Beaver Island was best man.

Barbara is a graduate of St. James high school and has been employed for the past two years as postal clerk on the island.

Arthur is a graduate of Plymouth high school, spent two years overseas in the Naval Air Force and for the past two years has attended Clergy College at Ypsilanti.

He is taking a course in law and accounting and will graduate in August.

After a wedding trip through Canada and a few days spent on the island, the couple will make their home at Plymouth.

Garden Club Has Luncheon

At Wickersham Home

Members of the Garden Club held a pot luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Arlo Wickersham on Wednesday.

It happened to be the birthday of one of its members, Mrs. Dorothy See, and a birthday cake graced the table in her honor. There was no program. Instead a social afternoon was enjoyed.

Birthdays Honored By

Past Matrons Club

The members of the Past Matrons Club met Friday night at the home of Mrs. Rosa Nettleton. As is a custom of the club, birthdays are observed by a special birthday cake. Those honored at the meeting were Laura Webster, Sadie Faulkner, Ella Fuchtmann and Dorothy See. Clever poems written by Mrs. Nettleton were also read.

Another special feature of the evening was a display of paintings of Mrs. Nettleton as well as the figure of a woman and child she has modeled during the past months.

The next meeting of the club will be held on July 23 and will be held at the home of Mrs. Mildred Webster. It will be a noon luncheon.

Two More Graduates

Enlist In Army

Added to the list of recent graduates who enlisted in the army this month are the names of Charles Gibbons, who signed up for two years and who is now at Fort Knox, Ky., and William Joffile, who enlisted in Army Ordinance for three years.

Meanest Man Still Busy

"The meanest man in town" is still at work stealing flowers and plants from the graves at the cemetery. Mrs. C. E. Stieritz reports that the plants in a flower bed on Mr. Stieritz' grave at Brookside cemetery have been taken recently.

Clare Martin of Lansing spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. John Martin.

when we think of Al Young's bus in "Wagon Wheels."

(Here is one on friend husband and hopes it gets past his editorial eye). Last week the editor's family went to Traverse to the State Press outing. Saturday morning one of the features was a trip to Northport to go Mackinac trout fishing from Raff's Camp. It was all complimentary to the editors, the trip, a box lunch, the boat, guides, etc. A total of 72 editors went. There was one fish caught. If you please it was your editor who caught it, a 4 1/2 lb trout. Sunday morning some of the editors tried to figure out how much that fish cost. It was anyway $75.00 a pound. It would be safe to say that Mr. Trout is the most expensive fish that has been caught in Traverse Bay in quite some time.

Surely got into the folks' hair out at Ironton when we talked about electric lawn mowers and the arrival of the one at the Surf Hotel in Charlevoix. Says Ralph Price, "We have had one in Ironton since May 10 and Charles Snyder has one too." Maybe Ironton has beat our time a little, but it still does not spoil the story that it is the only one in Charlevoix.

Miss May Dowling of Chicago is spending two weeks at her Dixon Avenue home.

Butterflies are on the wing. . . Things are looking up at Penobscot. A permit has come through so that work can now be continued on partially constructed building. Mason and Antrim streets are certainly growing up these days.

Have you noticed the good looking sign now gracing Schroeder & Hovey's Drug Store. Main Street is looking up too.

Mrs. A. H. Whiting of Chicago has arrived a bit earlier than some of the Chicago Club members. She has had a chance to enjoy these beautiful days. Others who have already arrived are Mr. and Mrs. J. H. King and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Johnson. The Dickinsons are also in Charlevoix and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilson will be here Friday.

Miss May Dowling of Chicago is spending two weeks at her Dixon Avenue home.

Mrs. Maurice Foster left Sunday for Chicago where she will make her home. Mr. Foster expects to be employed in the office of Carson Price Scott following his summer work on one of the Great Lakes boats.

Mrs. Perrin Johnston and infant son returned to her home in Sanford Thursday. Mr. Johnston drove up to get them at the P. R. Ross home.

Before Mrs. Johnston's departure Mary Frances Zettler and Joan Ward were hostesses at a baby shower for her at the Ross home. Many lovely gifts were given the new baby.

Mrs. E. C. Cuzell of Detroit, who operates Camp-Q-Gull, has arrived at the camp for the summer.

The Joseph Blocks of Cuyahoga have arrived to spend their summer here.

Mrs. S. J. T. Strause of Chicago is here at her home at 418 Michigan.

Marion and Martha Craig are having a vacation apart that will long be remembered. They are with their family Ralph of Cleveland, doing New York, Philadelphia and Washington. They left June 21.

I know one of the Ten Commandments say, "Thou shalt not covet" but am afraid that I break that commandment every time I see that good looking yellow and gray plaid shirt that Andy Essenburg is wearing these days.

Some 30 folks had a delightful time Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter Mower when they met on her beautiful lawn and enjoyed a picnic. And where can one find a much prettier spot?

Frank Millward who has been at the Little Traverse Hospital for the past week is now at home at his cottage and taking things easy-like.

The Samuel Hassenbusch family of St. Joseph, Mo., are at their Dixon Avenue home for the summer.

Mrs. Rodney Creed and son flew from Traverse City to her home in New Jersey Sunday afternoon after spending the past two weeks with her parents Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Ross.

These are busy days for Phoebe Ross, opening up her Tea Room. And you know her reputation for cooking! . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ray Faulkner are now settled in their apartment on Bridge Street for the summer months.

Mrs. Isaac Gilbert has arrived at her Park Avenue home from Detroit. She will be here for the summer.

Rites Held At Island For A. B. O'Donnell

Anthony B. O'Donnell, an old resident of Beaver Island, was buried in Holy Cross Cemetery last Wednesday.

Due to illness, he had been in a Petoskey convalescent home for three years. A requiem high mass was sung before the burial.

Surviving are a brother, James B. O'Donnell, and a sister, Mrs. Emma Vincent of Escanaba, who flew to St. James for the funeral.

Garage Installs Radiant Heating

Ellsworth—James Ruita, owner of Ellsworth Auto Service, is installing radiant floor heat in his garage this week. The installation includes steam pipes in the concrete floor and no other heat is needed.

Ellsworth Group to Picnic On July 4

Ellsworth—The Men's Society of the Christian Reformed church will sponsor its 15th annual patriotic picnic Friday, July 4, at Antrim County park near Eastport. Rev. Wayne Lemmen, pastor of Alwood Reformed church, will speak. Games for young and old will be held.

TIPS TO CLIP

BURNING FAT NEVER THROW WATER ON BURNING FAT! USE FLOUR...WATER ONLY SPREADS THE BLAZE.

Cottage Cheese Makes A Meal

Make a meal with cottage cheese. You'll find that cottage cheese is not only a delightful accompaniment to a meal, but in addition to refreshing salads and desserts, may be used in a variety of delicious ways in appetizing dishes that are almost meals in themselves. Cottage cheese main dishes are economical, too.

Sandra Van Dohlen Honored On Birthday
Sandra VanDohlen was honored guest at a surprise party given by her mother and aunt, Mrs. Charles Powell and Mrs. Robert Miller, on Saturday.

The occasion was her tenth birthday anniversary and the party was given at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Emerson Hull. The children enjoyed games, a weener roast and later attended the movie. Refreshments included a lighted birthday cake.

Guests were Donna Ikens, Phyllis Williams, Suzanne Grate, Sonja Nordrum, Moma Davenport, Sandra and Clarice Gregory, Harriet Hooker, Faye Meggison, Vicki and Richie Miller.

Hazel Matchett to Wed Lawrence J. Heldt

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Matchett announce the engagement of their daughter, Hazel L. to Lawrence J. Heldt, son of George Heldt of Detroit.

Miss Matchett is a graduate of Charlevoix high school and served in the army as an x-ray technician in the WAC's. She is now attending the Detroit business institute.

Mr. Heldt served as an engineer in the Pacific theater. He is now employed at the Edison Electric Co., in Detroit.

No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Dolores Wojan Weds Leo C. Gallagher

Miss Dolores Wojan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Wojan, Saturday morning at Holy Cross church on Beaver Island, became the bride of Leo Charles Gallagher, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gallagher.

Officiating at the Solemn Nuptial High Mass were Rev. Victor P. Gallagher of Grand Rapids, brother of the groom; with Rev. Bernard Scheid of Chicago, a cousin, as deacon and Rev. Fabian Keenan, pastor of Holy Cross parish, as sub-deacon.

The bride wore the traditional white satin with a long satin train and a veil held by a beaded and sequin tiara. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Theodore Wojan, was matron-of-honor and wore yellow marquisette. Her two sisters, Mary and Stella Wojan, were bridesmaids and wore aqua marquisette identical with the matron of honor's.

Miss Janet Gallagher, niece of the groom, and Miss Phyllis Wojan, sister of the bride, as junior bridesmaids wore white organdy. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wojan selected a blue gabardine suit. Mrs. Gallagher wore navy and white semi-sheer.

Attending the groom were his friend Robert McDonough and young brother, Billy Gallagher.

24 Guests Attend Party At Bartlett's

Mrs. Gordon Bartlett entertained with a party at her home Friday afternoon honoring her daughter, Evelyn's fifth birthday anniversary. Twenty-four little guests enjoyed games and refreshments on the lawn. The refreshment table was centered with a lighted birthday cake.

Church Gives Shower for Mr. and Mrs. Feidler

Evelyn Edwards of Ellsworth and Dean Feidler, whose marriage took place Tuesday at the Holiness church at Ellsworth, were honored at a nuptial shower last Wednesday evening.

The party was given by the members of the Church of God at the parsonage.

Games and a social evening were followed by refreshments of punch and cake.

The couple received many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Ila Cole Passes

Mrs. M. J. McCarthy has received word of the death of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ila Cole, 39, at Davison, Mich., on June 19 after a short illness. Funeral services were held at St. John's church, Davison at 10 a. m. Monday. She is survived by her husband, Eugene, and a son, Robert.

Another Osborn Book

Former Gov. Chase S. Osborn has published another book on the history of this North Country. Done with the help of his daughter, Stellanova, it is "The Song of Iliawatha with Its Original Indian Legends." It traces the stories and sources which Longfellow used in writing his poem.

Attend Wedding Of Brother

Mrs. Harry Walstad and son, Don, returned home Saturday after spending the week-end in Milwaukee, Wis., where they attended the wedding of her brother, Archie F. Swartout and Miss Freida Kalen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kalen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Stearns in the chapel in his home in the presence of the immediate families at 1 p. m. Saturday.

A reception was held at the Cameo Club Saturday evening. The couple will make their home at 310 W. Scott St., Wilwaukee.

MICHIGAN

has pointed the Way to Goitre Control

The addition of a slight trace of iodine to our common table salt has worked wonders in reducing goitre afflictions, and for this gratifying result the people who live in goitre belts have the medical doctors of Michigan to thank. It was the Michigan medical profession that waged the crusade for iodized salt, it being one of the many firsts in the field of health progress credited to the initiative of the medical doctors of our State.

ing and dancing. Merry are the Islanders on a big wedding day. It was nice seeing Father Victor Gallagher and Father Bernard Scheid again. Both came for the wedding.

Roland McCann, Jr., was home for a week. He has returned to the University of Detroit to continue his studies.

The Wilbur Martin family has moved to Harbor Springs. Shing Martin, father of Wilbur, has gone along with the family.

Page Gravel Gertie! The White Swan is bringing six boatloads of gravel to the island to be used for road repairs. Gus Mielke promises smooth sailing around the island this summer. We hope so. It's been hard to keep nuts and bolts on our cars with so much corduroy on our highways.

Mrs. David Pike and children are with Eva and Lloyd McDonough for a few weeks. Irvin Belfy is home for the summer.

The Arthur Millers have a full house now. George and Martha Miller and their two children arrived Friday to spend the summer here.

One of the most gracious hostesses on the island is Bertha Spalding. When invitations go out to one of her parties, we know a delightful time is in store. Last Thursday, Mrs. Spalding entertained with a tea in honor of Mrs. C. E. Webster. A large number of friends were invited. The afternoon was spent playing games, enjoying music and partaking of a delicious lunch.

A beautiful vase of yellow tulips, from the W. O. Wright's garden, was the admiration of all at Mrs. Spalding's tea.

Thursday evening found us gathering again in the Vernon LaFreniere home where Delores Wojan was entertained with a miscellaneous shower. About 50 guests were invited. You can imagine the array of gifts piled up for Delores. During the evening cards were played and another delicious lunch was set before us.

Mrs. Edwin McCann and her three children returned from a visit in Charlevoix. While away Margaret (Mrs. Edwin) was elected president of the Altar Society. She has accepted the office.

Behind the scenes of many activities for our young people stand the Dominican Nuns, who teach in Mc Kinley school and St. James high. The nuns left the island Saturday, each with a busy summer schedule ahead.

Mrs. George Wood, who taught at Sunnyside this past year, will remain on the island during the summer. This past week, Mrs. Wood was in Charlevoix for medical attention.

Due to an accident Friday, Father Fabian's car is in bad shape. We are thankful no one was hurt.

The lure of a good office job has taken Joan Spalding to South Bend, Ind.

Saturday night the hall was filled to capacity for the wedding dance. Many out-of-town visitors were among the guests.

The Polish hop is fast replacing the Irish jig on the island. At the wedding dance, the Irish were stomping and twirling in true Polish fashion. Several dancers fell flat on the floor in their efforts to keep pace with a fast schottish, but no casualties resulted. Be it known the floor which seemed to weave up and down, remains.

"I would not have believed it if I had not seen it with my own eyes," says Councilman Steve Stephenson of Sand Bay Village. "But from all appearances, Turner Boyles has started a canal from Sucker Point to the other side of the island."

Frances Patterson, Franklin Mascho Wed

Ellsworth—At a quiet wedding at the home of the bride, Frances Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Patterson of Ellsworth, and Franklin Mascho, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mascho of Charlevoix R. 1, were married Saturday, June 14. Rev. Henry C. Alexander, pastor of Pilgrim Holiness church, performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Henry Wagner Observes 83d Birthday

Mrs. Henry Wagner celebrated her 83rd birthday anniversary June 18.

She was busy all day entertaining her family and friends who are always welcome at the Wagner home in Norwood.

Three of the many cards and letters she received were from three girlhood friends, all pioneers of Norwood. Mrs. Bertha Harris Moore of Benton Harbor celebrated her birthday on June 18, too, and was the first white child born in Norwood. Mrs. Lida Richardson Dye of Traverse City and Mrs. Lillian Pearl Nasson of Vancouver, Wash.

The birthday letters were just a part of a correspondence that these four ladies have kept going through the years.

Mrs. Wagner says the day would have been perfect if she could also have received a card from Mrs. Nina Shores McIntosh who in those old days made the other spoke in the wheel, but in some way their correspondence has been dropped.

Mrs. Wagner remembers when she came to Norwood on the boat, the Oswegotcha, with her parents and sisters from New York State in 1872 and has lived here and in Charlevoix since.

Oh, yes, there is a Mr. Wagner, "The grand old man of Norwood". You should see his flowers and he is always picking some for some one.—But his is another story.

Atwood News

Jim Klooster left Thursday morning for the southern part of the state where he expects to find employment.

Several members of the Atwood Reformed church Christian Endeavor will go to Holland on Thursday to attend the rally Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Veenstra are settled in their home now, in Atwood. Mrs. Veenstra's aged father, Herman Poll, is making his home with them.

Mrs. Art DeVries entered the Charlevoix hospital Tuesday to undergo surgery. Art DeVries' mother, Mrs. Ben DeVries will keep house for the family during Mrs. DeVries' stay at the hospital.

The John Bos family and William Coeling, Jr., family took Sunday evening supper at the Henry Bos home in East Jordan.

Rev. Darnbush and six of his children from South Dakota are spending a few days in this vicinity visiting friends. Rev. Darnbush was a former pastor of the Atwood Christian Reformed church.

Friday evening the choir members, husbands and wives had a surprise farewell party for Harriet Essenberg who left Saturday to make her future home in the southern part of the state. Harriet will attend Hope College in the fall to continue her studies.

Little Billie Essenberg who has been at the Charlevoix hospital for over a week, is now at home and convalescing under his mother's care.

Inwood News

Mrs. Charles Wells

Mrs. Sarah Hull and son, Perry have arrived from Detroit to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Edd Gregory.

Mrs. Jane Fiedler entertained Inwood Ladies Aid last Wednesday. After the business meeting a lovely lunch was served. Mrs. Edd Gregory entertains next on July 2.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dunbar and two children from Mt. Pleasant are spending a week with the latter's mother, Mrs. R. R. Farnier.

Miss Bernice Stone arrived from Detroit to spend the summer with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wiles.

Mrs. Orrin Cranek arrived home after a six-weeks stay with her mother in Vincennes, Ind.

Mrs. Madrick Waffle and James A. O'Brien and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim O'Brien, Sr., drove to Detroit to spend the week-end with relatives and friends.

Boyne City Will Have Fourth Fete

Boyne City has been named as the site of the Charlevoix County Fourth of July celebration this year and has announced plans for a Homecoming and Sportsmen's Show to be held July 4-5-6.

Features of the celebration will be an archery exhibition by Fred Baer, one of the foremost archers in Michigan; a shooting exhibition by Dot and Ernie Lind, of Western Cartridge Co., choosing of a Homecoming Queen as well as concessions by local groups; boat races, children's events; fly-tying and sporting goods exhibits. All sporting events will be held at Trailer Park.

News of Folks

Miss Margaret Milner returned home Monday to spend part of the summer with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Milner. Late this month they plan to make a trip to Canada and the West Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gebeau and the latter's sister, Miss Elaine Taylor, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gebeau and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor.

Mrs. Morton Olman arrived last week from Cincinnati for an extended visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Freedman. Mr. Olman, who accompanied her has gone home and will return late in July for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamilton spent the week-end at Curtis in the Upper Peninsula with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Eccleston. On their return they were accompanied by Mrs. Eccleston who visited here briefly enroute to Indianapolis, Ind.

Dr. and Mrs. F. F. McMillan and daughters, Mrs. Joseph Arvilla and Mrs. Harry Stewart were in Indian River on Wednesday evening where Dr. McMillan assisted with an Eastern Star stallion.

Pat Foster has arrived from Chicago to spend the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Foster. His mother, Mrs. Rose Foster, accompanied him and will also remain for the summer.

Move Into Apartment

The Don Conneys are moving into the Shetterly apartment to make room for the Edwin K. Eisendrath family who have leased the new Conney home. Last week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Thompson of Maunee were guests of the Conneys.

New Bellaire Paper Makes Its Appearance

Antrim County has a new newspaper, the Antrim County News.

Published at Bellaire, it is that county seat's only news organ and one of the few news ventures to be established in small Michigan towns since the war.

Publisher is Kenneth C. Parker, a graduate of the University of Michigan, and recently with the East Tawas News. The printing is done by the Adams Printers, newly opened by K. D. Adams. Until the new plant's press can be installed, the printing is being done two nights a week at The Courier.

Dr. and Mrs. Nels W. Bard of Chicago came Monday for a few days visit with Mrs. William E. Black.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wengert of Nampa, Idaho are visiting at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. DeForest H. Wood.

"Charlevoix — the Beautiful"
Michigan

News of folks, your neighbors and mine... but did you know that—

Winter sports have been given wide publicity through two technical films made this summer by James Fitzpatrick, maker of professional travelogue pictures. (We see his films occasionally at the Palace and they are always enjoyed.)

The B. A. Millions are at their Belvedere cottage for the summer. They come from Evansville, Ind. It will seem strange not to see R. E. Olds around Charlevoix. Word was received last week from Lansing that Mr. Olds was in a serious condition with pneumonia in a hospital in Lansing. He has been a familiar figure on Charlevoix streets for many years. Charlevoix boys are really "on the beam" as is evidenced by a letter from Chuck Gibbons to his folks from Fort Knox. He states that after a week and a half in the army he is acting corporal, being chosen as one of the four men to act in that capacity in his training platoon. He has 20 men and one assistant under him. The most important part of all to Chuck is the fact that he does not have any K.P. duty!

Go to California to Carmel-by-the-sea or to Miami Beach, Fla., and one will not find a more clever shop than the House of Jewels, which opened Tuesday noon on Petoskey Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cox are the new owners. Formerly the George Smith Jr. home, the place lends itself beautifully to a shop.

My gosh, wish I knew a sixteenth of the folks who are seen on Bridge street these days. I just know there are hundreds of real stories walking by me. It's a terrible thought... Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schwab and son, Barry of Detroit are visiting their parents, Lon Hewitt and Mrs. Anna Eccleston... Mrs. Charles Dennis and son, David of East Jordan spent a week with her father, Lon Hewitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Denneen of Long Beach, Calif., are among those listed on the Guest Book at the Chamber of Commerce office. In looking over the register Mr. Denneen thought he was the registrant farthest away from home. Then turning back the pages a few days, it was discovered that Mr. and Mrs. Thomas from London, England, have come the farthest this season. Mr. Denneen was much impressed with our city and said, that one did not have to go to California to find a beauty spot when Charlevoix offered such a one to visitors.

Mrs. William Irwin and three children of Maywood, Ill., are here for the summer in a cottage near the Ronald Abfalter home. Mrs. Irwin is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Abfalter and this makes the fourth year she has come up here for her vacation and thinks it is tops.

Birthday congratulations to Mrs. Bessie Mason. She was 86 years young Sunday. Two birthday cakes, cards, calls and gifts made her day a most happy one. Smiled when I read on a "Grand Marais folder of the wonders of that Upper Peninsula Hiawatha land." It read just one Grand Marais sunset is worth you trip to the Lake Superior country." Charlevoix has its share of million dollar sunsets, too.

Don't forget the band concert tonight at the park, cause there will be music in the air when the band boys start playing. It's wonderful to think Charlevoix will have these concerts every Thursday night during July and August. They are much enjoyed by the summer residents as well as the Charlevoix folks... The Charlotte Republican Tribune states in last week's edition "Now with 20 minute flying service between Charlevoix and Beaver Island their inaccessibility is no longer an excuse for not calling on the Judge Boyles." For many years the Boyles have been going to the Beavers for their summer vacation. Aviators flying over Michigan tell us that one of the beauty spots from the air is Torch Lake. It has most unusual coloring.

Don't forget to put a ring around August 3 on your calendar. That is going to be a big day in Charlevoix... Honeymooners in the Turkey Wing last week were bewailing the fact that they got eight coffee pots for wedding gifts. That is surely unfair distribution of gifts... Wolf's new frozen custard shop was a busy place Sunday afternoon. The folks were trying out their new

Grand Rapids Craft Arrive to Open Season

First of the Grand Rapids boats which annually make Charlevoix their initial stop on a northern cruise came into Round Lake Saturday.

The rest of the craft from Spring Lake are expected to gather here for over the Fourth, after which they will head north for four to six weeks of cruising in Canadian waters.

The first two boats were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Pfeiffer's Bri-Der and Mr. and Mrs. Max Johnson's Mahalo. With the Pfeiffers were their two sons, Bryan and Dennis who were making their fourth summer cruise here, and Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Marshall.

This was the first cruise for the Johnsons, whose daughter, Lois is with them.

Sunday morning Mrs. Pfeiffer received word that her mother was critically ill. They returned to Grand Rapids by auto at once, leaving the Bri-Der here with the Marshalls and their sons.

Other boat owners expected by the end of the week were Roy F. Springer, Dr. Cullen Sugg, George Brown, L. B. Lee, Ed McCready, Dr. L. E. Holley, J. C. Carter, Hollis S. Baker, Russell Towers, Frank Baker, Hfgh Schaddelle, O. W. Lowrey, M. Van Oteman and Ed Lowe.

Bert Wolf, a regular cruiser in former years, was not expected to come North this summer.

The Johnsons and Marshalls praised the Charlevoix courtesy and welcome highly.

North Shore Makes First Trip Under New Ownership

Peaver Island folks Monday had a free excursion to Charlevoix on the first trip of the North Shore under her new owners, the Lyons Navigation Co.

Tuesday morning she left here at 9:15 with the first mail lauded under the new four-year contract. The complimentary trip was a good will gesture by the new owners, as well as providing island residents with a day in Charlevoix.

Dick Lyons captained the North Shore on the trip, but from now on his brother Jack Lyons, will be the captain. Art Larsen is the chief engineer; Jay Lyons is the deck hand.

The summer schedule calls for the boat to leave here at 9:15 a.m. and start back from St. James at 2 p.m. The tentative fall schedule, starting Sept. 1, and the spring one will start the boat from St. James at 7 a.m. and from Charlevoix at 3 p.m.

The Lyons brothers are seeking another boat now, a larger and faster one, which they hope to have on the run by next spring.

No reservations are required for cars on the North Shore, Dick Lyons announced. If there are more cars than can be handled on the regular trips, the boat will make an extra trip or trips to take them to the Island.

Ivan Porter Will Not Lose Crushed Arm

Ivan Porter who has been working at the stone quarry is not going to lose his right arm. Last Friday afternoon he had the misfortune to crush his arm in the machinery while working. It was thought amputation might be necessary. Wednesday morning an operation was performed and the arm will be saved.

State Alone Controls Rules On US-31

Full responsibility for making traffic surveys and putting up new traffic control signs or lights on Bridge street, Michigan or Petoskey avenue rests entirely with the State Highway Department.

According to City Supt. A. H. Leitch, these streets are part of U. S. 31 and so neither the city nor state police have any jurisdiction, other than police, over them.

Four Masses on Sunday Beginning July 6 and continuing through July and August, four Sunday Masses will be held at St. Mary's church.

Temporary Bridge May Be Placed, Put in Use in Month

Traffic likely will be rolling over the new and temporary detour bridge here a month from now and work of tearing down the 46 year old swing span will be started.

That is the expectation of E. R. Luettke, head of the Luettke Engineering Co., which is co-contractor with the Lamb Co., for the work here.

Near the end of July the new temporary span now being built at Sturgeon Bay, Wis., will be floated here on a barge and swung into position. This bridge will be pivoted at the north side of the channel, its south end carried on a pontoon and swung back and forth by cables.

The temporary road will be at about the same level as the present highway. Across the channel it will be carried on 15 foot timber frames to the high ground on the north side where it will curve up the bank and past the

State Table Toppers Will Hold Annual Convention Here

Charlevoix will be host to a state convention this summer. Through the efforts of Harry Turner of Charlevoix and Al Bennett of East Jordan the Michigan Table-Top Licensees Congress will have their state meeting here July 29 and 30.

About 100 members are expected. Holding the convention at Charlevoix was decided upon last Tuesday when the State Executive Board met at Caro. This will be the first time the state meeting has been held here.

One factor which helped bring the gathering to this section is the fact the organization is considering the purchase of property hereabouts to serve as a permanent headquarters and as a vacation resort for the members.

Membership of the Table-Toppers is limited to owners of taverns, hotels and inns in Michigan. Its chief purpose is to help run the tavern business in a law-abiding manner, cleaning up or preventing abuses which reflect on the whole liquor business.

Judge Marx Buys Tallman Property

Judge R. F. Marx, of Cincinnati and Charlevoix, has bought the Tallman place on Lake Charlevoix.

Situated 7 miles from town on the Boyne City road, the place includes lake frontage, a summer lodge and considerable land. The house now is being cleaned and made ready. When this work is done, Judge Marx plans to return here for the summer.

He also plans to have some dredging done at the dock there so that the Panchara III can be docked there as well as at Round Lake.

Congress Candidate Visits Charlevoix

William B. Forsyth, Republican candidate for nomination as successor to Cong. Fred Bradley, was a Charlevoix visitor Monday.

President of the Lady Edna Cosmetic Co., of the Soo, he is 53, a college man, manufacturer, owner of a farm at Rosedale and has had ten years experience in Washington representing his company and industry in legislative matters.

Miller Delivers Four New Cruisers

Four new 1947 Chris-Craft have been delivered by Harold Miller, local distributor, this season. Clarence Mills of Cincinnati and South Arm has a new 25 foot model; Thomas I. Smith of Lansing a 27 footer; and Samuel Freedman, Cincinnati and Peaceful Valley, a 36 foot cruiser. George T. Smith of Lansing and Boulder Park, a 33 foot boat.

Kiwanis Club to Have Meetings At Noon

Starting next Monday, the Kiwanis Club will hold its weekly meetings at noon at Shady Corner.

They will start promptly at 12:15 and end at 1:15.

Charlevoix to Be in Traverse Parade

Charlevoix will be represented in the Traverse City Centennial parade Thursday of this week.

The small schooner, "Victory," built by Allie Moore, has had a new paint job. A cradle has been built for the boat by one of Gordon Freedman's men and was taken down on a truck through the courtesy of the Freedman Aircraft Co. and drawn in the parade.

Charlevoix girls, dressed in old fashioned costumes, rode the float, which is called Miss Charlevoix. The girls are Donna Sternberg, Joan Stevens and Shirley Saur.

The school band also went down for the parade.

State President Will Address Farm Union

The Charlevoix County Farmers Educational and Co-Operative Union held its June meeting at the Hayes Town Hall last Tuesday evening.

Forty-five members and guests attended. Three petitions were approved and ordered dispatched. Two went to the Michigan senators at Washington, asking them to work for the adoption of two measures: the Family Farming Act of 1947 and the National Soil Fertility Act.

The third petition was to Gov. Kim Sigler asking him to veto the Callahan Bill.

The July Farmers Union meeting will be at the Norwood Local Union Hall the evening of July 22. State President Sam Martin of Stanton will speak. The meeting is open to all farmers and others interested in farm problems.

A pot luck supper will be served at the meeting.

Saturday evening Mrs. Freedman opened her home for a meeting attended by the solicitors who received their material and instructions for the drive.

The refreshment table was decorated with spring flowers.

Three Named for Two Places on School Board

July 14 a date to remember—is the day of the annual school meeting at the high school.

At this meeting matters pertaining to the Charlevoix public school system will be discussed by the school board and the people of the community.

Reports will be given by the secretary and the treasurer and from the library.

Petitions have been returned to Supt. Roy G. Bennett for Bonnie Nickerson and Fred Willis, incumbents whose terms expire this year, and for Harold Tutten.

Dutcher & Johnson Install New Case

Dutcher & Johnson, this week installed a large new frozen food display and storage case.

Made by the Hussman company, the case now holds the store's stock of Birdseye frozen foods. It has the sliding top doors which help to maintain the cold inside, and yet make it easy to see or pick out packages.

Colonial Inn Opens For 27th Season

Friday night will mark the 27th year that O. Gatti has opened the Colonial Inn here.

The same staff is back this year as last.

Mrs. Gravuer on Way Home from China Relief Post

After thirteen months of service in China with the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration Mrs. Henrietta Gravuer of Charlevoix is returning to the United States.

Mrs. Gravuer arrived in China in April, 1946, and was assigned to UNRRA China headquarters in Shanghai as a food supply officer. Her work was concerned with the inspecting and control of the UNRRA food sent to China.

"Travelling widely in this country, she inspected distribution of food to the destitute war-victims in remote, interior areas. Much of the food brought into China from foreign ports was new to the Chinese. It was one of Mrs. Gravuer's responsibilities to instruct them in the use of foreign foods."

For many years Mrs. Gravuer managed resort hotels in the northern states and in Florida. She served for thirty-eight months with the American Red Cross in the Southern Pacific and Philippines. For eleven consecutive summers she managed the Belvedere Hotel in Charlevoix.

Officer To Help Would-Be Citizens

Residents of this area who want to become naturalized or get information or help can obtain it Monday and Tuesday at the Court House.

An officer from the Department of Justice will be there from 11 a. m. Monday and from 9 to 11 a. m. Tuesday.

He will interview all applicants and help in filling out applications to file with Clerk F. R. Bulow.

Christ Church Starts Summer Schedule

Services at Christ Episcopal church will be held at 11 a. m. starting this Sunday and continuing through July and August.

These will be conducted by Rev. John K. Coolidge of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. Through the two summer months Sunday School will be at 9:45 a. m.

Work to Start This Year on State Street Site

Construction of a new $75,000 telephone building in Charlevoix is scheduled to begin this year as part of the Michigan Bell's $49,000,000 program for 1947.

C. L. Johnson, district manager, made the announcement for Sam McCool, publicity director for the Bell Company.

The new one story building will be erected across the street from the City Hall on the newly purchased Ward and Smith properties. It will be constructed of limestone and is designed to harmonize with the city hall. Earl A. Young has represented the company in the real estate transactions.

A large public office is included in the proposed building as well as repair equipment for the new long distance cable from Grand Rapids to Petoskey.

The present switchboards will not be moved when the new building is completed, but the new dial equipment will be installed and the changeover from manual boards made at that time.

Walter Moore Buys DX Service Station; Plans New Body Shop

Walter Moore now owns and is operating the DX Service Station at State and Antrim, formerly operated by Roy Melms.

He purchased the building from the Thielen-Clemens Co., taking possession of the property Tuesday.

With the added room now available, he plans a complete rearrangement and enlarging of his auto service.

The new quarters will enable Moore to have a complete body service, with the bumping and painting done entirely apart from the repair work and storage.

The body service will include body and fender repair, frame straightening, front end and wheel aligning and painting. General repair work will continue to be done at the present garage.

He will continue to handle DX products and will give lubrication service as well.

First Lutheran Service to Be Sunday

With all preliminary work completed, the Lutherans of Charlevoix and surrounding territory will hold their first service Sunday.

The service will begin at 1:30 and will be in the community room of the Charlevoix City Hall. It is planned to hold services every Sunday at this same time.

Rev. H. F. Krach, pastor of Zion Lutheran church in Petoskey, will be in charge, and also of the future organization of a new Lutheran congregation in Charlevoix.

Fr. Zielinski Will Go To Hospital

Father Raymond Drinan, retired Navy captain and chaplain, will replace Father Leo Zielinski, present pastor at St. Mary's church here until the latter returns from St. Joseph's hospital, Mt. Clemens. Father Drinan retired recently after 21 years in the Navy.

Werner to Hold Court

Judge George V. Werner of Kalamazoo, who has a summer home here, has been named to preside at the term of Circuit Court which opens here Aug. 11.

Coming Events

July 3—The Charlevoix Chapter SPBBSSQA will hold a joint meeting with the Traverse City chapter at the Park Place Hotel.

July 3-4-11 meeting at Bernard Methodist church at 8:00 p. m. Enrollment for summer work.

July 3—Pilgrim circle will meet with Mrs. Charles Holmes on River St.

July 28—Past Matron's Club at home of Mildred Webster.

July 31-Aug. 1—Methodist ladies bazaar and baked goods sale at Milton Block's store.

Good News On the Music Front

News that the Supreme Court had upheld the Lea Bill, intended to curb Cesar Petrillo in his musical dictatorship of this country, was welcome, particularly to folks who know of the long fight which Joseph Maddy of Interlochen has waged against him.

The law, heaven knows, is badly needed. It's needed both to curb Petrillo and as proof that the American people can be pushed only so far.

The story of the Petrillo-Maddy fight is like that of John Paul Jones, of Robert the Bruce and other famous ones who didn't know that they were licked.

From the start Cesar had all the trumps and was playing with stacked cards. But that made no difference to Joe Maddy. Petrillo had attacked the musical school kids of this country and until he was licked on that point, Maddy would keep on fighting. What others counted as final defeats Maddy only shrugged off as minor setbacks. He needed Congressmen, talked from one coast to the other, roused the parents, and won the Lea Bill.

It just goes to show that if a man with a idea refuses to be licked he can win.

Needed: A Good Suggestion

How many residents of Charlevoix know that the park opposite Antrim street and the Lakeview Hotel is officially the city's Memorial Park?

That each tree there was planted in individual memory of one of the Charlevoix boys who died in World War I?

Yet those things are true. But there is nothing to identify the park for what it is, nor to give the names of the dead.

The other day the subject was brought up and one of the 1917-18 veterans put the situation neatly:

"Something should be done. What we need is a simple idea for showing what the park is and giving those names. Who has an idea?"

We're passing on that query. Has anyone a good idea of how this dual task can be done now and fittingly?

machine, and made up a batch of custard. All servings were "on the house" and the place was simply a popular one.

Charlevoix members of the Northland Shrine Club had an enjoyable time Sunday. They went to Mackinaw Island for the afternoon and then on to Old Chimney Inn at Cheboygan for a turkey dinner. About 30 Shriners and their wives from Boyne, Petoskey, and Charlevoix made up the party. Those going from Charlevoix were S. E. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Foster, Mr. and Mrs. James Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bridge. Mr. Coleman is president of this Northland Club. The members enjoyed a horse and buggy ride around the island, all but Irish, who missed going in the survey with the fringe on top. The group will be coming to Charlevoix for the fall meeting.

Sally Burgeon arrived home in the wee sma' hours Tuesday night, coming from the East where she has been for the past ten days visiting relatives and enjoying the beauty of that section of the country. During her absence the boys have taken over and have done the cooking. Mike has really gone to town from all reports. According to the salaries that a good chef gets nowadays, it pays a fellow to know how to cook.

Mrs. W. B. Stuart of Toledo, Ohio, is here for the summer at two much surprised folks in town—Art Nettleton and a certain young chap who hailed from West Virginia. Art went over to the Courthouse in the morning. Unlatching the door he noticed the doors of the old fire hall open. Funny, he thought. A quick survey of things disclosed the fact that the room had a sleeping occupant. He closed the door and slipped the lock. Then calling Sheriff Floyd Ikens, they further investigated things. The young man said he had hitchhiked from Detroit, had got in late and couldn't find a place to sleep, so he helped himself to the court house. He was taken over to the jail and finger printed. Nothing was disturbed and no doubt all the man wanted was a place to lay his head, but he had a pretty hard pillow—a box of directories.

This is the time of the year when folks are beginning to get those camp letters from son telling of the wonders of camp life and what big things they are doing. Surely camp directors have big jobs on their hands, for they have a real lesson in human equations to deal with. Some folks expect these directors to straighten out the defects in their children that they have allowed to develop for years. It is no wonder that camp directors feel like tearing their hair over some of the material that is sent to them.

More and more folks are coming to their summer homes in Charlevoix. However, there is room for many more.

Mrs. W. B. Stuart of Toledo, Ohio, is here for the summer at the Belvedere. She has spent many years here. Don't forget that July 14 is the night of the annual school meeting in Charlevoix. Every taxpayer and interested parent should be on hand. When persons are not present at such meetings they should not complain if things are not done to suit them. Understand that May Dowling of Chicago has a hobby that would be sure of interest to editors, a hobby file, or shall I say files and files of interesting clippings. Sorry we did not meet the lady.

Congratulations to the Walter Moore's. There is a new baby girl. I think house and is daddy proud as a peacock. Mrs. Lou Comfort says that she has been on every island on the lakes between Mackinac and Wisconsin and there are a goodly number of them. It was Mrs. Lota Coulter who told us that the beautiful tree in bloom at her house was an English hawthorn. Since then in riding about town we have discovered that there are more of them. Are they every things of beauty now in full bloom?

More Michigan Avenue folks who have arrived are the Arthur Weiss's from Flint and the Hamilton Moses family from Chicago, Ill. Mrs. Els Hokin of Chicago is also at her home at 312 Nettleton, having been here about ten days. You know the old quip about the "cobbler's children never having shoes, and the butcher's children without meat." Well, Harold Miller has proof that the editor's family has no paperdenly appeared at his door and asked if she might borrow his Courier for a few minutes as she wanted to look up a classified ad. It's a small wonder that folks didn't hear Harold's hearty laugh way down town.

Camp Charlevoix has been a busy place during the past week-end when boys started arriving for their summer session. "I'm spreading joy," said Neile Hammond, Charlevoix's city treasurer, as she stood in line at the Post Office. "I'm sending out tax notices." And we glanced quickly at the box of envelopes knowing that one of them would be said news for us, too.

It was the word "Anwechiwin" that attracted our attention on a station wagon on Bridge street Monday noon. Approaching the man we were held enough to ask him its meaning. It's Indian and means "Page and contentment."

The owner of the station wagon was Dr. George Buttrick of New York City, a summer resident at Sequanota, of whom we had heard a great deal. Imagine our surprise when he said (after we had introduced ourselves) "we get the Charlevoix Courier in New York and I enjoy reading it much more than the New York Times."

John Bard and young Charles Bergen came from Chicago to spend two weeks vacation at the home of Mr. Bard's sister, Mrs. William E. Black on Mason St. Dr. and Mrs. Nels W. Bard returned to Chicago Friday after spending a few days with Mrs. William Black.

Capt. Joe Howard is a busy man these days with all the boats coming in. Yes, sir, he is right on the beam too, when it comes to getting information. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brittan and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Burke of Detroit are visiting at the Lance Neff home. Mrs. Lillian Hayward afforded several Charlevoix women a chance to meet some of her Sequanota friends when she entertained at her home Friday afternoon at a dessert bridge. Ma, her Livingston went home with the head prize as well as the traveling prize. Mabel Goddard won the consolation.

Thrills! A gal walked into the office this week and after taking a second look with the thought of "where have I seen that face before" discovered that I was looking at Helen Marling Supernaw, wife of Jack Supernaw. Mr. Supernaw was voice teacher in the days when we were students at Olivet. What a gal-vest we had! Our deepest sympathy to the James Sherwoods in the tragic loss of their two sons.

Mrs. Pearl Webb of Elkton and her daughter, Farnaleen Wisceop of Philadelphia arrived Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Molet. Other visitors at the Molet home were Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Smith of Bangor. They were also visitors at the home of Mrs. Thomas Demeroukes. Mrs. G. F. McCallum and her son and daughter of Chicago are visiting Mrs. Earl Miller for two weeks. Mrs. McCallum and Mrs. Miller are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harris and children, Susan, Virginia and Jon are at the Fred V. Tyler home on Alice street for the summer. They come from Chicago. Mr. Harris is a tennis pro. "Pop" Rosen of St. Louis and Mrs. E. A. Seassgood of Cincinnati are among those who have arrived for the summer at Sunset Lodge. Marian Benninghoff arrived last Friday from Ann Arbor and will

Kiwanis Convention

Rev. W. D. Wood, president of the Charlevoix Kiwanis Club, left Monday for Chicago where he will attend the annual convention of Kiwanis International being held there this week.

He will then continue to New York where he will spend three weeks at the Carnegie Institute. On July 6, Rev. Stephens of Ithaca Bay, will fill the pulpit at the Church of God for the morning service. Rev. H. C. Hammond will have the evening service.

The other ministers who will fill the pulpit during the absence of Rev. Wood will be announced later.

New Teachers Arrive In City

Leonard Burns, who will teach in the Junior High next year, arrived in Charlevoix with his family Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns and their two children this summer are living at one of the cabins belonging to his father, George Burns. Meanwhile they are househunting, their furniture having come from Hemlock on Monday.

School Society Elects Three Board Members

Ellsworth—Peter H. Timmer of Charlevoix, Jacob Vandenberg of Atwood and Dr. J. VanDellen of Ellsworth were chosen as board members of the Ebenezer Christian school society at an annual meeting held last week Monday night at Atwood Christian Reformed church.

Five Cub Scouts and their Den Mothers enjoyed an all-day picnic at Whiting Park Wednesday. The 29 Cubs and their 7 guests enjoyed games and swimming. The Cub den was Den 1, Mrs. Robert Aldis, Den 2, Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, Den 3, Mrs. Russell C. H. Den 4, Mrs. Lawrence Swanson, Den 5, Mrs. Gordon Dennis, Mrs. Leroy Allers and Mrs. William Fessenden furnished the transportation.

he working at the Belvedere this summer. Charlevoix needs a life guard at Perry Avenue Park and at the corner of Park and Front streets. It is most likely to have children crossing the street, coming up from the beach. Already there have been several close calls, an accident is a possibility.

"Advance Design" Chevrolet Trucks Make Bow at Plant and Here

The truck that will bring true post-war design to the highway is already here at the Charlevoix Oil Co. It is the same machine as the original model shown rolling off the assembly line at the Janesville, Wis., plant and being christened by the "Queen of America's Dairyland" Betty Gene Gardner of Ridgeway, Wis., while the Wisconsin governor, Oscar Rennebohm, looks on from the right.

The new advance design of Chevrolet includes such features as greater operating efficiency, load carrying ability, highway safety and cab comfort.

EVELYN EVANS WEDS DEAN A. FIEDLER

A ceremony at the Pilgrim Holiness Church June 24 at 8:30 p.m. united Evelyn Eileen Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans Sr., of Ellsworth and Dean A. Fiedler, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fiedler, of Charlevoix.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. C. Alexander, before an altar decorated with white baskets of snow-balls, spirea and cream iris. The church was lighted by seven-branch candelabra.

Organ music was furnished by Rev. Alexander. The bride and groom sang "Oh Promise Me" to each other as she approached the altar. The groom also sang "Always." At the close of the ceremony, as the bride and groom knelt, Robert Fiedler sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown was white with a Chantilly lace fitted bodice. The skirt of tulle was fashioned with a full train.

Alice Hillman, cousin of the bride, was the maid-of-honor and wore a pink silk and net gown. Ruthanna Alexander was the little flower girl and wore a floor-length gown of blue silk.

Robert Fiedler, brother of the groom, was the best man and James and Mark Fiedler and Leonard Hillman Jr., seated the guests.

The bride's mother wore pink crepe with a flowered hat. The bride-groom's mother wore a pink print.

Assisting at the reception which followed at the bride's home were Mary Lou Black, Shirley Black, Joy Van Zant and Joyce Fiedler all of Charlevoix.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fiedler, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Fiedler of Holt, Mich.; Miss Mildred Johnson of Mancelona, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hillman and daughter Ann of Fowlerville, Mich.; Mrs. Albert Cummings of Lansing and Mrs. Edith Cummings of Flint, Michigan and Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Swanson and son, of Flint.

Army Enlistment Period Raised

Effectively immediately, there will be no more 18 month enlistments for the Regular Army, according to information received by Sgt. Wm. Gemmill, local Army Recruiter.

The 18 month period has proven unsatisfactory to both the enlisted and the Army in that it does not allow sufficient time for the highly specialized training and schooling which the present day soldier is required to have. New enlistment periods are two, three, four and five years.

Min-Eva Damage Suit Goes to Federal Court

Suit for $23,000 damages resulting from the Min-Eva fire of last year have been transferred to the Grand Rapids federal District Court.

Basis for the change is the fact that the Protane Corp., does interstate business. Other defendants are the Protane Gas & Service Co., and John Mol. Faulty tanks is charged by the plaintiffs as the basis of the suit.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wojciechowski, Pearl L. and Minnie B. Scott, and two insurance companies.

Mrs. P. R. Ross and her brother and sister, Arlie Smith and Mrs. Art Knowles of Bellaire were in Detroit last Tuesday and Wednesday. They were called there by the death of their brother-in-law, Calvin Clark.

CARD OF THANKS

To all who by word, or by deed, extended to us comfort and assistance in our time of loss, in grateful appreciation, we thank you. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sherwood and family.

Now to catch more fish! . . .

Catching fish depends on two factors. First, you must know where the fish are. Second, you've got to get your boat to the good spots. We can help you do both.

With a Scott-Atwater outboard motor on your boat, you are always assured of quick, trouble-free transportation to the good spots.

The amazing flexibility of Scott-Atwater outboard motors permits you to speed to a distant point or idle down to the creepiest crawl for trolling, with even, positive power at any speed.

With your new Scott-Atwater motor on your boat, you'll want to know where fish are being best. Come in for a copy of the sensational new book, "How to Catch More Fish", by Frank R. Steel, which tells you how to locate fish by the temperature of the water.

"HOW TO CATCH MORE FISH"—by Frank R. Steel, national authority on fishing. Tells you how to fish by revolutionary method of water temperature. Specific instructions concerning at a vast depth will be according to temperature of water. 48 pages, illustrated in color, diagrams of lakes and streams. Come in for your copy.

Newlywed Visit Relatives Here

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Miller of Flint visited last week with relatives and friends while on their wedding trip.

Mrs. Miller, the former Emma Lou Durance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Durance of Flint and Mr. Miller were married at the Bethlehem Methodist church, Flint, at 11 a. m., Tuesday.

The bride, who wore a gray suit, white accessories and an orchid corsage, was attended by her sister, Mrs. Dale Case. Perry Miller was his brother's best man. After a wedding trip through northern Michigan, the couple will make their home in Flint.

The bride is the granddaughter of Jone Durance of this city.

Potoskey Friend Is Honored At Shower

Mrs. Robert Miller and Mrs. Robert Livingston entertained with a stork shower on Friday evening honoring Mrs. Joseph Koboski of Potoskey.

The party was held at the home of Mrs. Emerson Hall. Games were played with Mrs. Wesley Wells and Mrs. Koboski winning the prizes. Refreshments were served late in the evening. The honored guest received many gifts.

Thelma M. Stafford Married In Detroit

Thelma M. Stafford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Stafford, formerly of Norwood, was married to Kenneth Thompson of Farmington, Mich., at Nardin Park Methodist church, Detroit on June 23.

The bride wore white satin with net skirt with satin appliqued flowers and beaded tulle with finger tip veil and carried a white Bible with a white orchid.

The new bride was her sister, Betty De Stafford, who wore blue tulle and net with pink satin bows. The bridesmaids were the bride's sister, Shirley I. Stafford and cousin, Fern Parker.

Ed Ash, friend of the groom, was best man. Joe Weir, brother of the bride, was ring bearer. A large number of guests were present.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To the People of the 11th Congressional District of Michigan

It has been a privilege as well as an honor to serve the people of Northern Michigan in the Michigan State Senate. It is most gratifying to know that my services have met with your approval to the extent that I have had no opposition for that office in recent years.

A vacancy has suddenly developed in this Congressional District. Because of my long experience in City and State Government I feel I am qualified to represent this District in the National Congress. I am therefore offering my services and announce my candidacy to fill this vacancy.

I am nominated on a list of 11 names to elect a representative to represent the interests of Northern Michigan in the National Congress. I appreciate the many endorsements of my work in the Michigan State Legislature and shall consider an honor and a privilege to serve you in the National Congress if it is your wish.

May I solicit your active support to secure my nomination in the Special Primary Election to be held on July 29, 1947.

EAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

With the opening of the summer, the tempo of the island is to quicken. Each day, the brings former islanders re- turning to spend their vacations, new visitors who have homes and others who have come for their first visit. Meeting during the summer months is interesting and a lot of fun. Myrtle Dettelson of Cleve- land, Ohio came three weeks ago to the Bonner's cottage. She had as her guests, Louise Neff Marie Madden, also of Cleve- land, and Mrs. Hugh Ray have come to spend the summer at the cottage "Raycraft" at the end of the island. The are from Chicago and have come to the island for 30 years. Warren Wilmet is here to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher. Little daughter, Karen is 8 too. Helen Anderson of Pontiac was out to leave after spending week on the island. She was guest of the Hanleys. Mary Terine and Terry Hanley re- turned on the boat with Miss An- son to spend a couple of days at the Blue Post Inn. Jack Coopers and two chil- dren have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Gallagher. Robert Gallagher, Muskegon, Robert Delaney, Grand Rap- id for the Wojan-Gallagh- wedding.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

The Picnic Was a "Hug" Success!

Our local Wild Life League went on a picnic Saturday, and I went along to cover it for the Clarion. Monday, folks kept stopping me, and saying: "Must have gotten out of hand, that picnic!"

"Nonsense," I says. "It was mighty pleasant and congenial. Just beer and hot dogs, cheese and cider." And then they show me the headline reading: "WILD WIFE PICNIC HUG SUCCESS."

Of course it was Elmer, my type- setter, who had made the misprints: But in my face red! It's only hecause folks are so temperate and well-behaved in our town, that they could afford to take the whole thing as a joke.

From where I sit, even a news- paper editor's entitled to a few mistakes. And since I reported that they served a moderate bev- erage like beer, I'm sure nobody thinks the picnic was the least bit wild, or anything but a huge suc- cess—and I mean huge!

The real low-down on the Midwest gasoline situation!

More motor cars and trucks are on the road in the Midwest today than in 1941 and the per car con- sumption of gasoline is higher.

Twice the volume of gasoline is being consumed by tractors on Midwest farms as in 1941.

The railroads have four times as many Diesel locomotive units today as they had in 1941. Diesels burn lots of fuel oil.

Additional hundreds of thousands of homes, old and new alike, are depending on fuel oil for clean, economical, efficient heat.

More planes arrive and depart from Midwest airfields. Every plane has a hungry maw that must be filled with high octane gasoline.

It takes a lot of tank cars, pipe lines, and barges to bring crude oil to the refineries to produce the needed gasoline and oil.

Steps taken to increase supplies

Thousands of new wells have been drilled and are producing additional supplies of crude oil. Hun- dreds of miles of new pipe lines are in service. Our refineries are producing as never before—operating at new high levels.

Standard Oil's expansion program was blue- printed long before there was any break in the war clouds. It has been driving ahead ever since V-J Day.

Refinery projects already completed have added 13% to our crude-running capacity and other pro- jects now under way, although behind-schedule be- cause of shortages of materials, will increase this figure to 27% by next spring.

Great progress has been made. But all this is not enough.

Why the Midwest feels the pinch

Last winter's heavy demand for heating oil caused Standard Oil to make large increases in fuel oil yields at the expense of gasoline. As the result of this and heavy gasoline demands this spring, Stand- ard's available inventories of gasoline at refineries and terminals are 30% below a year ago.

Also, in the Midwest transportation is a serious bottleneck. At present there just aren't enough pipe lines and available tank cars to carry to the Midwest the extra load of crude oil and finished products from distant producing and refining areas. Here again, projects which will help the situation by next spring are under way.

How Standard Oil is handling the situation

In the interest of fair treatment of all our custom- ers, we are putting into effect at once an allocation system for the distribution of our gasoline during June, July and August. Throughout these months the total amount to be supplied Standard Oil Agents and Dealers in the Midwest will be approx- imately equal to what they received in 1946 dur- ing the same period. Since gasoline sales are running millions of gallons ahead of last year's, Standard Oil Agents and Dealers, in turn, will be unable to meet an unlimited demand. This tem- porary allocation system is adopted for your pro- tection.

We frankly do not know how long this situation will last. We are laying our plans on the belief that it will continue through August—perhaps longer.

We do not believe the situation is serious enough to justify the introduction of formal rationing.

How you may be affected by this situation

There may be times when your service station dealer will be out of gasoline temporarily. Even if you are not always able to buy all the gasoline you want, there should be no need for real hardship. Although this is vacation time—if folks will take it easy, will reduce unnecessary driving, and not drive at high speeds that consume a lot of gasoline —everybody should be able to stay on a fairly normal basis. Nobody needs to become panicky. Hoarding, which is dangerous, would only aggra- vate the situation.

Standard Oil Dealers are cooperating wholeheart- edly in this temporary emergency, which there is every reason to believe will not be of too long duration.

We earnestly bespeak your cooperation with your favorite Standard Oil Dealer. Both he and we want to see you often—and for a long time to come.

New Owner Wants To Call Deal Off; Says Fraud Was Used

Suit to rescind a sales contract, get back down payment money and turn back the property has been filed in circuit court here by Mrs. Winifred Briggs.

It is against Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Turner and Clifford H. V. Turner. The property is the former R. E. Olds place on Michigan avenue, sold last winter by the Turners to Mrs. Briggs.

Mrs. Briggs in her bill of complaint, claims she was sold a large bill of goods. It lists how she saw an ad in the Detroit News on Nov. 15, advertising the place, how she called Clifford Turner, came here, looked it over and went back determined not to buy.

She wanted a place, the record says, for a boarding school. But Turner told her the place was ideal for a summer hotel. She states that both Clifford and later his parents represented that she could get $25 a day per person for a room and breakfast, that summer folk were anxious to spend, that the summer population is 30,000; that the heating and plumbing systems were in good shape.

None of these things, she says, has proved true. So now she is asking that the deal be called off, her $10,000 down payment be returned to her. R. L. Lewis is representing Mrs. Briggs. The case likely will be heard here in the August term.

Volunteer Workers At Clinic Praised

Mrs. Dean Davenport, who was chairman of the Volunteer workers for the recent Crippled children's clinic, has received the following letter from Miss Jessie F. Wadell, chief of the Bureau of Orthopedic Nursing:

"I wish to express for the Michigan Crippled Children Commission our appreciation and thanks for the effort you made to help us with the orthopedic field clinic held in Charlevoix on June 17.

"It was a difficult job, I know, to secure that number of volunteer women to contribute a day's service.

"I know you will be interested in the fact that both Doctor Badgley and Doctor Jerome stated that they had never been to a clinic which was as well organized and ran as smoothly as yours. We are always very much indebted to the volunteer personnel in the local community because without them it would be impossible to hold these clinics. You and your assistants have played a vital part in providing service for many crippled children in this state.

"Thank you again for your fine assistance and cooperation."

Girl Scout Leaders Plan Coming Year

A special meeting was held Friday evening by the officers of the Girl Scout Council directly responsible for the Brownie Day Camp, held at the Auto Park, and the Intermediate Girl Scout Troop Camp held on Beaver Island.

These officers were the president and vice-president, Mrs. Robert Richards and Mrs. Charles Bleha; the camp chairman, Mrs. C. M. Bice and Mrs. Leroy Allers; and the directors, Mrs. Clarence Odmark and Mrs. J. K. Reed.

Many ideas were exchanged, along with reports given as to the method used in the two camps this year, showing great success in the conduct of this out-of-doors experience for the Girl Scouts of Charlevoix, in spite of the very small funds with which the Leaders had to work. It was the consensus that, inasmuch as Scouting has become so large and important a part of youth education and recreation here in the past year, it is going to be the principal job of the Council the coming year to obtain a more equal share in Community Chest Funds.

At this meeting it was announced by the Registrar that the Girl Scouts of Troop No. 1, with Mrs. Reed as leader are to re-register by July 10. It will be necessary, therefore, for these Scouts to get their 50c registration fee to either Mrs. Reed or Mrs. Charles Bleha by that date.

Good Fishing on Island

Karl Erber returned Sunday from Beaver Island with stories of good fishing. While there he and Glenn See went fishing on Barney's Lake. They threw back twice as many as they kept, leaving the lake with only the legal five apiece. Later Karl and Hollis Drew went to Garden Island but didn't land a one. Mrs. Erber, their three children and Martha Young are staying at the Erber cottage on Sand Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Steinhurst returned to Elkton Friday after spending several days here on business.

News of folks, your neighbors and mine... but did you know that—

Louis Halstad, Jr., is sailing with the Fox boat down at Chicago these days. Mr. Fox expects to be coming up here with the craft the last of this month.

Mrs. John Tytus of Middletown, Ohio, is at her summer home on the Belvedere. She is looking forward to the day, which will be soon, when her son, John, and his wife, two children, Denny and Hubert and their nurse arrive from Cincinnati to be with her.

The beach was full of folks Sunday. Some braved the waters of Lake Michigan which are cool, as yet. It was a big week-end in Charlevoix, the streets were full, the parks were full, it was a regular mob scene in the groceries. There could not have been empty tummies this last week, according to food purchased.

It's fun seeing the many convertibles these days. Enjoy them especially, if putting down the top does not put the nose up in the air. Had an interesting chat with a Norwegian woman in the park this week, who said, that our lakes and many kinds of craft reminded her of Norway.

Joe May found an interesting object recently. It was a pearl handled knife with a blade about 3 1/2 inches long. It was found on top of the crib under the stone of the old railroad bridge. The knife must be all of 50 years of age for the crib was built at that time. In spite of the exposure the knife is in pretty good shape, with the blade but a little rusted. Well, finders are keepers and Joe has a good keepsake.

Daisy Dierker arrived home last Friday from Detroit to spend her two weeks vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Dutcher. Daisy works for Bell Telephone in Detroit and while here expects to spend her time at the beach getting one of those beautiful tans. Jars of peonies are gracing the front desk these days. A vase of lady-slippers on my office desk is a thing of beauty. These Michigan orchids are just as beautiful as those wild orchids I saw down in Mexico. Have been surprised to see so many of the frontier pants worn by girls on Main Street. The western style of dress is rapidly creeping eastward.

The park facing Round Lake is surely popular now. The shuffle board courts are full, folks are making good use of the seats, some just sunning themselves, others taking time to read the papers from home, others just sitting, sitting. Flooray, the new telephone directories are out. Won't it be wonderful when the new Bell Telephone building will be constructed.

Congratulations to Traverse City on their grand success in putting over their Centennial. Where did so many folks hail from. Bet there are a lot of happy wives these days since their husbands shaved off their beards. Never realized there were so many kinds of sun glasses. Went to go into a store Monday just as a woman called out to her husband across the street, "I want to get a Hershey bar." Can you remember when one couldn't buy a Hershey bar for love nor money. It must be fun living in an apartment on Bridge Street these days and watch the passing parade. It was Hans Burns' voice that called "No, U turns, No U turns" as a woman attempted to swing her car around at the Four corners Monday afternoon. Have you noticed the license plates from the many states that are found on the cars nowadays.

Clara Rose was using a walking iron on his broken leg the other day, and is now down on Main Street with the boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schlessinger of Detroit are now at their home on Michigan Ave. With them is their daughter, Mrs. Richard Green. Dr. Green was here for the week-end and left Monday for home in New Orleans, La. Incidentally Dr. Green is an outstanding bridge player in the south and is well known in expert bridge circles.

A picture of real peace and utter relaxation was little Paula Gouta, who was all of six months old Saturday. She is a bundle of real blessedness. This is the time above all when we of Charlevoix can show our visitors what it means to be in such a beautiful spot. Remember it is the little kindnesses that we do and say that folks will remember as they leave us in the fall.

"Should have had 60 pounds of candy kisses for the Miss Charlevoix float at Traverse City last week," said Irish Coleman. "It took all the store had as it was, but that was only 29 pounds." How they went. That's a snazzy new truck the Model Home laundry is driving. Walked into the Chamber of Commerce building the other day just in time to hear a man say, "Always

We're Glad You're Here

For three quarters of a century folks have been coming to Charlevoix for the summer. And once again this year we who live here the year around are glad to welcome you who are with us for a time.

Hundreds of the old friends have returned. They have become a part of the community and their being back makes life here more enjoyable for all. Others are newcomers or comparatively so, and to them we of Charlevoix extend a cordial greeting.

We want to become better acquainted, to have you feel also that Charlevoix truly is your summer home where a warm welcome always awaits you.

For this truly is a friendly place for those who appreciate what Charlevoix is and what it has to offer—and who are willing to cooperate in maintaining those values. It is a community which believes that good manners, and courtesy, and consideration for others can go with a good time and a summer vacation.

So to all the old friends, and to all those whom we sincerely hope will soon become old friends also, Charlevoix extends a most friendly and sincere welcome.

School Addition to Be Discussed Monday Night

A building program which will include the addition of four rooms to the present elementary school building; the enlargement of the manual training shop and the proposed new high school will be among the topics discussed at the annual school meeting on July 14.

Election of members to the school board will take place during the day with the polls opening at the high school building at 10 a. m., and closing at 5 p. m. Bonnie Nickerson and Fred Willis, incumbents and Harold Totten are on the ballots.

Anyone who is a qualified voter, i. e., 21 years of age, has resided in the state for three months prior to the election and a citizen of the U. S. may vote in the election. Voters are warned that they must vote during the regular hours the polls are open and not at the evening meeting. Residents of all districts which have become a part of school district No. 1 are eligible to vote. That includes residents of the city of Charlevoix, Charlevoix, Hayes, Marion and Norwood townships.

Other matters pertaining to the school, such as the proposed closing of the Charlevoix Public Library during the summer months; secretary, treasurer and librarian reports will be discussed at the meeting which will open at 8 p. m. Monday in the high school assembly room.

Pomona Grange Will Meet At Rock Elm

The regular Charlevoix County Pomona Grange meeting will be July 19 at the Rock Elm Grange Hall.

Business meeting starts at 9 p. m. William Brake of Bellaire, Michigan State Grange Deputy, will speak at the program afterward. A potluck lunch will be served after the program.

Iron-ton's famous ferry had a record three day run of business. During that time 1750 cars were hauled across the South Arm. Walter Jarvis is Bud Gill's new assistant, replacing Willis Cross.

New Frozen Custard Stand Completed, Starts Serving Public

Now open and serving Frozen Custard, Wolf's confection stand is occupying the site of the former Sinclair station on Belvedere.

Remodeled during recent weeks by George Wolf, it has been redecorated and made into a modern and super-sanitary food place.

Helping Wolf at the stand are his sister, Mrs. Carl Schultz, and

Pre-School Clinic To Be Held Here Next Wednesday

A pre-school clinic will be held at the grade school building Wednesday.

Dr. Albert Litzenberger and Mrs. Marion Rice of the district health unit will be in charge of the one-day clinic, which will be open from 10 a. m. to 12 noon and 1:30 to 3:30 p. m.

The clinic is primarily for children entering school this fall but other children will be accepted for physical examinations and immunization.

Council Repeals No Parking Rule

The no-parking rule on Dixon and Michigan avenues was rescinded Monday night by the city Council at the request of a delegation of residents from those parts.

The no-parking rule they argued would work a lot of unnecessary hardships on them. The rule was repealed except for the corner of Michigan, where parking creates a traffic hazard.

Mayor Karl Erber was back in the head chair.

At the next Council meeting July 21, Ernest Miller of the Charlevoix Lumber Co. will ask for a permit to build a new shed on the site of the recently wrecked one. Since this type of building there is forbidden by the zoning ordinance, he will ask for a special permit by the Council.

Ben Yettaws Mark 49th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Yettaw celebrated their 49th wedding anniversary July 4.

Guests who called during the day were Mr. and Mrs. Ward Gennett, Elaine Williams of Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Yettaw, Jr., and children of Petoskey, Mr. and Mrs. Penny Gennett, Marion See, Mrs. Eva Pearl, Mrs. Marguerite Sipple, Ada and Billy Golden.

Current Users Asked to Help by Spreading Load

Users of electricity in Charlevoix likely will be in trouble before long unless they are willing to do a little voluntary cooperation, warns A. H. Leitch, city superintendent.

The electric load here is building up faster than it ever has before. In fact it is fast approaching the absolute producing limit of the present generating plant. When that point is passed, some folks will have to go without current, Leitch says.

The city's only course when the load overpasses the plant capacity is to cut off entire circuits or sections of the city until the load drops back. If this has to be done, the various circuits likely will be taken in rotation.

There is one alternative, Leitch explains. The peak is from 5 to 6 p. m., when dinner is being cooked. As far as possible, he suggests that housewives use their ranges and other heavy electric consumers before or after that peak hour. If the load can be spread sufficiently at the peak time, it will be possible to give uninterrupted service.

Next summer, he adds, there will be none of this. By then he expects the new unit will be working and there will be plenty of current for everyone.

Jean Hardie Wins Legion Scholarship

Jean Hardy has won a Guy M. Wilson Scholarship awarded annually by the Michigan department of the American Legion, and will attend the Michigan College of Mines next year.

He has a letter signed by former Governor Wilbur M. Brucker, chairman of the Scholarship Committee, explaining the award. It is for $150 a year; he can attend any Michigan university or college, and according to American Legion members here, is renewable for four years as long as Jean makes acceptable grades.

He has chosen to go to mining college, and will enroll this fall at the Sault Ste. Marie branch which all freshmen have to attend.

His application was sponsored by the Legion Post here. It is unusual for a graduate from as small a school as Charlevoix to be awarded a Wilson scholarship, which usually goes to students from larger places.

Department Saves P. M. Paint Car

Quick work by the Charlevoix fire department prevented serious damage in a Pere Marquette freight car on the siding here Tuesday morning.

A box car, used by the company as traveling paint shop in which paint, turpentine, gasoline and painting equipment were stored caught fire when a workman lighted a match at the door of the car and set fire to spilled turpentine.

The fire spread rapidly to the other parts of the car and considerable damage was done to ladders and other equipment. It was feared for a time that the drums containing the inflammable material would explode but by pouring water into car this was avoided.

Mrs. Albert Routley, Jr., Passes Suddenly

Mrs. Albert Routley, Jr., 26, died unexpectedly Sunday at a Traverse City hospital where she had been a patient for two weeks. She had been in ill health for more than a year.

Marjorie Lucille Radle was born in Detroit, Nov. 23, 1920, and came to Charlevoix four years later. She was graduated from the Charlevoix high school in 1939. On Nov. 10, 1943, she was married to Albert Routley, Jr., and they resided here and in Muskegon.

Besides her husband she is survived by a daughter, Patricia, 3; her mother, Mrs. Esther Radle, of this city; two sisters, Mrs. William Snyder of Detroit, and Mrs. Douglas MacDougall of Charlevoix; a brother, Edward S. Radle of Whitfish Bay, Wis., and a half-brother, Elmer Radle of Hartford, Conn.

Funeral services were held at the See Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Tuesday with Rev. Jackson Turner officiating. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

Summer Cruise Guests Begin to Arrive at Harbor Here

Typical of the cruise groups visiting Charlevoix is the one above from Grand Rapids, taken the morning of the Fourth. Shown on the Bo-Bea are Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Springer and son, Ross; Mr. and Mrs. Claud Goldner and Dr. and Mrs. M. R. E. Stevens, all of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Lee, daughters, Maxine and Louise, and son, Stan. The Lees, from Muskegon, came on the Lady Marie. The Grand Rapids group all were here on the Bo-Bea.

Michigan Cleaners Open New Plant Here Thursday

Michigan Cleaners, the new dry cleaning plant just built by Jack Foster and John Knight will open for business Thursday.

In its new building at 207 West Garfield, its new equipment has been installed. Built of Modern Croc panels, the new structure is fireproof, and designed for the plant it houses.

The owners plan to offer 24 hour service. Driving the truck will be Chick Gallagher. Working at the plant will be Wilma Kruhik, Caroline Sharrow, Bob Herrington, Clare Martin, and the two owners.

Band Will Play 14 Numbers Thursday

The program which the City Band will present Thursday at 8:30 p. m. in East Park will be: Star Spangled Banner, Coast Guard March, Iron Count Overture, Gardes Dr. Corps, Gold and Silver Waltz, American Leader, Little Bit of Pop, In Silent Thought, March of Youth, Shoutin' Spirits, Old Church Organ, The Klaxon, Fillmore, Lastspiel Overture, Kuhn-Bela March—Independencia.

Board Wants Names Of 25-Year Residents

The Board of Commerce is compiling a list of all summer residents who have been coming to Charlevoix regularly for 25 or more years.

S. E. Coleman asks that all those who qualify phone or send him their names.

Cruiser Christened As Owner Takes Third Swing At New Craft At Yard Here

Christened with a bottle of champagne, the Nice Girl II was launched at the Hamilton Boat Yard July 2.

Belonging to Mr. and Mrs. George T. Smith of Boulder Manor and Lansing, she is a 36 foot Chris Craft. Mrs. Smith swung the champagne. The first two swings failed but the third cracked the bottle.

Many Changes Mark Upper Torch Lake Area

Things are booming at the north end of Torch Lake with new buildings newly completed or going up, new cottage areas planned, improvements made and resort places busy.

Promoting such things as the new fire equipment and fire hall is the Upper Torch Lake Association, composed of owners of property from a mile south of the Creswell school, north around the end of the lake and south on the east side to the Yacht Club.

Unlike many similar associations, membership in this is open to farmers, home owners, and resort operators. The only qualification is ownership of property in the upper Torch Lake area—and a willingness to work together.

Among the changes being made and made in the area are these: Dr. Charles Shipman of Flint is developing West Point Shores near the Creswell school. A real estate development, he is also building and selling new homes there.

At Torch Haven north of Dr. Shipman's, Ogle Munard is adding a fifth cottage to his establishment besides building a ranch style home for himself.

Arthur Nickola has completed a new two story home. He is a returned serviceman.

Reuben Persons at Torch Lake Inn, at Torch Lake village, has started building and equipping a modern laundry which will give year around service.

Also at Torch Lake village, J. G. Gutshall has improved his overnight cabins.

Mrs. W. G. E. Smith, who owns and operates Torbay, has added fireplaces to her overnight cabins.

P. W. Jordan has modernized his Shady Lane cabins.

Clyde Baker has a new home under construction, and Prince Hillman has just finished one for himself next to it.

C. M. Patch at Torch Lake Shores is operating nine house-keeping cabins.

At Was-Wa-Gun, Joe Bradford and Toby Grace have redecorated the interior of their establishment and installed new cocktail tables.

Mrs. H. M. Johnson at Pine Hill Nursery has two new modern cabins.

Paul Wolf of Blue Heaven has two new ready developments. To the south he has subdivided some acreage he bought in 1940 and so far has sold seven lots. All are 100 foot lots.

Ernest Suppe of Cincinnati owns three, completed a new home in 1946 and is building another this year. His brother, (Continued on page 6)

Bay View Pastor To Preach Sunday

One of the guest speakers for the summer at the Congregational church will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning.

It will be Dr. L. T. Larsen, who comes here from Bay View. His subject will be "The Eternal Triangle."

Dr. Larsen has spoken here eight previous summers and is well known to Charlevoix citizens as well as the summer people.

Methodist Bishop To Address Kiwanis

Bishop Raymond J. Wade of the Methodist church will be the speaker at the meeting next Monday noon of the Kiwanis Club.

Rev. Gaylord Howell is in charge of the program. The club meets at 12:15 at Shady Corner.

This Monday the speaker was McDonald Benton, brother-in-law of Rev. Ansley Claypoole, who told of the Chicago convention.

Coming Events

July 9—The Carey-O'Brien circle will meet with Mrs. Miles, 8 p. m.

July 9—The Margaret Dullois circle will meet with Mrs. Dorothy Dixon, 105 W. Lincoln, 2:30 p. m.

July 11—W. C. T. U. picnic at City Park at 1:00 p. m.

July 14—Annual School Board meeting, high school assembly room, 8 p. m.

July 23—Past Matron's Club at home of Mikred Webster.

July 31-Aug. 1—Methodist ladies bazaar and baked goods sale at Milton Block's store.

A Sure Way to Lawlessness

Organized labor in this country, at least in part, is laying out a dangerous course for itself these days. It objects to the Taft-Hartley law as being bad, injurious, unfair, arbitrary, unjust and half a dozen other adjectives.

Now labor may be right. Although on the face of it, it does seem that this country needs some sort of similar curbs over labor that the Sherman and Wagner laws give it over industry.

But right or wrong, the Taft-Hartley bill was enacted constitutionally and is part of the law of the land. Labor is justified in saying what it thinks, in protesting against the law, in doing everything in its power to have it repealed by established process. If the law is bad, it should be repealed.

But as long as it is law, labor should obey it and not allow the executive boards of two of its largest unions to "vote not to comply with the unconstitutional limitations of political activity that are written into the bill."

It is for the Supreme Court, not CIO boards, to decide on constitutionality. Until that time, labor would do well to obey. For if one law can be scorned, others can too. And among those others are many which protect labor.

Let's Not Go Too Far

One of our besetting national faults is an inclination to go too far. As a people we show our Teutonic heritage in never knowing enough to stop at the happy medium.

Here in Michigan when the provision was added to our basic law allowing the people by referendum to amend the state constitution, it was hailed as a forward, democratic step. But the luckless of the idea never imagined that Michigan would go to the lengths of legislating temporary whims into the constitution to suit pressure groups.

It's true that a lot of the things enacted needed doing at the time—but ten years bring changes and then the state is stuck with an obsolete rule which cannot be changed.

Now comes news that the Michigan Education Association is planning to back two more constitutional amendments. Maybe it's a good thing. Perhaps before long the public will get fed up on the foolishness of legislating by amendments, will send better men to Lansing, and then let them make the laws under a new and needed constitution.

A referendum on a law is a fine thing. But this continual amending is evil.

Capt. and Mrs. Harry McRae have as their guests their daughters, Mrs. Frederick B. Smith and son of Bay City, the Misses Merle and Mamie McRae, who arrived Monday from Detroit and their granddaughter, Carol McRae of Cheboygan.

Letter To the Editor

TAKE YOUR TIME

I travelled via motor many miles through Virginia where the way-side signs read: "Take Your Time."

We observed the instruction, and such a trip! We enjoyed the great open spaces, the mountains decked with summer's glory, the prime, quaint towns, of which some stood as in Civil War days, the great estates and the miles and miles of low stone fences built by the slaves.

We did not miss such details of our circuitous journey and we derived much pleasure in our 200 mile day, our energy conserved.

"Take your time" is a hard rule for us Americans to follow as we love to complete what we have begun in a brisk and business-like style—and what have we to write home about?

Try artful touring in Michigan . . . "Take Your Time" and see our many resorts with every type of recreation available.

"Take Your Time in Charlevoix the Beautiful. Enjoy any kind of relaxation—Golf on rolling green fairways . . . Swim in sun-warmed water . . . sail and drink in our washed air . . . fish in an angler's paradise . . . go sight-seeing—enjoy delightful weather.

Charlevoix extends every personal interest in your comfort to make for a distinctive long-re-membered vacation. Rest, relax, love every minute. Come—"Take Your Time."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Fish Bites Woman!

Willie Wells was coming home from Seward's Creek the other evening with a string of trout, when a stern looking lady (visitor at the Boxwood Inn) stops him, and tells him a man his also could be better occupied than catching fish.

Willie tells her off real good-naturedly by saying: "Perhaps you're right, but if those fish had kept their mouths shut, they wouldn't be here." (At that, says Willie, laughing out loud, she looked just as if a fish had bit her!)

Blabbing mouths never cause anything but trouble. Nobody who knows the facts would ever criticize Willie's right to go fishing on his one day off—any more than they'd deny his right to come home to a mellow glass of beer.

From where I sit, the slower we are to criticize—and the quicker we are to recognize another's tastes, the better we'll get along together—whether those tastes apply to beer or fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Harris have moved into the Henry Hammond house this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ager and Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Shultz from Lansing who have been camping at the Charlevoix tourist camp were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. Ager's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ager.

Mr. Paul Leitz and sister, Clara from Detroit spent the week end with their brother, Hope Leitz. Mrs. C. J. Fiedler and son, Jim took Joyce Fiedler to Vicksburg Friday where she is attending the Nazarene Girls' Camp this week.

Murray School

Mrs. Grant Furgeson

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hendrickson of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Della Sweggart of St. Petersburg, Fla., were Sunday callers at the Jake Mindel home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Mindel all of Detroit are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Mindel.

Albert Speigl has moved in his new house. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Burkle of Petoskey and Floyd Baker spent the Fourth at the Furgeson home.

Douglas Knudsen is excavating the basement and preparing to build a new wing on their Eveline Orchard home.

BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

The excursion on the North Shore over a tired, happy bunch disembarked last Monday evening amid throngs of Islanders eager to hear about the trip. Excursions are a wonderful institution, but free excursions are really wonderful. This was quite a nice gesture of the Lyons brothers to their new customers and friends.

The Mary Margaret is continuing to make daily trips to the island. Imagine, two boats each day!

Frank Keenen, Grand Rapids, is visiting his brother, Father Fabian, for a week or more.

Archie LaFreniere, Sr., has returned from Iron Mountain where he went to visit his mother. Grandmother LaFreniere rallied from her illness, but her condition is still grave.

Barbara and Arthur Ilustion of Ypsilanti spent a few days last week visiting Barbara's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nackerman and their many friends on the island.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith and son, Jerry of Pontiac, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lawson and daughter, Patty of Plymouth and Mrs. Leana McLane of Holly spent a week of fishing on the island. They made their stay at the Nackerman farm on Darky Town.

Patsy Webster went with her Scout Troop to Mackinac Island for a week's camping trip.

The King Strang's lobby was transformed from an ordinary lobby into a concert hall one evening last week. Assembled were a group of talented musicians, guests of the hotel, who gave generously of their talent and thrilled those who had the luck of being present. The Baird brothers, Mark and Mitchell, both capable pianists and Mrs. Bruce Parkhill, Evanston, Ill., concert violinist, treated us to a musical feast.

Lillian Connaghan, who has been working in South Bend is home for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick deBoel, Springfield, Ohio, spent a week in Allen's cottage. Over the 14th Elizabeth Oster and Robert Koontz, also of Springfield were her guests.

Joan Spalding flew in from South Bend to spend the week end with her parents.

Not having a barber shop on the island, at least one in each family is forced to become a tonsorial artist. Mrs. George Partt, is rated as an A-1 barber and is now awaiting an honorary degree from the trial and error barber college. Honorable mention goes to Lloyd McDonough, who specializes in thinning and trimming in lady's tresses and woolly heads of little boys.

After years of trying to entice a piano tuner to come to the island, Mark Baird is here to stay until all "tin-panny" sounds are out of island pianos.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Cull and son, Rolland, are visiting relatives in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hefflin, Chicago, have arrived to spend the summer at their cottage, Isle Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Teeter, Chicago, are visiting the Vest McDonalds.

Bertha McDonough flew to the island to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pat McDonough.

K. K. Landis and G. M. Erler, geologists from the University of Michigan, were based here on the island for several days examining rock formations on Beaver and nearby islands. The geologists, in a special Deisel powered boat, started from Sandusky, Ohio and have worked their way up in this direction, visiting islands along the way for their research work. Landis' son, Robert, made up the third member of the party.

A good time was had by all who attended the dance in the Parish Hall July 4. The dancers stepped lively to the music of Archie's orchestra from Boyne City. The committee in charge were Lloyd McDonough, W. J. Gallagher, Frank Nackerman and James H. Gallagher.

Mrs. Glenn Logan and mother, Detroit, arrived Friday to spend the summer.

Mrs. Josephine McCord, Chicago, is here to spend the summer in her log cabin.

The island is at its height in beauty for all the many visitors (and there are so many). A large variety of wild flowers are in bloom and the abundance of rain has kept the grass and trees so fresh and green.

By Mrs. Leo Berg

Remember the annual Hayes township school meeting July 14. Sgt. Scovil Evers and Sgt. Keith Scovil of Selfridge Field were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Anandus Evers. The latter took them as far as Gaylord on their return trip Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Byron Chew spent a short vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Addison Chew. Rev. Chew is now pastor of the Church of God in Hartsville, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. John Struthers celebrated the latter's 64th birthday by giving their children and grandchildren their first plane ride July 6.

Dr. Berneta Block from Juneau, Alaska, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anandus Evers. She will be remembered as the doctor who gave the lectures on cancer a number of years ago to the Hayes township ladies. She is now working for the Michigan State Health Department.

Camp Charlevoix Has Record 110 Boys Enrolled As 21st Season Gets Under Way

Singing "Once Again We Come Together", the 1947 session of Camp Charlevoix started June 30.

Of the 110 boys, 52 had come by special buses from the Detroit area, while 58 had already arrived. Florida, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Minnesota, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan are represented.

Chief and Mrs. Lewis Reiman are starting their 31st year in camping and the 21st at Camp Charlevoix. Ken Smith, associate director and director of activities, is back for the tenth year, as is Harry Bingham of Charlevoix, business manager. The staff includes Don Bacon, Bob Richards, Bob Nicholson, Bruce Linderholm, Bill McAninch, Jerry Hoefler, John Pielmeier from the U of M; Chuch Southwick from Wooster, Fred Kassner, University of Detroit; Ivan Wilson of Oberlin; Bud Gallup of Ypsilanti; John Ellsworth from Duke; Phil Steding from Columbia; Jim Harrison, Jim Kendall, Hamilton Scharff of Albion; Bill Reed, Al Reynolds, Keith Jolliffe, MSC.

Barney and Grace Englehart are caretakers; Mrs. MacFadden and Mrs. Turner from Ann Arbor are the cooks. Kendall Cummings from Arizona is the cowboy, assisted by Barney Ewbank from Albion. The riding classes are getting more minded already. Don Neisch is heading the handicraft shop, and his wife, Becky, is tutoring.

On July 4 the annual Camp Track meet was held, marking the start of the Green and Gray competition. Bob Laugherty of Florida and Pat Pfarrer of Dayton were elected leaders of the senior section; Don Pfarrer and Gordon Maitland of Grosse Pointe the intermediate section; Larry Reisinger of Corunna and Alan Mendelsohn of Detroit, the Juniors. Ohio took a large share of the events, for among the winners were: Karl Miller, John Woods, Bill Craig, Bob Lambrecht, Hayward Allen, Gordon Maitland, Dick Taylor.

Elected to the Camp Council as cabin representatives are: Tod Woods, Bob James, John Sternberger, Johnny Logie, Duffer Smith, Jan Rouda, Bark Hickox, Bill Taylor, Sam Thompson, Don Pfarrer, John Woods, Ross MacDonald, Phil Woods, David Ball, sang "Fairer Lord Jesus."

Sunday afternoon at the swimming meet the Grays won most of the events. The individual winners were: Jay Kusmarck, Bob Laugherty, John Woods, Don Sigismund, Dave, Smith, plus relay team members. In the evening a vesper service was held by candle light in the club house.

That afternoon Mrs. Reiman had had the first of the weekly Music Appreciation periods.

As has been the custom in years past, the camp clocks have been set back an hour so that campfires can be held after dark. Visitors consequently should remember that 8 o'clock elsewhere is only seven o'clock at the camp.

We know how he feels

Ever try to go down a moving stairway that's coming up? It takes time to get to the bottom.

It's like our trying to get to the bottom of our waiting list for telephones. For nearly every order we can fill we receive another new one. So there are still a lot of people waiting.

We are making headway. More and more cable and central office equipment are being manufactured and installed. And we're installing telephones faster than ever before. If certain materials weren't so hard to get, the job would go even faster.

There's still a long way to go and a lot to be done before we can give service to everybody who wants it of any time and any place. But we'll keep right at it until that day comes.

Three Cars Involved In Bridge Street Crash

Several people narrowly escaped injury Tuesday morning in an accident involving three cars near the Curtis Market on Bridge St.

The accident occurred when a car driven by O. A. Solomon pulled away from the curb in front of the Blue Post Inn and was side-swiped by a second car going south on Bridge st. and driven by Arnold Iglauer, of Cincinnati and 113 River St.

The second car then collided head-on with a northbound third car driven by Ida Boucher, of Lincoln, Neb., and 153 Belvedere Club.

Improvements Made In Torch Lake Area

Louis has another place under construction. Carl Schroeder of Detroit has a year around home just finished. Dr. Stanley Hammond of Portland, Ind., has completed a summer home and Lee Gilbert, Saginaw, has finished grading and is ready to start construction on his summer place.

Norman Thompson of Adrian has purchased an old home nearby and remodeled it.

The Blue Heaven dining room has been leased to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bauer of Dearborn for 1947 and '48 with an option on it for three more years. They have installed new electric refrigerator and deep freeze units, and are serving home cooked meals.

Across US-31 on the lake side, Woll is adding to Blue Heaven. The family house was enlarged last year, and he has the lumber and material on hand for two new housekeeping cottages. This will make a total of 11.

This summer the entrance and drive lights were moved. Ted Browe doing the wiring, Glenn Pemberton installed new electric refrigerators in the cottages. Other new equipment includes apartment style gas stoves, electric water heaters, asphalt tile floors in all cottages, and a second deep well.

He also plans to build a new concrete dock with gas facilities for motor boats, a summer home near the water front for himself, and next summer to install shuffleboard and tennis courts.

The second Woll really development is the purchase of a 100-foot strip from the Mudge estate just north of his present land. He plans to divide it into lots.

Just beyond this the two Mudge brothers, Earl and Grant, have platted another area. Using a plot 800 feet wide between the road and the lake, they have laid out a road with lots on each side, a total of about 12. A bulldozer has graded the street.

At Eastport many of the homes have been modernized or redecorated this year. The new firehouse provides quarters for the new truck, for the full time fireman and a place for association and community meetings. Mr. Potter is putting up two prefabricated cottages. South of town, the Ladd Land Co. has a real estate development for which the roads are built.

The Frye Store has finished and is renting a new apartment upstairs. Within the last 12 months Charles Bennett has bought the garage and Berton Bennett the lunchroom at Eastport.

On the east side of the lake several residents have built new cottages and the three summer camps are going full blast. Hayo-Went-Ha, the state Y. M. C. A. camp, has a record enrollment of 159 with a staff of 40. Four Way Lodge, operated by Mrs. M. F. Eder, has 153 girls and a staff of 40. A weekly feature of their program is an all-day ride by 50 girls around the head of the lake to the Blue Heaven dining room for noon lunch.

Fairwood, belonging to and directed by M. F. Eder, has 106 boys and is following a more varied and balanced program this year than last, when the major emphasis was on Indian dances.

Bill May Deny G-I Aid to Enlistees

High school graduates who are postponing entry into the Regular Army should pay special heed to the bill recently passed by the U. S. Senate stopping all G. I. Bill benefits for those who enlist in the Armed Services after August 31 of this year. Should this bill pass the House of Representatives the educational, loan, on the job training and other benefits of the Bill of Rights will not be available to those who enlist after that date.

Special Primary Will Be Held On July 29

July 29 has been set as the date for a special primary election and August 26 for a special final election in the 11th Congressional district to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Con. Fred Bradley, Rogers City.

The dates were set last week by Gov. Kim Sigler who designated 4 p. m., Tuesday, July 8, as the final time for filing nominating petitions by candidates.

Republican candidates must file nominating petitions containing at least 394 signatures while Democratic candidates will require at least 220 signatures, according to Secretary of State Frederick M. Alger, Jr. The percentage of petition signatures is based upon the one percent of the number cast for secretary of state last November in the 11th district.

Mrs. Vern Baumbach was home several days last week.

Farm Topics

By ED REBMAN

Use 2-4-D Cautiously

Home gardeners who use the new weed-killer 2-4-D on anything except dandelions, plantain, suares.

The potency of 2, 4-D, which makes it so effective as a weed killer, also makes it dangerous in the hands of a careless operator and may result in the destruction of some of the most prized garden plants and shrubs.

Members of the honeysuckle family are especially sensitive to 2, 4-D. While these plants may not be killed outright by 2, 4-D, the leaves may be distorted and new shoots twisted and bent.

Plants sometimes outgrow the effects of the 2, 4-D.
Flower stalks of rapidly-growing plants are also easily affected.
Violets may develop long, twisted stems, so that the flowers lie on the ground and are of little use as cut flowers. Tulips, narcissus, gladiolus, and hyacinth plants are resistant to 2, 4-D but the flowers may become twisted and lose their beauty.

Dr. C. L. Hamner, of the MSC horticulture department, cautions that only a small amount of 2, 4-D will upset the growth of commercial preparations carried by a breeze may produce the contortions commonly associated with 2, 4-D.
Valuable plants may be covered with newspapers or thick muslin while spraying of lawns is in progress.

Sprayers that have been used for 2, 4-D should be cleaned before other types of spray materials are used. A mixture of one part of ammonia to 100 parts of hot water (1/2 cup ammonia to 3 gallons of water) is a satisfactory cleaning solution. Fill the metal equipment full and let soak for 18 to 24 hours. Rinse thorowly after soaking.

Vegetables Need Proper Scalding
Before Freezing
Is it better to use steam or boiling water for scalding vegetables before home freezing?

Three green vegetables, peas, asparagus and broccoli, have been tested with both methods by the United States Department of Agriculture. Frozen peas which had been scalded with boiling water held more of their fresh flavor and vitamin C than those scalded with steam.

On the other hand, broccoli which had been steam-scalded was more palatable and had more nutritive value than water-scalded broccoli. The asparagus, which you are getting ready for home freezing now, will be as good scalded with steam as with boiling water.

Proper scalding is most important in preparing vegetables for freezing. Vegetables which are not properly scalded will lose flavor and color in storage.

Scalding vegetables for freezing is a delicate process. It must be enough to stop enzyme activity, but not enough to soften the vegetables and give them a cooked flavor. To steam vegetables take about fifty percent longer time than to use boiling water.

At a session of said Court held at the Court House in the City of Charlevoix, in said County, on the 27th day of May, 1947.

Present: Hon. Earl C. Pugsley,
Circuit Judge Presiding.

On reading and filing the Bill of Complaint in this cause and the Affidavit of Charles H. Men-muir attached thereto, from which it satisfactorily appears to the Court that the persons herein-above named as defendants, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, successors, and assigns, are proper and necessary parties defendant in the above entitled cause, and,

It further appearing after diligent search and inquiry that it cannot be ascertained, and is not known whether or not said persons above named as defendants are living or dead, or where any of them may reside if living, and, if dead whether they have personal representatives or heirs living or where they or some of them reside, and further that the present whereabouts of said defendants are unknown, and that the names of the persons who are included therein without being named, but who are embraced therein under the title of unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, successors and assigns, cannot be ascertained after diligent search and inquiry.

On motion of Charles H. Men-muir, Attorney for Plaintiffs, it is ordered that said defendants,

Harry Hurlbut, and Margaret
Gish, and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, cause their appearance to be entered in this cause within three months from the date of this order, and in default thereof, that said Bill of Complaint be taken as confessed by the said persons named as defendants, their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, successors and assigns.

It is further ordered that within forty days plaintiffs cause a copy of this Order to be published in the Charlevoix Courier, a newspaper printed, published and circulated in said County, such publication to be continued therein once in each week for six weeks in succession.

Earl C. Pugsley,
Circuit Judge Presiding

Looks that stay looked at

- and Ability to match

Give yourself five seconds, and you know that here's car styling as up to the minute as the time of day.

Spend a few fast minutes to see why — and you spot both smartness right from tomorrow's designing boards and everything that should go with it.
Measure the reach and spread of that Buick bonnet, brim-filled with Fireball power.

Sweep your glance over the broad beam that spells roomy, the stretch that means easy-riding wheelbase, the size that tells of enough roadweight in end junee and jitter.

Here, you tell yourself, is something to see. Here are looks to hold the eye for seasons to come — and lively, durable ability to match:

... Rich abundance of smooth, hushed Fireball horsepower from a straight-eight kept young and lively by Accurite cylinder finish.

... Tireless coil springing on all four wheels, leveling all roads to boulevard smoothness.

... Riding poise from two steadying tons of roadweight — ease of handling from balance to draw a ballet dancer's envy. Soft, roomy cushions seating three apiece — finish that's the very last word in richness and taste.

Yes, it takes no time at all to show that you and Buick belong together, should go together steady — so what's holding you back?

After all, we can't do much about getting one to you till you make your wishes plain. You do that simply by placing your order — which will get equal consideration whether or not you have a car to trade.

TUCK AWAY PLenty: Roomy luggage compartments hold plenty — and high-lifting lids make steady to grab any piece.

Frank Noble Rites Held Here Monday

Frank Noble, 69, local ice dealer, died unexpectedly at his home early Friday morning.
Mr. Noble was born in Coral, Mich., on May 27, 1878, and lived in southern Michigan until coming here 30 years ago. In 1916 he was married to Mrs. Jennie B. Smith, who died in 1931. On Nov. 11, 1933, he married Mrs. Christiane Jones.
He was associated with the late Harry Widdfield in the ice business for many years and had operated his own business for about nine years.

Besides his wife he is survived by a step-daughter, Miss Marie Jones of Detroit; two sisters, Mrs. Mame Sanford of Detroit and Mrs. Charles Cedars of Harbor Springs.

Funeral services were held at the See Funeral Home at 2 p. m., Monday with Rev. A. B. Claypoole officiating. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

Morning Blaze Routs Lodgers

The Zack Whyte rooming house at 104 Antrim St. was badly damaged by fire early Friday morning.

It is believed the blaze started from a lighted cigarette thrown into a pile of old shingles at the rear of the house.

The summer kitchen and other rooms and their contents were badly damaged by the blaze which had been burning for some time before it was discovered. Included in the loss were the possessions of several roomers as well as household furnishings and large stores of food.

Charles Marshall, fire chief, would make no estimate of the damage.

THANK YOU

Our thanks to the Charlevoix citizens who have helped us have a playground on the North Side. W. C. Bellinger gave a softball; the Board of Commerce gave two others; Gordon Freedman contributed bases; Ivan Phillips and Forrest Sanford are giving another set; Harold Blain mowed the playground; and four citizens contributed $20 for more equipment. The North Side Kids.

Services Are Friday For Martin Kubis

Funeral services for Martin Kubis, 74, Norwood township farmer, were held at St. Mary's Church at 9 a. m. Friday.
Burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Mr. Kubis died Wednesday at the Charlevoix Hospital after a week's illness.
Born in Czechoslovakia on Nov. 1, 1872, he was married to Magelene Krakovsky in 1902. They came to this country in 1906 and lived in Pennsylvania until 1917 when they came to their present home in Norwood township.

Besides his wife he is survived by a son, John, of Cicero, Ill., a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Titus, of Traverse City; a brother, Frank in Czechoslovakia and six grandchildren.

The Tow Line

News of folks, your neighbors and mine... but did you know that—

Gene and Jean Wulfman are building a cabin at Pine Point. In the winter months Mr. Wulfman is head of the Vocational Department at Northeastern High School in Detroit. Mrs. Grace Brock of Detroit, sister of Mrs. Harley Ochs is visiting here and enjoying Charlevoix and her many friends.

Capt. Joe Howard says that already this year there had been 14 more boats in Charlevoix than the entire season last year, and last year was a BIG one. Speaking of the captain, have you seen this month's copy of "Lakeland Yachting"? There is a wonderful picture of the Charlevoix Yacht Basin (dollars to doughnuts, it's one of Bill Ochs). Opposite it there is a paragraph which reads: "Popular spot for visiting and loafing is the city yacht dock at Charlevoix, where yachtsmen are greeted by Capt. Joe Howard, well known harbor master. Trolling for mackinaw trout and steelhead is favorite fishing." Seems good to see Mrs. Judd Moore out again. It's sure brow-mopping time but it's perfect boating weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Klaus Anderson have had as their guests the past two weeks, Mrs. Anderson's mother and brother, Mrs. Anna Sorenson and Donald Sorenson of Quincy, Ill. "Well, how do you do it?" said a native of the other when Don Stelle told of catching two bass, and they were So-o-o-o long. Caught them in Lake Charlevoix, too. Mr. and Mrs. Steele hail from Monrovia, Calif. but thoroughly enjoy spending two months of every year in Charlevoix.

Mrs. Winnie Fineman of Los Angeles is visiting in Charlevoix. Mrs. Mary E. Hamilton is expecting her sister, Mrs. Emma Rogers this week-end from Flint to be with her for several days. Another "one man Chamber of Commerce" for Charlevoix is C. T. McClintock of Sioux City, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. McClintock are visiting their son and family, Dr. and Mrs. Robert McClintock. They came last summer and went into superlatives over the place and this summer they could not wait until it was vacation time again.

Mrs. Charles See is in Lansing visiting her son and daughter. Well, straw hats are at last into their own again. Mrs. Blanche Murray of Charlotte was a house guest of Mrs. Eva Blanchard during the past week.

Guy Zook of Jonesville (where the editors at one time owned a newspaper) was a caller at the Courier office Monday. Mrs. Walter Richardson of Anaheim, Calif., is visiting old friends in Charlevoix. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Richardson and son, Douglas of LaCrosse, Wis., are also visiting here. Mrs. Harvey Campbell went to Ann Arbor last week to be with her daughter, Mrs. Phillip Jones, who underwent an operation. Mrs. William T. Eldridge and Jane Eldridge, of Denver, Colo., mother and sister of Mrs. William Ratigan were house guests for the week. It was Mrs. Eldridge's first visit to Charlevoix.

Young Linda Gail, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Getch Campbell is starting out life being a true camper. Last week-end she left the Charlevoix hospital with her mother and went to their cottage at Pine Point. According to Mrs. E. T. Smith, grandmother, she is just about the best yet, and mighty cute. Mrs. Edith Harris accompanied Mrs. Campbell to the cottage to help her. Well, it was hair cutting time out at Camp Charlevoix and Monday afternoon. Main street was filled with boys wearing their Camp Charlevoix sweaters, getting those stray locks trimmed up.

Wonder how many folks remember the store of Fox and Miller? In looking through a book the other day Mrs. Bessie Mason found an advertisement of their latest in shoes. Funny pointed toe shoes buttoned up one side were the rage at that time. Also discovered a most interesting book of poems at Mrs. Mason's apartment. It was written by Mrs. Aldin Chamberlain, once a resident here, whose home was near the mouth of Old River. Got several chuckles from her long poem on "Our Lovely Charlevoix."

Have you seen the new Charlevoix stationery on sale at the stores and at the Courier office. The six beautiful sketches of (Continued on page 2)

School to Hire Architect To Plan Long Range Building Program

Business Promotion Group Is Revived At Beaver Island

The Beaver Island Association of Commerce, which has been dormant for about ten years, was revived last Tuesday evening when a meeting at the Parish Hall was held.

The officers elected were: president, Fred Spalding, vice-president, James W. Gallagher; secretary, Archie LaFreniere; treasurer, Frank Nackerman.

The directors elected were: James McCann, Earle Boyle, P. J. Elms, and Lawrence McDonough. Approximately 40 memberships were accepted at the meeting.

At a call meeting of the officers Friday evening plans were discussed for definite objectives to benefit the island.

Farm Bureau to Aid City Hospital Fund

Plans for a baked goods sale on July 26 were made last Wednesday night by the women of the Ironton Farm Bureau.

The plans were announced at the joint meeting of the Junior and Senior Farm Bureaus held at the Homer Crandall home. Nine juniors and 24 seniors were present.

The baked goods sale will be all day Saturday at the Brown Motors garage, starting at 10 a. m. Purpose of the sale is to raise money to furnish a room in the new Charlevoix Hospital.

Following the business meeting the group sang songs and enjoyed the hostess' refreshments. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Mathews Aug. 13.

Resort Rates Stay Steady Survey Shows

"Tourists and vacationists in Western Michigan will pay no higher prices for accommodations despite relaxation of rent control," said William Palmer, secretary-manager of the West Michigan Tourist and Resort Association.

The amended rent control ruling, he explained, does not apply to transient or tourist guests, but only to permanent guests. However, the Tourist and Resort Association has conducted a survey of both transient and permanent guest accommodations, which showed no intention of raising the rates.

Courier Goes on Boats As New City Service

A new service to Courier advertisers—and good will promotion for the community—was begun last week.

Every Thursday morning Capt. Joe Howard gets a bundle of Couriers. One copy is given to each newly arriving craft as it pulls into the harbor.

For the last two months The Courier plant has been printing the new magazine, "Northern Michigan Sportsman." It has been found that it is impossible to handle the magazine and give Charlevoix folks prompt printing service. Publisher C. E. Marcette of the magazine is looking for another place to have it printed.

Far Off Places Are Registered At Ferry

Folks from far-off places are riding the Ironton Ferry these days.

Bud Gill has registered cars from Anchorage, Alaska, Victoria, B. C., and Porto Rico.

He also asks that pleasure boats slow down while passing the ferry. The water is high and several times the ferry has been lifted high enough to break off the dock bumpers.

New Power Unit Is Expected In March

Charlevoix will be getting its new generator sooner than expected.

Supt. A. H. Leitch returned from Toledo Sunday with word that Rathbun-Jones expects to have the unit here in March.

Hiring a trained school architect-engineer to plan a long range school building expansion program for Charlevoix was approved Monday night by the 62 citizens who attended the annual meeting of School District 1.

The problem was outlined by Supt. Roy Bennett at the request of Board President Bonnie Nickerson. A high school building designed for 150 is handling 350 while 450 are crowded into an elementary school planned to take care only of a city and not a consolidated district.

Such conditions do not make for continued efficient education, he pointed out. Bennett then outlined four possibilities which would remedy or relieve the situation: 1. a new high school building; 2. start a sinking fund for such a building; 3. add four rooms to the north end of the present elementary school; 4. add a new shop and music room to the west end of the gymnasium wing.

The cost of the last would be about $22,000; of No. 3 about $50,000. Many questions and suggestions were put. To Mrs. Clyde Warner's query about an ag room, the superintendent said that the four room addition would make this possible.

Leo Carey, speaking for quite a group, urged that the gymnasium be enlarged. The meeting ultimately approved the proposals of Glenn Ingalls and Harold Totter that the services of an experienced architect be engaged, and overall plans made which would fit any present construction into the best eventual school plan.

Considerable discussion resulted over financing of the library. It was pointed out that the major use of the library is by adults and not by students for school purposes, and for this reason the city should bear a larger share of the operating cost.

It was decided that a committee from the City Council be invited to meet with a similar School Board group to study figures and try to agree on a more equitable division of outlay.

One startling fact was tossed into the meeting. It was pointed out that the school pays a higher electric rate than an individual who uses only a small fraction as much current.

"The school pays the highest rate in town. The city should at least give the school the same rate as other users," was the assertion.

Max Novak, chairman of the election board, reported that during the day 70 citizens had voted. Nickerson received 49 votes; Fred Willis, 63, and Harold Totter, 27. Both winners are members now.

Mrs. Walter Bergeon, Board secretary gave her report. Highlights were: insurance covered $3219.81 of the $4000 the new boiler cost last winter. Reopening of the library has been delayed by the inability to get women to clean up after installation of a new stoker. An ag department will be added when room and an instructor are available. A new bus has been purchased and another ordered. The Board wants to expand the music program next year. The hot lunch program served 48,468 meals. They cost the pupils 15 cents each. The Lenore Goldman Myer Fund gave free milk to all unable to pay for it. Total school census is 901. Enrolled in school were 798.

Treasurer E. D. Hawley's report showed the school as a $113,809.97 business. Capital expenditures during the year came to $16,866.57, with actual operating costs totalling $93,406.05. The detailed report will be printed next week, as will the report on the library.

Two other things were decided. The election next year will be from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. to allow rural citizens to vote just before the meeting begins. The rural vote was disproportionately low Monday.

The Board members are to receive the same salaries next year, $150 each.

Will Start Work in Hayes

The county's road grading crew is finishing a job in Hudson township and is expected to begin work in Hayes this week.

Kiwanis Officer To Preach, Speak Here Next Week

Frank O. Staiger

Frank O. Staiger, secretary-treasurer of the Michigan District of Kiwanis, will be here in Charlevoix Sunday and Monday. Sunday he will preach at the Church of God for Rev. W. D. Wood. His topic will be "Give Me Some Men." Monday noon he will address the Kiwanis Club at Shady Corner.

He is Mayor of Port Huron, served two years on the City Council, is a member of the City Planning Commission, City Pension Board and the St. Clair Board of Supervisors.

The ranking layman of the Port Huron Salvation Army, he also is deputy bandmaster of the Citadel Corps and for years was in charge of all Army youth activities in Port Huron.

Saturday Nighters To Sing At Concert

The Saturday Nighters, one of Charlevoix's SPEBSQSA quartets, provide a special number at the weekly band concert tonight at East Park.

The concert starts at 8:30 p. m. The program will be: Kiefer's Special, Kiefer, Trojan Prince Overture, Holmes Furniture City Band, Songleader The Glow Worm, Lincke Americans We, Fillmore Mayfair Cinderella, Ketybel Americans All, Caneva Diamond Crown March, Burt The Band Played On, Palmer Operatic Mingle, Berry Colonel Miner's, Rosenkrans.

Charlevoix Oil To Complete Building

Work has been resumed on the new building of the Charlevoix Oil Co., on Michigan avenue.

The 50 by 70 structure was started two years ago. Shortage of materials and a federal order held up construction until now. The new part will have display space at the Bridge street side. Back of that will be a parts room and then added service space. The front will be of plate and industrial glass, the latter to be installed as soon as it can be had.

Floyd Browns Buy Hemlocks Estate

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brown are the new owners of The Hemlocks, 2 1/2 acre estate on Park avenue and Lake Michigan.

Purchased of Hercules Gregory of Battle Creek, the Browns took possession last Thursday. They have moved across from their former, smaller home which is now up for sale. The deal was handled by Earl A. Young, realtor.

Farm Bureau Plans Picnic, Barbecue

A farm picnic for Antrim and Charlevoix counties and all of District 10 is planned for July 31 at Whiting Park by the Farm Bureau.

Larry Brandon, organization director from Indiana, will be the speaker. At noon a barbecue will be served. The picnic is open to all.

Don Campbell Has 26 Foot Higgins

Don Campbell has a new 26 foot Higgins cruiser, brought down from Cheboygan last week. It has two berths forward, a large cockpit, 125 horse Gray engine, a laminated mahogany hull, does 22 miles.

Big Prizes Will Be Offered on Sportsman's Day

Final plans for the Rod and Gun Club's big Sportsman's Day on Aug. 17 here are rapidly taking shape.

It will be an all-day affair. Five big competitive events have been scheduled so far. They include skeet shooting at 9:30, bait casting at 1:30, dry fly at 2:30 and wet fly casting at 3:30, archery at 4:30.

Registrations for these events must be made at the Board of Commerce office by Aug. 15.

More than $500 in prizes will be offered. Included is a Martin 60 outboard motor which will be given away that day.

The directors of the club are to meet Friday night.

The Rod and Gun Club also is offering prizes for the largest game fish legally caught in Northern Michigan waters. There will be awards for large mouth bass, small mouth bass, bluegills, lake, mackinaw and brook trout, steelhead or rainbow trout.

The competition starts July 17 and ends Labor Day. Folks with big fish are to take them to Ward's Fish Market for weighing. Pounds and not length will determine the winner.

East Jordan Mother Dies of Burns Tuesday

Mrs. Ivan Kinner, 25, of East Jordan who was admitted to the Charlevoix Hospital Friday for treatment of severe burns, died early Tuesday evening.

She was injured while building a fire in a kitchen stove with kerosene. In the resulting explosion she was severely burned and her 10 month old son was killed.

Besides her husband she is survived by three children, her mother, Mrs. Muriel Roberts of Traverse City, and two brothers and two sisters.

The body was taken to the Watson Funeral Home in East Jordan.

Mrs. Kinner was burned when she poured kerosene on a fire at 9:30 Friday preparatory to cooking breakfast for her children. Her 10 months' old son, Irving Charles was burned to death.

Three other children were asleep at the time and were carried to safety by neighbors.

Charlevoix Singers Win Petoskey Prizes

Two winning places were awarded to Charlevoix barber shop quartets last Wednesday night at the contest sponsored by the Petoskey SPEB.

First place went to the Northmen from Traverse City. Second was taken by the Cabin Boys and third by the Saturday Nighters, both of Charlevoix. They are: G. B. Saltonstall, Robert Miles, Dallas Henry and Al Young; Charles Hamlin, D. C. Nettleton, Young and Miles.

Also competing were quartets from Boyne City, Gaylord and Petoskey.

Heinz Offices Are Moved Over Abbey's

The district office of the H. J. Heinz Company here is in new quarters over Abbey's store, having moved from the VanPelt building.

The district comprises salting and receiving stations in Charlevoix, Antrim, Otsego and Emmet counties. Miss, Alice Hillman of Ellsworth has been engaged as office attendant. Field and servicemen are John Knudsen of East Jordan and Leo Debling of Petoskey. Maintenance and shipping men are Harry Barkley, Arthur Erfourth and Earl Brotherton of Boyne City. Howard Brumm is district manager.

Farm Union Plans Picnic On Aug. 3

A meeting was held at the John Hopkins home near Beulah to make plans for a Farmers Union picnic of several of the northwestern counties to be held Aug. 3.

The exact date will be announced later, but it's expected to be held near Beulah. Coffee and ice cream will be furnished by the Farmers Union. Glenn Talbot from North Dakota is to be the speaker.

Queen, Court Are Named To Preside at Venetian Night Events July 27

Galoshes Gang Trio to be Tried In Charlevoix

Albert Mulvey, 22, of Sparta, and Leo Stankus, 30, of Grand Rapids, members of the "Galoshes" Gang, were brought from Grand Rapids Tuesday and arraigned in Justice Court on a charge of breaking and entering in the night. It is charged that they entered the Herman Drenth Lumber Co. office in East Jordan early of the morning of July 3. They were bound over to the next term of court.

Alex Jeronis, 32, also of Grand Rapids and confessed leader of the gang, will also be brought here for arraignment. The gang was apprehended in Grand Rapids on Friday by sheriff's officers and state police from many northern Michigan counties after a former member talked to police when he felt he was not receiving a just share of their "take". They have confessed "robberies in 69 Michigan towns as well as places in Indiana and Ohio. They will be prosecuted here because this county suffered the greatest losses to the members of the Drenth Company were the Kit Carson Lumber Co., in October, 1946, and the East Jordan Co-Op in the spring of 1946. The gang had been operating for more than 3 years.

Planning the event are the officers of the Marine Club; Frank Ochs, commodore; William Bellinger, secretary; and Joseph Howard, treasurer and harbor master. Helping is S. E. Coleman of the Board of Commerce.

Opening the day's events will be the Water Carnival. Starting at 3 p. m., it will be staged in front of East Park. Among the events will be diving contests, and 50 and 100 yard swimming races. In each of these there will be three classes each for boys and girls; juvenile, junior and senior. Chief potential feature of Venetian Night is the traditional boat parade. Its success depends on owners of craft here, and Coleman is stressing the fact that the success of the entire program still hinges largely on the number of owners who will enter their boats in the evening parade.

This is scheduled to start at 9 p. m. What boats will lead still is to be decided but will be announced next week.

While the parade is in progress, the fireworks will be shot. The Marine Club has contracted for this display, costing more than $300.

Music will be provided by the Charlevoix Marine Band. Other events are planned and will be included, Coleman says.

William Drenth Rites Are Today

Funeral services were held today at Muskegon for William Drenth, 57, former resident of Mitchell vicinity, who died Monday night at Mackley hospital.

A native of The Netherlands, he was born Nov. 28, 1889 and came to Ellsworth with his parents in 1901. On Nov. 12, 1912 he was married to Alice Venema and the family lived on a farm near the Mitchell school until 1929, when they moved to Muskegon.

Mr. Drenth had been ill about a year with a heart ailment. He leaves the widow; two sons, Gerald and Ray of Muskegon; a daughter, Mrs. Harold Lubbers of Fremont, R. I.; three grandchildren; three brothers, Jacob, George and John and three sisters, Mrs. Tena Bolhuis, Mrs. Gerrit Rubingh and Mrs. James Ruis of Ellsworth vicinity.

Mary Margaret Starts Petoskey Night Trips

Night cruises to Little Traverse Bay by the Mary Margaret started Tuesday.

Capt. LeRoy Allers plans to leave here at 6 p. m. every night, reach Petoskey at 7:20. Those who wish may go ashore there and rejoin the boat at midnight. The ship meanwhile will cruise along the north shore of the bay. It will reach Charlevoix at 1:20 a. m.

Tender Marigold Bought By Lyons Co.

The former Coast Guard light-house tender, Marigold, was in the harbor Sunday night. The ship, which was decommissioned at Detroit in 1945 and which has lain at Port Huron for the last year, was being towed to Whitehall. It is not known what the new owner, Jack Lyons, of the Lyons Navigation Co., plans to do with her.

The ship was replaced by the new 180 ft. coast guard boat after the war.

Naval Recruiter Here

The U. S. Naval Reserve Training Unit is at the post office from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. today. It is enrolling former veterans and non-veterans for the inactive duty program of the Reserves.

It's July 17 for Grange

The correct date for the meeting of the county Pomona Grange at the Rock Elm Hall is July 17, not 19, as the story was given to The Courier last week. It starts at 9 p. m.

A queen and her court will be the new feature of Charlevoix's traditional Venetian Night when it is held this year July 27.

Sally Miller has been chosen as queen. Comprising her court will be Virginia Ranger, Anne Campbell, Helen Jean Hammond, Marion Craig and Audrey Byers. At Venetian Night, the queen and her court will be on a special float, well lighted, which will be in the foreground during the parade.

Planning the event are the officers of the Marine Club; Frank Ochs, commodore; William Bellinger, secretary; and Joseph Howard, treasurer and harbor master. Helping is S. E. Coleman of the Board of Commerce.

Opening the day's events will be the Water Carnival. Starting at 3 p. m., it will be staged in front of East Park. Among the events will be diving contests, and 50 and 100 yard swimming races. In each of these there will be three classes each for boys and girls; juvenile, junior and senior. Chief potential feature of Venetian Night is the traditional boat parade. Its success depends on owners of craft here, and Coleman is stressing the fact that the success of the entire program still hinges largely on the number of owners who will enter their boats in the evening parade.

This is scheduled to start at 9 p. m. What boats will lead still is to be decided but will be announced next week.

While the parade is in progress, the fireworks will be shot. The Marine Club has contracted for this display, costing more than $300.

Music will be provided by the Charlevoix Marine Band. Other events are planned and will be included, Coleman says.

Bishop Tells Club Of Troubled Europe

Europe presents a vast complication of baffling difficulties today, Bishop Raymond J. Wade told the Kiwanis Club Monday noon.

Bishop Wade, head of the Bay View Association and former Methodist bishop of Scandinavia, told of his pre war and post war experiences in Europe.

Scandinavia, the Kiwanians gathered, is his favorite part of Europe. He commented on the well trained and disciplined youth there, "which helps build the fine character you find there."

Finland, and to some extent other neighboring countries, dares not always take the action it wants because of Russia.

The first impression in Germany today is devastation. The destruction in Berlin alone is equal to the complete wiping out of Detroit, Grand Rapids and Flint. The second impression is hunger everywhere.

Today Germany most needs religion, education and food, Bishop Wade said.

Nora Elzinga Saved By Prompt Rescuers

Stricken with a cramp while swimming near the south pier Friday afternoon Nora Elzinga, 16, was pulled to safety by Larry Ecklund and other swimmers.

She was given artificial respiration and first aid at the Coast Guard station, and after examination by Dr. F. F. McMillan was taken to her home. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Elzinga.

Coming Events

Here's List of City Fire Wards

In answer to many inquiries regarding the location of the fire wards in Charlevoix, we are printing the following information:

1st ward—north side.
2nd ward—business district from the bridge to Belvedere ave. and west to State st.
3rd ward—west of State st., between Antrim st. and the channel.
4th ward—west of State st. and south of Antrim st.
5th ward—State st. to Alice st. and south from Belvedere ave. to Stover road.
6th ward—Belvedere resort and the Ferry ave. district.
One long blast of the siren is for a fire in the rural area outside the wards listed above.

Are You Type 3 or 4? Red Cross Asks

The Charlevoix County Red Cross Chapter is urgently asking veterans and citizens who are of blood types 3 and 4 to file their names with the hospital here or with any of the doctors.

Last week a call came for blood of Type 4. Only eight such donors are known in the entire county. If there should be many calls for Type 4 (or for Type 3) these donors could not meet the need.

Murray School Mrs. Grant Ferguson

Billy Price and Fred Speigl returned to Detroit after visiting with their parents.

Mary Speigl is in the Lockwood Hospital for an appendix operation.

Lawrence Speigl from Grand Rapids spent a few days with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Green and family from Detroit are spending two weeks with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wylie, son Bruce and daughter Helen of Detroit were week-end visitors at the William Hair home. They left Monday on a tour of the copper country before returning home where Mr. and Mrs. Wylie are both teachers.

William Hair and son, Billy returned recently from a two weeks vacation trip to Texas.

Mrs. William Hair and daughter, Lynn, spent two days last week at the county 4-H Club camp at the Church of God camp grounds.

Robert Hair of Bar River, Ont., visited recently at the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hair.

Airport News

George Heddon, president of the Heddon Bait Co., of Dowagiac and Mrs. Heddon landed here Sunday morning with their twin-engine Beechcraft to spend the day with their daughter, who is at a summer camp.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert McClure left Monday morning for Calumet after a week end visit with Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Saltonstall. They had returned Saturday from a week in New Haven, Conn., making the trip in a new Beechcraft Bonanza.

The Glenn Brozo family, who are summering at their Torch Lake cottage, commute between Detroit and Charlevoix in their twin-engine Cessna. Mr. Brozo has made his plane available to instructor Joe McPhillips, who has recently received his multi-engine rating.

A frequent airport visitor these summer days is the twin-engine Beechcraft bearing the Good-year Tire and Rubber Co. insignia, which brings members of the Robert Wilson family of Akron, Ohio and their guests to the Wilson cottage at Ironton. Mr. Wilson is president of Goodyear.

Seven light planes owned by Barnum's Flying Service of Alpena, landed at the airport Sunday for a short stop-over on their weekly cross-country flight.

Student notes: Dr. Earl Faber made his first solo flight last week after 8 hours of instruction. . . . Chuck Powell has logged several solo-hours also. . . . without his taxi. Richard "Jeanie" Hardy made his first solo cross-country flight recently and is rolling up the hours toward his private license. . . . Robert O. Pearl and John Zettler, Jr., have registered for flight instruction as GI students.

Scott Not Party In Min-Eva Damage Suit

Just to keep things straight, Pete Scott says he is not a party to the $23,000 damage suit of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wojciechowski against the Protane companies and John Mol.

When the insurance companies settled with him he assigned all his interests to them and they now are acting as his assignees.

Three Summer Dates Are Set

Three important dates definitely have been set for summer events.

First is Venetian Night on July 27. Sportsmen's Carnival, sponsored by the Rod and Gun Club, will be Aug. 17. The annual Beaver Island Homecoming will be Aug. 10.

Rock Elm News

Mr. and Mrs. Jud Sisson of Kalamazoo spent their July 4th week-end visiting Mrs. Sisson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cox in East Jordan and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jensen here.

Early cherries which are usually harvested by this time are just beginning to ripen.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Miller of Traverse City visited Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jensen Sunday. Mrs. Whitfield who spent the winter in Florida and later accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Miller on a trip to the west coast, came home with them. Mrs. Miller is Mrs. Jensen's cousin.

Mr. and Mrs. Jo Hyatt of Detroit, former residents, are enjoying a vacation visiting relatives and friends here and in East Jordan. Mr. Hyatt is building a cottage on the west shore of the South Arm of Lake Charlevoix. Mrs. Hyatt is Lawrence Jensen's oldest sister.

scenes about Charlevoix were done by Mrs. Irene Young, who is truly clever with the pen. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Percy Empey of Norwood announce the engagement of their daughter, Elaine to Francis Antonis of Lansing, Ill. The couple will be married in the fall. . . . Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Hillebrand and son Bobby of St. Louis, Mo., are in Charlevoix vacationing. They have been coming up here for several summers. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rudle and son who have been visiting Mrs. Rudle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller, for the past six weeks, left Saturday morning for Whitefish Bay, Wis., where they expect to make their home.

Many Charlevoix persons were at the Episcopal church Sunday to welcome Dr. John Coolidge, who will occupy the pulpit this summer. The Coolidges come from Palm Beach. While here the couple are staying at a cottage at Torch Lake. . . . and have had as houseguests the young John Coolidges from Cleveland, Ohio.

Birthday congratulations to Sybil Levinson. . . . Another Charlevoix boy has walked down the aisle to the strains of the wedding march. Eugene Frederick Melin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Melin, of Deer Park, Wash., and the bride was Doreen Roberta Shaffer. The couple will make their home in Portland.

Cabin of Famous Old "Algolah" Is Now Modern Bachelor Cabin At Beaver Island

One of the most interesting cabins on Beaver Island is the one owned by Archie LaFreniere, Sr.

The cabin, which once was part of the S. S. Algolah, historic Great Lakes boat is now as modern as any pent house and twice as handy.

The Algolah, which was built in 1881, was first used as a ferry between Mackinaw City and St. Ignace. The ship was built in Detroit and Henry Ford, then a mechanic's apprentice aided in the installation of the engine. When the ship was decommissioned, the engine was purchased by the village of Mackinaw City to be used as a breakwater in the harbor where it is today.

Now Archie LaFreniere, Sr. lives comfortably in this ship's ice breaker used in the Straits of Mackinac. Many times it broke the ice in the St. Mary's River to permit ore and coal freighters to reach Lake Superior ports.

After serving faithfully for many years as ice breaker, passenger, mail boat and tow for a larger scow which hauled four railroad cars between Mackinaw City and St. Ignace, it was sold in 1935 and converted to a tow barge for hauling lumber. The cabin was detached and sold to Vernon LaFreniere of St. James.

The ship was finally sold to the village of Mackinaw City to be used as a breakwater in the harbor where it is today.

Now Archie LaFreniere, Sr. lives comfortably in this ship's cabin, which is modern in every respect.

The pilot's room, facing the harbor of St. James, is an attractive kitchen with all kinds of up-to-date electrical equipment. The remaining part of the cabin is divided into a typical bachelor's lounging room, lavatory and shower.

The cabin has a full basement underneath, is heated with oil and is the last word in neatness and comfort. Converting the cabin into a homey place to live necessitated a great deal of planning, but it was worth all the effort, according to Mr. LaFreniere, who now makes Beaver Island his permanent home.

Astronomy Scenes To Be Shown Monday

Vivid full-color scenes from astronomy and natural science are featured in "The God of Creation" sound motion picture to be shown at 8:00 p. m., Monday at the Barnard Reformed church.

Produced in Moody Institute of Science, West Coast department of Moody Bible Institute, by Irwin A. Moon, Sc. D., "The God of Creation" is the second in a series of evangelistic films. The first film by Dr. Moon was "They Live Forever."

In the opening section of "The God of Creation" the audience takes a trip to the stars by means of solar photographs taken through the giant 100-inch telescope of Mt. Wilson observatory in southern California, and view complex gyrations of our own solar system.

Trips, Fishing Mark Second Week At Camp Charlevoix

After the usual first week in which the new boys became oriented to the camp program, the old campers got reacquainted, and the counselors smoothed out their activities and cabin programs, the second week at Charlevoix was stepped up by several trips by the various cabins and more Green and Gray competition.

Cabin No. 13, under the supervision of Hamilton Scharff, made the initial 1947 trip by hiking to Mt. McSaba, taking their supper. The campers making the trip were Don Mendelsohn, Ron-ne Means, Robert Mast, Ross McDonald, Jimmy Fitzpatrick, David Harding and George Kuhlman.

The same evening, Phil Sieding's Cabin No. 17 crew made the first town trip of the year. Included in this trip were Carl Miller, Bob Laugherty, Dick Taylor, Pat Pfarrer, Frank Smith, Dave Smith and Ned Thomson. Several of the boys took an interest in fishing. Friday evening Cabins No. 13 and 14 went to Lake Susan under the supervision of Scharff and Bill McAnich. Members of Cabin No. 14 to go were Ken Edwards, Doug Kellogg, Karl Larson, Tom Pearlman, Hudson Morris and Phil Woods.

Wednesday evening the first Council Ring gathering was held. During the meeting the new campers were initiated into the tribe of Charlevoix in a ceremony that included all the counselors, Ken Smith, associate director and Chief Reimann.

The week also saw a good amount of Green and Gray competition in which the Green team overcame the first week deficit and tied up the point score by sweeping the Sunday afternoon boating program.

A sailing race was won by Dick Smith and Ross MacDonald of the Greens.

This week's program will be made up mostly of trips. The second period of activities got under way Monday, as all the campers changed to new activities.

Eight cabins will take overnight hikes. They are cabins 1, 5, 16 and 11. Parts of some cabins will go out on a fishing trip. There will also be an overnight hike taken on horseback under the supervision of the cowboy, Kendall Cummings.

Part of the camp's season's activities have been planned ahead of time. On August 22, the annual camp rodeo will be held. Parents are invited to come to camp to witness this event and also see the boys taking part in many of the camp's other activities.

Since the camp will close officially on August 24, the final banquet will take place the evening of the day the rodeo is held.

Torch Chain to Get 75,000 Lake Trout

Plans to plant approximately 75,000 fingerling lake trout in Torch and Elk lakes and Lake Bellaire, are underway. George Rolf of the government fisheries station here stated Monday.

The planting will be done in August or September. The fact that plants have been made each year for about 8 years accounts for the fact that there are many lake trout caught through the ice every winter.

Rare Table Evidently Made for Royal Court

More information about the rare French table owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bolan at the Hallett Hotel has been unearthed by Mrs. Bolan.

It almost certainly was made by court artisans early in the reign of Louis XVI for one of the royal residences or possibly as a royal gift. The top is made of cast bronze coated with gold, as are the decorations on the base and pedestal. The wood itself is rare black ebony. Proof that it was made with royal approval is the fact that the center medallion (about 15 inches across) and the 18 small surrounding medallions are miniatures hand painted on Sevres porcelain produced only by royal order.

The center piece shows Louis in his coronation robes. Seventeen of the small medallions are of court beauties including red haired Marie Antoinette. The 18th has the royal coat of arms.

What Mrs. Bolan does not know is the history of the museum piece table between the time it was made, probably about 1778 and a few years ago when they bought it.

Stored Hay Should Be Checked Often for Overheating

A few precautions can help cut the danger of hay fires. Hay should be well raked. Its moisture content should be less than 25 percent. Loose and clumped hay should be evenly distributed in the mow.

Heating of the hay takes time and the hay should be checked continually for two months after it is put in the mow. A hay proof thermometer can be made very inexpensively and will give a good check of the temperature of the hay. The outfit consists of ten feet of one-half inch electrical conduit with an oak or ash point on one end to make driving into the hay easy. Six one-quarter inch holes should be punched in the conduit above the point. A dairy thermometer on a string is then put into the conduit. A rubber pad at the bottom of the tube will keep the thermometer from breaking.

To use, the proof with the thermometer inside is inserted into the hay and left 3 to 5 minutes. The thermometer is then pulled up with the string and read immediately. If read at once, the temperature drop in the thermometer will not exceed 1 or 2 degrees F.

If the temperature reads 100 degrees F., the hay should be checked several times a day. At 100 to 110 degrees F., check often and get assistance if it should rise any higher. Don't work in the mow alone if the temperature is excessively high. Adequate fire fighting facilities should be at hand if heated hay is to be removed and someone who understands the correct removal of heated hay should supervise.

Guard Against Poultry Diseases

Poultry disease is spreading in the United States.

This report comes from Dr. C. E. Hardin, extension poultry pathologist at Michigan State College. He states that Newcastle disease has already been reported in 39 states and that fowl paratyphoid and fowl typhoid are also widespread.

Veterinarians of the U. S. Department of Agriculture are asking every branch of the poultry industry to follow a thorough sanitation program.

They say unless every precaution is taken, persons going from one poultry farm to another may become serious spreaders of poultry disease. For this reason, don't allow visitors to enter your poultry houses or enclosures unless their mission is necessary.

Dr. Hardin advises that trucks and equipment can carry chicken diseases from one place to another. If trucks or automobiles have to go on a farm on business to keep them out of enclosures where chickens are confined.

As a final precaution, clean and disinfect all equipment and materials that have come in contact with sick chickens.

Strawberry Time

Are you planning to preserve some of those juicy red strawberries that taste so good right now for next winter?

Canned or frozen they will taste unusually good next January. Bertha Hershey, food specialist at Michigan State college, has a few suggestions about preserving that fresh flavor and color.

Canned berries keep their shape and color better if you take time to bring them slowly to the boiling point with the sugar the night before you can them. Let them stand in the kettle in a cool place until morning.

All you need to do the next day is to bring them to the boiling point, pack them hot, and process them in the boiling water bath for 15 minutes. This last step is important if you want them to keep. Process for 15 minutes.

First choice for frozen strawberries is a sugar syrup pack. Prize berries should have a fairly heavy, cold syrup—3 cups of sugar to 4 cups of water. They also may be crushed, sliced, or left whole and mixed with dry sugar. If left whole, mix until all the sugar is dissolved and enough syrup is formed to cover every berry.

When packing in the container, crumple a piece of moisture-proof cellophane and place it under the lid to hold the fruit down under the syrup. Perfect packs call for 1 cup of sugar to 4 cups of berries. If you like them less sweet, 1 cup of sugar to 6 or 8 cups of berries may be used. Strawberries will not keep their flavor, shape and color very long if frozen without any sugar at all.

McPhillips Certified As G-I Air School

McPhillips Flying Service at the Charlevoix Airport, Charlevoix is one of the 223 G. I. Flight Schools in Michigan which has been certified by the Michigan Department of Aeronautics to renew its contract for the 1947-1948 season with the Veterans Administration to enable them to give veterans flight training under the G. I. Bill of Rights.
Colonel Floyd E. Evans, Director of the Department stated that recertification of all G. I. Flight Schools in Michigan giving instructions to veterans was necessary to requalify under the new provisions of the Michigan Official G. I. Flight Training Curriculum. Michigan is one of the few states which licenses flight schools. Many states require approval from the C. A. A.

State Police Make US-31 Survey Here

Two officers of the State Police were here in Charlevoix July 5 making a traffic survey on Bridge Street.
They said that they came as a result of the request from here for such a check. Their recommendation as to possible changes in traffic regulations will be sent to the Lansing office and there turned over to the State Highway Department which has final say on traffic regulations of federal highways.
The officers indicated that the State Police might do more patrolling along US-31.

Leaves Flown West For 90th Birthday

Leaves from the sugar maples he planted here 75 years ago were sent air mail to Will H. See of Portland, Ore., on his 90th birthday.
The leaves were from the trees at the Lakeview Hotel grounds, which See had set out when a boy of 15. They were used as a table decoration at the birthday dinner. Mrs. Edward Chaloupka, his sister, sent a clipping from the Portland Oregonian telling of the event.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARY

Vote Tuesday, July 29, 1947

THERE has not been an increase in telephone rates in 21 years. From 1926 until 1937, our rates went down substantially. Except for even further reductions in local rates in a number of exchanges and decreases in toll rates, those 1937 rates are still in effect—despite the fact that the cost of almost everything . . . wages, taxes, supplies . . . has been going up.

For example, post-war wage adjustments alone have boosted our costs nearly $11,000,000 a year, including settlements reached during the recent strike.

Actually, all our costs put together have gone up much faster than our income.

In the ten years since 1937, income has gone up 141%, costs have gone up 193% and our return on investment has dropped more than a third.

It's just simple arithmetic that 1937 rates won't work in 1947.

We've tried to make both ends meet without increasing rates. We've held off as long as possible. But now, we've got to ask for an increase—because it is absolutely necessary to protect our customers' service.

It will take a lot of money from investors to give more service and better quality service from here on. Investors will put up the money only if they are assured a fair return, which we cannot provide under our present rates.

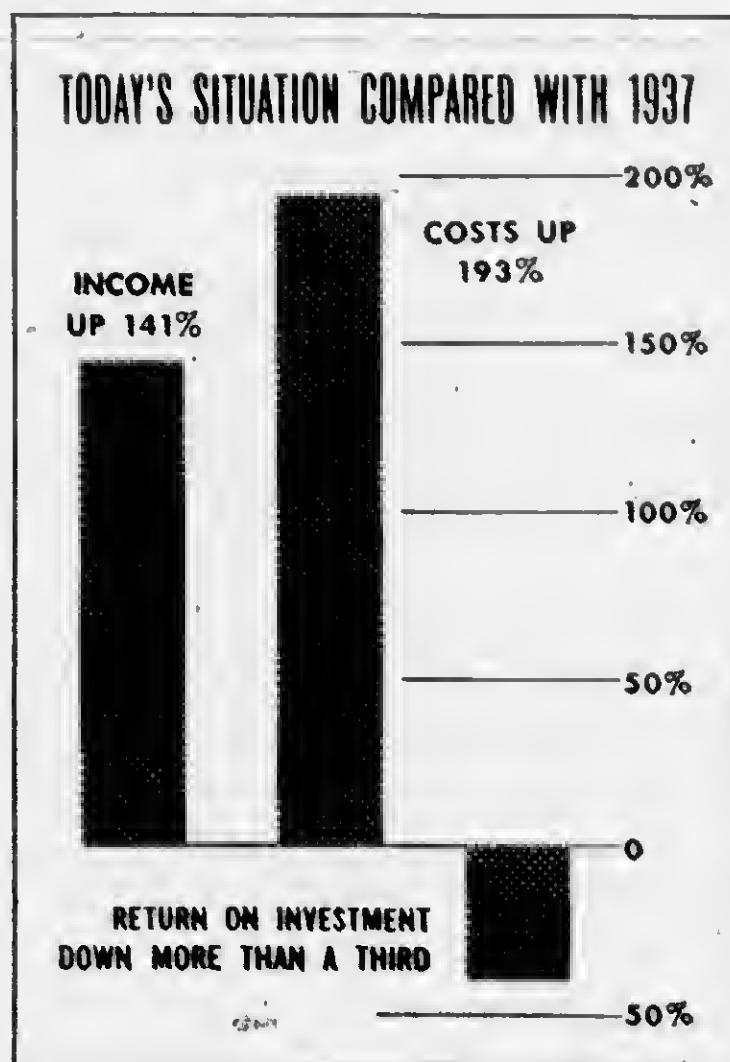

So the future quality of Michigan's telephone service depends on raising rates enough to assure the financial stability of your telephone company.

That's why we're going to ask the Michigan Public Service Commission* for a public hearing to review our proposed new schedule of rates. During the week of August 3, we'll publish details of the proposed rates throughout Michigan Bell territory. After that, we'll file the petition with the Public Service Commission.

*The body established by State law and appointed by the Governor to regulate utility rates.

Telephone service will still be a bargain at the proposed rates. We'd rather not be asking for an increase. But that's the only way we can assure our customers the kind of service they want. For 1937 rates won't work in 1947.

Where the term "Income" is used above, it means the term "Revenue" or "Gross Income." When the term "Investment" is used, it means the original cost of the telephone property less the depreciation reserve as against the ultimate net asset of the property.

BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Beaver Island is ringing with praises from those who have come recently. The weather has been perfect, the lake calm and the cedar-scented air is just what our friends from the city are looking for.

Mrs. Jack Smith, Lombard, Ill., is happy to be among her Island relatives and friends once more. She is a guest at the King Strang hotel.

Mrs. Clarence Briarton, Robert Briarton, Mrs. John King, all of Chicago, returned with Mrs. George Ricksgers and will be her guest for a week or two.

Mrs. James W. Gallagher and her children returned Friday from Charlevoix where they were visiting for a few days.

Mrs. Given Sheridan, Chicago, has arrived to spend the summer. Dorothy Lee McCann has returned from a visit to Bay City.

Col. J. O. Colonna, district government engineer from Milwaukee and Sidney D. Drew, Jr., area engineer, Grand Haven, were here on the Island this past week in regards to dredging the harbor and to offer aid in selecting a site for a municipal dock.

A reunion of the Hanley family took place this past week. Mr. J. Frank Hanley, Cecil Hanley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanley and sons, Charles and Jack, Terre Haute, Ind.; Mrs. Ralph Klein and daughter, Delores, Hollywood, Calif.; Louise Hanley, Cleveland, Ohio; were here for five days. They occupied the Allen's house.

The geologists who were here recently discovered a rare piece of marble on an antique table in the King Strang Hotel. The marble, which is dark color, is embedded with a variety of fossils, marine plant life, pieces of shellfish, stems of star fish, small sea animals and coral. They estimated the marble being a million years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Parent, Detroit, are guests of Mrs. Glenn Logan.

Mrs. Dan Gallagher is in Charlevoix for medical attention.

Arthur Pischner, Two Rivers, Wis., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pischner.

Mrs. Hugh Gallagher left during the week for Chicago.

Anna Marie and Francis Ricksgers are back with us once more after being away for several weeks.

Languidly chewing their cud and sauntering down the main drag went the village cows humming "Don't Fence Me In."

Saturday's boat brought another new car to the Island. This time it was a Chevrolet for Archie LaFreniere, Jr.

Saturday's boat also brought the "last word" in an electric stove to Musette LaFreniere.

Wojan's mill is in full operation and the lumber is beginning to pile up.

The Rambler is kept busy hauling lumber from the Island. Two boat loads of hard wood left the Island this past week.

Mary Margaret Grady, Atlanta, Ga., is the house guest of the Hanleys.

Mrs. S. E. Savage, Bay City, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Fraser, Pontiac, are visiting Fred and Bertha Spalding.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McGuire, Chicago, are visiting Mr. and Mrs.

Lawrence Malloy. The McGuires brought along the Malloy's grand son, Terrence Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wilson and their two children are on the Island and are completing their Quonset hut home on Back Beach. The Wilsons are from Ferndale. Mrs. Lester Connaghan left Sunday for a vacation in Chicago.

Barnard News

Mrs. Richard Potter, Reporter. Mr. and Mrs. George Meggison were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bolhuis Thursday evening.

Bill Madden and Max Leitch of Churubusco, Ind., are visiting Clayton Smith for a couple of days.

Billy Ritter of Detroit was a visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith for the week-end.

Floyd Wilbur of Grand Blanc who was called here by the death of his aunt, Mrs. Marian Pillsbury, visited with his family for the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Potter.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Potter were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Potter Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Chapin were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Potter. Mrs. Chapin is Mrs. Richard Potter and family were Sunday evening supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Heeres.

Inwood News

Mrs. Charles Wells. Mrs. Howard Burman and son from Crystal Lake, Ill., have been spending two weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ager. Her husband and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burman arrived last Friday and she returned home with them Monday.

Lawrence Van Dusen spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hoffman.

Mr. and Mrs. William Daily from Detroit were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiles.

Mrs. Charles Leist, Mrs. Medrick Waffle, Mrs. Alvin Morrow and Mrs. Charles Wells motored to Beulah last Saturday to attend a meeting there to help make arrangements for the Farmers Union picnic.

Mrs. Ruby Morrow is again operating the beauty shop at the Belvedere Hotel.

Sam Helps with the Dishwashing

Dropped in at the Abernathy's just the other evening—and there was Sam, out in the kitchen with an apron on, helping his missus wash the supper dishes. (And then I learned later he'd helped cook the supper, too.)

Of course, Sam could have settled into his favorite chair, enjoyed his evening glass of beer, and left all the messy kitchenwork to Dixie. But he kind of likes her company—and she in turn certainly appreciates his help.

In fact, sharing the housework and the mealtime chores is sort of a bond between them... like sharing that friendly glass of beer together, when the work is done. It's one of those little all-important things in marriage.

From where I sit, the time that a man and wife can spend with each other in this busy world today is all too precious. And the more things they can do together, the better.

To The People of the 11th Congressional District

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of State on behalf of

Otto W. Bishop

of Alpena for the office of Representative in Congress from the 11th Congressional District to be voted for in the Primary Election to be held on July 29, 1947.

Mr. Bishop is now serving his 7th term in the Michigan State Senate. He has been signally honored by his district in not having any opposition in either Primary or General elections during the last four terms.

During his period of service in the State Senate he has been either Chairman of, or a member of its most important Committees. Today he is Chairman of the powerful Finance and Appropriations Committee of the Senate, as well as Vice-Chairman of the Committee on Highways, Vice-Chairman of the Committee on Senate Business, and a member of the important committee on Interstate Cooperation. Not alone has he had many years of experience in State Government, but previously had eleven years experience in local or city government. Such experience in Government on both local and state level make him well qualified to perform and assume the duties of Representative in Congress.

In addition to the training he has received in the political field, he has had an extensive business career, first as a clerk in a general store for five years then as an employee of a National Bank for twenty years in all banking positions from Clerk to Cashier.

During his early business career he also developed an insurance business from scratch, which he still operates. Following his resignation from the bank he entered the commercial fishing business and operated for years a fleet of tugs on the Great Lakes giving him an intimate knowledge of that industry. Some years ago he entered the Retail Coal business and is now operating a successful business under the name of the Bishop Coal Company. He is past President of the Michigan Retail Coal Dealers' Association, and is still one of its Board of Directors. He also served for a number of years as a Director of the American Retail Coal Dealers' Association.

He is a life long resident of Northern Michigan having been born in the City of Alpena, and has long been active in the civic, political and business affairs of this section of the state. He has been active in Boys' Work, is past President and present Director of the Alpena Boys Club.

Since he became a member of the Michigan State Senate he has devoted much time and effort to developing and promoting the Tourist and Resort industry of Northern Michigan having annually, during the past thirteen years, secured appropriations for the support and development of this industry. He drafted the Act which created the Michigan Tourist Council.

He has been especially active in support of Veterans' measures, being the first to introduce a bill creating a Reserve Fund for disabled veterans, their widows and dependents.

A very important measure introduced by him, and which readily received the approval of all his colleagues, was a bill to prevent over-drafts by all state Boards, Commissions, Agencies and Departments.

It is well known by the County Road Commissioners of Northern Michigan that he has always been active in promoting legislation beneficial to the development of our road system. His interest in the promotion of education, both primary and higher forms, is well known.

His record of accomplishment in political, civic and business activities indicate that he is well qualified to cope with the fiscal, tax and other problems now facing our government which must be solved in the next session of Congress. He solicits your careful consideration of his candidacy for the office and will appreciate your support in the Primary Election, July 29, 1947.

ANNOUNCING THE CANDIDACY OF CHARLES E. POTTER

of Cheboygan
For the Republican Nomination for Representative in Congress
In the Eleventh District

In announcing my candidacy I promise, if elected, to faithfully and energetically represent you in Congress and I will constantly endeavor to satisfactorily serve the various interests of the District.

During World War II it was my misfortune to lose both legs, but with the use of artificial limbs I have been able to overcome this handicap so that I feel I am thoroughly qualified to represent you in the National Congress.

I am a native of Michigan, have an A-B degree in Sociology, and have held responsible positions of a local, state, and national scope in the field of social relations.

I respectfully solicit your support at the special Primary Election on July 29, 1947.

CHARLES E. POTTER.

Mother of Mrs. Cook Passes At Home Here

Mrs. Violet May Allen, 81, died Wednesday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Cook, on Ferry Ave.

She has lived here since January. Funeral services were held at the Full Gospel church, Alanson, on Saturday with burial in the Alanson cemetery.

Born in Iowa on May 7, 1866, she came to Potosky as a child. In 1882 she was married to Joseph Pemberton who died in 1929. In 1927 she was married to William Allen and they resided at Alanson until his death in January, 1947.

Besides Mrs. Cook she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Violet Hagaman of Bendon; three sons, Seth Pemberton of Kalamazoo, Joseph Pemberton of Potosky and Albert Pemberton of Alanson; 19 grandchildren and 29 great-grandchildren.

Bell Telephone Will Ask Rate Advance

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. is asking for higher rates throughout Michigan.

Exactly what the increase will be has not been announced but will be before the hearing by the Michigan Public Service Commission early in August.

Basis for the request is the fact rates have not gone up since 1926. In the years since several downward revisions have been made. The company contends that during and since the war, operating costs have increased so much faster than income that higher rates are necessary to keep the company in a sound financial condition.

State Says No More Half Year Licenses

There will be no more half year plates for autos after 1947.

The State Department has issued this notice. The half year plates for 1947 go on sale Aug. 11. But next year folks will have to buy 12-month tags.

There no longer is a real need for the half year ones, the Department contends.

Susie Proves Right Useful Sort of Girl

She's plump, hot, windy and whirls.

She is the new Sosie Q at Art Dry Cleaners. Sosie is something fairly new in dry cleaning circles. She has a blower at the bottom connected with a steam line. By pushing one pedal a blast of steam blows up through Susie's feminine-like torso, made of muslin. Another pedal releases an air blast.

When a woman's dress or blouse comes from the cleaning tank, it's put on Susie. The steam is turned on and hovers the cloth, takes out small wrinkles. The air dries it and then hand pressing finishes the job.

Camel hair coats, velvet dresses, tweed topcoats—they're all the same to Sosie. In fact, says Art Wexstaff, he's finding Susie is a handy girl to have around.

NOTICE

To Electric Light and Power Consumers and Electric Contractors of the Charlevoix Municipal Utilities:

At a regular meeting of the Common Council of the City of Charlevoix held Monday, July 7, at 8 p. m., the following resolution was adopted:

It being deemed necessary to conserve electric power produced by the diesel and hydro plants of the Charlevoix Municipal Utilities, to forestall the necessity of a possible shutdown due to overloading plant capacity, that from this date until September 1, 1947, there shall be a ban on the installation of electric range services, and no electric wiring permits will be issued for this purpose.

It is with regret that the Council has passed this resolution, but we feel sure that the residents of Charlevoix will see the necessity for the action for this one season, and will co-operate to the fullest extent.

RAY S. HAMILTON, City Clerk.

The Tow Line

News of folks, your neighbors and mine... but did you know that--

A bright spot of color is a bunch of pink hollyhocks in bloom in front of Dr. D. C. Nettleton's office... Dr. and Mrs. Heyman Keating, who have been spending the past two weeks with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harris and family at 208 Allee Street, returned Tuesday to their home in St. Paul, Minn.

The social ball is rolling these days. Cruising parties, evening parties among small groups of summer folks and town folks, bridge sessions, cocktail parties, sailing parties and just plain gab-fests. 'Tis a busy time... The new Charlevoix stationery with scenes from town is certainly proving popular. Local stores are having a hard time keeping it on hand... Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of Jonesville, were house guests last week of the editors... Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Meggison of Chicago are spending two weeks here visiting relatives.

Fred Tyler was a "smiling granddaddy" this week when he told of his new grandchild, a girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Broussard Sunday morning. It makes three girls and two boys, a wonderful family... Mr. and Mrs. Walter Willis of Florida are visiting his sister and brother, Mrs. Jennie Ager and George Willis... Can hardly wait until next Sunday. It's surely going to be a big day. Dr. Louis Mann speaks in the morning at the Congregational church and then the afternoon and evening will be the Venetian Night celebration. There just isn't going to be standing room in Charlevoix for such a day.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bradley and two sons of Olivet spent a few days in Charlevoix last week. Mr. Bradley used to work in the bank when he lived in Charlevoix and is employed at the same bank at the Olivet State Bank... The Charlevoix County State Bank is getting freshly painted, will be all dressed up for the big week-end ahead... More honey-mooneers are in town. "Funny, how they bring smiles to faces of folks as they walk hand in hand down the street, quite unconscious of the world about them. Something to dream about and make a reality is a hand shell with a loud speaker system in the park. With so much musical talent in town, the band and our wonderful Barber Shop Quartet, it's too bad that we can't have a hand shell. As it is, only a small group is able to hear the band play at their weekly concerts. Charlevoix could easily win its place in the sun with proper facilities... Congratulations to Marie Fessenden on her exhibit she is giving during the next week. Her friends were anxious that she show her water colors of scenes in and about Charlevoix. She has caught the spirit of the Northland in her pictures. The exhibit is at the City Hall... Summer folks as well as townspeople are enjoying tennis. The courts are full most of the time.

Our hats off to the Beaver Islanders who have revived their Chamber of Commerce and are going to town in publicizing their Island... Mr. and Mrs. Lionel McClanaghan and sons, Harold and Lionel, left on a vacation trip to Southern Michigan and Windsor, Ont. While in Windsor they will visit Mrs. McClanaghan's sister, Mrs. Florence Brifford.

The Loren Johnstons and the Julius Gilberts are back at their summer residences here after a week's cruise to Canada on their boat... Mrs. George Myler and daughter, Mrs. William Bolding of Detroit are expected Saturday for a visit to the Ray Faulkners... It was great news to library readers when they learned that the Charlevoix library opened Tuesday of this week to the public again. "Now, one does not have to listen to their youngsters wail, 'What can I read, I have read all the books in the house three or four times'..."

Capt. Joe Howard has really had a shiner this week. No he did not run against the door but said, "Fell off my high chair." Sounds like Joe was in his second childhood, but the high chair in his case is his stool down at Port-of-Call aches desk... "Takes longer to get across the street here in Charlevoix than it does in St. Louis" a summer resident was heard saying Monday as she tried to get herself and baby cab across Bridge Street. The traffic is really something!

Plans for New High School to Be Submitted

Rough drafts of plans for a new high school and possible changes in the present elementary building will likely be in the hands of the School Board here within three weeks, Supt. Roy Bennett reported Tuesday morning.

Monday afternoon and evening a representative of the Warren S. Holmes Co., of Lansing was here conferring with the board members. The Holmes Co. is the leading designer of schools in Michigan and to quite a degree in neighboring states. For several years before the war it maintained considerable offices in Boston to handle its New England work.

It was the Holmes Co. which designed the elementary school here. Two of its more recent buildings have been the Walter French and the Sexton schools in Lansing.

After studying the situation and the needs of the district, the Holmes representative suggested as the most economical and feasible solution a new high school building. It probably would best be built, he indicated, on the present site to the east of the gymnasium. It might be possible to build it in two sections, thus spreading the cost more and possibly taking advantage of more stable prices.

Along with the preliminary plans he will submit rough architect's estimates of probable costs.

State Promises To Make Traffic Survey In August

A traffic survey of Charlevoix in August was promised definitely by Roscoe Hefron of the State Highway Department when he was here Thursday.

The promise was made at a hearing in the office of City Supt. A. H. Leitch, Attending were Hefron and Harold L. Frier of the department; Sgt. Edgar Welsh of the Gaylord State Police Post; Mayor Karl Erber, Alderman Harley Ochs, Chief Clarence Heise, Leo Allard, Leitch and L. E. Tawie.

Hefron stated that the Highway Department doesn't approve traffic lights until a survey has been made. Mayor Erber maintained that only blinker lights would slow down traffic.

The survey will check traffic at several points in the city. Both automatic and manual checking will be done.

$1800,000 Plane Visits At Airport Here

Largest and most luxurious plane to land at Charlevoix Airport came in last Wednesday at 3:15 p. m.

It was the Lesgo III, belonging to Powell Crosley, Jr., of the Cincinnati radio and small motor car family. A $180,000 Grumman Mallard, it is a 12 place two-motor amphibian. Joe McPhillips of the Charlevoix Airport says that only about 20 such planes ever have been made.

In it were three passengers, the pilot and hostess. It left Thursday.

Water Skiing Popular Sport For Those Who Stay on Top

Warm days has brought out the water ski enthusiasts. Favorite place is Oyster Bay where boats can be beached safely on the sand and where equipment can be stored and arranged. Shown above are Susan Ockrant, Jeff Miller and Joan Hasenbusch. They were being towed by Jim Jack III, driven by James J. Reis.

Stop Signs or Lose Values, Supervisor Warns City Council

Warning that continued encroachment of neon and similar signs in residential districts means the inevitable ruin of those sections, Supervisor George Haggard of the first ward Monday night asked the City Council to do something about it.

He pointed out two facts: Michigan avenue is the highest assessed street in the entire city; blatant signs at its south end already are jeopardizing property values there.

He suggested that the Council request the property owners concerned to remove either the signs or the objectionable features of them in their own and the community's interest. The Council approved the idea.

Ernest Miller of the Charlevoix Lumber Co. was given an okay on building a new lumber yard off and shed on the property just north of the bridge. He previously had filed an application for a permit which described the intended building.

The Council discussed the need of some traffic control at Grant and Park streets. A suggestion that stop signs be put up on Park was tentatively approved.

39 Children Treated At Pre-School Clinic

The first pre-school clinic in more than two years was held at the Charlevoix elementary school building on Wednesday.

Dr. Albert Litzenberger and Mrs. Marion Rice, R. N., who were in charge of the event, reported that 39 children were examined and given toxoids and vaccines.

Children who were examined are not treated by the doctor in charge of the clinic but their defects or medical needs are suggested to the parents.

Mrs. Dorothy McRae, Miss Frances Miller and Mrs. Thomas Carey, R. N., assisted with the clinic.

A second clinic has been planned for August. The date will be announced later.

State Officer Tells Kiwanians of Trends

Frank O. Staiger, secretary-treasurer of Michigan Kiwanis, spoke Monday noon before the club here.

He pointed out that five trends mark Kiwanis today. They are that it is growing; that it has been learned that small towns can support and benefit by clubs; that more interclub affairs are being held; that big projects prove worth while to tackle; that the members are thinking on a more national scale.

Staiger paid tribute to Lewis Remann of Camp Charlevoix as being one of the deans of Michigan Kiwanis.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Simmons, who have been coming to Charlevoix for 37 years, have arrived in Charlevoix and are living at 304 Prospect. They came from Winnetka.

Galoshes Gang Guilty; Goodwin Gets 2-14 Years

Choosing to plead guilty to nine charges rather than stand trial and possibly receive much stiffer sentences, three members of the Galoshes Gang of Grand Rapids Tuesday admitted their guilt in a special session of Circuit Court here.

It was a busy day in court with nine pleas of guilty to various crimes of taking the other fellow's property. Judge Ward I. Waller of Cheboygan came here to preside at the one day session, called partly to help relieve the congestion at the jail.

First case was that of Carl Goodwin, 67, of Melrose Township. Arraigned last March on the charge of forgery after the Melrose township unit school district was found to be short thousands of dollars, he pleaded guilty and was released on bond. Tuesday he received a sentence of 2 to 14 years in Southern Michigan prison. Final report on the exact shortage has not yet been made by state auditors. He had been secretary of the district.

Next came eight charges of breaking and entering in the night time.

Chief among these were three members of the "Galoshes" gang of Grand Rapids: Alex Jeranis, 32, the gang leader, Albert Milvey, 22, and Leo Stankus. They all pleaded guilty in entering the Herman Drenth Lumber Co. in East Jordan on July 3.

Lester Young, 32, his wife, Virginia, 28, and Lestel Young, 22, all of Boyne City pleaded guilty to entering a cottage on Wall-o-n-Lake on or about Nov. 26, 1946. Don Herington, 22, of Clarion and Wilbert Leig, 24, of Bay Shore, pleaded guilty of entering a cottage in Melrose township on or about May 4.

All cases were referred to the probation officers. When they make their report to Judge Waller he will return and sentence the seven men and one woman.

In the case of Vendell Faculak, 28, of Charlevoix, who is charged with violation of probation, the case was continued until next week when Judge Waller is expected to return.

Belvedere Yacht Club Formed, Buys Boats

Trustees of the Belvedere Club have announced the formation of the Belvedere Yacht Club to teach sailing and sponsor races and other boating activities.

The Association has obtained the services of Robert Brebner of Green Bay, Wis., as sailing instructor. He is now in complete charge of the boats.

The Association has obtained six 18-foot 1-design sailboats made by the True Boat Co., of Amesbury, Mass. Members of the Belvedere Club who have donated to this project and to help buy boats are: Richard Moss, Woodbury Ransom, L. I. Replage, Joseph Sherer, D. D. Walker, Walter Ware.

Carlton Smith New Insurance Agent

Carlton H. Smith is the new agent here for the State Farm Insurance companies.

Supervisor of Barnard township, he was elected last Spring. He spent four years in the war as a member of the 41st regiment of the 32nd Division. Much of his service was in the South Pacific area.

A service connected disability and doctor's orders have forced him to quit doing heavy farm work. He still owns and operates his farm at Barnard, however.

Norwood Votes Extra Five Mills for School

Norwood school will remain open next year, it was decided at the annual meeting Monday evening.

The voters present approved adding five mills to the tax rate, making a total 20 mill rate for 1947-48 and providing enough funds for the school operation.

Carl McBride was re-elected to the Board of Directors.

Dr. Mann to Give Sermon Sunday

Dr. Louis L. Mann, outstanding speaker and Charlevoix visitor for many seasons, will give the sermon Sunday at the Congregational church.

The guest speaker is noted in many fields. Rabbi at Sinai Temple in Chicago, he also is professor of Oriental Languages at the University of Chicago and a collaborator on the new Thorndike Dictionary.

In the social work field, he is an arbitrator on the U. S. Labor Board and the chairman of the Chicago Marriage Clinic, whose work of preventing broken marriages has won national attention.

His topic Sunday will be "Obstacles to Understanding. Can They Be Overcome?"

As the capacity of the church is less than Dr. Mann's popularity, Rev. Jackson Turner has suggested that those wishing to hear him come before 11 a. m.

Music for the service will be presented by Andre Aerne, Chicago boy soprano, who appears on the concert stage and has been one of the Quiz Kids.

Farm Bureau Signs New Contract With State Group

A new type of agreement was signed Monday night between the Charlevoix County and the Michigan State Farm Bureaus.

The county directors met with Wesley Hawley, district representative, at the Leonard Babel home. There they drafted and signed a new type of agreement which provides a sliding scale for the county's state and national dues.

The more fully the county lives up to specified contracts and goals, the larger will be its share of the individual $10 annual dues. At the maximum, the county can recover $6.10 of the dues.

Those present at the meeting besides Hawley were the directors and their wives: Leonard Babel, George Klooster, Rollo Evans, Clint Blanchard, Charles Mascho, and John Rosquist.

Mrs. Fessenden Will Exhibit Paintings

Mrs. Marie W. Fessenden, Charlevoix artist, will have an exhibit of her water color paintings in the City Hall community room starting Friday and continuing for a week.

Mrs. Fessenden's paintings all are of northern scenes and flowers, such as the Michigan orchids, lake beaches and birch trees.

The exhibit will be open in the afternoon and evening.

Even Superintendent Gets Parking Ticket

Who you are doesn't make any difference to Charlevoix police when the little red flag marked "Violation" flops up on the parking meter in front of your car.

During the last couple of weeks cars ticketed included those belonging to City Supt. A. H. Leitch and "Don Swinton, city accountant.

* A boat parade, as large and as well lighted as some of the "pre-war ones, will be the chief feature of the Venetian Night Sunday.

Contrary to earlier reports, the parade definitely will be held. For a while it looked as though it would be impossible to hold it. Then Monday night, Glenn Pemberton and Glenn Ingalls appeared before the City Council, suggested that Charlevoix should not discontinue the big event.

As a result of considerable work Tuesday volunteers and members of the Marine Club, a meeting was held Tuesday night at which 25 boats were reported pledged to enter the parade and more are fairly certain.

Any boat can enter the parade. It makes no difference whether it is owned here or elsewhere; whether the owner is a member of the Marine or any other club; whether it has its own power or not. The only thing required is that it be decorated with lights so that it will make a good show for the thousands of folks on the shores of Round Lake.

The boats will be towed in two strings as in previous years. They will assemble at 9 p. m. in Lake Charlevoix just beyond the railroad bridge where they will be assigned places in each of the two sections. Lines will be made fast and final instructions given by Club Commodore Franklin Ochs who will have full charge of the running of the show. Lights are not to be lighted until just before the sections enter the channel so that the boats using candles will not be dark during the final minutes of the parade.

Some decorations are available for those who need them. These include Japanese lanterns and plenty of candles. Heavy paper in large sheets to protect decks also can be had at The Courier office for the asking.

Persons having boats who want to enter the parade should notify the Board of Commerce office of three things as soon as possible.

These three things are:
1. Size and type of boat.
2. If decorations are needed or can be furnished.

3. If any help is needed to assist in putting up decorations.

A number of townspeople have volunteered to help in putting up decorations and will be on call if requests are turned in at the Board of Commerce office. A request also has been made that any folks having lanterns, small 6 or 32 volt light bulbs, portable spot lights or other usable lighting equipment report them to the Board office whose phone No. is 105-J.

The fireworks will be shot by Ray Hamilton, who has done it in previous years, during the parade. Queen Sally Miller, who will preside during the parade from the deck of William Ockrant's new cruiser, will be attended by her court composed of Anne Campbell, Marian Craig, Audrey Byers, Helen Jean Hammond, and Virginia Ranger. The girls will be in bathing suits.

Her cruiser will be anchored in front of the park and the individual craft in the parade will salute the queen and court as they pass her boat.

CHARLEVOIX COURIER

The Independent weekly paper published by Lawrence E. and ElDean Towle at Charlevoix, the Beautiful, the County Seat of Charlevoix County, Michigan

Entered as second-class matter Dec. 10, 1895, at the Post Office at Charlevoix, Mich. under the Act of March 3, 1879.

MEMBER MICHIGAN PRESS AND NATIONAL EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION

He Boosted Charlevoix

That Charlevoix had one of the few civic floats in the Centennial parade at Traverse City July 3 was largely due to one person here, Gordon Freedman.

The inside story was told to the City Council Monday night by S. E. Coleman.

The value of having the float, Coleman pointed out, was shown by the fact that in one block alone he counted 120 folks with movie cameras. These folks came from all over the Middle West. And of all the floats, Charlevoix's was among the most distinctive and photographed.

It was a model ship "Victory" built by Allie Moore and stored at Hamilton's boat yard. It was made ready, but then the transportation problem came up.

Gordon Freedman sent three men from his factory to build a cradle. Sam Tokoly loaned a trailer. But a rack had to be built for the cradle to rest on. Once more Freedman supplied men and materials.

In addition, he drove his own roadster to Traverse, in the parade and back, to haul the trailer. And refused even the money for his gas.

It is that kind of public spirit which makes a live community. Charlevoix is fortunate in having such men as Gordon Freedman.

Not Good For Michigan

Michigan citizens are regretting the sales tax diversion amendment of last fall, if the sentiment of their editors is a true indication of what the newspaper readers are thinking.

The Bureau of Governmental Research of Detroit has just completed a survey on what the publishers think of recent governmental events.

Three quarters of the editors believe that the sales tax diversion was working injury to the state as a whole and that the few beneficial results could have been obtained in other and non-harmful ways.

The same proportion oppose deficit financing and condemned the legislature for using it. Most favored cutting appropriations as the way to avoid it.

Most popular act of the Legislature was approving a referendum on a constitutional revision. Next in favor was the approving of a referendum on the sales tax diversion in 1948.

I realize it is far easier to sit on the sidelines and criticize than it is to sit at Lansing and accomplish. Yet it does seem that such unanimity indicates our lawmakers could and should be doing a better job on their part in running our state government.

Prevent Wrong Marriages Is Way to End Divorce Evil, Believes Dr. Mann

The way to prevent broken marriages is to prevent wrong marriages, believes Dr. Louis Mann, rabbi of Sinai Temple in Chicago, head of that city's marriage clinic and summer visitor here in Charlevoix.

Monday afternoon just before leaving for Louisville, Ky., Dr. Mann discussed the lessons learned from the Marriage Clinic. The most important is that when a husband and wife are loud enough to go into divorce court, it is often too late to do anything about preserving that home.

"We learned that the best way in the long run is to prevent folks who shouldn't from getting married," Dr. Mann said. "Hasty marriages, infatuations, unsuited couples—these are the raw material for the divorce court. So the leaders of the clinic sponsored and the Illinois Legislature has passed the most modern marriage and divorce law in the country. It provides, among other things, for a waiting period.

But it doesn't go far enough, Dr. Mann says. The next step, he says, will be to educate would-be life partners in the duties of matrimony.

This program, named the Mann Plan since he proposed it, will come before the Illinois lawmakers next year. It provides that before a marriage can be performed, both parties must take a course of ten lectures or lessons on the various phases of matrimony. Only one would be on sex and the physical. The rest would be on the psychic, the emotional, the financial, children, and similar subjects.

"Thirty years ago," Dr. Mann says, folks laughed when I and others first proposed that a physical examination and a few days wait be required before marriage. Yet those things are universally accepted today. It will be the same with this."

One major group in Chicago already has adopted the Mann Plan enthusiastically. The Catholic church has set up courses taught by doctors, psychiatrists, priests, professors and others to do the work outlined by Dr. Mann.

It will be a tax saver in the long run, he adds. By showing the engaged couple what is ahead, it either will prepare them to meet the duties and difficulties of marriage—or it will scare them out. Either way means fewer divorces, fewer delinquent children, fewer broken homes and public charges. "All those things means millions saved annually at a small cost for trained instructors."

But what if one state adopts such a plan and others do not, he was asked.

"It will be just like other obviously good ideas," was his answer. "Once it is adopted by one state, the others will be following suit right away."

Farm Bureau Picnic To Be July 31 At Eastport Park

The Farm Bureau annual picnic for this district will be July 31.

But instead of being held at Whiting State Park as originally announced, it will be at Eastport.

Larry Brandon will be the principal speaker. For ten years the Secretary-Treasurer of the Indiana Farm Bureau, he has been a dairy farmer for 20 years near Auburn. He has served in the Indiana Legislature from 1933 to 1939.

A mutton barbecue will feature the dinner served at noon.

North Side News

By Marlon Elsenbrath

The 1947 season is really starting like one of those wonderful prewar summers in Charlevoix. Many of the Northsiders have been spending part of the good days at Oyster Bay water skiing.

Three families have added sailboats to the fleet: Edwin Elsenbrath and the Harris-Pfaffel's; Harpety 110; the Ernest Loeb's; Northern Michigan; the William Ockrents' new Bobby O II.

Among this week's arrivals were the William Ockrents who are at their Michigan avenue home.

Richard Lowenstein, who arrived several weeks ago, left for Jasper National Park with his son, Michael, this week. They plan to be gone three weeks.

Mrs. Fred Feehelmer of Chicago left this week to visit relatives at Plymouth, Mass. She plans to spend some time at Tanglewood where the Boston Symphony performs.

Mrs. Alan Steinert of Cambridge, Mass., arrived last week and is living on Ainslie street. Her two daughters, Sue and Audrey, are with her. Visiting them this week is Robert Barnett of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Godchaux's family has deserted them temporarily. The Jeffrey Feibelmans have gone on a Caribbean cruise with their youngest daughter, Bonnie, and will not return until some time in August. The Richard McCarthys will not be coming this year at all.

The Herbert Pickers arrived this week. Mrs. Picker was the former Barbara Engess of Detroit. She and Mr. Picker were married this winter. With them are her father and brother Peter.

The Jim Colemans have a guest Barbara Bennett of Beverly Hills, Calif. She will be here a little over a week.

Margery and Joan Magnus came up from Cincinnati on the Thursday train for a month's stay.

Milton Thurman Miller left Sunday for a trip West with a friend from home. The boys will be gone about a month.

Among the new arrivals from Chicago are Barbara Solomon,

Camp Charlevoix Wins First Inter-Camp Contest; Many Hikes Feature Week

Five trips rounded out the third week of activity at Camp Charlevoix. Two journeys were made on the Jordan River and South Arm of the Lake, while the remaining three traveled to Mt. McSawba.

Cabins No. 1, 2, and 3 opened up the week's program with an overnight stay at the Mount. The three junior groups, under the supervision of Chuck Southwick, Keith Jolliffe and Jim Harrison, left immediately after the Monday night meal, and returned after breakfast at the camping site.

Jerry Hoeflerle, counselor for cabin No. 12, took a group of fishermen on the first trip down the Jordan River and across the South Arm and back to camp. His group was made up of boys from the various Intermediate and Senior cabins.

Included in the group were Larry Dunlavy, Ted Miller, Phil Woods, Doug Kellogg, Karl Larson, Ned Lambrecht, Don Sigismund, Hudson Morris and Tom Mackey.

The boys had no time to fish since the Jordan was rougher than expected and several accidents occurred. Two canoes overturned and Sigismund lost some of his equipment.

The following day, due to the overturned canoes, the outfit was pressed for time and paddled all day in order to get back to camp in time for dinner.

Cabin No. 16, headed by counselor Al Reynolds, made the same trip two days later, but without a mishap. The campers who made the trip were David Gorsline, Don Green, Bob Eschbach, Joe Laird, Ed Montgomery, Bill Craig, Palmer Beebe.

This gang could not complete the trip due to the stiff wind on the lake, and completed the journey in the camp truck.

Cabins No. 4 and 5 also went to Mt. McSawba under the leadership of John Ellsworth and Bud Gallup, which filled out the junior program of hikes for that week.

Ian Wilson's cabin No. 11 made the same trip on horseback for a one night stay. The boys making the trip were Doug Treadgold, Billy Conrad, Mike Boswell, Don Pfarrer, Hal Shields, Billy Hall and Tom Mackey.

The only Green and Grey competition during the week was the spy game which the Intermediate and Senior Greys won, which gives them the lead again.

The scheduled softball game between the counselors and campers was halted abruptly by a thunderstorm Sunday night. The staff team was in the midst of a big rally when the storm came.

Saturday night several skits were put on by the counselors for the All Camp Dramatics night. This group is headed by Jerry Hoeflerle. Among the counselors contributing to the program were Ian Wilson, Fred Kassner, Bill McAnich, Jim Kendall and John Pielmetr.

Cabins No. 13, 16, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 spent their cabin nights in town seeing a movie.

The continuation of the staff-camper softball game was cancelled by another rainy afternoon.

Monday afternoon Camp Charlevoix won three of the four events in the first inter-camp competition of the summer. Camp Santa Maria at Gaylord sent up three teams. Charlevoix won the senior baseball, 17 to 13; the tennis match, 6 to 0; and the swimming meet 53 to 29. Santa Maria won the intermediate softball game 21 to 9.

IT TOOK 50 YEARS
TO BRING YOU
THIS NEW TASTE THRILL!

To everyone in Michigan
looking for the very finest in Beer!

You have a new taste thrill in store for you and it took 50 years to create it! That's a long time to wait for anything, but when you taste the Extra Pale Fox De Luxe we're now brewing, you'll say it was worth waiting for.

Back of this new taste thrill is 50 years of dreaming, thinking and working. Fifty years ago, in 1897, I began working in a small Wisconsin brewery—literally, from the bottom up. This work was hard but it stimulated my desire to someday make the finest beer in the world.

In later years I visited leading breweries in Europe, studied their methods, tested their beers. But not until I reached the Bohemian hop fields and found the world's finest hops, did I discover the secret I was after.

The secret was twofold: first, select an exclusive strain of Bohemian hops; second, develop a unique process of blending these hops into the brew.

When I became President of Fox De Luxe Brewing Co., our technical staff began developing this blending process. During the war years imported hops were not available in commercial quantities. But we continued our research in the laboratory.

Now our blending process is perfected. On the occasion of my 50th anniversary I am happy and proud to present you with the realization of my dream: the finest beer in the world... Extra Pale Fox De Luxe!

Belvedere News

By Sally Bagby

Marion Craig is the Life Guard again this year at the Belvedere Beach. Bud Kohler has charge of the Boys' Gang, a group of young boys who join in some of the activities afforded by Charlevoix, and Marjorie Wood has charge of the Girls' Gang, a similar group of younger girls.

Miss Cella Travis is again teaching dancing to the children of the Belvedere, which she has been doing here for many years, and is assisted this year by Betty White.

Among the guests now staying at the Belvedere Hotel is Mrs. Powell Crosley, wife of the manufacturer of Crosley radios, from Cincinnati; David M. Yates, former President of Sears, Roebuck and Co., is also enjoying a visit at the Belvedere; as is Margaret Gunther, prominent in golf circles in Tennessee, where she holds the Women's Championship.

Most of the cottagers have arrived now, and nearly all the cottages are open. Mrs. W. M. Bernis, who has been coming up here for many years, arrived recently. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moss and family have opened their cottage, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Stevens have arrived. Mrs. Stevens is now serving on the Board of Trustees. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Allen, Jr., and their child have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Allen, Sr., for the past few days. Proe Wright is again in charge of the tennis courts, and he is offering this year a line of rackets, the Proe Wright Specials.

The Tow Line ...

Wonder how many folks remember Leona McKinley who used to teach English in high school. She is now Mrs. Robert Pitman of Flint. Mr. and Mrs. Pitman and son, Bobby, were making the rounds Monday looking up old friends. Mrs. Pitman has been teaching history during the past few years in Flint when the teacher situation became so critical. The Pitman daughter is an airplane hostess on the Delta Line flying from Miami to Porto Rico. Remember Ney Smith of Detroit? He is up in these parts visiting his former buddies.

Like father, like son. Monday a ketch came gliding into Round Lake and we discovered it was brought in by Jack Colter, son of Red Colter formerly of Charlevoix, who is now in Detroit. Couldn't keep away from Charlevoix. His boat was one made by Bill Bellinger. Mrs. Griffin was on the boat "Tar Baby" that came into port this week. Her husband was in the Machinac Races. Last year he was one of the winners. The Snite family, (remember the Snite boy in the iron lung) were in port this week. That white fence along the sidewalk leading to the C. M. Novak home is a great spot for the kiddies in that neighborhood to hold their gang meetings. Mrs. Clyde Warner was wearing a million dollar smile this week. "I'm really thrilled," she said. "Got a brand new Dodge this week, and after driving an old car for 11 years, this is really an event in our family."

Please be a good sport and clean up the beach for the next guy after you have had a party. One boy cut his foot seriously on a broken bottle someone left. A littered beach is an unpleasant sight, particularly if you're planning to have a picnic. So clean up the litter of your own party and let's keep Charlevoix beaches beautiful—and tidy.

Mrs. Kuiper Rites Held At Ellsworth

Ellsworth—Mrs. Albert Kuiper, 78, died Saturday morning after an extended illness, at the home of her son, Jay, in Fairview vicinity.

The former Jennie Karreman was born Sept. 27, 1868 in Grand Rapids, the daughter of Anthony and Cora Benjamin Karreman, pioneers of Grand Rapids. She was married Jan. 25, 1891, came with her family to a farm in Lakeview community, 4½ miles south of Ellsworth in 1913.

In 1945 they moved to Ellsworth after their farm home burned. She was a member of Ellsworth Christian Reformed church, where funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. G. A. Lyzenga officiating.

She leaves the husband, four sons, Anthony and Jay of Ellsworth R. I.; George of Central Lake, R. I. and Albert, Jr., of Grand Rapids; two daughters, Mrs. Effie Weidenaar of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Cornelius Van Andle of Battle Creek; twenty-six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Interment was in Ellsworth cemetery.

Committees Named For Ellsworth Roast Ox Barbecue

Ellsworth—Plans for holding the annual ox roast barbecue on August 14 are nearly completed.

Marvin Elzinga, chairman has appointed the following committees: sports, Max Bolser and Harold Edson; music, Donald Shooks and Eugene Supernaw; beef, W. E. Coeling, August Vandervark and James H. Elzinga; publicity, John Timmer, Ethel Edson, Walter Rood and Marvin Elzinga; concessions, W. L. Chellis, Emory J. Wilson, Ethel Edson, Zell Bricker, Klon Johnston, Anthony M. Shooks and Hans DeYoung; stands, Richard Dennis, Jr., Robert Dennis, George Koster and Henry Elzinga; grounds, "Bud" Best and "Bud" Chellis.

The barbecue, sponsored by the Jansen-Richardson post American Legion, will be held in the park near the Big Fish Inn. For evening entertainment, efforts are being made to get motion pictures on the Foretune mountains, or similar nature pictures.

Barnard Bureau To Meet On Aug. 21

The Barnard Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emerald Bolhuis Thursday evening for their July meeting. Eleven members were present.

Discussion on the topic: "Will Our Farm Market Be Adequate?" was led by George Block and Mrs. John L. Boss.

The group approved the idea of government controlled curtailment of production to be determined in cooperation with farm representatives.

Refreshments were served by the hostess following adjournment of the meeting.

The next meeting will be held Aug. 21 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Boss.

Two Men Are Asked To Be On State Board

Two Charlevoix men have been invited to become members of the state-wide sponsoring committee of the new United Health and Welfare Fund of Michigan.

They are Robert Bridge and Gordon Fregman.

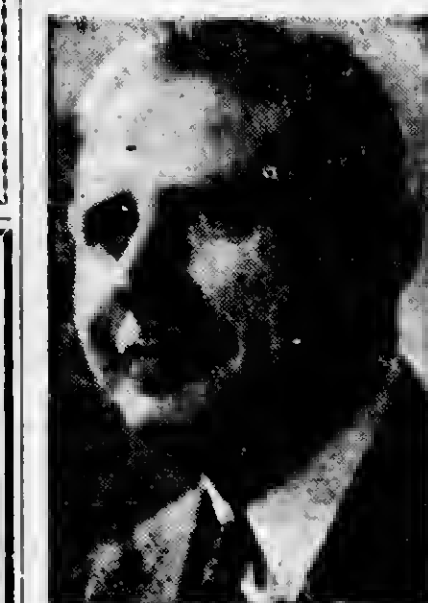

The organization is that proposed by Henry Ford II in Detroit to unify all charitable drives in Michigan, and serve as a magnified community chest for the entire state.

State Police To Seek New Recruits Tuesday

Young men who would like to join the Michigan State Police will have the opportunity of applying next Tuesday.

Sgt. Edgar Voth, commander of the Gaylord post, will be there that day to interview applicants. The State Police are now recruiting to bring the Department up to prewar strength.

U. S. A. HEGGBLOM

U. S. A. Heggblom of Manistique, Republican candidate for Congress, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Charlevoix and Antrim Counties and while here renewed his challenge to debate the issues of the campaign with his opponents.

Heggblom, a practicing attorney for 25 years, has the W.C.T.U. endorsement for Congress as well as other public spirited groups including Townsends and organized labor. He was a member of the Michigan delegation to the Wilkie Convention at Philadelphia in 1940 and also a Michigan delegate to the Dewey Convention at Chicago in 1944.

At a Union labor conference at St. Ignace on July 13 a secret vote of delegates was taken to determine labor's preference for Congressman and U. S. A. Heggblom received more votes than all of his opponents on both tickets. The labor council at Alpena composed of all the unions in that county gave him unanimous support at their political action meeting Monday evening.

Heggblom says "We must make democracy work and then we need not fear foolish communist propaganda." (Political Advertisement)

Mrs. McGhan Again Heads Auxiliary

Mrs. Eyda McGhan was re-elected president of the American Legion Auxiliary at the annual election of officers held at the Legion Hall Monday evening.

Others who were renominated for another term were Mrs. Lillian Ulrich, first vice president; Mrs. Ruth Smith, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Geraldine Carey, secretary; Mrs. Vance Walstad, treasurer; Mrs. Eva McGhan, chaplain; Mrs. Lillian Hull, sergeant at arms; Mrs. Lela Allard, historian and publicity.

At the business meeting which followed Sharon Butler gave a report on the annual Girl's State held at Ann Arbor last month which she attended as the Charlevoix representative. Other guests were her mother, Mrs. Percy Butler and Mrs. Jennie Arthur of Belding, a former resident who is visiting at the home of Mrs. McGhan.

A social hour and refreshments followed. Plans were made for the next meeting to be held on Aug. 18 at the home of Mrs. J. Sidorowicz.

Charlevoix Boy Wins Prize Calf

Because of his ability to see differences in Jerseys in a recent dairy judging contest Charles Walter Murrell of R. 1, Charlevoix is richer by one well bred Jersey Bull calf. The calf was given as a judging prize by the Garstang Farm of Harbor Springs where the contest was held.

Sixteen boys and 1 girl representing clubs in both Charlevoix and Emmet counties participated. Charles Murrell made 122 points out of a possible 150. Howard Campbell, Route 1, Charlevoix was second while Jim Fiedler and Earl Haskins tied for third.

A herd of Guernseys was judged at the Everett Shepard farm of Harbor Springs later in the afternoon. Here, Vern Freeman of Michigan State college, who conducted the judging contest, gave demonstrations in fitting and showmanship.

Charles will make a trip to the Garstang farm some day this week to bring home his prize. He now has a Holstein calf as his 4-H project and hasn't yet decided what he will do with his prize Jersey.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh.

"Not Responsible For Wife's Debts"

A young man came rushing into the Charlevoix office the other day and wanted me to print an ad—"right quick"—saying he won't be responsible for his wife's debts from now on, as he's leaving her for good immediately.

I followed as how the forms were all closed up, and it was too late to take his ad. He says: "All right, Monday then"—and we agreed on Monday.

Of course, the forms weren't closed. But I had kind of an inkling of what might happen. Then Sunday day he phoned me, and says, kind of sheepishly: "You can forget that ad. Me and the missus have everything all patched up. And we're having a friendly glass of beer, right now."

From where I sit, if you give folks time enough to think things over, those hasty quarrels that come so often from misunderstanding will give way to tolerance and common sense.

Mrs. Hazel Crain's Mother Dies Here

Mrs. Florence L. Maxwell, 66, wife of Burt D. Maxwell, died Thursday at the Charlevoix Hospital where she had been a patient for a week. She had been in failing health for several months.

Born in East Bay township,
Grand Traverse county, on Feb.
8, 1881, Florence Lucie Welch spent most of her life in that area except for a few years when she lived in Miami, Fla., Vassar and Charlevoix.

She is survived by her husband,
whom she married on Oct. 11,
1933; three daughters, Mrs. Grace
L. Dann, of Miami, Mrs. Inez
Nelson of Traverse City and Mrs.
Hazel Crain, of Charlevoix; a brother, Clayton Bosard of Hammond, Ind.; three brothers Claude and Clayton Welch and Owen
Hahn and two sisters, Mrs. Mildred
Curry and Mrs. Gloria Bobo, all of California; 12 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church, Vassar, at 2 p. m. Sunday with the Rev.
Frank Hartley officiating. Burial was in the Riverside cemetery.

Officers of Banks School Are Re-elected

Ellsworth—All officers of the Banks Township public school board have been re-elected as follows: President, Charles D.

Edson; secretary, William Potter;

treasurer, Anthony Kuiper.

At the annual school meeting held last week Monday Anthony Kuiper was re-elected as trustee for three years. Sale of vacant school in the township was approved by voters, but a propo-tion to raise an additional five mills taxes to finance repairs and to add to the building fund was rejected by a vote of 53 to 45.

More and Better Hospitals

In a progressive state such as Michigan, there is a constant need for the extension and expansion of hospital facilities. Good hospitals, geographically placed for the better convenience of all the people of Michigan, mean a healthier state in which to live—and it is characteristic of the doctors of medicine in Michigan that their leadership is applied in this direction. Your medical doctor is your watchdog and spokesman for the advancement of your health care through the furtherance of more abundant hospital accommodations. It is one of the reasons why Michigan leads the way in health progress.

When is a rate increase a good thing for telephone users?

The right price is "the lowest possible price that will assure you of good quality." That's true of everything you buy, including telephone service.

So—answering the question above—a rate increase is a good thing for telephone users when it is needed to protect their interests from a service standpoint.

The last time there was an increase in telephone rates was 21 years ago. From 1926 until 1937, rates went down substantially. Since 1937, there have been still further local reductions in a number of exchanges and decreases in toll rates. Except for those further reductions, 1937 rates haven't changed, although the cost of most things—wages, taxes, supplies—has gone up.

Just since the war, wage adjustments alone have upped our costs $11,000,000 a year. This includes settlements reached during the recent strike.

Lump all our costs together and you'll find they've gone up much faster than our income. Since 1937, our income has gone up 141%. But costs have gone up 193%. And our return on investment has dropped more than a third.

NOTE: Where the term "Income" is used above, its meaning is the same as "Revenue" or "Gross Income." Where the term "Investment" is used, it means the original cost of the telephone property less the depreciation reserve accrued against the ultimate retirement of the property.

Now we face the fact that 1937 rates won't work in 1947.

We don't like a rate increase any more than you do. We've waited until the last possible moment to ask for one. But that moment has now arrived.

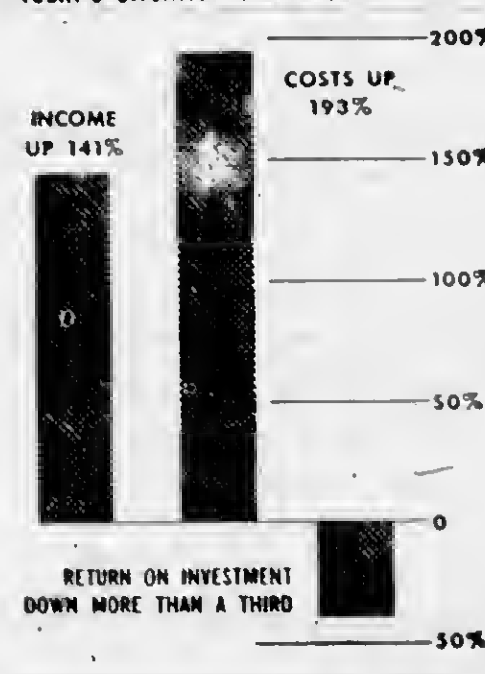

There's a lot of work to be done and a lot of money to be spent to give more and better service to everybody who wants it. The money will have to come from investors. They will furnish it only if they can be sure of a fair return, which our present rates are simply too low to provide. A growing business, especially, has to earn a good return in order to attract the capital needed for growth.

Telephone rates are regulated by the Michigan Public Service Commission, a body established by State law and appointed by the Governor. We're going to ask the Commission for a public hearing to review our proposed new schedule of rates. During the week of August 3, we'll publish details of the proposed rates throughout Michigan Bell territory. After that, we'll file a petition with the Public Service Commission.

The whole future of Michigan's telephone service depends on raising rates enough to assure the financial stability of your telephone company. We're sure you want us to take this step to assure you the kind of service you want.

Minutes of Annual Meeting CHARLEVOIX PUBLIC SCHOOLS JULY 14, 1947

Meeting was called to order at 8:15 p. m., in the High School Session Hall by President Bonnie Nickerson.

Minutes of the previous Annual Meeting, held July 6, 1946, were read. It was moved by Howard E. Brumm, seconded by Max Novak, that the minutes be approved as read. Motion passed.

The Chairman of the Election Board, Max Novak, gave the following report on the election today for two trustees for three year term, expiring July, 1950: 70 votes cast; 63 votes for Fred Willis, 49 votes for Bonnie Nickerson, 27 votes for Harold M. Totten. Messrs. Willis and Nickerson were elected as trustees for the above mentioned term.

The Annual Report of the Secretary was read. Moved by Walker Miles, supported by Mr. M. E. Wakefield, that the Secretary's Report be accepted as read. Motion passed.

The Report of the Treasurer for the year 1946-47 was read. Mrs. Charles J. Blich, moved, Mrs. Charles Blich seconded, that the report be approved as read. Motion carried.

The Report on the Library from June 1, 1946 to June 1, 1947 was read. Moved by Charles J. Blich, supported by Howard E. Brumm, that the report be accepted as read. Motion passed.

There was a discussion of various possibilities of providing more classroom space, a Music Room, and enlarging the Industrial Arts Shop, and the necessity of a new High School building as soon as feasible. It was moved by Glenn Ingalls, seconded by Larry E. Towe, that the School Board hire a school engineer to draw up plans for the needed additions. Mr. Totten made the following amendment, supported by Mrs. Blich: The school engineer should be asked to submit plans on a long-range scale, so that all additions can be of a permanent nature and fit into the ultimate building layout. The amendment was voted on and passed. The motion as amended was voted on and passed.

It was moved by Mr. Totten, seconded by Mr. Miles, that in the future the election polls for school trustees be held open until 8:00 p. m., thereby giving the rural voters and others employed during the day a better opportunity to get to the polls. Motion passed.

There was a discussion of the problems of operating the library. Even though it is a community as well as a school library, the cost of operation has always been paid by the school. It was the feeling that the city should bear its share of expense, and the Board was asked to send two of its members to confer with the City Council on the question.

Moved by Walker Miles, supported by Max Novak, that the salaries for the Board trustees remain at $150 each for the year 1947-48. Motion passed.

Moved by Mr. Brumm, seconded by Mr. R. S. Richards, that the meeting be adjourned. Motion passed and meeting adjourned at 9:45 p. m.

Respectfully submitted,
CATHERINE C. BERGEON,
Secretary.

BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Where on Lake Michigan can you find a nicer beach than the one at Sand Bay? The sparkling sand, which can be seen as the boat nears the island, is called "singing sand" as a sound is produced when one burrows or scrapes the surface.

A number of sail boats and yachts have tied up at Gallaghers dock recently.

The Arthur Millers were very happy when the sail boat "Stormy Weather" visited the island this week. Bill and Jessie Miller were aboard, Bill having competed in the race from Port Huron to Mackinac. This was a grand surprise for Bill's parents.

Mrs. Irene Sanborn flew in last Sunday to visit her children who are spending the summer with Mrs. Art Larsen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rhue and two children of Chicago are spending their vacation on the island.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Smith, Chicago, have arrived and plan on spending the summer at their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Ryan, Chicago, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Malloy.

In the absence of Father Fabian, Father Sylvester, O.F.M. is on the island to administer the affairs of Holy Cross Parish.

Mary Catherine and Jerry Hanley left last Monday with their uncle, Henry Allen, to spend a few weeks in Ann Arbor.

Recently, the barbers on the island were given praise. A word must be said about the hairdressers. Undisputed top rating goes to Mary Wojan who displays remarkable talent. Her ability as a hair stylist can be matched with the best in the business. You should see her fancy up-sweep! A familiar figure on Beaver Island is missing this summer, Skippy, the huge St. Bernard, owned by the LaFreniere family for the past 13 years was recently laid to rest and a faithful friend and pet is gone.

Joanne Lyons, Indianapolis, was the guest of the Hanleys during the week.

Father Thomas Lyons, Father John Quinn, and Joseph Lyons, Indianapolis, spent a few days at Allen's house.

Dr. and Mrs. Russell Palmer are sporting a new blue Dodge.

About 20 members of the Oakland County Junior Sportsmens Club arrived last Tuesday for a week on the island. They are housed in Christie Gallagher's home, near Sand Bay. The boys seem to be having a wonderful time.

The Christian Brothers, who come to the island every other summer for a 30-day retreat, arrived Tuesday. The brothers have a retreat house in a beautiful location near the village of St. James.

Rose Lees, Detroit, came to vacation with her sister and her family, the George Millers, but I hear George has put her to work mixing cement for his cabin floor.

Maurene and Norris Runberg, Boy City, will spend the summer on the island. They arrived a week ago.

The wild strawberries were plentiful, larger than usual and very delicious this summer. Plenty of short cake was served during the season.

Mrs. Johnny Andy Gallagher and children spent a pleasant week at the Head Light House where Johnny is stationed.

One of Earle Boyle's biscuits was displayed on an onter of the big Moosehead in the Tavern the other night. Earle's hospitality prompted him to send his friend, Bob Peterson, a sample of his culinary efforts. Peterson, discovering he could neither bite nor break the biscuits, decided they would be better as decorations. An auger was used to pierce a hole in the rock-like substance before it could be hung on the antler. Although Moosehead objected, objections were overruled.

Bazaar at Milton Block's Store July 31, Aug. 1, put on by the Methodist WSCS. Baked goods, aprons, fancy word.

Inwood News

Mrs. Charles Wells

Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Johnson and son, Douglas of Muskegon have returned home after spending the past week with Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hammond. The Hammond's also had as their guests over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hammond of Grand Haven.

The Sutton family reunion picnic was held at the tourist park at Charlevoix last Sunday. Those who attended were: Mrs. Emma Sutton, Miss Shirley Sauri, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trimble, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sutton and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sutton of East Jordan, Mrs. George Ulrich and daughter, Huberta of Key West, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Johnson and son, Douglas of Muskegon.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Saunders and son from Pittsburgh spent Monday through Friday visiting at the homes of Mark and Oakley Saunders.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Achobach and children of South Bend, Ind., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Crandall.

Edward Nachazel who has been attending school in Chicago and Margie Nachazel of Muskegon arrived home Saturday for the summer months.

The Helping Hand Club will have their annual picnic at the East Jordan tourist park Aug. 3 at 1 p. m.

Saturday 24 boy scouts of troop 4 and their leader, Fred Crandall of Garden City will arrive at the Homer Crandall farm for a week's camping trip. The boys spent last summer here and had such a splendid time swimming and fishing in Knowlton lake that they planned a return trip.

Gordon Boyer had the misfortune of losing a valuable milk cow last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bowen and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wetzel of Detroit who have been fishing in Canada the past week spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. John Knudsen on their return to Detroit.

Mrs. Oakley Saunders is attending the Farm Women's Week at Lansing.

Cover Crop Can Be Seeded In Corn

A wet year, such as 1947 has been so far, is a good year for sowing a cover crop when corn is cultivated for the last time. B. R. Churchill, specialist in farm crops at Michigan State College, says that either domestic rye grass or sweet clover is good for this purpose.

Domestic rye grass produces an excellent cover crop for over winter when sown in corn and can be plowed under the following spring as a green manure crop. It is not suitable for pasture use. It should be sown at the rate of approximately 10 pounds to the acre.

Sweet clover does not thrive as well when sown in corn as does domestic rye grasses, but if a good stand is obtained it can be pastured the following summer or plowed under as a green manure crop. Ten pounds to the acre is the rate for seeding sweet clover. Mixtures of rye grass and sweet clover sometimes produce good stands.

Churchill points out, that the use of these cover crops is particularly important on slopes where erosion is a factor and in fields where green manure is needed.

Farm Safety Week

Farm Safety Week, being observed from July 20 to 26, emphasizes the need for careful consideration of the high toll of life and property taken by farm accidents.

Here are a few of the facts concerning farm accidents:
1. Last year, 479 accidents on Michigan farms took the lives of 169 persons and painfully injured 310.

2. Ninety percent of the Michigan farm accidents reported during 1946 involved burns, machinery, falls, and livestock. The remaining ten percent were due to various causes, chief of which were falling objects, firearms, and hand tools.

3. Agriculture has more accidental work deaths per worker than any other major industry. Farm families should observe farm safety week by making a check of safety hazards. A safety plan will bring safe living 52 weeks a year.

Fight Bugs With the Right Weapons

When insects attack your garden, it's a good idea to know what kind of bug you're fighting before you start dousing them with chemicals.

Ray Hutson, head of the Michigan State College entomology department, says that garden insects are of two large classes: suckers and chewers. Water and food carrying vessels of the plant are the food for sucking insects such as leafhoppers, plant lice, and scale insects. Plants that are attacked by them become discolored and wilted. These bugs can be controlled with contact poisons made of nicotine in dusts and sprays. The spray mixture should be made by adding three teaspoons of forty percent nicotine sulphate to a gallon of water. To this solution add two teaspoons of powdered soap to act as a wetting agent for each gallon of spray. For dusting, use a three to five percent DDT compound.

Chewing insects are best controlled with stomach poisons. These pests remove, chew, and swallow parts of the plant. Cutworms, grasshoppers, and grubs are in this class. For dusting use DDT in a three to five percent mixture. Rotenone as a dust is used in a 0.5 or 0.75 percent mixture. DDT or rotenone spray mixtures should be prepared according to the manufacturer's directions.

Mr. Mrs. Edwards Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Albert V. Edwards celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on July 15.
Following an all-day trip through northern Michigan they had a family dinner at their home. The dinner was prepared and served by their daughters at a table decorated with flowers and lighted tapers.
In the evening a group of friends gathered for games, refreshments and a social hour. Mr. and Mrs. Beecher, of St. Louis, Mo., won the buncos prizes. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Novotny, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Wick-ersham, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Howard North, Miss Elaine Edwards, Douglas Byers and Albert Edwards of Windsor, Ont.
The couple received many lovely gifts, cards and other remembrances of the occasion.

Mrs. Mildred Coblenz returned Monday from Detroit where she attended a convention of Gleaner Life Insurance representatives at the Fort Shelby Hotel. While there she also visited her brother, Wilson Howe and his family.

News of folks, your neighbors and mine... but did you know that—

House guests of Mrs. Georgia Gloster are Mrs. Hattie McMeekin of St. Clair and Mrs. George A. Brown of Detroit. Well, did you see Clark Gable on Venetian Night? Well, maybe it wasn't the gentleman himself, but certainly his double. Whew, what a crowd this old town packed in Sunday for the parade. Since our arrival in town last October, we have heard many stories about the beauty of Venetian Night. And folks were not wrong on their stories. Charles Bellingher said this was the first year he has not been in the parade, and that was because he sold his boat this year. This was his first chance to be a spectator.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Louiselle attended the American Society Piano Tuners Convention at the Statler Hotel last week. According to the piano tuners, the world is all out of tune. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neff and daughter of Newberry spent a week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lance Neff. Robert is in charge of the State Police Post at Newberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gattelman of Buffalo, N. Y., are visiting their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. LaBrel on Clinton St. After spending ten days with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Arnold, Mrs. Pearl Tegedine of Oakland, Cal., left Monday on her return trip. Young Tommy Fessenden took his dad Tuesday morning for a camping trip for a few days up to Wilderness Park. What a lark!

K. N. Horwitz of St. Louis has arrived for the remainder of the summer. Mrs. R. A. Biederman, also of St. Louis is another summer arrival. The William Ockrents of Cincinnati are among the late summer arrivals, having been here but a week, however, they got here in time to see their petunia drive in all its beauty.

There are several hundred petunia plants in the two long beds bordering the drive and they have plenty of eye appeal. Also have you noticed the petunia boxes in front of the Turkey Wing, blossoming their heads off? Personal nomination for a real copper tan pair of legs, Marian Craig. There are wonderful concerts and entertainments going on at Interlochen Bowl these days. Beginning Thursday night of this week the Gilbert and Sullivan Opera "Patience" will be given. Mrs. Leslie S. Lee of the Belvedere Club said that when she was a child she used to hear parents tell of times "in our day." Now, when youngsters wonder what they can do if they do not have access to an outboard motor or a sailboat, she thinks of the time "in her day" when the young crowd on the Belvedere used to row across Round Lake and hie themselves to town to get a merry widow sundae. Then back across the lake and finish it off with a swim.

Week-end guests of the Meyer Levinsons were Al Levinson, Mrs. Arthur Cohen, Ida Levinson, all of Cincinnati and Mrs. Al Sugarnan of Columbus, Ohio. Now we learn that Sunday night over at Kenosha, Wis., there was a tidal wave. It was a good thing that did not happen on this side of Lake Michigan. Or children to the folks who decorated the Ward boat that took first place in the Venetian Parade. With the loan of an Indian bonnet from Camp Charlevoix, and a bit of imagination plus $100 in expense, a clever float was made. Mary Frances Zeitler who posed as the Indian maiden, on the bow of the boat got so excited in the parade that before she knew it she had shot her bow and arrow. It's a good thing the arrow went astray for it was a big heavy one.

Folks had plenty of company this week-end but Mrs. Howard Brumman really had the crowd, in fact, she had thousands of visitors, a swarm of bees in the hollow tree at their house. Rev. Gaylord Howell is beginning to think that folks believe the lawn at the Methodist parsonage is another park. Folks are using it for short cuts, throw empty bottles on the lawn, sandwich bags and other picnic supplies. Charlevoix has a slogan "Charlevoix the Beautiful". Rev. Howell has resented the lawn and is doing his best to make it attractive. It would be mighty nice if folks would cooperate with him. Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Fisher and son, David of Detroit spent last week in Charlevoix visiting Mrs. Fisher's brother, Charles Powell.

Dr. Mann Lists Four Obstacles to World Peace

Only har to a peaceful world today is man's refusal to give up his prejudices and his hates and his greed and obey the Bible, Rabbi Louis L. Mann of Chicago told a packed audience at the Congregational church Sunday.

If mankind would obey the Ten Commandments, the Sermon on the Mount, the Beatitudes even for one day, he said, a worldwide revolution would occur. It would be a revolution which would put our upside down world right side up.

Must Gain in Spirit
There are four great obstacles to peace that are loose in the world today.

First is perilous prejudice, "Prejudice," explained Dr. Mann, "is being down on any thing but not up on it. It is the dislike of the unlike. We are not born with prejudices; we acquire them. The very word itself, coming from the Latin, means judging before we have the facts."

Racism Great Obstacle
The second great obstacle is rankerous racism. "Racism is the most explosive myth of the 20th Century. We still cannot be sure that Hitler's race myth hasn't wrecked the world. It came close to it and still may."

"As a people, we always have been willing to die for democracy but we are not willing to live democratically."

Ethics of Robber
Pernicious power politics is the third of the four. Civilization today faces the choice of cooperation or annihilation. Power politics simply is world application of the ethics of the highway robber. It means we value soil more than souls; that raw materials and raw deals are closely associated.

On the world outlook Dr. Mann frankly is pessimistic. "We are between the devil and the deep sea. We spent billions to crush Germany. Now we must spend many further billions to build her up if we are to keep Communism from sweeping Europe and the world. And if we do build her up we are laying the foundation for World War III."

U. S. Killed U. N.
The country killed the United Nations when it issued the Truman Doctrine. By so doing it, it by-passed the U. N. For the Truman Doctrine simply was a de-

Camp Meeting Opens Friday

The Church of God will hold its annual Camp Meeting at the grounds near the Loeb School Aug. 1 to Aug. 11.

The evangelist will be Rev. John Winters of Ramona Lake, Ind. Sunday there will be three services. On week days an afternoon and evening service will be held.

No services will be held at the Church of God here during this time due to the Camp meeting.

Naval Pictures to Be Shown VFW Meeting
Movies of actual naval battle scenes will be shown Thursday night to VFW members, their families and friends following the refreshments at 8:30.

Capt. Hubert Paddock has obtained the films. Afterward there will be dancing. VFW business meetings have been discontinued until the Sept. 11 meeting.

Big Colorful Venetian Night Parade Delights Thousands Who Throng City
Rated as one of the best if not the best Venetian Night spectacle ever put on here, Charlevoix gave a colorful show to its thousands of guests Sunday.

Even the weather, after looking rainy for 36 hours, cooperated by clearing up in the afternoon and evening.

A new feature was added this year in the crowning of a Venetian Night queen, Sally Miller, who was attended by her court of six Virginia Ranger, Marian Craig, Jean Hammond, Anne Campbell, Nancy Heering and Audrey Byers.

William Ockrent gave the use of his Bobby O. II, and decorated it. Seated on a velvet throne and surrounded by her court on the brightly lighted foredeck, Sally was formally crowned by Harbor Master Joseph Howard at 9 p. m.

While the Queen's boat cruised Round Lake, the traditional fireworks were shot from the Chicago Club island by Ray Hamilton and the two lines of decorated craft came slowly from Lake Charlevoix.

Towing the two lines were the cruisers of Julius Gilbert and H. O. Krahnke. Judges of decorations were Capt. Jerome Shotton of the Chez Moi, St. Louis; Capt. Erwin S. Toplon of the Estelle, Chicago; Capt. H. W. Angsten of Glorene II, Oak Park;

Potter Takes G.O.P. Race for Congress Post

Playing on the sympathy angle and backed by a whirlwind campaign in his home county, Charles E. Potter was overwhelmingly nominated as Republican candidate for the vacant seat in Congress in the special primary Monday.

Except in Cheboygan county, Potter's own, the vote was distressingly small.

Harold D. Beaton of Escanaba was Democratic nominee over Violet Patterson.

Wednesday morning Clerk F. R. Bulow had reports from 20 of the 25 Charlevoix precincts. The totals for city and county were:

Drive On Barbary Bush Starts Here
Reinspection and eradication of common barberry bushes in Charlevoix is underway.

In charge is James McPhillips, district representative of the Department of Agriculture for the eradication work. Barbary serves as host plant in the spring to the black stem rust, the most destructive of all diseases of wheat, rye, barley and oats.

By getting rid of the barberry, the disease can be eliminated. The barberry has gray bark, rough leaf edges, red berries in bunches and three or more thorns in a place.

Adrian Dean to Talk at Methodist Church
Dean W. A. Rush of Adrian College will serve as preacher at the Methodist church on Aug. 10, 17 and 24, when Rev. Gaylord Howell will be on vacation.

Dr. Rush preached here last year. Bishop Raymond J. Wade will fill the pulpit on Aug. 31.

Rev. and Mrs. Howell plan to leave Tuesday on a month's vacation, returning the first week in September. They plan first to visit the Upper Peninsula, then go to Indiana by way of Chicago. In Indiana they will visit their parents.

Coast Guardsmen Recover Body
Charlevoix Coast Guardsmen Saturday recovered the body of Thomas Carothers, 54, of Cincinnati, who was drowned on July 21 when he was thrown from a motor boat in the south arm of Walloon Lake.

Coastguardsmen and county and state police officials continued grappling operations all week until the body was recovered.

Mr. Carothers had been a Walloon Lake summer resident for many years. The body was taken to Cincinnati for funeral services and burial.

North Blendon Sends Call to Rev. Dykstra

Hospital Giving Community Increased Service

Youngsters' Show Nets Hospital $70

Nightly practices for two weeks resulted in a check for $70.12 going to the new Hospital building fund this week.

Two weeks ago nine youngsters—8, 9, and 10 years old—decided they wanted to put on a show. They started practicing Saturday at Mrs. J. J. Miller's they put on the show. Admission and refreshment sale brought in the $70.12.

Those taking part were Johnny Coleman, MC; Cynthia Miller, Barbara Wynneham, Johnny Loeb, Benjamin Harris, Richie Green, Jimmie Straus, Judy and Mary Wachenheim.

Church Group Invites Negroes to Meeting

Applied Christianity in interracial relations will be practiced Sunday evening when the Young Adult group of the Methodist church is inviting all Negroes who are summer residents of Charlevoix to come to the bi-weekly discussion meeting.

Scheduled to start at 7 p. m., it will be led by Rev. Gaylord Howell. All are invited, Rev. Howell says, whether summer residents or guests or vacationists here.

Following the discussion period, there will be an informal hour for conversation.

State Presidents To Speak At Picnic

Two state presidents will speak at the district picnic of the Farmers Union next Sunday at Bonanza Park just south of Beulah on US-31.

The two presidents are Glen Talbot of North Dakota and Simon P. Martin of Michigan. Talbot will fly from his North Dakota farm to Grand Rapids and Grandville where he will speak at a Farmers Union picnic before coming north.

Talbot will use as his topic: "A Farmer Looks at Today's Problems."

Patluck lunch with ice cream and cake will be served at 1 p. m. President Martin was here last Tuesday and spoke at the Charlevoix County Farmers Union meeting at Norwood Local hall. His topic was "The Danger of Monopoly."

He warned that farmers are in danger of losing progressive rural projects like the REA, AAA and cited the instance of Congress refusing needed funds for carrying on soil conservation work but voted 400 million for Greek and Turkish aid. He spoke to a full house.

110 Attend State Table Toppers Convention Here

Plans for the new Charlevoix Hospital and reports on the past year featured the annual meeting of the Hospital Board Wednesday night at the City Hall.

The architect's model of the proposed building was on display and discussed and suggestions made by the firm were reported to the meeting.

Reports were presented by Peter Timmer, Board secretary, and Miss Katherine Nolan, hospital superintendent.

The latter showed a materially increased use of the institution by the community. The financial report showed an increase both in income and outgo.

The superintendent's report showed that the community's use of the hospital increased almost 65 percent in the past year, based on the number of patients treated. The decrease in the number of patient days indicated that on the whole patients are staying in the hospital fewer days. The report showed:

	1947	1946
Patients treated	1165	758
Number of births	223	160
Operations	521	351
X-ray patients	719	351
Patient days	4317	6041

The financial statement, in contrast to 1946, showed an operating deficit. Two facts make this deficit appear larger than it actually is. Thirteen months have been charged against 1947, bills of both June 1946 and 1947 being included. Secondly, the refund from the city on water and light had not been received when the statement was made up. This amounts to about $1400.

The chief items were:

	1947	1946
Patients	$51,533.32	$42,646.06
Donations	2,981.00	4,329.06
Misc.	3,179.89	233.03
	$57,694.31	$47,205.05
Expenditures	$34,742.13	$23,525.01
Salaries	26,370.86	17,633.24
Supplies	3,279.31	3,054.20
Bills	$64,392.30	$44,212.45

The balance on hand dropped from $16,349.69 a year ago to $9,651.70.

Belvedere News

By Sally Bagby

Events of the Belvedere for the past week included the bi-weekly games, card parties, the Beach Luncheon and three evenings of dancing at the Casino for cottage and hotel guests.

Venue night with its boat parade and fireworks took place last Sunday. Boats in the parade from the Belvedere included those of L. I. Replogle, Guy Green, D. D. Walker, L. E. Bisbee and one of the Club sailboats decorated by Dudley Towe.

Two representatives of the Belvedere placed in the swimming competition. Bob Brebner took first place in diving; Nancy Walker placed first in the 50-yard dash and third in diving.

The week of Aug. 18 has been set as the date for the annual golf tournament on the Belvedere course. Players will qualify on Monday and Tuesday, and the matches will be played on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. H. H. Harden, winner of the Men's Championship last year, is expected to compete again. The low scores for the year on this course have been two 77s shot by Margaret Gunther of Memphis, and a 76 shot by Don Streator of Lansing. The former low mark for the course was 82.

Miss Gunther, who holds the Women's Championship of Tennessee, is spending her first summer in Charlevoix at the Belvedere Hotel. She says the Belvedere golf course is "a beautiful course to play, but quite different from the southern courses." She will not be here for the Belvedere Tournament, but may play in the Western Amateur in Chicago. Then she plans to go home to the City Tournament in Memphis.

An exhibition tennis match between Al Reynolds of Camp Charlevoix and Bobby Leatherman of the Belvedere will be played Friday, on the Belvedere courts. Al Reynolds is twice winner of the Eastern Inter-Collegiate Tournament, and former captain and number one man on the Michigan State College team. Bobby Leatherman held the number one position on the team of Saint Paul's school, Concord, N. H.

J. F. Hickey has come from St. Louis to spend the balance of the summer in his cottage. Joe Morris and his wife, the former Keith Freyhoff, are visiting her parents in their cottage here.

Among the many people from St. Louis now vacationing at the Belvedere Hotel are Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Coale, Mrs. A. C. Carpenter, Richard Shelton, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell. Mr. Campbell will show one of his noted travel films, "Rio," Sunday evening in the Casino. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Gibbons of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. William Evans of Oak Park, are also here. Mr. Evans is connected with radio station WGN in Chicago. From the South are Mrs. L. R. Woods and Mrs. Lem P. Woods with her daughter, Nancy Lee of Tampa, Fla.

Sheriff Mrs. Ikens Attend Convention

The annual convention of the Michigan Sheriffs Association was held at Marquette on July 28-30. Sheriff and Mrs. Floyd Ikens of Charlevoix County, and Sheriff and Mrs. John Kilborn of Emmet County left Sunday for the Upper Peninsula to attend the three-day event.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Jane Cupper's "Daring" Bathing Suit

The Cuppers showed me some tin-types of their nineteen-ten vacation—picnicking on the beach with beer and pretzels. In bathing suits that made them look like they were dressed in street-wear.

Dee was smothered in a long-sleeved pull-over with knee length shorts, and looking embarrassed—as if he thought Jane's costume of a heavy blouse, two copious skirts, and long black stockings was a little daring.

We laughed a lot at those costumes... but come to think of it, as Dee says, we'll probably look just as funny twenty years from now, in what we call our "Modern" clothes. Only thing that won't change in the picture is that mellow, wholesome glass of beer.

From where I sit, tolerance that lets us wear sensible, decent clothes—to give us sun and air and freedom—will keep that wholesome glass of beer a part of the American tradition.

Services Held Here For W. S. Gregory

William S. Gregory, 97, resident of northern Michigan for 80 years, died early Saturday morning at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gregory, in Harbor Springs. He had been in failing health for several weeks.

Born in Chatam, Ont., on May 4, 1850, he came to Michigan when 14 and was employed by the Michigan Central railroad in Detroit. Two years later he came by steamboat to Charlevoix, then known as Pine River, to join his parents who had taken up a homestead near Burnard. He was employed at the Elk Rapids Iron Works and later at Ironton and Mancelona when the smelters were moved to those communities.

On Jan. 13, 1876, he was married to Ella Baker. They settled on a homestead in Redmond township, Emmet county and were one of the first white families in this wilderness. They cleared the land and used the logs for their first home near the present site of Cross Village.

The family moved to Hayes township in 1909. Mrs. Gregory died on Feb. 27, 1927. Mr. Gregory continued to live on the farm until 1932 when he came to Charlevoix to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Eva Scott. Since her death in Feb. 1942, he has lived with his son in Harbor Springs and with relatives here and in Detroit.

He is survived by four children of a family of ten. They are: Clarence of Harbor Springs; William of Charlevoix; Mrs. Arlo Crites and Mrs. Charles Spare of Detroit. He also leaves 17 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church here at 2:30 Monday afternoon with the Rev. A. B. Claypool officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

BABY TALK

Births registered at the Charlevoix Hospital recently include: A daughter, Mar Jean, born to Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Gencit, Jr., July 22.

A son, Theodore Allen, born to Mr. and Mrs. Alanson Jeffery of East Jordan, July 22.

A daughter, Janice Elaine, born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Evans of East Jordan, July 24.

A son, Cecil Larry, born to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil L. Drost on July 25.

A son, Robert James, born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Field of Boyne City, July 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest A. Fowler of Grand Rapids announce the birth of a daughter, Penelope on July 28. The child is the first great-grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Horace R. Fowler and Mrs. Jone Durance.

Airport News

Fred Smith arrived Friday from Bay City in his Cub cruiser, returning Monday after a week end visit with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McRae. On the return flight, he was accompanied by Mrs. Smith and her sister, Miss Merle McRae of Detroit, who have spent several weeks with the Smiths.

Mrs. Jack Norton of Sparta was in Friday with her Cessna 140 for a short stay. Mrs. Norton, who was the former Barbara Fowler of Grand Rapids, is an instructor at Sparta airport, which is owned and operated by herself and her husband. She treated her grandparents, Mrs. Jone Durance and H. R. Fowler, to plane rides—the first for each of them.

Appearance of the airport has been greatly improved by mowing the bumper hay crop and by installation of a big new red windsock.

Dick Fochtman was home last week-end and got in a few solo hours in the air. He took his mother, Mrs. Angus Fochtman, for a "hop" around Charlevoix. Ed Hansen, who recently completed instructor's course at McPhillips Flying Service, now has his instructor's rating and has been giving Joe McPhillips a helping hand by being assigned several students.

Students John Zettler Jr. made his first solo flight Saturday. Mary Shwab of the Belvedere Club and Nashville, Tenn., has joined the ranks of student pilots.

Lucille Warner Is Wed At Farm Home

The wedding of Lucille Audrey Warner and George Anderson was solemnized at the farm home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warner Saturday at 8 p. m.

The double ring service was read by Rev. Howard Moore before an altar framed by archway of evergreens and daisies.

The couple was attended by the bride's sister, Irene Warner and Murray Muellerweiss, brother-in-law of the groom. She was given in marriage by her eldest brother, Clyde.

Mrs. Howard Moore, accompanied on the organ by Margaret Blossie, sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Because". During the ceremony the Lutheran wedding march was played. As the couple knelt before the altar, Mrs. Moore sang the Lord's Prayer by Matthe.

The bride chose a suit of white satin with pink accessories. Her corsage was pink and white roses. She wore two strands of pearls, a wedding gift from the groom. Her going away suit was a blue and gray check with red accessories.

The bridesmaid wore a lime green suit identical with the bride's, white accessories and a corsage of white and yellow roses. Mrs. Warner, mother of the bride, wore a powder blue dress and blue flowered hat.

Following the reception, at which the four layer wedding cake and ice cream were served, the couple left on a honeymoon trip to the Upper Peninsula. They will live in Lansing where both are employed at the School for the Blind, he as shop teacher and she as business secretary.

Guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Dixon Warner and son of Dearborn; Mrs. Lewis Brown and Mrs. Lida Walsh of Ironton; Mr. and Mrs. Jiles Warner, Gordon and Louise of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zimmerman, Billy and Nancy of Petoskey; Miss Janet Robertson of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Warner of Pontiac.

Close to Cost!

Now and then someone comes up with the idea that Kroger makes 10% or 15% or even 20% per dollar sale. Actually, Kroger's net income last year was less than 1%. That's not even 2¢ on each dollar of sales. No business shows a smaller profit margin than the retail food business. Kroger prices are always close to cost.

HELP BUILD

on AIR FORCE DAY, AUGUST 1ST

No one today questions the fact that the whole future of the United States may rest in the very clouds over your head. And the new, reorganized Air Forces give thousands of eligible young men an opportunity to take an active part in building America's air power . . . on the ground as well as in the sky.

You may, for example, enlist in the Air Forces for three years. If you have a specialty which will qualify you, you may also be able to enlist in a grade at higher pay.

If you have had Air Forces experience, you may join the Air Reserve and continue your military aviation training outside of business hours.

Or, you may join the Air National Guard and perhaps become eligible for advanced technical training at special Air National Guard schools.

On Air Force Day, make a point of finding out everything about your Air Forces — especially the new Aviation Career Plan described below. Full details can be obtained at your U. S. Army Recruiting Station.

NOW—THE WORLD'S GREATEST OPPORTUNITY FOR A CAREER IN AVIATION

Today the Army Air Forces offer high school graduates an improved and opportunity to get the finest aviation schooling on earth — and select your school or course before you enlist.

The AAF Career Plan is unlike anything ever offered before. It permits selected high school graduates to apply and qualify for AAF specialized courses of their own choice. Simply go to your U. S. Army Recruiting Station, advise the Recruiting Officer the kind of aviation training you want and he will provide you with an application blank and a complete list of available courses.

When you are selected to attend the course of your choice, you enlist in the Army Air Forces for 3, 4 or 5 years. After your basic training period you are guaranteed the education you have selected to make you a specialist in the type of work you want.

Get a list of all the schools and courses open to you under the AAF Aviation Career Plan at your U. S. Army Recruiting Station.

1937 telephone rates won't work in 1947

THERE have been a lot of changes moneywise since 1937. Wages have gone up. Taxes have gone up. Prices of most things have advanced. But during this time, telephone rates haven't budged an inch ahead.

The last rate increase, in fact, was in 1926—21 years ago! From then until 1937 telephone rates went down substantially. Since 1937, there have been even further local reductions in a number of exchanges, and toll rates have come down too. But, in general, the 1937 rates prevail today.

Looking at the other side of the ledger, post-war wage adjustments alone, including settlements reached during the recent strike, have boosted our costs $11,000,000 a year. All our other costs have risen, too.

But our income hasn't gone up nearly as fast as our costs. In the ten years since 1937, income has increased 141%. Costs have gone up 193%. Our return on investment has dropped more than a third.

We've held the line on rates just as long as possible. Now we have to ask for an increase in order to protect our customers' service.

We still have a lot of additions to make to the telephone system before we can give service to those who are waiting, and give better service to everybody. This will take a lot of money . . . money which must come from investors. Investors will put up the money only if they are assured a fair return, which we cannot provide under our present rates. A growing business, especially, has to earn a good return in order to attract the capital needed for growth.

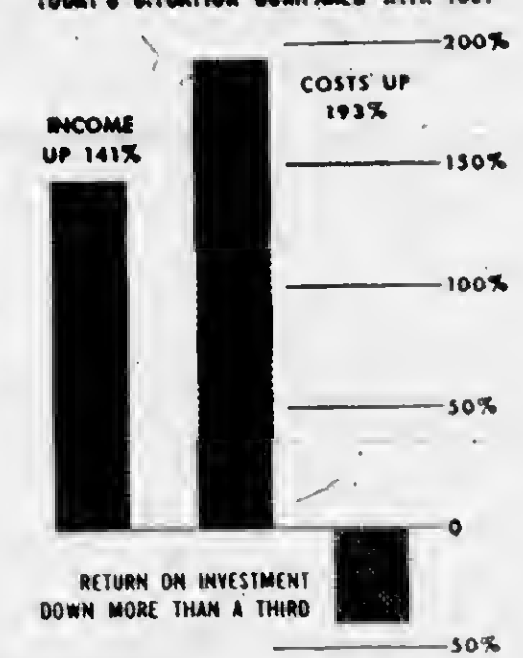

So the future of Michigan's telephone service depends on raising rates enough to assure the financial stability of your telephone company.

That's why we're going to ask the Michigan Public Service Commission for a public hearing to review our proposed new schedule of rates. (The Public Service Commission is the body established by State law and appointed by the Governor to regulate utility rates.) During the week of August 3, we'll publish details of the proposed rates throughout Michigan Bell territory. After that, we'll file the petition with the Commission.

We feel the same way you do about raising rates. We'd rather not have to do it. But, when the quality of your service is in question, we have no alternative.

TODAY'S SITUATION COMPARED WITH 1937

NOTE: Where the term "Income" is used above, its meaning is the same as "Revenue" or "Gross Income." Where the term "Investment" is used, it means the original cost of the telephone property less the depreciation reserve accrued against the ultimate retirement of the property.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixon Warner of Detroit were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Warner for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cork and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Potter for the week-end.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Bolhuis of Muskegon Heights are the parents of a baby boy, named Steven Robert, born July 18.

There will be no evening service at the Barnard Reformed church, Sunday, as Rev. E. C. Dykstra will bring the message at the open air meeting at Ellsworth at 7:45 p. m.

The cooperative Mission Fest which was to have been held at Eastport, July 31, has been postponed until Aug. 7, because of the annual Farm Bureau picnic, which will be held at that time.

NORWOOD

by Mrs. Allan Campbell
Miss Barbara Butler is visiting relatives in Detroit.

Carl Holcebeck of Detroit spent several days last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holcebeck.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and children of Dearborn are vacationing at the Cecil Richardson home.

Guests of the Publows this week were Mr. and Mrs. Will Anderson of Flint who were on their way to the Upper Peninsula and Mr. and Mrs. Max Reniger of Lansing who came for the week-end.

Norwood was well represented at the doings in Charlevoix Sunday. We entered one boat in the beautiful Venetian parade, which did not win a prize—no one thought it should have.

Mr. B. L. Rossett and Mr. N. Shannon spent a few days last week at their homes here.

Tom Wheaton of Petoskey, his two daughters and son of Detroit visited Sunday at the home of Mr. Joe Holcebeck and Mr. Henry Wagner.

Miss Hazel Turner returned to Chicago Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright are visiting the Neil Shannons.

Mrs. Auwaerter gave a cocktail party honoring Mrs. W. Wright and her guests. Other guests at the party were Mrs. B. L. Rossett, Mrs. Neil Shannon and Mr. Auwaerter's sister, Mrs. Cahill.

The W.S.C.S. wish to thank their friends and neighbors for helping to make the ice cream social, given at the town hall, Wednesday evening, such a pleasant affair.

Murray School

Mrs. Grant Furgeson

A family reunion was held at the Grant Furgeson home Sunday. It also celebrated Mr. Furgeson's birthday. A birthday cake and ice cream were served. In the afternoon the family visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hair and Mr. and Mrs. William Hair.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Greers and children are returning to their home in Detroit Monday.

A house warming was held at the new home of Albert Speigl in Bay Shore by his friends in the Murray District. Many gifts were received and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hopper and granddaughter, Joyce, were Sunday dinner guests of Jake Mindels. Other callers were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Moyer and children of Petoskey.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby McGhan visited Mr. and Mrs. William Hair and family Sunday.

Mrs. Jake Mindel opened her home to the Loyal Women's class of the First Christian church of Petoskey.

Camp Charlevoix Boys Win Events At Annual Venetian Night; Cabins Taking Trips

Clashed by a visit to Charlevoix on Venetian Night, Camp Charlevoix passed its busiest week thus far. A group of boys sang a number of sea songs for the crowd of people attending the yearly festivities as has been the custom for several years.

The singing group, led by Phil Steding and Ken Smith sang five songs and then stayed in town for the remaining part of the program.

Camp Sancta Maria came here last week for the first inter-camp meet.

The tennis matches were one sided. The camp team, made up of Dick Taylor, Pat Pfarrer, Ross McDonald and Ned Thomson, had little trouble with their opponents as was the case with the counselors team. The score was Camp Charlevoix 6, Camp Sancta Maria, 0.

In the Senior softball game, Charlevoix was forced to come from behind to win. Led by Digger Garalino, Bill Craig and Joe Laird, all of cabin 16, the home team won 17-13.

Charlevoix won two close meets in the swimming, in both the intermediate and senior brackets. Charlevoix's only loss came in the intermediate group of the safeball competition by a score of 21-9.

On Tuesday, three trips went out. Cabins 16 and 17 made a three day excursion to Wilderness State park, near Mackinaw City. The counselors in charge were Phil Steding and Al Reynolds.

Making the trip from cabin 16 were Digger Garalino, Bill Craig, Bob Eschbach, Ed Montgomery, Palmer Beebe, Joe Laird and Dan Green. From Cabin 17 were Bob Laugherty, Dick Taylor, Pat Pfarrer, Dave Smith, Ned Thomson and Carl Miller.

Also leaving on Tuesday was Cabin 10 under the supervision of Bob Richards. This cabin stayed at Magnus State Park that night and returned to camp Wednesday.

On Thursday, four cabins left for overnights. Jerry Hoeferle's fishermen from cabin 12 went to Lake 28 for a fishing trip. Going out on the same day, Bob Nickerson and Bill McAnich took cabin 14 and 15 to Magnus State Park and returned on Friday.

The Dramatics committee, under the direction of Jerry Hoeferle, once again provided a fine program Saturday night for the campers and several parents that were in camp at the time.

Today, all the camp teams, with the exception of the tennis team will journey to Camp Sancta Maria for a return meeting.

Cowboy Kendall Cummings and his riders are practicing for the rodeo on Aug. 22. Parents and friends are especially invited to camp for this colorful event.

Thirty campers and three counselors spent a wonderful day at historic Mackinac Island Tuesday. This is the special trip for the first 30 boys enrolled for the 1947 season.

A good number of campers are being enrolled for 1948, so they can take the special trip next season.

North Side News

By Marion Elsendrath

Among the major events of the North Side this week was the address which Dr. Louis Mann gave at the Congregational church Sunday.

Another event of some importance, at least to the younger crowd, was the arrival of a new car for Dick Faigan who will attend Yale University in the fall. Another noteworthy event happened to one young man who tangled with a skunk on his way home from a date Thursday night. The usual and unpleasant results followed.

From St. Louis came the T. R. Samuels family, Edward Platt, Wolda Harris, and Lau and John Rothchild. They all plan to stay for about two weeks.

Mrs. Mortimer B. Harris and two of her daughters, Jeannie and Mary arrived Friday morning from Chicago. They are also planning a two week stay.

The James Reis' have added to their household in the last few days. Mr. Reis' daughter, Sue Saenger and her husband, Eugene have arrived with their children and are staying at the Reis home at 308 Dixon Ave.

Some more Cincinnati arrivals are Phyllis Trounstine, Madeline Striker, and Jack Guggenheim. They are all planning to spend a little over a week up here.

To surprise Mrs. Charles Rice on her birthday, her children came up for a few days visit: Kit and John Rice of New York; Bonnie and Jay Rice of St. Louis; and Erna Eisendrath of Chicago.

Jeff Miller has two of his friends from Baltimore visiting him for two weeks: Mae Hecht and Jerry Lowengard. The boys are staying at the Miller's home on Michigan Ave.

There are three vacationers up this week from New Orleans: Claire Hymen and her cousin, Jo L. Weiss and Jo's brother, Dick. They are staying at the Palmer House.

BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

It may be resort season for some, but for those who make the island their home, it's work and plenty of it. Truck owners are busy hauling logs, trucking lumber to the Rambler and delivering slab wood. The mill men are turning out thousands of feet of lumber. Fishermen are making their daily trips. Store keepers are busy taking care of extra trade. The King Strang Hotel is enjoying a very good season. "Make hay while the sun shines" is an old saying, and that's just what the farmers have been doing for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Rolland McCann is in Detroit visiting her son who is a student at the U. of D.

Mrs. William Boyle is visiting her son, Edward in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Thorsen, East Jordan, flew in during the week for a short visit.

Buster and Rita Elms celebrated their 5th wedding anniversary July 23, by stepping out to dinner at the King Strang Hotel.

Thursday afternoon, those of us who could view the harbor were treated with a sight that lovers of the sea would relish. Twelve sail boats glided into the harbor at intervals and tied up at the docks. The craft were from Chicago and were returning to home port after competing in the races from Chicago to Mackinac.

Mrs. Edwin McCann and children are in Charlevoix visiting relatives.

A group from Hilltop Camp near Petoskey spent a couple of days on the island. The girls brought along sleeping bags and slept out under the stars on the beach at Sand Bay.

Mrs. Lawrence Malloy and daughter, Bernadette returned to Chicago with Mr. and Mrs. Art Ryan. The Ryan's two children, who have spent some time with the Malloys, left also and will remain in Chicago with their parents.

The guests at the King Strang Hotel enjoyed a picnic on Garden Island last Wednesday. They were taken to the island in fishing tug owned by Rolland McCann and Joe Gallagher.

Jerry Lockwood's "Gloria Jean" (just a speed boat, folks) came out of hibernation and took the Lockwoods, Bill and Marge Spaulding over to Garden Island for the picnic. Bill and Marge are spending their vacation with Bill's parents.

Buster Elm's father was rushed to Little Traverse Hospital during the week. Mr. Elms came from Little Rock, Ark., to spend the summer with his son. He was here only a short time when he became ill. An operation was performed Saturday morning.

Larry Cull's 21st birthday was celebrated Thursday evening with a beach party at Mike Boyle's beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cuddington and daughter, Daralee, are vacationing on the island.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Tansey, Toledo, Ohio, arrived last Tuesday. The Tanseys have leased McDonough's house and will remain for six months.

Turner Boyle and Jack Gleason, the gravel twins, got pretty warm making their daily hauls on these bright sunny days, but the other day, they both got extra warm, in fact, they began to feel roasted. It was not until a bucket of water was dashed their way, that they discovered the old horse-hair stuffed auto seat on which they were sitting was on fire.

Two groups of boys from Pine View Camp, Torch Lake, have come to the island this week for a stay of three days.

Mrs. J. Pitard and daughter, Kay, arrived Friday. Mrs. Pitard will return to her home in Chicago after a week or two on the island. Kay will remain with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gallagher.

A bake sale to benefit the Altar Society was held Saturday at McDonough's store.

Bernice and Harry Eckler were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Martin.

The monthly meetings of the Third Order of St. Francis was held Sunday in Holy Cross church.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie LaFreniere, Jr., left on Sunday's boat for a short visit in Charlevoix. Frances will visit the dentist while Archie attends the Table Top Convention.

ROCK ELM

By Mrs. A. B. Lawton

Mrs. Julie Gunther and Mrs. Jo Huatt of East Jordan called on Mrs. Lawton Sunday afternoon.

Cherry picking started in the Jensen orchard Tuesday morning. The Porter orchard was given a final pre-harvest spray Friday.

Several from this community attended the burial services conducted at Sunset Hill cemetery in East Jordan last Saturday for Mrs. Susie Flagg, a long time resident of this district, who died quite suddenly at her home in Alden. She is survived by a daughter, two sons and a sister.

Atwood News

By Mrs. Harry Bos

Mr. and Mrs. Si Bos from Grand Rapids, who spent a week in this vicinity visiting relatives left for home Monday morning. They are attending the Maranatha conference in Muskegon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bos accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Si Bos, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bos attended a concert in Bay View Wednesday evening.

Frank Miller, 80, Brother of Europe's Arms King, Dies Here

Frank A. Miller, 80, died Sunday at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mancarelli.

He had lived in Charlevoix at various times during the last four years. The body was taken to Detroit where funeral services were held Wednesday.

Mr. Miller was born in Italy and came to this country more than 50 years ago. He operated a chain of grocery stores in Detroit for many years.

Besides his daughter, he is also survived by four other daughters, Mrs. G. F. Marshall of Charlevoix and Detroit, Mrs. Sam Bren-cato, Mrs. Fred Allenito and Mrs. Joe Fabian, all of Detroit; two sons, Angelo of Flint and Edward of Detroit; and 18 grandchildren.

Mr. Miller was a half-brother to the late Sir Basil Zaharoff, mystery man and munitions king of Europe. The fabulous character, among other things reputedly broke the bank at Monte Carlo and eventually owned the famed gambling place. He also was the power behind almost every political coup in Europe until the time of his death in 1940. For many years he maintained a home in California.

Dr. Mann Lists Obstacles to Peace

The Marshall plan, its sequel, is a blood transfusion from us to the anemic countries of Europe. Its chief virtue is that it puts Russia on the spot before the rest of the world.

Russia is close to us in the atomic race. She is waiting only until her atom strength equals ours. Meanwhile she has 12 million quillions throughout the world.

Same Mistake Twice
Today we are repeating the same tragic error we made by sending iron to Japan. We are sending oil and tools to Russia.

The final great obstacle is godless greed. We could build military housing for 10 million soldiers, but with the war over greed prevents us from putting up the houses we need for our young folks who want to get married.

But Dr. Mann still says he can see hope, at least in the future. Slavery, polygamy, narcotics, piracy—once all approved by society—are now outlawed.

"If the spirit of man will arise, it can bring about all we wish. Only lacking is the will to accomplish."

Children Wonder Where Playmate Is

Carelessness, according to witnesses, is responsible for a couple of youngsters wondering why their accustomed playmate isn't with them any more.

The playmate was Annie Laurie the friendly Scottie belonging to the Pat Hawleys. The two Hawley children are still trying to understand why their dog isn't around any more.

It happened Wednesday at 5 p. m., in front of the Hawley home. The dog started across the street, stopped and looked back. A truck was coming along Dixon avenue, being driven at about 10 miles an hour, according to those who saw it happen.

Apparently the driver was not paying any attention to the street for he hit the dog squarely.

"It could just as easily have been a youngster," was the way one witness sized it up.

REGISTRATION NOTICE
For Special Congressional Election to be held August 26, 1947. To the Qualified Electors of the City of Charlevoix, Michigan: Notice is hereby given that I will be at my office Wednesday, the 6th day of August, 1947, last day for General Registration by personal application for said election, from 8 o'clock a. m. until 8 o'clock p. m., on said day, for the purpose of reviewing the registrations and registering such of the qualified electors in said City as shall properly apply therefor. "Ideas Have Legs" to Be Given At Bay View

A dramatic presentation of democratic ideals and ideas, the Moral Re-Armament play, "Ideas Have Legs" will be presented Friday and Saturday at the Bay View auditorium.

This is the play which the law-makers at Lansing saw at its initial presentation in Grand Rapids and praised as being a needed lesson in applied democracy.

Charlevoix—the Beautiful
Michigan

The Tow Line

News of folks, your neighbors and mine... but did you know that--

As far as is known Mrs. H. B. Jacobs on Bridge Street has the only Century plant in Charlevoix. The plant, some 50 years old, was brought to the Jacobs home 22 years ago by Ed A. Stewart, relative of Mrs. Jacobs. This summer is the third time that the plant has blossomed.

It has been an object of much interest in Charlevoix. "It's too bad I don't know of a bride-to-be," said Mrs. Jacobs. The one huge stalk of blossoms would make a beautiful bouquet. Have you noticed the trailers that are on the streets and going through town this week? "It's hay fever season," one woman said, "and every year at this time, they come up here."

If ever there is a lad who likes living on a farm, it is young Kit Carson, Jr. This is his first summer on one and he thinks it is great. With a saddle horse, a dog, his bike, and a bow and arrow, well, what more could a fellow ask for? His cousin from Iron Mountain has been here sharing the fun of the farm with him. Ray Faulkner spent Friday and Saturday visiting relatives at Cadillac and Alma. Started for Frances Martin's house the other day and blinked my eyes several times as I neared the place, for the big porch that was across the front and along one side of it had suddenly vanished.

"Hm-mm," said an old timer as he stood and looked at the picture of the Council Trees on some of the new Charlevoix stationery. "Heavens, I have been coming up here for more than 40 summers and I've never seen these trees." Whereupon we directed him to Green Sky Hill.

Pellston is supposed to be the coldest spot in Michigan during the winter months and it must rank along side the winter schedule for summer months. Going up that way the other day we discovered that a great deal of the corn was all brown. They had had a heavy frost. Blueberries, turned just mushy when one picked them. What a shame! Lyle Beaudoin of Detroit is spending a week with his family here and with the humid heat of that section, it is surely wonderful to be in Charlevoix this weather.

In the Post Office block the other day noticed cars from Florida, Missouri, Kansas, New Jersey and Nevada. On the Nevada car hung a water bag. A familiar sight out there, but quite uncommon here. The car was empty and we thought the folks must be down looking at Round Lake and Lake Charlevoix, probably the most water they have seen for some time. What cordial folks are the Harry Blocks!

Larry Hagerman and Dick Murphy hitch-hiked from Lansing Saturday and Sunday to visit the Charles Hagerman. Larry has been learning a lot about bees these days for he has been working with them. Plenty of honey-eaters are about the streets and it is no uncommon thing to see "Just Married" on cars as they go down Bridge street. It is fairly routine time and several are being held. Also, it is picnic time and a most enjoyable one was held Sunday at the Frank Milward cottage at Ironton Sunday. The Episcopal women spent a happy time there and enjoyed a real old fashioned dinner with all the trimmings. Isaac DeVoe, a former superintendent of Schools, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Priest. He is spending the summer near Sault Ste. Marie. He now lives at Grand Lodge and is retired.

Ruth Ann Riley reached that golden age of five years last Friday and a party was held on the lake shore for a little group of her friends in honor of the big occasion. There were favors, fun and lots of birthday cake and ice cream. Henry A. Pontius, son of Mrs. Ingma Pontius, is at Camp Hayo-Went-Ha on Torch Lake for four weeks. Talked with a man the other day from New Jersey who said that he had a hobby, a real one. Said it was his town. Well, that is a smart idea. "Make your town your hobby" and things would surely happen. Guess some folks around here are doing that for it grieves them to see paper sacks thrown around, food such as banana peels, thrown on the sidewalks and broken bottles on the beaches. Having a slogan as "Charlevoix the Beautiful" makes one conscious of such things and many complaints have been coming in about the litter and such on the beaches and in the little park on Bridge street.

Summer Festival Will Aid School

The 17th annual Summer Festival of St. Mary's Church will be held again on Aug. 17. This year it will be sponsored by the summer and permanent residents jointly. The affair will begin at 8:30 p. m. Refreshments and games will comprise the evening's entertainment. Present plans call for it to be held in the V. F. W. hall. Funds raised at the Festival will go to St. Mary's School.

Bridge Street Folks Await Traffic Curbs

With two bad car crashes already this summer, and with a youngster narrowly escaping being crushed last week—folks on South Bridge street are anxiously awaiting the promised traffic survey of the State Highway Department and the new controls which will slow down traffic along the "Indianapolis Speedway" as the residents there call it.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haney, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Routsola and daughter, Susan of Lansing, Mrs. Nick Britz of Minneapolis, Ill., Mrs. Eva Votruba of East Jordan were visitors at the home of John and Frank Zeidler Saturday and Sunday.

Families Picnic at Farm Gathering, Hear Program of Music, Address

Pre-School Clinic To Be Held Monday At Health Office

A follow-up clinic for infants and pre-school children will be held at Health Department office at 305 Petoskey ave., on Monday. The hours will be from 1:30 until 3 p. m.

Dr. A. F. Litzenburger and Mrs. Marion Rice will be in charge of the clinic. Children who did not attend the July clinic at the school may attend this one and receive physical examinations and necessary immunizations and vaccinations.

City Band to Give Concert Thursday

The program which the band will give Thursday night will be: Star Spangled Banner, King Knight Errant, Russell Battle Ship Connecticut, Fullon in a Monastery Garden, Ketchum Mafek Heads Up, Tenney Mextall Rose, Shunaker Americanis, Pandella Missouri Waltz, Fred Logan Operatic Mingle, Berry Lights Out March, McCoy

Wisconsin Pastor Will Preach Here

Rev. John C. Van Wyk, pastor of the Alto Reformed church at Waupun, Wis., will have charge of services at the Barnard Reformed church Sunday. Rev. Ellsworth C. Dykstra will be visiting the North Blendon Reformed church, from which he has received a call, on that date. Plans are being made for a special evening service at 8 p. m. Extra music is planned and Rev. Van Wyk will speak. He has held large pastorates in Grand Rapids, Muskegon and his present one in Wisconsin.

Summer Festival Will Aid School

The 17th annual Summer Festival of St. Mary's Church will be held again on Aug. 17. This year it will be sponsored by the summer and permanent residents jointly. The affair will begin at 8:30 p. m. Refreshments and games will comprise the evening's entertainment. Present plans call for it to be held in the V. F. W. hall. Funds raised at the Festival will go to St. Mary's School.

Beaver Island Plans Big Homecoming

The Beaver Island annual Homecoming will take place Sunday. "It's a great day for the island, renewing old friendships and reminiscing over the days gone by. In the morning, there will be a tri-cycle race for the very young and a bicycle race for school age youngsters. The dinner, which has made this event famous, will start at 12:00 o'clock and will continue until everyone is served. The members of the Altar Society are in charge of the dinner assisted by the young ladies of the island. In the afternoon, a swimming race is planned and it's a toss-up between a ball game and a horse race for later in the day. A dance will be held in the Parish Hall in the evening. During intermission, there will be community singing.

Charles Elzinga Wins Trip to State 4-H Show

Charles Elzinga of Birchwood Ranch, won the honor of attending the State 4-H Club Show because of his excellent dairy judging at Gaylord 4-H Club Camp.

Charles will attend the State Show with other delegates who have won that honor in various contests held at Gaylord 4-H Club Camp last week. The date for the State Show is Aug. 26 to 29. Others at Gaylord 4-H Club Camp from Charlevoix were: Evelyn Saunders, Joan Sutton and Jan Fiedler.

Betty Warner, Route 1, Charlevoix, made a special trip to the camp to give a demonstration on making ice box cookies. She can not attend the State Show because she is too young. Delegates must be 14.

Post Office to Set Up Employee Register

Word has been received at the Post Office that an examination is to be held in the near future to establish a Civil Service Clerk-Carrier Register from which to make promotional appointments at the local office.

New Hospital Model In Now On Display

The architect's model of the proposed new Charlevoix Hospital was put on display Monday at Levinson's Store. At the annual meeting last Wednesday the consensus of the 24 present was that the Hospital Association should continue to push the project. Growing need and growing patronage both were cited as definite reasons for obtaining a new building.

Rev. Krach to Preach Here Next Sunday

Rev. H. F. Krach of Petoskey Sunday at 1:30 will preach on "A Passion for Souls" in the Lutheran Church Service in Charlevoix.

The services are held every Sunday at 1:30 in the Community Room of the City Hall. Sunday School begins at 1 p. m.

Foster Tests New Tucker Motor in its Cabin Craft

Harry Foster, president of the Foster Boat Company, watches as a Tucker 150-horse-power opposed aircraft type engine for experimental installation is lowered into a new 26-foot two-cabin cruiser coming off the line in the Foster plant. Foster says the engine is ideally adapted for marine use, being less than 17 inches overall height, weighs approximately 400 pounds and develops full power at 2,000 rpm. He predicted that the Tucker Corporation could make an outstanding success building engines for marine use alone.

Temporary Bridge to Be Opened Soon

Traffic likely will be traveling over the new temporary bridge in two or three weeks, according to the superintendent on the job: Michael Bauer and Gene Fecell. Major job yet remaining to be done is to bring the temporary span across from Sturgeon Bay, lift it into place and rig its pontoon and machinery.

This span, which is 123 feet long will be put together on a scow which was taken across the lake Saturday. Towed back, it will be lifted to the pile supports at either side of the channel.

This bridge will be somewhat of a novelty, a swing bridge carried on a pontoon. At its north-east corner will be a pivot about which it will swing. The north end will rest on a circular track and rollers.

Carrying the south end will be the big new pontoon now floating in Round Lake. When the bridge is in place for traffic, water will be pumped into the pontoon's tanks so that the span will settle firmly on the south piling supports.

When the bridge is to be opened, water will be pumped out until the south end is free. Then an electric winch mounted in the bridge and below the pavement will pull on a steel cable anchored to a clump of piling in Round Lake. When it is to be closed, the winch will pull on another cable anchored on shore west of the bridge.

The trestle and fill are about completed. No surface it to be put on the four inch plank. It is likely that the dirt and gravel fill at each end will be oil treated for dust.

Once the new route is open, work will start on the old bridge at once. It likely will be cut into three sections with torches and the upper part sold for scrap. The 1-beams underneath will be saved and used as temporary supports during construction of the new bascule bridge.

New Super Market, Edwards Food Mart, Will Open Tuesday

Next Tuesday will mark the opening of Charlevoix's new grocery and market, Edwards Food Mart, at Petoskey and Burns.

Designed to be a self-serve super market, the new store is in its own 50 by 60 foot building. Display counters and shelves at the front will hold staple groceries and packaged foods. At the sides and rear will be the refrigerated cases.

One 11 foot open type box will be for dairy products; a similar case will be for vegetables. A 12 foot meat case and a 7 foot frozen food case also will be handy for customers. At the rear of the store will be two walk-in rooms, one for meat and one for vegetables. There also will be low temperature room for storage of meats and frozen foods.

The store will be open from 9 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. The parking space in front has been gravelled and final decorating and other work is now going forward.

Blind—She Misses Visits Over Telephone

A ship-up down in Detroit has caused a lot of unhappiness here. When the new Charlevoix phone book was printed this year by the directory company, by mistake the name of Mrs. Susan Ahgosa was omitted.

Blind and living alone, Mrs. Ahgosa in past years has come to depend on her phone for many friendly visits. Recently she has learned why calls have dropped off. Friends passing through, others who did not recall her phone number didn't find it in the new book—and assumed she no longer had a phone.

She has. The number is 7098-F4.

Boat to Make Two Boyne City Trips

Boyne City barber shop singers have engaged the Mary Margaret for a Lake Charlevoix cruise Friday night. She will leave here at 6 p. m. for Boyne City to pick up the singers, come back here and dock at 9:30. After a stop here she will return to Boyne City, coming back after midnight. The boat will take other passengers. LeRoy Allers says.

Rev. Claypoole New Ministerial Head

Rev. Andy B. Claypoole was elected president of the Charlevoix Ministerial Association at its annual meeting last Tuesday. Rev. E. C. Dykstra is the new vice president and Rev. Gaylord Howell, secretary-treasurer. The meeting was at the Baptist parsonage where Rev. and Mrs. Claypoole entertained the other ministers and their wives at the social hour following the business session.

Mrs. Margaret Schoch is expected to arrive Saturday from Chicago for a week's visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Kling. On her return she will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. William Noll, who has been visiting here for the last six weeks.

Sports Carnival Will Feature Birling, Contests

The program for the first annual Sportsmen's Carnival sponsored by the Rod and Gun Club on Aug. 17, has been announced by J. C. Marshall, general chairman of the event.

William Girard and his troop of log birlers, of Gladstone, will be featured in the evening program, at 7 p. m. in Round Lake off East Park.

The day's program in which sportsmen may participate will open at 9:30 a. m., at the Skeet and Archery range located at the 13th hole of the Charlevoix Golf course.

The skeet shoot will open the day's program and will continue until noon. At 10:30 the archery contest will open on the archery range.

A bait-casting contest at 1:30 in East Park will open the afternoon contest. A wet fly casting contest at 2:30 and dry fly casting at 3:30 will complete the casting contests.

A special program of entertainment including 'mermaid' fishing, canoe races and other water events will follow until 6 p. m. The log birlers will present their exhibition at 7 p. m. and at 8 p. m., prizes for the day's events and the 14 ft. Foster rowboat and Martin 60 offboard motor will be awarded to the winners.

J. C. Marshall, as general chairman, is being assisted by the officers and board of directors: Pete Scott, Bonnie Nickerson, Glenn Pemberton, Don Swinton, Gordon Moeller, Bernie Ward, and Glenn Ingalls. Chairmen of the special events are: archery, John Nordrum; skeet, Gordon Moeller; casting contests, Keith Nickerson.

Heart Attack Fatal To Gilbert Ferris

Gilbert Ferris, 72, retired farmer, died Tuesday at his home following a heart attack. He had been in failing health since 1933.

Mr. Ferris was born in Perry, on June 5, 1875, and came to Eveline township three years later. On June 15, 1896, he was married to Eva Tooley. They continued to live in Eveline township until 1911 when they moved to Hayes township. In 1943 he retired and moved to Charlevoix.

He was a member of the I.O.O.F., had served as township road commissioner and as a director on the Maple Grove school board.

Besides his wife he is survived by a sister, Mrs. John Carroll, of Grand Rapids, and two brothers, Adalbert of Rudyard, and Calvin of Pottsville.

Funeral services will be held at the See Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Thursday with the Rev. W. D. Wood officiating. Burial will be in the Brookside cemetery.

Ship Model to Be Placed In City Park

Charlevoix will have a new tourist attraction in her lake front park before long. The City Council Monday night approved the idea of obtaining the "Victory" model ship of Allie Moore and placing it in the south end of the park pool next to Milton Block's store. It would replace one of the flower beds now there.

The money needed to buy the ship is being raised by popular subscription. S. E. C. Oleson, Board of Commerce secretary, says the ship will be photographed thousands of times each season by city visitors.

Salvation Army Drive Nets $472

The Salvation Army Basic Funds drive ended successfully Aug. 1 with a total of $472.73, raised by volunteer workers, Ralph Hamilton and Mrs. Gordon Freedman, co-chairman, have announced.

Charlevoix's quota was $300.

Coming Events

Aug. 14—Methodist W. S. C. S. baked goods and food sale at Milton Block store.
Aug. 14—Congregational church bazaar.
Aug. 17—Rod and Gun Club's Sportsman's Day.

Speaker Outlines Farm Union Work

Outlining what Farmers Union Cooperatives have done in North Dakota, Glen Talbot of that state spoke for two hours Sunday before the regional picnic of the Farmers Union at Benzonia.

Farm families from all the counties of the northwestern Lower Peninsula attended. Talbot, who is president of the North Dakota Union, with his family flew here in a plane owned by his organization.

A genuine cooperative system, he declared, is the answer to a lot of the farmer's troubles today. As an example from his state, he told how the Union owns a complete petroleum supply system, from the wells to tank truck which delivers it to the farmer.

Everything from the purchase of farm supplies to the sale of farm products is done, and the equipment owned, by the Co-Operative.

The recent session of Congress, he asserted in reviewing recent legislative results, was the worst in our history from the standpoint of farmer and labor.

Sam Martin, president of the Michigan Farmers Union, spoke briefly. The picnic dinner at noon was served in cooperation with the churches of Benzonia and Beulah.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mohr, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Hilton, Arthur Godwin, Mrs. Lena Holland of Potoskey, George Murray of East Jordan, Mr. Wells and Mrs. Murray.

Believes in Promoting Rural Health

Rural health is a great deal more than a discussion topic to the medical doctors of Michigan — it is a vital program that has their fullest support. This is evidenced in many ways, as will be brought out at the Michigan Rural Health Conference which is to be held at Michigan State College, September 18-19. Being one of the sponsors, Michigan doctors of medicine will utilize this Conference to search out the further avenues in which they can most practically enlarge their health services in Michigan's rural areas. This concern of organized medicine, and many other health organizations, with the health improvement of all the people of the State is one of the reasons why Michigan leads the way in health progress.

Better road grip—because of extra anti-skid edges provided by new tread design.

Greater driving safety—because wider tread puts more non-skid surface into contact with road.

Increased blow-out protection—because of air-cooled ventilation of tread channels and buttress wells and because of stronger cord construction.

Longer tire life—because flatter tread puts more rubber into contact with road—newer, tougher, longer-lasting rubber.

Protection against curb bruises and chafing—because of great strength of rugged buttress construction in heavy shoulders.

Still more protection against curb hurts—because of wide butting ring.

Extra cool-running miles—because of new, stronger cord construction.

Backed by Standard Oil Warranty, one of most liberal in tire industry. Unique feature provides immediate adjustment at 38,000 service station dealers' throughout the United States and Canada. Service any time, any place.

of Ellsworth Christian Reformed church officiating

The bride was attended by her sister, Doris, and Gerald Fielstra was his brother's best man. Miss Irene Pettie sang "Always", accompanied by Miss Margaret Blaisie, who also played the wedding music. The couple plan to live at Vance Mission chapel, with Rev. Gerrit A. Lyzenga, pastor

Sandra Richardson Has Birthday Guests

Thirty little friends gathered for a party on July 29 honoring the fifth birthday anniversary of Sandra Richardson. The party, given by her mother, Mrs. Beatrice Richardson, was held on the Archie Balch lawn where the little guests enjoyed games and refreshments served at tables decorated in pastel colors and favors. Little Sandra cut the three-tiered birthday cake. Mrs. Balch and Mrs. Robert Herrington assisted with the party.

Episcopal Parishoners Have Summer Picnic

The parishoners of the Christ Episcopal church held their annual summer picnic at the Iron-ton house of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Milward on Sunday afternoon. More than 50 were present for the pot-luck dinner served on the lawn. Entertainment included swimming, boat races and canoeing.

Rev. and Mrs. G.T. Courtenay, of Petoskey, and Rev. John Coolidge, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., summer pastor at the church were among those present.Separated From Owners, Briar Dies Quietly

Briar is dead. Briar was the beautiful air-dale, 12 years old, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Don Coney and a familiar figure on the streets of Charlevoix.

This summer while the Coneys were living in an apartment, the dog was kept at Dr. Pray's home at Petoskey. He had one favorite spot in the yard. It was here that he was found dead Monday. This spot became his permanent resting place.

CARD OF THANKS

We are deeply grateful to our many friends and neighbors for their kind expressions of sympathy at the death of our mother. The Harold Taylor family.

Mrs. Beeman Passes After Long Illness

Mrs. Ada E. Beeman, 70, retired dressmaker and widow of the late Dr. George W. Beeman, died Wednesday at the home of her sister, Miss Minnie Cooper. She had been in failing health for several years.

Born in Ann Arbor on Jan. 7, 1868, Ada E. Cooper came to Charlevoix about 1880. She was married to Dr. Beeman in 1889. They lived in Detroit and other southern Michigan cities. After his death in 1909 she returned here to make her home. She was a dressmaker for many years, retiring a few years ago because of ill health.

She was a member of the Charlevoix chapter, O. E. S., the Shakespeare Club, the Methodist church and had always been active in church circles.

Funeral services were held at the See Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Friday with Rev. Gaylord Howell officiating. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

Overnight Trips, Sports Meets, Fishing Keep Camp Charlevoix Boys Busy During Week

For the most part of the week, the camp was half empty with eight cabins out on two and three day trips.

The week's program began with a return meeting with Camp Santa Maria in three sports. With Santa Maria as host, Charlevoix lost the senior softball game, but won the intermediate game. In the swimming, the combined groups of intermediates and seniors piled up the most points to give Charlevoix enough points to emerge the winning camp of the afternoon.

Early Tuesday morning, Chief Reimann accompanied by two counselors, Keith Jolliffe and Bruce Linderholm, took the first 30 boys that were signed up to come to camp for this season to Mackinac Island for the day.

JOSEPH R. WILLIAMS

The party spent the day touring the island and were taken through the famous Grand Hotel by friends of one of the counselors.

Also on Tuesday, Phil Steding's cabin No. 16 set out on a three-day sailing trip on the lake. Assisting Phil was Ian Wilson, sailing instructor. The outfit encountered extremely windy weather on only one of the three days.

Cabin 13 with Bud Gallup in charge left the same day for an overnight canoe trip across the lake, but they were unable to return by the same route, because of the same windy weather that the sailing trip found.

John Pielmeier's cabin 9 journeyed to Magnus State Park for the one night.

Wednesday, saw three trips leave camp. John Ellsworth took cabin 12 to Wilderness State Park. They came back on Friday. Also leaving camp the same day were Bill Reed and Jim Kendall, who went to Magnus with their cabins, 8 and 0.

For the boys in camp on Wednesday evening, there was a scavenger hunt for numbered pieces of cardboard scattered over the camp property.

On Thursday and Friday, two junior cabins, 4 and 5 went to Susan lake on a brief fishing trip.

On Friday afternoon, Camp Charlevoix broke even in six events with Camp Hay-O-Went-It. The visiting camp from Torch Lake won riflery and both the intermediate and senior softball games. The home boys were able to come through in archery, tennis and sailing.

Probably the best event of the afternoon was the No. 1 tennis match with the best campers playing. Dick Taylor, playing for Charlevoix, was forced to come from behind to beat his opponent in a one set match, 7-5.

Taylor had been unable to play all week because of an infected foot, but he was able to pull his game up to upset his favored adversary.

In the other tennis matches, Charlevoix won points with Bob Richards and Don Bacon winning both their singles and then combining to win the doubles.

In the archery, Jim Fitzpatrick was the standout which enabled the home team to score the most points. In the sailing, David Ball was the outstanding skipper for Charlevoix.

Saturday night was passed with more short plays presented by the dramatics committee with both counselors and campers participating.

On Sunday afternoon, a softball team from Charlevoix visited the camp and had no trouble in beating a team made up of staff members, 14-3. It was the first time that the counselors had played together as a team which in part accounted for the defeat. Poor hitting was another factor.

Coach Bill McAnich has scheduled several practice sessions for this week in hopes of beating the visiting team in a return engagement on a future date.

Plans are being made for the annual camp rodeo which is to be held on Aug. 22, by Chief Reimann. It is hoped that many of the parents will be here to witness the event.

Deadline On G.I. Insurance Is Jan. 1

Extension of the deadline for reinstating National Service (GI) Life Insurance without a physical examination to Jan. 1, 1948, will effect approximately 350,000 Michigan veterans of World War II. The original deadline was Aug. 1.

Gen. Omar Bradley ordered the extension as the Aug. 1 deadline neared and records showed that hundreds of thousands of veterans had failed to take advantage of the liberal reinstatement plan. Under this plan every former policy holder has until the end of the year to take advantage of picking up his government insurance by simply certifying he is in as good health as he was at the time of lapse and paying only two monthly premiums.

Ragweed Pollen Is Reported At Gaylord

First ragweed pollen reported by the State Department of Health comes from Gaylord where 15 grains per cubic yard of air were recorded July 26.

Charlevoix naturally had no pollen to report.

The fact that Gaylord recorded pollen before Lansing or other southern places shows that Northern Michigan is enjoying better weather this summer of topsy-turvy climate than the section further south.

Mrs. Belle Taylor Passes Suddenly

Mrs. Belle Taylor, 63, widow of Charles Taylor, died unexpectedly at her home Friday morning. Funeral services were held at the See Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Monday with Rev. W. D. Wood officiating. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

Belle McFarland was born in Charlevoix on June 25, 1884, and spent her entire life in this community. In 1906 she was married to Mr. Taylor, employee of the Pere Marquette railroad for many years, who died on Jan. 21, 1940.

She is survived by a son, Harold; a daughter, Mrs. Edna St. Charles, and her mother, Mrs. Mary McFarland, all of this city; two brothers, Charles of Detroit, and Franklin of Charlevoix; two sisters, Mrs. Gerald Lowing of Ferndale and Mrs. Milton Block, of this city and six grandchildren.

Gennett Family Has Reunion Sunday

The Gennett family held a reunion at the home of William Gennett, 12 miles north of Traverse City, on Sunday with 84 members attending.

Those from Charlevoix who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Plenny Gennett, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gennett and family, Mr. and Mrs. Colon McKenzie and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Richardson.

Belvedere News

By Sally Bagby
The Belvedere Yacht Club staged its first race of the season with the club boats Sunday.
The course was laid out in the north end of Lake Charlevoix, with the finish line directly off the Belvedere bathing beach. Five boats entered the race, and Bob Brebner and George Shwab of the Belvedere Yacht Club were victorious. The skipper and crew, in the order in which they finished the race were Dave Replogle and Sam Pingree; Joe Sherer and Sam Sherer; Gordon Ware and Ann Sherer; Phil Peters and Glenn Allen; and Dave Jones and Cary Lee Martin. An informal meeting of the participants in the race was held after the event at the Shwab cottage. Races are scheduled to take place next Saturday and Sunday.

A baseball game between the North Side and the Belvedere also was played Sunday on the old field outside of the Belvedere Club grounds. The Belvedere residents won 8 to 4. George Blahce served as umpire. Dave Replogle pitched for the Belvedere. This game has become almost an annual event, with the victory see-sawing back and forth between the two teams. The players for the Belvedere Club were: Dave Replogle, Joe Sherer, Jack Hayes, Bobby Leatherman, John Martin, Hugh Cross, Gordon Ware, Jack Barbara, Jack Geiken, and Phil Geier.

Several exhibition tennis matches were played on the Belvedere courts Friday. Al Reynolds of Camp Charlevoix, star player of Michigan State College defeated Bobby Leatherman of the Belvedere 6-1, 6-3 in his first encounter. Jack Gelken of the Belvedere and Al Reynolds played a doubles match with Bill Walker of East Jordan and John Martin of the Belvedere. The two sets played were split 6-3, 4-6. In his next game, Al Reynolds defeated Bill Walker by a score of 6-4.
Several families have come to the Belvedere for the remainder of the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe Tramel of Evanston, Ill., have opened their cottage, and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Leland of St. Louis have arrived. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Donahue of Chicago, who were here earlier in the season, have returned with their family. R. V. Clark also has returned.
Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Strain and their daughters, Jeanette and Joan have returned to their home in Lincoln, Neb.
Several families have been entertaining house guests here during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jones, Jr., and their two sons have been visiting his parents. David Jones and his fiancée, Cary Lee Martin also have been spending a few days at the Homer Jones, Sr.'s cottage. Rosemarie Fitzgerald, who was visiting Barbara Lee, left for Chicago July 31.

North Side News

By Marlon Eisendrath

A new event was added to the usual tennis and water activities this week and it was so successful that it will probably become a permanent affair. This was the sailing race held last Monday for any boat that wished to enter. The course was from Loeb's point to Oyster Bay and then back again to Two Mile point with a final tack across the starting line.
With the beginning of August came a host of new arrivals. . . among them Daney Saperston of Buffalo, Margo Hess of Baltimore, Jean Hirsch and Pam Weiler also of Baltimore.
The Richard Lowenstein's have a house guest for the next week from Chicago. . . Ted Bensinger, Jr. He was one of a whole crowd of Chicagoans to come up for the week-end. Among them were Arnold Horween, Jr., David Heller, Alfred Bernheimer and Frank Eisendrath. Other Chicago arrivals were Joseph Grenebaum and Claire Pfaelzer.
The departure of the following people will be noticed by their friends here: Ted and Barbara Speigel and John Strauss left Monday for Chicago; Joe Sommer departed for Columbus but will return for Labor Day week-end.
From Cincinnati came Sue Block and her fiancée Bud Strauss. They are planning to stay a little over a week.
Visiting the Fred Fecheimer's this week was Mrs. Fitch who is planning to spend about a month up here.

CHARLEVOIX COURIER

The Independent weekly paper published by Lawrence E. and ElDean Towle at Charlevoix, the Beautiful, the County Seat of Charlevoix County, Michigan

Entered as second-class matter Dec. 10, 1895, at the Post Office at Charlevoix, Mich. under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Let's Put On A Show

Three weeks from now Charlevoix will be putting on one of its big summer events—the Barber Shop Jamboree.

Attracting singers and listeners from the Middle West, it is a natural event for the Labor Day Week-end.

One thing has been suggested as good preliminary promotion. It is that the businessmen of town wear detachable handle bar Moustaches for the week preceding.

It is a smart suggestion. True, they likely would feel foolish the first morning but few things they could do would bring more favorable attention to Charlevoix or in a larger degree help promote the Jamboree.

I know of a small city which puts on a rodeo each summer. For three weeks before it, every businessman in town wears levi pants, fancy cowboy shirt, bandana neckkerchief and cowboy boots. That simple act of dressing differently gives the place a different air and is rated as one of the best pieces of promotion used.

Not So Good In All Ways

There are those who always are mourning for the good days that have gone by. Recently I received a letter from a good newspaper friend of mine—a man well up in his eighties and one whose opinion I respect. Wrote he:

"...not enough work is bad, very bad, but I think that things are better for everybody now, with shorter hours of work and better pay all around. I'm old enough to know what times were like for many years after the Civil War, and anybody who remembers those times as 'the good old days' is plain nuts."

Kay McDonough Gives Recital On 11th Birthday

Kay McDonough of St. James and a pupil of Mrs. Russell Palmer, presented a musical program at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Palmer the evening of July 31.

Her program included piano selections by Beethoven, Mendelssohn, Heller and Tchaikowski. Two of the outstanding numbers were Mendelssohn's Consolation and Beethoven's Fur Elise. The Fairies, sung by her fellow students, was accompanied by Kay at the piano.

There was a playlet, "To A Wild Rose—Edward McDowell played by Kay; Mrs. McDowell by Eleanor Gallagher; the maid by Rosie McDonough.

Other musicians included Mrs. O. C. Wright, F. L. Spaulding, Bettie Morgan, Mark Baird, Mrs. Arthur Miller, Dorothy McCann, Janet Gallagher, Grace Marie McCann and members of the ladies choir.

Mrs. Palmer presented Kay with a bouquet of giant white mums in celebration of her musical debut and her 11th birthday.

Refreshments were served to 35 guests.

A Letter to Mr. Potter

Dear Mr. Potter:

In the last issue of The Courier the story on the results of the primary election said: "Playing on the sympathy angle and backed by a whirlwind campaign in his own county, Charles E. Potter was nominated..."

Some veterans here, I have since learned, feel that this was a direct slap at you as a veteran and your Army record.

May I assure you that it was intended as neither. Your service record is a notable one and speaks for itself. For the loss of both legs in line of duty you deserve and should have the respect of your fellow citizens.

The overwhelming vote given you by your home county shows in what regard you are held by those who know you best.

I again assure you that no slur on your ability nor on your service record was intended by the news story, and if any of The Courier's readers took it as so intended, I sincerely regret the fact.

Yours very truly,
L. E. TOWLE.

Letter To the Editor

Dear Mr. Editor:

I would like to make a suggestion in regard to our dump mon.

He always greets you with a friendly "hello", and is always willing to help you unload your refuse.

I think he should be rewarded by the citizens of our community by a little ten or fifteen cent tip.

He is certainly doing a good job of a job no one wants, and that would be a nice gesture on our part to show our appreciation, as I don't imagine his salary brings him into the upper brackets.

RUSS DUNDAS,
Grey Gables.

Atwood News

By Mrs. Harry Bos

Mr. and Mrs. Sambert Zyestra from Zeeland are visiting at the Nicholas DeYoung home. Also at the DeYoung home are Mr. and Mrs. Reusch and children from South Dakota. Mrs. Reusch is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. DeYoung.

Ed Hockema and family from Harvey, Ill., are vacationing at the Jake Hockema home.

The Grady Pettey family from Detroit and the Andrew Pettey family from Southern Michigan were called to the family home here by the serious illness of Mrs. John Pettey. Saturday morning Mrs. Pettey passed away. She was 79 years of age. The funeral was Tuesday afternoon at the Atwood Christian Reformed church with interment at the Atwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Wesley Veenstro is week ending in Moline, Mich. and will visit with the Paul Veenstras and the little new granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden from Fendale spent a few days at the Pageau home.

Mannes Brink from Iowa called on friends in this vicinity Tuesday. Mr. Brink was a former Atwood resident who left here 35 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Zylstra, Mr. and Mrs. Berg and Mr. Nick Jacobsma and family called on friends in Atwood on Wednesday. They all are from Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bos and daughter, Barbara spent several days at the John Bos home.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Yonker and family from Chicago called at the Harry Bos home Sunday. They are vacationing at the Blue Haven resort. Mrs. Yonker is a sister to Mrs. Bos.

BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Before a storm, there's always a calm. That's the way it has been on the Island this past week. A calm before the deluge of visitors expected to arrive for the August dinner. Generally, every house on the Island is booked solid for the week previous and the week following the big Home Coming.

Kay McDonough's recital highlighted the week's activities. The affair was lovely in every respect. Kay will go far in music.

What is sweeter than a junior miss in her first formal? Kay McDonough, Janet Gallagher and Grace Marie McCann wore their first formal at the recital and they were adorable.

Otto Kostner and Barbara Nagel from Minnesota are visiting the Herman Pischners.

Jack Lyons has bought the George Wood's home on the Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Greg Smith and son of Boyne City arrived Friday to visit Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher.

Catherine Marie Schmidt is vacationing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Schmidt.

At the Bridge Phone 565

Grand Rapids, are the guests of Mrs. Bonner and Grace Logan.

Mrs. Giles McCann and children are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gallagher.

Vernon LaFreniere, "Harbor Master" on the Island, is all decked out in an unusual uniform to meet the North Shore each day. His outfit, unlike Joe Howard's sedate navy blue, is blazing with color. Here's the picture: fire engine red shirt, trousers of various colors (according to his moods) and an army officers cap jauntily tipped to an angle towards the right ear. His shoe strings, strange to say are a conservative black.

Mrs. Carl Erber and children, Charlevoix, arrived Friday to spend a while in their new log house on Sand Bay.

There are no more step sitters in front of LaFreniere's store. Pat and Buzzie have bought the two long benches from off the North Shore and placed them on either side of the store's door. Now, those who have time to sit awhile and chat in the heart of town, can do so in comfort.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Wright are spending a week in Petoskey visiting Mrs. Wright's sister.

Mary Ann Tick is the guest of Gladys Carpenter.

Mrs. Bob Maxwell and daughter, Bonnie of Chicago arrived Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Connaghan.

Making up a congenial party were Mrs. William Welke and son, Charles, Walled Lake, Arthur and Ralph Oberle, Marlette; Mrs. Patrick O'Reilly and daughters, Kay and Peggy, Twin Beach; Marvin Guntzville and Mary Whistle, Novi. They spent a week at Christie Gallagher's cottage on Trail Rd.

Mrs. Welke and Charles were entertained on the day of their departure by Mel Gallagher.

Joe Minogue, Chicago, is spending his vacation at the home of his uncle and aunt, Frank and Mel Gallagher.

Mrs. Rolland McCann and Rolland, Jr., returned Saturday from Detroit. Frank Baker and Bill Sheehan, Detroit, returned with them to be their guests for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen arrived Saturday with five of their youngsters and two llankeys. They flew to the Island from Charlevoix and since it was the first plane ride for all the children, they were an excited bunch.
